FROM THE DESK OF FATHER DAVIS

Do you realize how much you are spending on coffee?

I recently went to Starbucks for a change in my routine. I ordered the delicious Cafe Latte Grande. Of course, delicious coffees and drinks of that caliber come with a price tag, right? One Cafe Latte Grande, for example, costs $5.86. Wow! It was only one cup of coffee! The truth is, I know many people, even from our own parish, who have a premium cup of coffee like that every day. Do you realize how much you are spending on coffee? The price of $5.86 per day multiplied by 365 days per year is a whopping $2,138.90 spent annually! If we can spend that much for our daily coffee intake, I sure hope we have thought about giving at least “a cup of coffee” per day to the Lord and his Church, to advance the causes so dear to the Gospel!

When I mentioned this vignette last weekend in my ABCD homily, a gentleman mentioned to me after Mass that he went to McDonald’s for “his” daily cup of coffee. With his senior citizen discount, it was only a dollar for a delicious hot cup of brew. Of course, a dollar a day multiplied by 365 days per year also means $365 dollars per year on coffee. Even that would be a welcomed, easy, and modest way to begin one’s support of the Archbishop’s Charities and Development campaign, especially for the many who have never participated in this important part of Catholic life in South Florida. After all, given the amazing work that the Archdiocese of Miami does in our name and for the glory of God, why wouldn’t we want to be involved in this, at least making this initiative our “charity of choice.” Amazing it would be, if 100% of God’s people at least gave a “cup of coffee” per day to the works of the Lord through the ABCD.

How often we forget the important works of the Gospel that are being done by our local Church day in and day out. There are initiatives on behalf of the poor, the homeless, the physically challenged, our senior citizens, the sick and infirmed, migrants, immigrants, and those needing disaster relief, grief counseling, addiction interventions and support, Respect Life centers which assist women with crisis pregnancies, educational programs which raise awareness of life issues, as well as Project Rachel ministry for those needing healing, youth ministry support, religious education and evangelization resources for our more than 109 parishes and missions, and the formation of future deacons and priests through our two regional seminaries, and so many other countless ministries and services which make the Catholic ethos of life so effective in our community at large. Yes, in ways seen and unseen, our faith takes concrete form in the way we minister to others with care and sensitivity, generosity and love, motivated by an authentic Gospel-faith. As you now, the Church is not just run on prayers alone; there are very real costs that undergird its significant work. To support, encourage, and sustain the works of God through the direct sacrificial giving of God’s people would be our Christian privilege in the service of Jesus. The sky is the limit, if all of God’s people were to engage themselves in the economic stewardship of Christ’s Church and its Gospel-inspired work. Truly, if not us, then who?

The Lord’s deliverance, about which our Scripture readings speak this weekend, comes to those who offer ready welcome to the Lord’s sovereignty in their lives. Admittedly, life in him shakes us up a bit. His power and might are supernaturally beyond what we can comprehend. New thoughts, new inspirations, even new levels of generosity should freely flow from a heart on fire for God. Why should we be surprised then that we are asked by him to get out of our comfort zone a bit, and be more broad in our thinking about Church membership and our commitment to its fiscal needs.

May we all do our part to sustain the works of the Lord. After all, is a cup of coffee a day too much to ask to advance the works of the Gospel? The Cafe Latte Grande is, indeed, delicious!

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PADRE DAVIS

¿Se han dado cuenta de cuánto están gastando por un café?

Hace poco fui a Starbucks para cambiar mi rutina. Pedí el delicioso Café Latte Grande. Por supuesto, los cafés y bebidas deliciosas de ese calibre tienen un precio, ¿no? Un Café Latte Grande, por ejemplo, cuesta $5.86. ¡Guauu! ¡Era solo una taza de café! La verdad es que conozco a muchas personas, incluso de nuestra propia parroquia, que toman una taza de café prima como esa todos los días. ¿Se dan cuenta de cuánto están gastando en café? ¡El precio de $5.86 por día multiplicado por 365 días al año es la gran cantidad de $2,138.90 que se gasta anualmente! Si podemos gastar tanto para nuestro consumo diario de café, espero que hayamos pensado en darle al menos "una taza de café" por día al Señor y a su Iglesia, ¡para promover las causas tan importantes del Evangelio!

