AN ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

MY JESUS, I believe that YOU are present in the MOST HOLY SACRAMENT.

I love YOU above all things,
and I desire to receive YOU into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment
receive YOU sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace YOU as if YOU were already there and unite myself wholly to YOU.

Never permit me to be separated from YOU.

AMEN.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Friends,

Today we celebrate the Fourth Sunday of Easter which is traditionally known as Good Shepherd Sunday and World Day of Prayer for Vocations. This day is always close to my heart because of the time I served as Vocations Director for the Archdiocese. As Catholics, we should pray for vocations to the priesthood and religious life every single day. On Good Shepherd Sunday, we pray in particular for vocations to the priesthood because the Lord himself has promised to send us good shepherds after his own heart.

This year praying for vocations takes on greater urgency because of the Coronavirus Pandemic. We have lost so many heroic priests around the world to COVID-19. In Italy alone, 109 priests have died from the virus, and that figure is outdated because it was taken from April 15. We still do not know how high the number is around the world. So now we see the urgency in praying for vocations because we know all too well that priests cannot be easily replaced.

This pandemic has also sidelined many elderly priests who may still have to stay out home once we open the church for public Masses again. These elderly priests are at high risk, and we want them to continue exercising their priestly ministry once all of this is over. Two weeks ago, I received word of an elderly Franciscan priest I have known for many years who died in his retirement home in New Jersey. He was not active because of other health issues, but the thought of losing him to this virus was still heartbreaking. Every life is precious, and my heart breaks for anyone who dies and for the family members of those who die because they cannot be with their loved ones if they die in a hospital. Same is true for priests. This Franciscan friar was tended to by members of his old youth group who are now middle aged and in the medical field and helplessly watched him slip away from afar.

The Lord will send us shepherds which is why we must be fervent in our prayers. We must pray for a resurgence of vocations in Italy and in our country as well. We must pray that young men may courageously respond to the call to be a priest. We must pray for our seminarians who despite this pandemic have been faithfully continuing their studies and formation in our two seminaries.

And we, your priests also ask for your prayers. In the coming days, Father Flores and I will be celebrating our anniversaries of ordination. On May 13th, Father Flores celebrates his 3rd anniversary. On May 11th, I celebrate my 18th anniversary. I have written and preached about this over the last two months: it has not been easy for us preaching into a camera and celebrating Mass in an empty church during this lockdown. We yearn to celebrate the sacraments with all of you, and we pray that will happen very soon. When we were ordained, we could not even conceive of this reality that we have been living. Yet we trust that this will be the beginning of a springtime of vocations in our Church.

So, on this Good Shepherd Sunday, pray for vocations. Pray for the priests who have been lost during this crisis and pray particularly for the faith communities who have experienced the loss of a shepherd. We turn to Christ, our Good Shepherd to lead us to restful pastures, and as we begin this month dedicated to our Blessed Mother, we pray to the Virgin Mary, the mother of all priests, to help us to always say yes to her Son.

God Bless You All,

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PARROCO

Mis Queridos Amigos,

Hoy celebramos el Cuarto Domingo de Pascua, que tradicionalmente se conoce como Domingo del Buen Pastor y Día Mundial de Oración por las Vocaciones. Este día siempre está cerca de mi corazón por el tiempo que serví como Director de Vocaciones para la Arquidiócesis. Como católicos, debemos orar por las vocaciones al sacerdocio y a la vida religiosa todos los días. El domingo del Buen Pastor, oramos en particular por las vocaciones al sacerdocio porque el Señor mismo ha prometido enviarnos buenos pastores según su agrado.

Este año el orar por vocaciones es de una urgencia más grande debido a la pandemia del Coronavirus. Hemos perdido tantos sacerdotes heroicos en todo el mundo por COVID-19. Solamente en Italia, 109 sacerdotes han muerto por el virus, y esa cifra está desactualizada porque se tomó del 15 de abril. Todavía no sabemos qué tan alto es el número en todo el mundo. Así que ahora vemos la urgencia de orar por las vocaciones porque sabemos muy bien que los sacerdotes no pueden ser reemplazados fácilmente.

Esta pandemia también ha dejado de lado a muchos sacerdotes ancianos que aún deben quedarse en casa una vez que abramos las iglesias nuevamente para misas públicas. Estos sacerdotes ancianos están en alto riesgo, y queremos que continúen ejerciendo su ministerio sacerdotal una vez que todo esto haya terminado. Hace dos semanas recibí la noticia de un anciano sacerdote franciscano que conozco desde hace muchos años que murió en su casa de retiro en New Jersey. No estaba activo debido a otros problemas de salud, pero la idea de perderlo por este virus siguió siendo desgarradora. Cada vida es preciada, y mi corazón se rompe por cualquiera que muera y por los miembros de la familia de quienes mueren porque no pueden estar con sus seres queridos si mueren en un hospital. Lo mismo es cierto para los sacerdotes. Este fraile franciscano fue atendido por miembros de su antiguo grupo de jóvenes que ahora son de mediana edad y en el campo de la medicina y se vieron impotentes mientras se les escurría de esta vida.

El Señor nos enviará pastores, por eso debemos ser fervientes en nuestras oraciones. Debemos rezar por un resurgimiento de vocaciones en Italia y también en nuestro país. Debemos rezar para que los hombres jóvenes puedan responder valientemente al llamado a ser sacerdotes. Debemos rezar por nuestros seminaristas que a pesar de esta pandemia han continuado fielmente sus estudios y formación en nuestros dos seminarios.

Y nosotros, sus sacerdotes, también pedimos sus oraciones. En los próximos días, el Padre Flores y yo celebraremos nuestros aniversarios de ordenación. El 13 de mayo, el Padre Flores celebra su 3er aniversario. El 11 de mayo, celebro mi 18 aniversario. He escrito y predicado sobre esto en los últimos dos meses: no ha sido fácil para nosotros predicar en una cámara y celebrar la misa en una iglesia vacía durante este encierro. Anhelamos celebrar los sacramentos con todos ustedes, y rezamos para que suceda muy pronto. Cuando fuimos ordenados, ni siquiera podíamos concebir esta realidad que hemos estado viviendo. Sin embargo, confiamos en que este será el comienzo de una primavera de vocaciones en nuestra Iglesia.

Entonces, en este Domingo del Buen Pastor, oren por vocaciones. Oren por los sacerdotes que hemos perdido durante esta crisis y oren especialmente por las comunidades de fe que han experimentado la pérdida de un pastor. Nos volvemos a Cristo, nuestro Buen Pastor para guiarnos hacia pastos tranquilos, y al comenzar este mes dedicado a nuestra Santísima Madre, rezamos a la Virgen María, la madre de todos los sacerdotes, para que nos ayude a decir siempre que sí a su Hijo.

Que Dios Los Bendiga,
