FROM THE DESK OF FATHER DAVIS

Have you noticed how self-absorbed, insensitive, and aggressive our culture has become?

- ◆ I remember the days when people would help an old lady cross the street or assist her in finding a seat in church. Yet, recently, I saw a speeding car nearly hit one of our elderly parishioners, who was simply trying to walk across the legal cross-walk in route to enter our church for Mass. It is poverty to demonstrate such a lack of sensitivity to others, let alone our senior citizens.
- ◆ I remember the days when people would use their turn signals and demonstrate good -driving etiquette in their cars. Recently, however, I saw someone selfishly cut across three lanes of traffic, barreling their way through multiple lanes of cars, with no signals, and with no regard for others and their safety. It is wanton self-absorption. It is an example of cultural poverty.
- ◆ I remember the days when children would honor their parents, listen to them, and treasure the dignity and importance of family life. Recently, though, I saw a teenage girl angrily berating her own mother in the middle of one of the aisles at Publix; the girl was shouting obscenities at her mom, shocking scores of scandalized shoppers, paralyzing everyone into inaction, while the mother was publicly disrespected and humiliated. Where has honor for elders gone?
- ◆ I remember the days when teachers, as responsible, educated professionals, were respected in their duties in “loco parentis” (i.e., in the place of the parents) for the good of children. Recently, I have seen an alarming trend of undiscerning parents who immediately presume their own child certainly could not have done anything wrong during the school day that would merit discipline. Instead, they conclude that the teacher, even though being an eye-witness, is always the one at fault and wrong. It is poverty to cry foul, when people are simply doing their job.
- ◆ I remember the days when terrorism was rare, far away, and robbing our minds of peace at a distance. Yet, I am daily made aware of bitter divorce battles, fights between siblings, sometimes to the point of physical injury, family conflicts with hurtful words, and toxic home situations. It makes me wonder, how can we have world peace, if we don’t even have peace in our homes? Why have we allowed aggression to take hold of our lives? It is poverty of spirit.
- ◆ I remember the days when we could leave the car doors open, maybe even the backdoor of our house unlocked for ease of access. Yet, regularly on the news I am made aware of smash and grabs and home invasions, even here in Coral Gables! Even while we are at Mass! It is selfishness and cultural poverty.

- ♦ I remember the days when neighbors would offer welcoming words and kindly greetings to a new arrival to the neighborhood, maybe even bringing over a tasty cake or pie as a house-warming gesture or holiday gift. Yet, I know of a case where some prominent parishioners brought a cake to a nearby neighbor as a gesture of Christmas tidings. But, these parishioners were greeted at the door with the neighbor holding a shotgun, shouting, “what do you want?!!” It is human poverty of spirit to be held hostage by fear and self-absorption.
- ♦ I remember the days when people were respectful of the environment, gladly picking up litter, certainly keeping the church, of all places, clean. Yet, I regularly see beer bottles on the lawn after wedding receptions, cigarette butts on the sidewalks around our church entrances, even trash and chewing gum under the pews. Where are the tears for the damage done and the dirtying of our beautiful environment? A further example of insensitivity and selfishness.
- ♦ I remember the days when many would have concluded, “it is better to be an hour early than a minute late.” Yet, last week, I saw dozens of people arriving at 6:03pm, for the 5:30pm Mass on Sunday night. That’s 33 minutes late! Did they think they were arriving early for the 6:30pm Mass at Saint Augustine? But this is Little Flower! Indeed, a casual sense of time and propriety have come to consume us. Some people have no shame for a lack of punctuality, and the public distraction and disruption they cause, even to something as sacred as the liturgy. It’s a faith-crisis. It’s poverty.
- ♦ And finally, for today, I remember the days when sacred silence would have been the norm at Holy Mass, when everyone would have been respectful of a spiritual environment, the sacred rites, even of people at prayer. Yet last week, at the most inopportune times at Holy Mass, not once, not twice, but four times there were cell phones that went off in the middle of the liturgy, bringing disruption and indignity to the Eucharist of the Lord. It’s selfishness, insensitivity, and it’s spiritual poverty.

