FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Friends,

It is sometimes so difficult to enter into the spirit of Lent, to embrace the opportunities that God has placed before us, and to put worldly distractions aside and focus solely on the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ. This Lent is particularly difficult because we are, to be quite honest, so consumed by what is going on with the virus outbreak. As I wrote in this space last week and said after every Mass last Sunday: yes, we should be prudent and concerned and take every measurable precaution to ensure the health and safety of all, but no, we should not give into fear.

And yet we walk this desert together. No one is alone. We walk together and more importantly our Lord walks with us, helps us with our crosses and at times carries them for us when we cannot. We are consoled by the word of God and by the Eucharist. We are consoled by the very presence of God in our midst. I have been uplifted by the number of people who have visited the Blessed Sacrament in our Adoration Chapel over the last three weeks. It is a recognition that we need refuge and that we find it in our Eucharistic Lord.

In the silence of that chapel, as I preached at the 12:30pm Mass last week, we strive to hear God's voice. It is a voice calling us to holiness, to renewal, to repentance, to a new way of life, and make no mistake, our God is calling us to live joyful life. Once we get beyond the darkness of sin, we find the fullness of life and the joy that comes with it — the joy that comes with living as a true child of God unburdened by sins and the things of this world that seek to bring us down.

In his Lenten Message this year, Pope Francis tells us: Christian joy flows from listening to, and accepting, the Good News of the death and resurrection of Jesus... In this Lent of 2020, I would like to share with every Christian what I wrote to young people in the Apostolic Exhortation Christus Vivit: “Keep your eyes fixed on the outstretched arms of Christ crucified, let yourself be saved over and over again. And when you go to confess your sins, believe firmly in his mercy which frees you of your guilt. Contemplate his blood poured out with such great love, and let yourself be cleansed by it. In this way, you can be reborn ever anew (123).”

Our Holy Father also reminds us of the importance, the urgency of prayer during Lent: Indeed, the experience of mercy is only possible in a “face to face” relationship with the crucified and risen Lord “who loved me and gave himself for me” (Gal 2:20), in a heartfelt dialogue between friends. That is why prayer is so important in Lent. Even more than a duty, prayer is an expression of our need to respond to God’s love which always precedes and sustains us. Christians pray in the knowledge that, although unworthy, we are still loved. Prayer can take any number of different forms, but what truly matters in God’s eyes is that it penetrates deep within us and chips away at our hardness of heart, in order to convert us ever more fully to God and to his will.

Rediscover the joy of prayer this Lenten season. Rediscover the joy of sitting in silence in our beautiful church during the day or in our Adoration Chapel. The Crucified One is waiting for you, longing for you, and as we hear in today’s gospel: thirsting for you! During this Lent, rediscover the joy of feeling embraced by the Divine Mercy of our Lord.

God bless you all,

Fr. Manny

DEL ESCRITORIO DE NUESTRO PARROCO

Mis Queridos Amigos,

A veces es tan difícil entrar en el espíritu de la Cuaresma, aprovechar las oportunidades que Dios ha puesto ante nosotros, y dejar de lado las distracciones mundanas y enfocarnos únicamente en la cruz de Nuestro Señor Jesucristo. Esta Cuaresma es particularmente difícil porque, para ser honestos, estamos muy consumidos por lo que está sucediendo con el brote del virus. Como escribí en este espacio la semana pasada y dije después de cada Misa el domingo pasado: sí, debemos ser prudentes y preocupados y tomar todas las precauciones medibles para garantizar la salud y la seguridad de todos, pero no, no debemos ceder ante el miedo.

