COTLF Charities

DO YOU KNOW WE HAVE A POOR BOX?

One of the regular ways that the good works of our "COTLF Charities" organization takes place is through the resources given in generosity to the Poor Box. Located in the back of church, near the Saint Anthony statue, the Poor Box is available to receive your donations, sacrifices, and gestures of almsgiving and penance which, in turn, are utilized to support and assist the poor, the needy, and those in emergency circumstances. Last year more than $19,500 was spent by our COTLF Charities organization in support of the poor and needy in our parish territory. Thank you for considering providing a gift of support to assist the most vulnerable.

FROM THE DESK OF FATHER DAVIS

This coming week we begin “9 Days for Life.” Called for by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, and leading up to the annual Day of Prayer for the legal protection of unborn children, the “9 Days for Life” initiative is a spiritual novena throughout the United States, as Catholics pray for the respect of human life. It is a time of recollection, consciousness raising, sacrifices, prayer that invokes Divine assistance, as well as a time of reparation for past harms toward human life in our country, Church, and families. All are exhorted to participate in this important spiritual work of mercy.

As we conclude the Christmas season this weekend, celebrating the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, it is a perfect time to see more clearly the implications of our Christian faith in Jesus born at Bethlehem and to connect the birth of Christ and the dawn of salvation with the lives and discipleship of every Catholic Christian. This liturgical feast makes clear our own identity and commission as the members of God’s royal household, even as it makes clear the identity of our standard-bearer, Christ the Lord.

Our first reading this weekend, taken from book of the Prophet Isaiah, reminds us that the objective of the Messiah is to “bring forth justice.” In fact, he describes a “victory of justice” that is to come. Saint Paul, in his letter to Titus, exhorts us all to “reject godless ways,” so as to live “temperately and devoutly.” He describes how “Jesus Christ delivers us from lawlessness,” creating “a people eager to do what is good.” Indeed, if we truly believe what we have just celebrated during this beautiful Christmas season, our souls should be warmed with expectation, being on the lookout for opportunities to do what faith requires. Indeed, we should be eager! It’s our honor to do so. It’s our identity and great commission. It stems from the very identity of Christ. The Gospel describes the skies being opened, the Holy Spirit descending upon Jesus in the form of a dove, and a voice from Heaven being heard stating, “you are my beloved Son.” Today’s feast of the Baptism of the Lord is all about the true identity of Christ Jesus, the nature of his life and mission, endorsed and underscored by heavenly signs. God Himself was taking action for the life of the world. In Christ, we find our own identity and clarion calling too.

During these “9 Days for Life,” I invite all of you to ponder the deep questions of our own identity and mission in Christ. We have so much to do as his disciples; so much to pray for. During these days of novena, the bishops of our country invite us to pray for important intentions: First among them is, what Pope Saint John Paul II described in his papal encyclical, Evangelium Vitae, that “we are all committed to ensure to our neighbor that his or her life may always be defended and promoted, especially when it is weak or threatened.” Second, we are asked to pray that all people may embrace the truth that every life is a good and perfect gift and is worth living. Thirdly, we are asked to pray that all who have experienced sexual abuse may receive justice, healing, and God’s peace. Fourthly, we are asked to pray that God’s peace fill the hearts of all who travel upon the path of adoption. Fifthly, our novena occasions prayers for each person suffering the loss of a child through abortion, that they might find hope and healing in Christ. On the sixth day of this novena, we are asked to raise our consciousness to all victims and survivors of human trafficking, praying that they might find freedom, refuge, and healing. On the novena’s seventh day, we are invited to pray for those who long to welcome a child into their family, that they may be filled with trust in God’s loving plan. On Day Eight, we hold up in prayer those nearing life’s end, that they may receive medical care that respects their dignity and protects their lives. And, on Day Nine of the novena, we are asked to pray that the tragic practice of abortion come to an end.

Yes. Christ’s identity gives us our identity as a people of prayer and action. The love of Christ impels us. May we always be “a people that is eager to do what is good” for love of Him.

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PADRE DAVIS

La próxima semana comenzamos con "9 Días por la Vida". Convocada por la Conferencia de Obispos Católicos de los Estados Unidos, y antes del Día de Oración anual para la protección legal de los niños no nacidos, la iniciativa "9 Días por la Vida" es una Novena espiritual en todo los Estados Unidos, que los católicos rezan por el respeto a la vida humana. Es un momento de recordar, aumentar conciencia, sacrificios, oraciones que invocan la asistencia divina, así como un tiempo de reparación por daños pasados a la vida humana en nuestro país, la Iglesia y las familias. Todos son exhortados a participar en esta obra espiritual importante de misericordia.

