FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Friends,

Each year, we receive a call, an invitation to help the poor through the Archbishop's Charity and Development Drive. As Catholics, helping those in need is a primary part of our baptismal calling. Through our contributions to the ABCD, and to our parish throughout the year, we help the mission of the Church to aid the poorest among us and to help proclaim the gospel.

Fourteen years ago, I served the Archdiocese as its Vocations Director. It was my job to help recruit young men to enter seminary to study to be priests and then shepherd them, as the Archbishop would tell me, through the hard work of seminary. It was a very rewarding ministry. Seeing some of these young men who I recruited serve now as priests, including our own Father Flores, is seeing the hand of God at work in the life of the Church. Their formation and their vocations were nurtured not only by your prayers but also by your generosity over the years to the annual ABCD campaign. We are educating the priests that will one day serve us, administer the sacraments to us, absolve us, anoint us, and most importantly, make Christ present in the Eucharist for us.

So many individuals are touched by this campaign: the elderly in our assisted care facilities, retired priests and religious who served us for so many years and our now in failing health, children in early childhood programs, mothers and fathers who seek help in our Respect Life centers, our seminarians, and so many more. We rely on your help to keep assisting all these important charities.

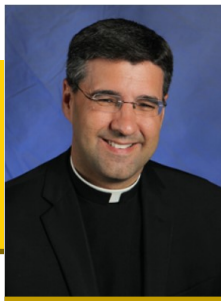

We have been blessed here at Little Flower and you have been so extremely generous over the years. This year our goal is $331,603. We were able to surpass our goal last year, and I am confident that we will surpass it again as we share the gifts that God has given us with the poorest among us.

I thank you in advance for your generosity to the ABCD, and I thank all those parishioners who have already responded to the Archbishop's letter sent to your homes earlier this month. Together we are doing God's work in helping promote the Gospel and assistance those in need.

Also, this Sunday, the Third Sunday of Ordinary Time, Pope Francis has designated a special day devoted to "the celebration, study and dissemination of the Word of God" or more simply: "The Sunday of the Word of God." Sacred Scripture is invaluable to us as Christians. Our Holy Father reminds us that there is an unbreakable bond between the Eucharist and Sacred Scripture. During the first half of the Mass, the Word of God is broken open for us just as Jesus did with the two disciples on the way to Emmaus (Luke 24:45). During this year in which I have asked the parish to concentrate on adoration and formation, it is providential that Pope Francis is calling us to open our Bibles and to ponder God's Word to us, for as St. Jerome reminds us: "Ignorance of the Scriptures is ignorance of Christ." Let us rededicate ourselves to the study of God's Word to better know the Christ who is proclaimed in all of Scripture.

God bless you all,

DEL ESCRITORIO DE NUESTRO PARROCO

Mis Queridos Amigos,

Cada año, recibimos una llamada, una invitación para ayudar a los pobres a través de la Campaña de Caridad y Desarrollo del Arzobispo. Como católicos, ayudar a los necesitados es una parte fundamental de nuestro llamado bautismal. A través de nuestras contribuciones al ABCD, y a nuestra parroquia durante todo el año, ayudamos a la misión de la Iglesia de ayudar a los más pobres entre nosotros y ayudar a proclamar el evangelio.

Hace catorce años, le serví a la Arquidiócesis como Director de Vocaciones. Era mi trabajo ayudar a reclutar jóvenes para ingresar al seminario para estudiar para ser sacerdotes y luego guiarlos, como me diría el Arzobispo, a través del trabajo arduo del seminario. Fue un ministerio muy gratificante. Ver a algunos de estos jóvenes a los que recluté sirviendo ahora como sacerdotes, incluyendo a nuestro propio Padre Flores, es ver la mano de Dios trabajando en la vida de la Iglesia. Su formación y sus vocaciones fueron alimentadas no solo por sus oraciones sino también por su generosidad a lo largo de los años en la campaña anual del ABCD. Estamos educando a los sacerdotes que algún día nos servirán, nos administrarán los sacramentos, nos absolverán, nos ungirán y, lo más importante, harán que Cristo se haga presente en la Eucaristía para nosotros.