Y sin embargo, caminamos juntos por este desierto. Nadie está solo. Caminamos juntos y, lo que es más importante, Nuestro Señor camina con nosotros, nos ayuda con nuestras cruces y, en ocasiones, las carga consigo cuando no podemos. Nos consuela la palabra de Dios y la Eucaristía. Nos consuela la presencia de Dios en medio de nosotros. Me ha animado la cantidad de personas que han visitado el Santísimo Sacramento en nuestra Capilla de Adoración durante las últimas tres semanas. Es un reconocimiento de que necesitamos refugio y que lo encontramos en Nuestro Señor Eucarístico.

En el silencio de esa capilla, mientras predicaba en la misa de las 12:30 pm la semana pasada, nos esforzamos por escuchar la voz de Dios. Es una voz que nos llama a la santidad, a la renovación, al arrepentimiento, a una forma de vida nueva, y no nos equivoquemos, nuestro Dios nos está llamando a vivir una vida alegre. Una vez que vamos más allá de la oscuridad del pecado, encontramos la plenitud de la vida y la alegría que conlleva: la alegría de vivir como un verdadero hijo de Dios sin la carga de los pecados y las cosas de este mundo que buscan hundirnos.

En su Mensaje de Cuaresma de este año, el Papa Francisco nos dice: La alegría del cristiano brota de la escucha y de la aceptación de la Buena Noticia de la muerte

y resurrección de Jesús... en esta Cuaresma 2020 quisiera dirigir a todos y cada uno de los cristianos lo que ya escribí a los jóvenes en la Exhortación apostólica Christus Vivit: «Mira los brazos abiertos de Cristo crucificado, déjate salvar una y otra vez. Y cuando te acerques a confesar tus pecados, cree firmemente en su misericordia que te libera de la culpa. Contempla su sangre derramada con tanto cariño y déjate purificar por ella. Así podrás renacer, una y otra vez» (n. 123)

Nuestro Santo Padre también nos recuerda la importancia, la urgencia de la oración durante la Cuaresma: De hecho, La experiencia de la misericordia, efectivamente, es posible sólo en un «cara a cara» con el Señor crucificado y resucitado «que me amó y se entregó por mí» (Ga 2,20). Un diálogo de corazón a corazón, de amigo a amigo. Por eso la oración es tan importante en el tiempo cuaresmal. Más que un deber, nos muestra la necesidad de corresponder al amor de Dios, que siempre nos precede y nos sostiene. De hecho, el cristiano reza con la conciencia de ser amado sin merecerlo. La oración puede asumir formas distintas, pero lo que verdaderamente cuenta a los ojos de Dios es que penetre dentro de nosotros, hasta llegar a tocar la dureza de nuestro corazón, para convertirlo cada vez más al Señor y a su voluntad.

Redescubren la alegría de la oración en esta temporada de Cuaresma. Redescubren la alegría de sentarse en silencio durante el día en nuestra hermosa iglesia o en nuestra Capilla de Adoración. El Crucificado te está esperando, deseándote, y como escuchamos en el evangelio de hoy: ¡sediento de ti! Durante esta Cuaresma, redescubren la alegría de sentirte abrazado por la Divina Misericordia de Nuestro Señor.

Que Dios los bendiga a todos,

ADORATION HOURS EXTENDED! ADORERS NEEDED...

Though Adoration Hours have been extended until 4:30pm on weekdays, our long-term plan is to have regular hours of Adoration into the evening and eventually, to launch Perpetual Adoration. In order to accomplish this goal, we are asking parishioners to sign up now as Adorers. At least one Adorer should be present at all times, though, of course, the Chapel is large enough to accommodate several Adorers.

A binder is now located in the Vestibule of the Church for those wishing to commit to a regularly recurring daily or weekly time slot (i.e., EVERY Monday, from 11am to 12 Noon).

We have also created an online sign-up which will allow you to quickly and easily select multiple dates and/or times. This is best for those who cannot commit to a regular time slot or for those whose schedule varies from week to week.

Please visit our parish website to access the Sign-Up!

For more information, please contact Angelica Santibáñez at angiebsantibanez@gmail.com or Jorge Santibáñez at the Parish Office.