Al concluir la temporada navideña este fin de semana, celebrando la Fiesta del Bautismo del Señor, es un momento perfecto para ver más claramente las implicaciones de nuestra fe cristiana en Jesús nacido en Belén y para conectar el nacimiento de Cristo y el alba de salvación con la vida y el discipulado de todo cristiano católico. Esta fiesta litúrgica aclara nuestra propia identidad y comisión como miembros de la familia real de Dios, incluso cuando aclara la identidad de nuestro portaestandarte, Cristo el Señor.

Nuestra primera lectura de este fin de semana, tomada del libro del profeta Isaías, nos recuerda que el objetivo del Mesías es "traer justicia". De hecho, él describe una "victoria de la justicia" que está por venir. San Pablo, en su carta a Tito, nos exhorta a todos a "rechazar los caminos sin Dios", a fin de vivir "con calma y devoción". Describe cómo "Jesucristo nos libra de la iniquidad", creando "un pueblo ansioso por hacer lo que es bueno". De hecho, si realmente creemos en lo que acabamos de celebrar durante esta hermosa temporada navideña, nuestras almas deberían sentirse entusiasmadas, buscando oportunidades para hacer lo que la fe requiere. ¡De hecho, deberíamos estar ansiosos! Es nuestro honor hacerlo. Es nuestra identidad y gran comisión. Se deriva de la identidad misma de Cristo. El Evangelio describe los cielos abriéndose, y el Espíritu Santo descendió sobre Jesús en forma de paloma y se escuchó una voz del cielo que decía: "Tú eres mi Hijo amado". La fiesta de hoy del Bautismo del Señor es todo acerca de la verdadera identidad de Cristo Jesús, la naturaleza de su vida y misión, respaldada y subrayada por signos celestiales. Dios mismo estaba actuando para la vida del mundo. En Cristo, también encontramos nuestra propia identidad y llamamiento.

Durante estos "9 Días por la Vida", los invito a todos a reflexionar sobre las preguntas profundas de nuestra propia identidad y misión en Cristo. Tenemos tanto que hacer como sus discípulos; tanto por lo que rezar. Durante estos días de novena, los obispos de nuestro país nos invitan a orar por intenciones importantes: Primero entre ellas, lo que el Papa San Juan Pablo II describió en su encíclica papal, Evangelium Vitae, que "todos estamos comprometidos a garantizar a nuestro prójimo" que su vida siempre será defendida y fomentada, especialmente cuando es débil o está amenazada". Segundo, se nos pide que oremos para que todas las personas puedan aceptar la verdad de que cada vida es un regalo bueno y perfecto y que vale la pena vivir. En tercer lugar, se nos pide que oremos para que todos los que han sufrido abuso sexual puedan recibir justicia, sanación y la paz de Dios. En cuarto lugar, se nos pide que oremos para que la paz de Dios llene los corazones de todos los que recorren el camino de la adopción. En quinto lugar, que nuestra novena motive oraciones por cada persona que sufre la pérdida de un niño a través del aborto, para que puedan encontrar esperanza y sanación en Cristo. En el sexto día de esta novena, se nos pide que elevemos nuestra conciencia a todas las víctimas y sobrevivientes del tráfico de seres humanos, orando para que puedan encontrar la libertad, el refugio y la sanación. En el séptimo día de la novena, se nos invita a orar por aquellos que anhelan recibir a un niño en su familia, para que puedan estar llenos de confianza en el plan de amor de Dios. El Día Ocho, mantenemos en oración a los que se acercan al final de la vida, para que puedan recibir atención médica que respete su dignidad y proteja sus vidas. Y, en el día nueve de la novena, se nos pide que oremos para que la práctica trágica del aborto llegue a su fin.

Sí. La identidad de Cristo nos da nuestra identidad como pueblo de oración y acción. El amor de Cristo nos impulsa. Que siempre seamos "un pueblo que está ansioso por hacer lo que es bueno" por amor a Él.

WORSHIPPING THE LORD | ADORANDO AL SEÑOR

CRY ROOM / VESTIBULE UPDATE

After months and months of study, proposals, architectural plans, and financial considerations, there is only one option that remains as we address the constant hopes, expressed by parishioners, of doing something regarding the noise and distractions in the vestibule during Mass. We will soon be getting underway with a plan to provide sound muffling along the iron dividers and gates in the vestibule. A beautiful velvet fire-proof "stage curtain," similar to that which is already on the big gates at the entrance to the nave of the church, will be installed from ceiling to floor, creating separation and sound muffling between the vestibule and the pews of the church. Additional lighting will be installed as a way to make up for the darkening caused by the curtains. Digital TV screens will be installed on the vestibule columns, providing rolling announcements, and eventually Mass readings, lyrics to our hymns, and the possible live streaming of the Mass. Increased security cameras will be installed to provide the reassurance of safety and good order. Although not an ideal plan, it is a major step in the direction of addressing the concerns stated almost weekly by countless parishioners. As a further enhancement to the vestibule, there will be a beautiful plaque installed near the Sacred Heart statue, announcing the 12 promises of devotion to the Sacred Heart, articulated in the visions of Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque.

