FROM THE DESK OF FATHER DAVIS

Several years ago, I had the treasured opportunity to travel to Poland with Deacon Rafael de los Reyes, his wife, Dulcita, and a number of our parishioners on a wonderful pilgrimage to the Shrine of Divine Mercy. Our pilgrimage group not only had the privilege of celebrating Mass at the Shrine, where Pope John Paul II had been, but we also did so in the chapel which houses the tomb of Saint Faustina herself. We prayed intently there, begging her intercession, and to have a greater appreciation of the spiritual life, which her own life and experience could inspire. My mind hearkens back to that momentous trip, as today our Easter joy continues with the celebration of Divine Mercy Sunday.

The theological description of the message of Divine Mercy, of course, is that “God is merciful.” Our own national shrine of Divine Mercy in Stockbridge, Massachusetts has again recently distributed a beautiful and meaningful brochure to all Catholic parishes throughout America. I received it in the mail last month. In that brochure is described in detail this mystery of Divine Mercy, for which we all are beneficiaries. Having just celebrated the Paschal Triduum, we should not be surprised to conclude that in Jesus Christ, “we see love itself poured out for us, and he wants no one to escape that merciful love.” This message, so aptly reflected today in the very Octave of Easter through which we are reminded, as we live in the wake of Resurrection of Our Lord, that “God wants us to turn to him with trust and repentance, while it is still a time of mercy, before he comes as the just Judge. This turning with trust to him who is mercy itself is the only source of peace for mankind. Turning to and imploring God’s mercy is the answer to our troubled world. There is no escaping that answer.”

Years ago, Pope Saint John Paul II wrote a wonderful encyclical, entitled, Dives in Misericordia (i.e., “Rich in Mercy”). The message that he described is surely a message for our age, truly the powerful message of a spiritual springtime, and it reflects the impact of the Risen life of Christ for us. The Pope said in that encyclical, that “the Church must consider it one of her principle duties - at every stage of history and especially in our modern age - to proclaim and introduce into life the mystery of mercy, supremely revealed in Jesus Christ” (14). Indeed, insofar as Easter takes hold of our hearts and souls, our lives will be ever effective in becoming instruments of this work of the Gospel.

Why would we not want to reap the benefits of all that he did for us at the Last Supper, at Gethsemane, on the Via Dolorosa, on Calvary, and in the light of the Empty Tomb? His Divine Mercy was expressed through all of it, as the ultimate expression of love. No wonder we sing the song, “What wondrous love is this!” The Easter season always calls us to more and more appropriate this mystery in our lives with trusting faith. Our Lord’s Resurrection appearances confirmed the Apostles in such an understanding. The continuing action of Christ through the Sacraments and the work of the Mystical Body of Christ, the Church, mobilizes us similarly today.

Quoting the brochure again, “Our Lord not only taught Sister Faustina the fundamentals of trust, and of mercy to others, but he also revealed special ways to live out the response to his mercy.... We are called to commit our lives to the Lord who is Mercy itself. By giving our lives to the Divine Mercy - Jesus Christ Himself - we become instruments of His mercy to others, and so we can live out the command of the Lord: Be merciful even as your Heavenly Father is merciful” (Lk.636). Such a trusting, faith-filled, response is surely the fruit of a vibrant Easter faith, the work of the Gospel, and our clarion calling as contemporary believers. The Mercy of the Risen Christ is abundantly available for all who approach with faith and hope. What a glorious gift! Happy Easter!

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PADRE DAVIS

Hace varios años, tuve la gran oportunidad de viajar a Polonia con el diácono Rafael de los Reyes, su esposa Dulcita y varios de nuestros feligreses en una peregrinación maravillosa al Santuario de la Divina Misericordia. Nuestro grupo de peregrinación no solo tuvo el privilegio de celebrar una misa en el Santuario, donde había estado el Papa Juan Pablo II, sino que también lo hicimos en la capilla que alberga la tumba de Santa Faustina. Rezamos atentamente allí, suplicando su intercesión, y para tener una apreciación mayor de la vida espiritual, que su propia vida y experiencia podrían inspirar. Mi mente se remonta a ese viaje trascendental, ya que hoy nuestra alegría de Pascua continúa con la celebración del Domingo de la Divina Misericordia.

La descripción teológica del mensaje de la Divina Misericordia, por supuesto, es que "Dios es misericordioso". Nuestro propio santuario nacional de la Divina Misericordia en Stockbridge, Massachusetts, nuevamente ha distribuido recientemente un folleto hermoso y significativo a todas las parroquias católicas de América. Lo recibí en el correo el mes pasado. En ese folleto se describe en detalle este misterio de la Divina Misericordia, del cual todos somos beneficiarios. Habiendo celebrado el Triduo Pascual, no deberíamos sorprendernos al concluir que en Jesucristo, "vemos que el amor se derramó por nosotros y que él no quiere que nadie escape de ese amor misericordioso". Este mensaje, tan acertadamente reflejado hoy en la propia Octava de la Pascua a través de la cual se nos recuerda, mientras vivimos como consecuencia de la Resurrección de Nuestro Señor, que "Dios quiere que nos dirijamos a él con confianza y arrepentimiento, mientras que todavía sea un tiempo de misericordia, antes de que venga como el juez justo. Este giro con confianza para quien es misericordia es la única fuente de paz para la humanidad. Cambiando e implorando la misericordia de Dios es la respuesta a nuestro mundo atribulado. No hay escapatoria a esa respuesta".

