FROM THE DESK OF FATHER DAVIS

We continue the Easter season this weekend with further illustrations of Jesus' post-Resurrection appearances.

On our recent Holy Land pilgrimage, while on a boat ride on the Sea of Galilee, I had the opportunity to learn how to do the "ancient" way of fishing with nets. As we were on the boat traversing across the Sea, the boat captain demonstrated and then asked me to follow his example by throwing a net into the Sea on the "right side of the boat." I must admit, it required a bit of concentration and coordinated skill. I am not a fisherman; nor am I Simon Peter, so I did not catch anything. Yet, the experience did give me a sense of the skills required by Peter and the other Apostles as they made their daily living as fishermen. Moreover, it also gave me a sense of following the Lord's command, and doing what I am told to do by Jesus. My life's journey has proven time and time again that there are often surprising results, when we heed the voice of the Lord. In Peter's case, the "great catch" of the many fish of every kind was surely a symbol of the future evangelizational work of the Church, which Peter and the Apostles would lead. An abundant catch certainly await those who did things the Lord's way, on the "right side of the boat." There's a lesson here for us, as he teaches us a new way of living.

While in the Holy Land, we went to the Church of the Primacy of Peter and the "Mensa Christi." It is here, along the shores of the Sea of Galilee, that we saw the statue that marks the spot where Peter, after having recently denied the Lord three times in Jerusalem, was able to profess his love for Christ three times. "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you," Peter said. Then Jesus gave him additional challenging instructions: "Tend my lambs. Feed my sheep. Feed my lambs." Indeed, it's not so much that we have complicated our lives through lack of focus, selfishness, and perhaps fear. Rather, it's more important that we get up again, make things right, establish the clarity of faith-filled conviction, and forge ahead in the work of Christ. The Lord gives us opportunity after opportunity to profess our love of him. When we do, we can be assured that there will also be corresponding responsibilities. Indeed, at the most basic level, we are to be concerned about one another, contribute our time and energies to the community of the Church, and build up the Kingdom of God with our lives. It's a personal calling. It's also communal. Heaven is in the balance. His love challenges us to a new life.

On our pilgrimage, we had a chance to touch the "Mensa Christi," the rock slab table, on which the Risen Christ sat and served breakfast to the Apostles. Fish and bread were warmed and shared for breakfast with the Risen Lord. He wasn't a ghost. He was the glorified and Risen Christ, instilling an Easter faith in the Apostles, a faith that would sustain them in their own effort to feed the multitudes with God's Word and the graces of life in Christ in the Sacraments of the Church. In the sacred meal of the Lord, the Eucharist, Christ is constantly feeding his people. Won't you come and have "breakfast" with Jesus, allowing him to feed you with his risen life? He awaits us to take our place at the "Mensa Christi." The Holy Land reminded us of what a privilege we have at the Lord's table, as the Bread of Life and the Cup of Eternal Salvation are shared at every holy Mass throughout the world. He is always feeding us.

He teaches us; he challenges us, and feeds us. What a loving God! Alleluia!!

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PADRE DAVIS

Continuamos la temporada de Pascua este fin de semana con más ilustraciones de las apariciones posteriores a la resurrección de Jesús.

En nuestro reciente peregrinaje a Tierra Santa, mientras estaba en un paseo en barco por el Mar de Galilea, tuve la oportunidad de aprender a hacer la forma "antigua" de pescar con redes. Cuando estábamos en el bote atravesando el mar, el capitán del bote hizo una demostración y luego me pidió que siguiera su ejemplo lanzando una red al mar en el "lado derecho del bote". Debo admitir que requería un poco de concentración y habilidad coordinada. No soy pescador ni tampoco soy Simón Pedro, así que no atrapé nada. Sin embargo, la experiencia me dio un sentido de las habilidades requeridas por Pedro y los otros Apóstoles mientras hacían su vida diaria como pescadores. Además, también me dio la sensación de seguir el mandato del Señor y hacer lo que Jesús me dice que haga. La jornada de mi vida me ha demostrado una y otra vez más que a menudo hay resultados sorprendentes cuando escuchamos la voz del Señor. En el caso de Pedro, la "gran captura" de los muchos peces de todo tipo fue seguramente un símbolo del futuro trabajo de evangelización de la Iglesia, que Pedro y los Apóstoles guiarían. Ciertamente hay una pesca abundante para aquellos que hicieron las cosas de la manera del Señor, en el "lado derecho del bote". Aquí hay una lección para nosotros, ya que él nos enseña una forma nueva de vivir.

