FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Little Flower Family,

Since This coming Thursday, I will be taking over a dozen young people from our parish to the annual March for Life in Washington, D.C. This is the sixth year that I have had the honor to be the spiritual director for the Archdiocesan youth delegation to our nation's capital. Over 150 youth and young adults from the Archdiocese will be making the pilgrimage. These kids from our parish deserve our praise and then some. They deserve our admiration because they stand up for life at their young age when society ridicules them for their beliefs and tries to impress upon them that life is not precious. St. John Paul II rightfully warned us about the culture of death, and we are seeing the fruits of this culture when the unborn are discarded as an afterthought and celebrities celebrate this "choice." There is a reason that the devil is called the father of lies, and we have seen the hand of the evil one when a child is reduced to a choice.

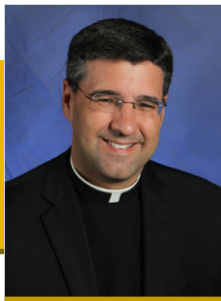

I am often asked by people who can't make it to the March in Washington, "Father, what can I do to spiritually support the pilgrims from here?" The first thing is prayer. We must flood the heavens with prayer to start changing hearts and minds towards upholding the sanctity of life. The second thing is fasting. This coming Wednesday, January 22 is the 47th anniversary of the Roe v. Wade decision that legalized abortion in our country. The General Instruction of the Roman Missal, no. 373, designates January 22 as a particular day of prayer and penance, called the "Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children": "In all the Dioceses of the United States of America, January 22 shall be observed as a particular day of prayer for the full restoration of the legal guarantee of the right to life and of penance for violations to the dignity of the human person committed through acts of abortion." All our Masses celebrated that day will be for the defense of life and our priests are asked to wear purple as a liturgical vestment since it is a penitential color. Our bishops also recommend that we fast in reparation for this grave societal sin. Saying the rosary as a family on this day and making a visit to the Blessed Sacrament are also good options.

Two more options: St. John Vianney College Seminary always hosts a yearly "Walk for Life" on the seminary grounds during this time. This year the walk will take place on Saturday, February 1st. They begin with Holy Mass at 9am in the seminary chapel followed by Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and a Procession which leads to the actual walk around the seminary grounds. Finally, I invite you to visit www.9daysforlife.com to pray a novena and find other resources and activities that we can all do around this time. The novena is from January 21-29 and this website has resources of prayers we can say and intentions we can offer.

During these days, I ask for your prayers for these young pilgrims who will be traveling to Washington. I am always in awe by the witness of hundreds of thousands of young people who go every year to stand up for life. Sadly, this impressive gathering of people who raise their voices for the voiceless gathers little to no media attention. But these kids have our attention because of their witness to life. May our Lady of Guadalupe protect them on their journey, and may she protect every child in the womb and every mother who has been blessed with the precious gift of life.

God bless you all,

DEL ESCRITORIO DE NUESTRO PARROCO

Mi Querida Familia de Santa Teresita,

El próximo jueves, llevaré a más de una docena de jóvenes de nuestra parroquia a la Marcha anual por la Vida en Washington, DC. Este es el sexto año que he tenido el honor de ser el director espiritual de la delegación juvenil arquidiocesana a la capital de nuestra nación. Más de 150 jóvenes y adultos jóvenes de la Arquidiócesis harán la peregrinación. Estos jóvenes de nuestra parroquia merecen nuestros elogios y algo más. Se merecen nuestra admiración porque defienden la vida a su corta edad cuando la sociedad los ridiculiza por sus creencias y trata de inculcarles que la vida no es preciosa. San Juan Pablo II nos advirtió legítimamente sobre la cultura de la muerte, y estamos viendo los frutos de esta cultura cuando los no nacidos se descartan como una ocurrencia tardía y las celebridades celebran esta "elección". Hay una razón por la que el demonio se llama el padre de mentiras, y hemos visto la mano del maligno cuando un niño es reducido a una elección.

