A SPECIAL MESSAGE FROM FATHER DAVIS

As we find ourselves now in the First Communion season, the approach of the month of June, and the end of yet another successful school year, I again take time to reflect and take stock of the year that has gone by so quickly. Already approaching the completion of eight years (two presidential terms!) as the Pastor of the Church of the Little Flower, I have much for which to be thankful. Together, we have accomplished so many things to the glory of God!

Whether it has been the experience of our beautiful liturgies, our vibrant array of active ministries and services, the development of a wonderful professional staff, an impressive international group of devoted priests that make up a very healthy parish rectory, the enhancement of our community and its devotional life, our Healing Masses and pilgrimages, the fiscal health of the over-all parish and school operations, the hosting and training of seminarians for future priestly ministry, the creativity in our print and social media initiatives, and the all-consuming care for the patrimony of the parish, there has, indeed, been much accomplished in relative short order.

This year in the Archdiocese of Miami, with the retirement of several pastors as well as the unanticipated deaths of a couple of our diocesan priests, the priest personnel situation in our South Florida Catholic parishes is quite acute. For the past seven years I have worked closely with Archbishop Wenski, as a member of his Priest Personnel Board, and I know first-hand the slots to be filled and the extensive needs of our Archdiocese. Our priests throughout South Florida have been called upon time and time again to flexibly respond to the pastoral demands of a church ever in need. This coming June will be no different. Many assignment changes for priests will take place, all with a view to best serve the uniqueness of our many parishes and their great cultural diversity. Knowing of the Archbishop's exemplary concern for the care of souls, I made myself available, ready to assist, even ready to move. To be honest, I love change; I love challenge, and I love the Church no matter where it is manifest. With this in mind, when presented with the needs of a larger parish than ours, and when asked if I were willing to assume those responsibilities, I naturally told the Archbishop "yes."

Recently, this conversation has become reality with the announcement of my transfer to become the new Pastor of Saint Gregory the Great Catholic Church in Plantation, Broward County, Florida, effective June 15th. A quick transition will soon be underway for me and for our parish.

As I share this news with you, mixed emotions fill my heart. In so many ways, I have loved being your Pastor here at Little Flower. You have made me feel like a bishop in my own cathedral! Yet, it is part of my priestly DNA to be a man of the Church, to look at the broader picture of the Kingdom of God, and to forge ahead on the spiritual journey of following Jesus. It has been my joy to serve you; and it will now be my joy to serve the good people of Saint Gregory, as I have done in all of my previous 11 assignments over my 29 years as a priest.

A fine new Pastor for Little Flower has been chosen. For the first time in parish history, a priest of Cuban-American heritage will take on the leadership of our very vibrant church. Father Manny Alvarez, the current Pastor of Immaculate Conception in Hialeah, will become the new Pastor at Little Flower, effective June 15th. I think you will be very pleased, and well taken care of too!

For the sake of planning, my own farewell Mass will be on Sunday, June 9th at 10:30am, followed by a reception in Comber Hall. Let us rejoice in all that God has done among us, as a new chapter dawns.

UN MENSAJE ESPECIAL DEL PADRE DAVIS

Al encontrarnos ahora en la temporada de Primera Comunión, el mes de junio y el fin de otro año escolar exitoso, nuevamente me tomo el tiempo para reflexionar y hacer un balance del año que ha pasado tan rápido. Ya cerca de la finalización de ocho años (idos mandatos presidenciales!) como el Párroco de la Iglesia de Santa Teresita, tengo mucho por lo cual estar agradecido. ¡Juntos, hemos logrado tantas cosas para la gloria de Dios!

Ya sea la experiencia de nuestras liturgias hermosas, nuestra variedad de ministerios y servicios activos y vibrantes, el desarrollo de un personal profesional maravilloso, un grupo internacional e impresionante de sacerdotes devotos que forman una rectoría parroquial muy saludable, el mejoramiento de nuestra comunidad y su vida devocional, nuestras Misas de Sanación y peregrinaciones, la salud fiscal de las operaciones parroquiales y escolares en general, el alojamiento y entrenamiento de los seminaristas para el futuro ministerio sacerdotal, la creatividad en nuestras iniciativas de medios impresos y redes sociales, y todo el cuidado consumidor de la atención por el patrimonio de la parroquia, de hecho, se ha logrado mucho en relativamente poco tiempo.

Este año en la Arquidiócesis de Miami, con la jubilación de varios párrocos y la muerte imprevista de un par de nuestros sacerdotes diocesanos, la situación del personal de sacerdotes en nuestras parroquias católicas del sur de la Florida es bastante grave. Durante los últimos siete años, he trabajado en estrecha colaboración con el Arzobispo Wenski, como miembro de su Junta de Personal Sacerdotal, y conozco de primera mano las vacantes que deben cumplirse y las necesidades grandes de nuestra Arquidiócesis. Nuestros sacerdotes en todo el sur de la Florida han sido llamados una y otra vez para responder con flexibilidad a las demandas pastorales de una iglesia siempre necesitada. El próximo mes de junio no será diferente. Se llevarán a cabo muchos cambios de asignación para los sacerdotes, todos con el fin de servir mejor la singularidad de nuestro gran número de parroquias y su gran diversidad cultural.