Mientras estábamos en Tierra Santa, fuimos a la Iglesia de la Primacía de Pedro y a la "Mensa Christi". Es aquí, a lo largo de las orillas del Mar de Galilea, que vimos la estatua que marca el lugar donde Pedro, después de recientemente haber negado al Señor tres veces en Jerusalén, fue capaz de profesar su amor por Cristo tres veces. "Sí, Señor, sabes que te amo", dijo Pedro. Entonces Jesús le dio instrucciones desafiantes adicionales: "Cuida mis corderos. Alimenta mis ovejas. Alimenta mis corderos". De hecho, no es tanto que hayamos complicado nuestras vidas por falta de concentración, egoísmo y quizás miedo. Más bien, es más importante que nos levantemos de nuevo, corrijamos las cosas, establezcamos la claridad de la convicción llena de fe y avancemos en la obra de Cristo. El Señor nos da oportunidad tras oportunidad de profesar nuestro amor por él. Cuando lo hagamos, podemos estar seguros de que también habrá responsabilidades correspondientes. De hecho, en el nivel más básico, debemos preocuparnos los unos por los otros, contribuir con nuestro tiempo y nuestras energías a la comunidad de la Iglesia y construir el Reino de Dios con nuestras vidas. Es una vocación personal. También es comunal. El cielo está en la balanza. Su amor nos desafía a una vida nueva.

En nuestro peregrinaje, tuvimos la oportunidad de tocar la "Mensa Christi", la mesa de losa de roca, en la que el Cristo resucitado se sentó y sirvió el desayuno a los apóstoles. El pescado y el pan se calentaron y se compartieron para el desayuno con el Señor resucitado. Él no era un fantasma. Él fue el Cristo glorificado y resucitado, inculcando una fe de Pascua en los Apóstoles, una fe que los sostendría en su propio esfuerzo para alimentar a las multitudes con la Palabra de Dios y las gracias de la vida en Cristo en los Sacramentos de la Iglesia. En la comida sagrada del Señor, la Eucaristía, Cristo alimenta constantemente a su pueblo. ¿No vendrás y "desayunarás" con Jesús, permitiéndole que te alimente con su vida resucitada? Nos espera para tomar nuestro lugar en la "Mensa Christi". La Tierra Santa nos recordó el privilegio que tenemos en la mesa del Señor, ya que el Pan de Vida y la Copa de la Salvación Eterna se comparten en cada Santa Misa en todo el mundo. Él siempre nos está alimentando.

Él nos enseña; Él nos desafía, y nos alimenta. ¡Qué Dios amoroso! ¡Aleluya!!

COTLF Charities Do You Know WE HAVE A POOR BOX?

One of the regular ways that the good works of our “COTLF Charities” organization takes place is through the resources given in generosity to the Poor Box. Located in the back of church, near the Saint Anthony statue, the Poor Box is available to receive your donations, sacrifices, and gestures of almsgiving and penance which, in turn, are utilized to assist the poor, the needy, and those in emergency circumstances of our parish and within our parish territory.

Thank you for considering providing a gift of support to assist the most vulnerable.

FATHER-SON COMMUNION BREAKFAST

A new initiative, several months away, but worthy of mention now, is our plan to have a Father-Son Communion breakfast at Little Flower. The idea is that on June 15th, the day before Father's Day, all grandfathers, fathers and sons together, would come to a Saturday morning Mass at 8:00am, receive Communion together, and afterwards, enjoy a pancake breakfast together in Comber Hall, during which a motivational talk on the importance of the father-son relationship would be presented. Details coming soon!