Let’s not naively think that Jesus’ instruction to his hearers long ago is now simply a nice short story meant to apply to a sinful and selfish culture long ago. The effects of original sin and the vestiges of self-absorption are alive and well today. More than ever, the wisdom of Jesus and his golden rule, “do unto others as you would have them do unto you,” is sorely needed. May we find our way out of self-absorption, and strive to do the right thing because it’s the right thing to do.

ENHANCEMENTS TO THE VESTIBULE

In the coming days, we will see several important enhancements to our vestibule area at the church entrance. Already installed is the signage near the Sacred Heart statue, helping us to call to mind the spiritual significance of devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Returning to a feature from a few years ago, there will soon be the installation of beautiful velvet sound-muffling curtains along the iron bars and gates that separate the vestibule from the main nave of the church. Not only will this add decorative dignity to the entrance area, but will serve as a much needed sound muffling filter diminishing the distracting conversation and noise that unfortunately so often characterizes the back of church. Additionally, there will soon be the installation of digital TV screens along the pillars in the vestibule. The screens will give scrolling announcements and helpful information to all who enter our church. We will also be adding additional lighting devices in the back portion of the nave of the church, to make up for the unintentional darkening that will be caused by the installation of the curtains. Finally, a much needed paint job of the vestibule will soon take place to round out the enhancements. All in all, it should turn out to be a much appreciated beautification project.

FATHER-SON COMMUNION BREAKFAST

A new initiative, several months away, but worthy of mention now, is our plan to have a Father-Son Communion breakfast at Little Flower. The idea is that on June 15th, the day before Father's Day, all grandfathers, fathers and sons together, would come to a Saturday morning Mass at 8:00am, receive Communion together, and afterwards, enjoy a pancake breakfast together in Comber Hall, during which a motivational talk on the importance of the father-son relationship would be presented. More details are forthcoming.

HOLY LAND PRE-DEPARTURE MEETING

For those who are scheduled and confirmed to be on the March 29, 2019 pilgrimage to the Holy Land, there will be a "pre-Departure meeting" on Thursday, March 7th, at 7:30pm in Comber Hall. During this meeting Father Davis will distribute all travel information, the rooming list, plane e-tickets, hotel information, the final itinerary, and luggage bag tags.

It will also be an opportunity to field any remaining questions as we prepare for our pilgrimage departure. See you on March 7th.

NEXT BUS TRIP BEING PLANNED

The parish is currently organizing a day-trip pilgrimage to visit Ave Maria University near Naples, Florida on Wednesday, May 22nd. There are only 53 seats available on the bus. The journey will depart Little Flower at 8:15am, include a university tour, Mass in the famous Annunciation Oratory parish church, a walk through town square and a panoramic tour of the City of Ave Maria, returning to Coral Gables by 5:30pm.

To get your name on the list, please contact Jorge Perez at 305-446-9950, ext. 318.

The Knights of the Holy Sepulcher are a special papal Order of men and women who foster support for the Christians in the Holy land and the protection and care of the Holy sites that make up the Holy Land, particularly the Church of the Holy Sepulcher. WORLD YOUTH DAY REFLECTIONS

Hello my name is Nico Perez-Soto. I am a Saint Theresa Alumni Class of 2016. I'm currently a junior attending Christopher Columbus HS. Last month, I had the amazing opportunity to participate in World Youth Day Panama which was an exceptional experience. I was initially skeptical because I thought it would be overly religious and boring, but I couldn't have been more wrong. The trip had an amazing balance of good-natured fun and spiritual growth. I had the fortune of meeting and making lasting friendships in a couple of days with other Young Catholics. The highlight of my trip was seeing the Pope pass by less than a yard away. He spoke words of wisdom that resonated in me. In particular when he said, "The Youth is not the future of the Church but the present." We don't have to wait for others to do our job, but need to act now. There were beautiful moments, where you truly felt the presence of the Holy Spirit. However, it was hot. The temperature, and the passionate burning fire that is the faith of thousands of young people gathered from all over the world to praise God! Many thanks to COTLF for making it possible to go to WYD Panama. I can't wait to go again. #WYD2022

You will discover hope, meet others walking a similar journey, and be nourished in your faith, as we support and encourage one another through God's word while waiting with hope in Him. It will be a quaint, confidential group of women or couples.