Hace años, el Papa San Juan Pablo II escribió una maravillosa encíclica, titulada Dives in Misericordia (es decir, "Ricos en Misericordia"). El mensaje que describió es seguramente un mensaje para nuestra era, verdaderamente el mensaje poderoso de una primavera espiritual, y refleja el impacto de la vida de Cristo resucitado para nosotros. El Papa dijo en esa encíclica que "la Iglesia debe considerar que uno de sus deberes principales - en cada etapa de la historia y especialmente en nuestra era moderna - proclamar e insertar en la vida el misterio de la misericordia, revelado de manera suprema en Jesucristo" (14). De hecho, en la medida en que la Pascua se apodere de nuestros corazones y almas, nuestras vidas serán siempre eficaces para convertirnos en instrumentos de esta obra del Evangelio.

¿Por qué no querríamos aprovechar los beneficios de todo lo que hizo por nosotros en la Última Cena, en Getsemaní, en la Vía Dolorosa, en el Calvario y a la luz de la Tumba vacía? Su Divina Misericordia se expresó a través de todo esto, como la máxima expresión del amor. No es de extrañar que cantemos la canción: "¡Qué maravilloso amor es esto!" La temporada de Pascua siempre nos llama a aplicar más y más este misterio en nuestras vidas con fe confiada. Las apariciones de Nuestro Señor en la Resurrección confirmaron a los Apóstoles en tal entendimiento. La acción continua de Cristo a través de los Sacramentos y la obra del Cuerpo Místico de Cristo, la Iglesia, nos moviliza de manera similar hoy.

Citando el folleto nuevamente, "Nuestro Señor no solo le enseñó a la hermana Faustina los fundamentos de la confianza y la misericordia hacia los demás, sino que también reveló formas especiales de vivir en respuesta a su misericordia.... Estamos llamados a entregar nuestras vidas al Señor, que es la Misericordia misma. Al entregar nuestra vida a la Divina Misericordia - Jesucristo mismo -nos convertimos en instrumentos de Su misericordia para los demás, y así podemos cumplir el mandato del Señor: Sé misericordioso incluso como tu Padre Celestial es misericordioso" (Lk.636). Una respuesta tan confiada y llena de fe es seguramente el fruto de una fe vibrante en la Pascua, la obra del Evangelio y nuestro llamamiento como creyentes contemporáneos. La Misericordia de Cristo Resucitado está disponible en abundancia para todos los que se acercan con fe y esperanza. ¡Qué regalo glorioso! ¡Feliz Pascua de Resurrección!

COTLF Charities Do You Know WE HAVE A POOR BOX?

One of the regular ways that the good works of our “COTLF Charities” organization takes place is through the resources given in generosity to the Poor Box. Located in the back of church, near the Saint Anthony statue, the Poor Box is available to receive your donations, sacrifices, and gestures of almsgiving and penance which, in turn, are utilized to assist the poor, the needy, and those in emergency circumstances of our parish and within our parish territory.

Thank you for considering providing a gift of support to assist the most vulnerable.

FATHER-SON COMMUNION BREAKFAST

A new initiative, several months away, but worthy of mention now, is our plan to have a Father-Son Communion breakfast at Little Flower. The idea is that on June 15th, the day before Father's Day, all grandfathers, fathers and sons together, would come to a Saturday morning Mass at 8:00am, receive Communion together, and afterwards, enjoy a pancake breakfast together in Comber Hall, during which a motivational talk on the importance of the father-son relationship would be presented. Details coming soon!

PROMISE TO PROTECT

Since 2002, the Catholic Church in the U.S.A. has followed a set of rules initiated by the bishops of the country and approved by the Vatican for dealing with sexual abuse of minors by priest or deacons: The Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People. In the Archdiocese of Miami, the policy includes vulnerable adults.

Every U.S. diocese/eparchy must meet a specific set of requirements. We will share a couple of them each week throughout April during Child Abuse Prevention Month. The Archdiocese of Miami is in compliance and has been each of the 17 years since the inception of the Charter.

- ♦ To remove offending priests or deacons permanently from Church ministry.
- ♦ To prohibit the transfer of offending priests or deacons for ministerial assignment in another parish, diocese or eparchy

- ♦ To receive necessary background information before permitting a priest or deacon to exercise ministry in a diocese or eparchy

Desde el 2002, la Iglesia Católica en los Estados Unidos ha seguido un conjunto de reglas creadas por los obispos del país y aprobadas por el Vaticano para enfrentar el abuso sexual de menores por parte de sacerdotes o diáconos: Estatuto para la protección de niños y jóvenes de los obispos de los EE.UU.

Cada diócesis / eparquía en los Estados Unidos debe cumplir con unos requisitos específicos. Vamos a compartir un par de ellos cada semana durante el mes de abril, el mes de prevención del abuso infantil. La Arquidiócesis de Miami está en cumplimiento y ha estado en cumplimiento cada uno de los 17 años desde la creación de estas normas.

- ♦ Retirar a los sacerdotes o diáconos ofensores permanentemente del ministerio de la Iglesia.
- ♦ Prohibir la transferencia de sacerdotes o diáconos ofensores a otra parroquia, diócesis o eparquía.
- ♦ Recibir los antecedentes necesarios antes de permitir que un sacerdote o diácono ejerza el ministerio en una diócesis o eparquía.