Esta campaña afecta a tantas personas: los ancianos en nuestras instalaciones de cuidado asistido, los sacerdotes y religiosos retirados que nos sirvieron durante tantos años y ahora con problemas de salud, los niños en programas de primera infancia, las madres y los padres que buscan ayuda en nuestros centros de Respeto a la vida, nuestros seminaristas y muchos más. Confiamos en su ayuda para seguir ayudando a todas estas organizaciones benéficas importantes.

Hemos sido bendecidos aquí en Santa Teresita y ustedes han sido extremadamente generosos a lo largo de los años. Este año nuestra meta es $ 331,603. Pudimos superar nuestro objetivo el año pasado, y estoy seguro de que lo superaremos nuevamente al compartir los dones que Dios nos ha dado con los más pobres entre nosotros.

Les agradezco de antemano su generosidad al ABCD, y agradezco a todos los feligreses que ya han respondido a la carta del Arzobispo enviada a sus hogares a principios de este mes. Juntos estamos haciendo el trabajo de Dios para ayudar a promover el Evangelio y ayudar a los necesitados.

Además, este domingo, el tercer domingo del tiempo ordinario, el Papa Francisco ha designado un día especial dedicado a "la celebración, el estudio y la difusión de la Palabra de Dios" o aún más simple: "El domingo de la Palabra de Dios". La Sagrada Escritura es invaluable para nosotros como cristianos. Nuestro Santo Padre nos recuerda que existe un vínculo inquebrantable entre la Eucaristía y la Sagrada Escritura. Durante la primera mitad de la Misa, la Palabra de Dios se abre para nosotros tal como lo hizo Jesús con los dos discípulos en el camino a Emaús (Lucas 24:45). Durante este año en que le he pedido a la parroquia que se concentre en la adoración y la formación, es providencial que el Papa Francisco nos esté llamando a abrir nuestras Biblias y a reflexionar sobre la Palabra de Dios, como San Jerónimo nos recuerda: "La ignorancia de las Escrituras es ignorancia de Cristo ". Volvamos a dedicarnos al estudio de la Palabra de Dios para conocer mejor al Cristo que se proclama en toda la Escritura.

Que Dios los bendiga a todos,

TOGETHER | JUNTOS

Christ has no body but yours, no hands, no feet on earth but yours...

Yours are the eyes with which he looks compassion on this world, your feet with which he walks to do good, yours are the hands with which he blesses all the world.

This weekend is Commitment Weekend for the ABCD. Every member of our parish is called upon to be the eyes, hands and feet of Jesus. We can all make a difference, and it starts at home. The Archdiocese of Miami, from Broward to Monroe, is our faith community, home to more than a million brothers and sisters in Christ. We witness the real hands and feet of Jesus in the work of the Archdiocese of Miami above and beyond the good work in our parishes. It is evident in our efforts to preserve the dignity of all human life, and in our commitment to the poor, homeless, needy, elderly and sick. It lives in the hearts and minds of the children in our schools and religious education programs, as well as those serving in our life-changing ministries and programs. It is also witnessed in you when you support the ABCD by making it all possible. Let us unite to share the love of Christ and bring hope to people in need by making a gift to the ABCD today. We need you!

SERVING IN THE NAME OF JESUS | SIRVIENDO EN NOMBRE DE JESÚS

St. Therese Prayer for Vocations

St. Therese, Little Flower, you are “love in the heart of the Church.” You dedicated your life as a Carmelite Nun for good Priests to serve God’s people.

From your privileged place in God’s Heart, I ask you to stir up responsive hearts in young men to follow Jesus as good and holy Priests and Religious. Bless our Church with loyal servants of the Gospel.

Renew our Church in love by igniting the love of the young men Jesus calls. We need your help, intercession, and intervention today, Beloved Patroness of Priests. Amen.