A menudo me preguntan personas que no pueden asistir a la Marcha en Washington: "Padre, ¿qué puedo hacer para apoyar espiritualmente a los peregrinos desde aquí?" Lo primero es la oración. Debemos inundar los cielos con oración para comenzar a cambiar los corazones y las mentes para defender la santidad de la vida. Lo segundo es el ayuno. El próximo miércoles 22 de enero es el 47 aniversario de la decisión de Roe v. Wade que legalizó el aborto en nuestro país. La Instrucción General del Misal Romano, no. 373, designa el 22 de enero como un día particular de oración y penitencia, llamado el "Día de Oración por la Protección Legal de los Niños No Nacidos": "En todas las Diócesis de los Estados Unidos de América, el 22 de enero se observará como un día en particular de oración por el restablecimiento completo de la garantía legal del derecho a la vida y de penitencia por violaciones a la dignidad de la persona humana cometida a través de actos de aborto." Todas nuestras misas celebradas ese día serán para la defensa de la vida y se les pide a nuestros sacerdotes que usen púrpura como vestimenta litúrgica, ya que es un color penitencial. Nuestros obispos también recomiendan que ayunemos en reparación por este grave pecado social. Rezar el rosario como familia en este día y hacer una visita al Santísimo Sacramento también son buenas opciones.

Dos opciones más: el Seminario de St. John Vianney College siempre organiza anualmente un "Caminata por la Vida" en los terrenos del seminario durante este tiempo. Este año la caminata tendrá lugar el sábado 1 de febrero. Comienzan con la Santa Misa a las 9 de la mañana en la capilla del seminario, seguida de la Exposición del Santísimo Sacramento y una Procesión que lleva la caminata actual por los terrenos del seminario. Finalmente, los invito a visitar www.9daysforlife.com para rezar una novena y encontrar otros recursos y actividades que todos podamos hacer en este momento. La novena es del 21 al 29 de enero y este sitio web tiene recursos de oraciones que podemos decir e intenciones que podemos ofrecer.

Durante estos días, pido sus oraciones por estos jóvenes peregrinos que viajarán a Washington. Siempre me asombra el testimonio de cientos de miles de jóvenes que acuden cada año para defender la vida. Lamentablemente, esta reunión impresionante de personas que alzan la voz por los que no tienen voz atrae poca o ninguna atención de los medios sociales. Pero estos niños tienen nuestra atención por su testimonio a la vida. Que nuestra Señora de Guadalupe los proteja en su viaje, y que proteja a todos los niños en el útero y a todas las madres que han sido bendecidas con el precioso regalo de la vida.

Que Dios los bendiga a todos,

How the “Gloria” teaches us to sing with love, according to Pope Benedict XVI

At the beginning of each Sunday Mass, Catholics typically sing (or recite) the “Gloria,” using verses taken directly out of the Gospel of St. Luke. It begins with the words of the angels who glorified God when Jesus was born, “Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests” (Luke 2:14).

It is an angelic hymn, one that has been lifted up as the “perfect” song of praise, as it derives directly from angels who are always in the presence of God.

In reflecting on this heavenly hymn, Pope Benedict XVI saw it as an example of music that comes from a heart full of love. He explained his thoughts about the Gloria in a homily for Midnight Mass in 2010.

Saint Luke does not say that the angels sang. He states quite soberly: the heavenly host praised God and said: “Glory to God in the highest” (Lk 2:13f.). But men have always known that the speech of angels is different from human speech, and that above all on this night of joyful proclamation it was in song that they extolled God’s heavenly glory. So this angelic song has been recognized from the earliest days as music proceeding from God, indeed, as an invitation to join in the singing with hearts filled with joy at the fact that we are loved by God.

Unfortunately, often when we sing the Gloria, it is not with a heart “filled with joy.” Instead, we sing out of habit and do so without ever thinking about the words we say.

Pope Benedict would like us to reexamine our motivation and to sing with both joy and love.

Cantare amantis est, says Saint Augustine: singing belongs to one who loves. Thus, down the centuries, the angels’ song has again and again become a song of love and joy, a song of those who love. At this hour, full of thankfulness, we join in the singing of all the centuries, singing that unites heaven and earth, angels and men. Yes, indeed, we praise you for your glory. We praise you for your love. Grant that we may join with you in love more and more and thus become people of peace.

The Church, in her wisdom, refrains from singing the Gloria during Advent and Lent, reserving it for the feasts that these two penitential seasons prepare for. This helps us on a natural level to prepare our hearts to sing the Gloria loudly, with great joy and love, when we are allowed to sing it again. It makes Christmas even more special, as the entire Church explodes in jubilant praise.

This Christmas, let us reflect on our own hearts as we sing the Gloria and try to be joyful, allowing the song to be a response of love, to the God who loved us first.
