FROM THE DESK OF FATHER DAVIS

Our Lenten journey today continues with the Gospel account of the Transfiguration of the Lord on Mount Tabor. Directly impacting Peter, James and John that day, their ongoing conversion of heart, their outlook regarding the identity of Jesus, and how they would approach a life of Christian discipleship in his name, this account also invites us to consider the awesomeness of God and the implications of a holy faith which should animate our lives too. If we are honest about it, we know that God has done so much for us in his providence. Even the First Reading challenges us to “count the stars,” if we can! Indeed, the more we ponder the grandeur of God’s good creation, the more a transcendent understanding of the mystery of life will come forth. Probably a bit of gratitude will emerge in us as well! This, of course, would help us to appreciate the Divine fingerprint in life and the mystery of our salvation in Christ. Such insights would position us to say with the Psalmist, “the Lord is my light and my salvation,” a very dynamic statement of faith; one that is never static nor complete.

Set high on top of a lofty mountain, requiring quite a climb (even by shuttle busses!), overlooking the fertile crescent of Northern Israel, where one can feel the cool breeze, look as far as the eye can see upon the beautiful lands that surround it, one can perceive the action of God on the tranquil heights of Mount Tabor, the place of the Transfiguration. The event that took place there invites us all to a transcendent dynamic faith, that we may hear the voice of God the Father when he says of Jesus, “This is my beloved Son; listen to him.” Examining his life, studying his words, saturating ourselves in his teachings, and following him in discipleship throughout our journey of life are ways that will assist us in going up the mountain top with Christ, hearing his voice, and learning to live in him.

Following him is certainly not a one-time decision. Nor does it have one-time implications. In accepting the invitation to listen to Christ, we make daily choices to conduct ourselves appropriately, virtuously, and in the light of our Lord’s teachings. Saint Paul once exhorted the early Christian community to “conduct yourself, not as enemies of the cross of Christ, but as citizens of Heaven.” Have you ever thought of yourself as a citizen of Heaven? To do so we must, as Saint Paul exhorted his hearers, “stand firm in the Lord.” Viewed from the vantage point of the grandeur of God, the Resurrection of Jesus, and Christ’s glorification at the right hand of the Father, we are strengthened to face the journey ahead, which includes all the adversity and dynamism of active citizenship. As the Apostles were given insights that helped sustain them when they were scandalized by the brutality of the Cross, we too are invited to maintain our Easter faith, come what may, so as to hold firm to Christ until the end.

This may mean that, in the face of discouragement, we seek out new ways to be true to our life in Christ. It’s worth it! It may mean that when our past routines of faith practice seem flat, we reinvigorate them in light of Tabor. Salvation awaits! It may mean that when one methodology of doing ministry is ineffectual, we dare to think outside the box for the glory of his name. There’s more than one way to do things. A dynamic faith demands it! The awesomeness of God deserves it.

May our participation in Lent this year help us to go up the holy mountain with Christ, to acknowledge the awesomeness of God, and make him again our light and our salvation.

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PADRE DAVIS

Nuestra jornada de Cuaresma continúa hoy con el relato del Evangelio de la Transfiguración del Señor en el Monte Tabor. Directamente haciendo un impacto en Pedro, Santiago y Juan en ese día, su continua conversión de corazón, su perspectiva con respecto a la identidad de Jesús y cómo se acercarían a una vida de discipulado cristiano en su nombre, este relato también nos invita a considerar la genialidad de Dios y las implicaciones de una fe santa que debería animar también nuestras vidas. Si somos honestos al respecto, sabemos que Dios ha hecho mucho por nosotros en su providencia. Incluso la Primera Lectura nos desafía a "contar las estrellas", ¡sí podemos! De hecho, cuanto más reflexionemos sobre la grandeza de la buena creación de Dios, más se desarrollará una comprensión trascendente del misterio de la vida. ¡Probablemente también surgirá un poco de gratitud en nosotros! Esto, por supuesto, nos ayudaría a apreciar la huella Divina en la vida y el misterio de nuestra salvación en Cristo. Tales ideas nos posicionarían para decir con el salmista, "el Señor es mi luz y mi salvación", una declaración de fe muy dinámica; una que nunca es estática ni completa.

Ubicado en lo alto de una montaña elevada, que requiere una gran subida (¡incluso en autobuses de transporte!), con vistas a la luneta fértil del norte de Israel, donde se puede sentir la brisa fresca, se puede ver tan lejos como puede la vista contemplar las hermosas tierras que lo rodean, uno puede percibir la mano de Dios en las alturas tranquilas del Monte Tabor, el lugar de la Transfiguración. El evento que tuvo lugar allí nos invita a todos a una fe dinámica trascendente, para que podamos escuchar la voz de Dios Padre cuando dice de Jesús: "Este es mi Hijo amado; Escúchenlo. "Examinando su vida, estudiando sus palabras, saturarnos en sus enseñanzas y seguirlo en el discipulado a lo largo de nuestra jornada de la vida son formas que nos ayudarán a subir a la cima de la montaña con Cristo, escuchar su voz y aprender a vivir en Él.

Seguirlo no es una decisión única. Tampoco tiene implicaciones únicas. Al aceptar la invitación a escuchar a Cristo, tomamos decisiones diarias para conducirnos de manera apropiada, virtuosa y a la luz de las enseñanzas de nuestro Señor. San Pablo una vez exhortó a la comunidad cristiana primitiva a "comportarnos, no como enemigos de la cruz de Cristo, sino como ciudadanos del cielo". ¿Alguna vez se ha considerado a sí mismo como un ciudadano del cielo? Para ello debemos, al igual que San Pablo exhortó a sus oyentes, "permanecer firmes en el Señor". Visto desde el punto de vista de la grandeza de Dios, la Resurrección de Jesús y la Glorificación de Cristo a la diestra del Padre, somos fortalecidos para enfrentar el viaje por delante, que incluye toda la adversidad y el dinamismo de la ciudadanía activa. Como a los apóstoles se les dieron ideas que les ayudaron a sostenerlos cuando se escandalizaron por la brutalidad de la Cruz, nosotros también estamos invitados a mantener nuestra fe de la Pascua, pase lo que pase, para mantenernos firmes en Cristo hasta el final.

Esto puede significar que, ante el desaliento, busquemos formas nuevas de ser fieles a nuestra vida en Cristo. ¡Vale la pena! Puede significar que cuando nuestras rutinas del pasado de la práctica de la fe parecen estar desinfladas, las revitalizamos a la luz de Tabor. ¡La salvación espera! Puede significar que cuando una metodología de hacer el ministerio es ineficaz, nos atrevemos a pensar más allá para la gloria de su nombre. Hay más de una manera de hacer las cosas. ¡Una fe dinámica lo exige! La maravilla de Dios lo merece.

Que nuestra participación en la Cuaresma de este año nos ayude a subir al monte santo con Cristo, a reconocer la maravilla de Dios y a hacer de Él otra vez nuestra luz y nuestra salvación.