Al conocer la preocupación ejemplar del Arzobispo por el cuidado de las almas, me hice disponible, listo para ayudar, incluso listo para moverme. Para ser honesto, me encanta el cambio; amo el desafío, y amo a la Iglesia sin importar dónde se manifieste. Con esto en mente, cuando se me presentaron las necesidades de una parroquia más grande que la nuestra, y cuando me preguntaron si estaba dispuesto a asumir esas responsabilidades, naturalmente le dije al Arzobispo que "sí".

Recientemente, esta conversación se ha hecho realidad con el anuncio de mi traslado para convertirme en el nuevo Párroco de la Iglesia Católica de San Gregorio Magno en Plantation, Broward County, Florida, a partir del 15 de junio. Habrá pronto una transición rápida para mí y para nuestra parroquia.

Mientras comparto estas noticias con ustedes, las emociones mixtas llenan mi corazón. En muchos sentidos, me ha encantado ser su Párroco aquí en Little Flower. ¡Me han hecho sentir como un obispo en mi propia catedral! Sin embargo, es parte de mi ADN sacerdotal ser un hombre de la Iglesia, mirar el panorama más amplio del Reino de Dios y avanzar en el camino espiritual de seguir a Jesús. Ha sido mi alegría servirlos; y ahora será una alegría servir a la gente buena de San Gregorio, como lo he hecho en mis 11 tareas anteriores durante mis 29 años como sacerdote.

Un buen párroco nuevo para Santa Teresita ha sido elegido. Por primera vez en la historia de la parroquia, un sacerdote de herencia cubana-estadounidense asumirá el liderazgo de nuestra muy vibrante iglesia. El Padre Manny Alvarez, el Párroco actual de la Inmaculada Concepción en Hialeah, se convertirá en el nuevo Párroco de Santa Teresita, a partir del 15 de junio. ¡Creo que estarán muy contentos y bien cuidados también!

Por el bien de la planificación, mi propia misa de despedida será el domingo 9 de junio a las 10:30 am, seguida de una recepción en Comber Hall. Regocijémonos por todo lo que Dios ha hecho entre nosotros, a medida que comienza un capítulo nuevo.

FROM THE DESK OF FATHER FLORES

My grandmother used to say that “God never gives us more than we can handle. I just wish God didn’t have such faith in me.” It’s a common saying and for me it expresses the doubt she felt in handling things all on her own. Then she would immediately start telling us that she really was not alone in the journey.

Jesus is saying much the same thing. He is telling those who doubt that he is one with God, that he knows his followers, and that they know him. He is using the vivid image of sheep to describe his followers from the Good Shepherd passage. And he is declaring that he knows all who follow him, and they know him for who he is. This is also a continuation of the questioning from the previous week’s text. Jesus is once again providing proof that his actions are sanctioned by God.

We also hear the allusion of a thief coming to steal the sheep of Jesus’ flock, but his followers are protected by One who is more powerful than any thief coming to do them harm. There are two marks to being part of Jesus’ flock: hearing his voice and following him. The folks who are once again pestering him about his identity are not part of this flock.

Jesus’ words in today’s Gospel touch all of us who have known hard times, who have been afflicted by disease and lost loved ones, who have been addicted and known loss, who have not felt protected from loved ones who abuse or belittle them. These are the words into which we are called to bring the Gospel message of peace and grace. These are the words into which we are called to bring a word of hope. We are called to help folks hear the voice of the shepherd and to follow him in their lives.

So how do we do this? We do it by being aware of what is going on in our communities and being true to that reality in our giving. We do it by providing a way out of the lostness -- by providing again or for the first time a chance to be invited into a relationship with God. We do this by reminding ourselves and others of the gifts of God’s unmerited grace and forgiveness. We do that by once again remembering and encountering the gift of grace at baptism and to remember the abundant hope we receive from the body and blood of Christ shared in the Eucharist, the source and summit of our Christian life.

In the end, we must understand that the sheep do not choose the shepherd, but rather, it is the shepherd who chooses the sheep. Jesus, the Christ, the Word of God; in whom all that is comes to be, it is to Jesus that everything belongs. To us Christians; Jesus is the shepherd, and the Shepherd is God; God, the creator of the universe. There is just the one shepherd; just the one sheepfold, and whether it make sense to us or not, it is to that shepherd that we all belong.

Listen for the voice of the shepherd, and do not trouble yourself with how the shepherd speaks to you, in what language, in what text, to your sister, or your brother, to your neighbors or the stranger. The shepherd is speaking to them to, and they are listening as they are able (or willing). Everyone who believes, without exception, follows in the way of God, there is no other way. Do not trouble yourself if you do not understand the journey any other person is on, God is guiding them, as God is guiding you. If you resist, God will be patient, God will wait, as God waits for everyone. But our time is short! For God, Jesus, the shepherd, they are love, and love is patient; as it is kind. Happy Mother’s Day to all Mothers! May the Lord Bless you.