JOIN FATHER DAVIS ON A TRIP TO THE HOLY LAND

The March trip is full! By popular demand, however, Father Davis will be offering another trip to the land made holy by the footsteps of Jesus. The itinerary will include many places of biblical fame such as Galilee, Capernaum, Nazareth, Mount of Transfiguration, Mount of Beatitudes, Cana, Emmaus, Jerusalem, Calvary, the Church of the Holy Sepulcher, Bethany, Bethlehem, Jericho, the River Jordan and Caesaria. Even the Dead Sea. Space is limited. The pilgrimage is scheduled to depart January 31st and return on February 9, 2020. Call Irma Aguilar for more information, and to get your name on the list. 305-446-9950, ext.314. An information meeting will be scheduled soon.

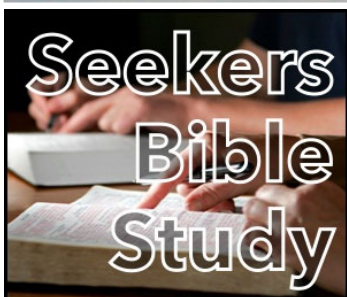

BUS TRIP ITINERARY FINALIZED!

Parishioners, family and friends are invited to participate on the first Pilgrimage of 2019! Join Father Flores on January 29, 2019 as we visit the Saint Vincent de Paul Seminary in Boynton Beach. We will enjoy a tour of the seminary followed by a Mass in their chapel. After having lunch at Portobello Italian Restaurant, we will depart to St. Katherine Drexel for an audience with Miami's newest Auxiliary Bishop, the Most Reverend Enrique Delgado. The total cost is $49 per person and includes all transportation and lunch. Space is limited to the first 52 people so reserve your spot now. We will depart Little Flower at 7:30am and return by 5:00pm. Call to get your name on the list by reaching out to Jorge Perez, Director of Advancement, (305) 446-9950, Ext. 318.

FORMING DISCIPLES | FORMANDO DISCÍPULOS

MORNING OF RECOLLECTION FOR ALL 55 PARISH MINISTRIES

Proposed by active parishioners, on Saturday, January 26th, from 9am to 1:00pm, in Comber Hall, the parish will be offering a Morning of Reflection for all ministry heads, ministry participants in ALL of our 55 parish groups, ministries, and services, EMHCs, Lectors, catechists, Parish Council and Finance Council members, Emmaus core teams, retreat programs, choir and music ministry, ushers, environment and arts, Scripture studies, Coffee with Catholics, Catholics in Public Square, COTLF Charities, and those serving the homeless. The morning will include spiritual talks, socialization, group dynamics, prayer, and lunch. Should be fun and enriching! Mark your calendars and join us.

DAYTIME BIBLE STUDY GROUP

The Seekers Bible Study Group will have their first meeting of 2019 on Monday January 14 at 10:30am in the Reilly Parish Center. The group will continue their meetings on the 2nd and 4th Mondays of each month.

SERVING IN THE NAME OF JESUS | SIRVIENDO EN NOMBRE DE JESÚS

A MESSAGE FROM OUR WYD PILGRIMS

Hola! Mi nombre es Paulina Rennella y tengo la suerte y el privilegio de formar parte del grupo de la Arquidiócesis de Miami que va en peregrinaje a la Jornada Mundial de la Juventud en Panamá. Voy a participar como una chaperona de nuestro grupo parroquial.

Para mí es un sueño que se hace realidad. Es mi primera oportunidad de participar en este evento muy especial y espiritual. He esperado casi 3 años para hacerlo, especialmente luego de que mi hija fue a Polonia en el 2016. Tengo la gran suerte de participar junto con ella este año también! Su experiencia en Polonia hizo nacer en mí el querer participar. Ahora que se va acercando la fecha, tengo una mezcla de sentimientos ya que siento que estos días de fe y amor a Dios va a hacer renacer en mi corazón mi devoción a Dios y me ayudaran sanar mis heridas y sentimientos negativos. Gracias a la parroquia por darme una oportunidad tan grande!