Cuando mencioné esta viñeta el fin de semana pasado en mi homilía del ABCD, un caballero me mencionó después de la misa que fue a McDonald's para "su" taza de café diaria. Con su descuento por la tercera edad, solo costaba un dólar por una deliciosa taza de café caliente. Por supuesto, un dólar al día multiplicado por 365 días al año también significa $365 dólares al año en café. Incluso esa sería una manera de bienvenida, fácil y modesta de comenzar con el apoyo a la campaña de Caridades y Desarrollo del Arzobispo, especialmente para los muchos que nunca han participado en esta parte importante de la vida católica en el sur de la Florida. Después de todo, dada la increíble labor que realiza la Arquidiócesis de Miami en nuestro nombre y para la gloria de Dios, ¿por qué no querríamos involucrarnos en esto, al menos haciendo de esta iniciativa nuestra "caridad de preferencia"? Sería asombroso, si el 100% de la gente de Dios por lo menos daría una "taza de café" al día a las obras del Señor a través del ABCD.

¿Con qué frecuencia olvidamos las obras importantes del Evangelio que está realizando nuestra Iglesia local día tras día? Existen iniciativas en nombre de los pobres, las personas sin hogar, los incapacitados físicos, las personas mayores, los enfermos y afligidos, los migrantes, los inmigrantes y los que necesitan ayuda humanitaria, asesoramiento para el dolor, intervenciones de adicción y su apoyo, los centros de Respeto a la Vida que asisten a las mujeres con embarazos en crisis, programas educativos que aumentan la conciencia sobre temas de la vida, así como el ministerio del Proyecto Raquel para aquellos que necesitan de sanación, apoyo al ministerio juvenil, educación religiosa y recursos de evangelización para más de nuestras 109 parroquias y misiones, y la formación de futuros diáconos y sacerdotes a través de nuestros dos seminarios regionales, y tantos otros innumerables ministerios y servicios que hacen que el espíritu católico de la vida sea tan efectivo en nuestra comunidad en general. Sí, de una manera visible e invisible, nuestra fe toma forma concreta en la manera en que servimos a los demás con cuidado y sensibilidad, generosidad y amor, motivados por una auténtica fe del Evangelio. Como ustedes saben, la Iglesia no funciona solo con oraciones; hay costos muy reales que respaldan su trabajo tan importante. Apoyar, alentar y mantener las obras de Dios a través del sacrificio directo del pueblo de Dios sería nuestro privilegio cristiano en el servicio de Jesús. El cielo es el límite, si todo el pueblo de Dios se comprometiera en la administración económica de la Iglesia de Cristo y su obra inspirada en el Evangelio. En verdad, si no somos nosotros, ¿entonces quién?

La salvación del Señor, de la que hablan las lecturas de las Escrituras de este fin de semana, llega a aquellos que ofrecen una bienvenida inmediata a la soberanía del Señor en sus vidas. Es cierto que la vida en Él nos sacude un poco. Su poder y su fuerza están sobrenaturalmente más allá de lo que podemos comprender. Pensamientos nuevos, inspiraciones nuevas, incluso niveles nuevos de generosidad deberían fluir libremente de un corazón lleno de fuego por Dios. Entonces, ¿por qué deberíamos sorprendernos de que nos pidan que salgamos un poco de nuestra zona de comodidad y que seamos más amplios en nuestra forma de pensar acerca de la membresía de la Iglesia y nuestro compromiso con sus necesidades fiscales?

Que todos hagamos nuestra parte para apoyar las obras del Señor. Después de todo, ¿es una taza de café al día demasiado pedir para adelantar las obras del Evangelio? El Café Latte Grande es, de verdad, delicioso!

WORLD YOUTH DAY REFLECTIONS - ISABEL

This past weekend I was blessed to go to World Youth Day once again. I went with no expectations but came back home feeling renewed and knowing what God wants me to do for Him. Through the words of Pope Francis, "Young people are not the future, are the NOW of God," I felt more encouraged in pursuing my dreams and knowing God is with me at all times. I feel more alive and connected to God. Even through the heat, it was very easy to find God in all the little things. The Panamanians were very welcoming of us pilgrims and made the trip even more beautiful. This trip was a learning experience on how to become a better leader in the Church. Once again I am very thankful for Jorge Santibanez and all his hard work into their trip. Thank you to all the parishioners and Fr. Davis!
