FROM THE DESK OF FATHER DAVIS

“Renew the face of the earth.”

Now that Jesus has risen from the dead, having personally appeared to many people over the course of 40 days, and ascended to the Father, the Promised One is now sent to the Apostles. The Advocate, the Paraclete, the living, constantly abiding, inspiring, renewing Holy Spirit of God comes upon them in fire and power. In that upper room, a place that some of us who have traveled to the Holy Land have seen with our own eyes, the Spirit of the Living God descended upon the Apostles in the cenacle (with Mary present), igniting a new chapter in Salvation History. Far from feeling abandoned and confused, the Apostles were filled with certainty and spiritual confidence; they were energized, ennobled with spiritual gifts (among them fortitude) and sent in the power of the Spirit to renew the face of the earth in the light of the Gospel of Christ. To revitalize, spiritualize, and Christianize the face of the earth was now their life's purpose and mission. It now falls to us, the contemporary community of Jesus' followers to welcome the same Spirit of God into our lives and to do the same. Renew the face of the earth!

In each of my eleven assignments as a priest, I have been conscious of the responsibility to heal, vivify, and renew the Church and its membership. My methodology has been one of organizing a quality team of coworkers, beautifying the landscape of our labors, gathering into community a diversity of peoples in love with the Lord, solemnly and reverently expressing that love in worshipful liturgical prayer and praise, responding with zeal to those eager to be fed, helping people to advance in the knowledge of the truth, and inviting all to be generous with their time and resources to the glory of God. As providence would have it, our Parish Council embraced a wonderful mission statement, printed each week on the front cover of our bulletin, that succinctly and meaningfully summarizes these sentiments. We are "together, worshipping the Lord, forming disciples, serving in the name of Jesus." My priestly mission, and yes our parish mission, has everything to do with "renewing the face of the earth" in a way that advances the cause of Christ and his promises in the hearts of all. This is sometimes done prayerfully, sometimes artistically, sometimes with exhortation, sometimes with discipline, but above all with love of the Lord and in service to His Mystical Body, the Church.

As I take leave of you this week, I invite you again to welcome the gifts of the Holy Spirit in your life. If you don't know what they are, then activate a zealous faith that leads you to search out and discover your spiritual potential in Christ. Life is very short. We often waste so much time. We frequently miss the opportunity to live deeply and completely. To "renew the face of the earth" has everything to do with the renewal of our own lives, saturating them with holiness, prayer, kindness, generosity, mercy, goodness, forgiveness and charity. These charisms will form hearts that reflect our Risen Lord to a waiting world.

And finally, I commend you to the maternal care of the Blessed Mother, Mary. The Holy Spirit fashioned her into the masterpiece of God. The Holy Spirit overshadowed her and guided her every step and her every utterance. May you always have a place in your journey for the "Mama" of our Blessed Lord. With Mary, you can never go wrong!

Thanks, Little Flower, for a great 8 years on the journey of faith! If I don't see you before, I'll see you in eternity. In the meantime, let's keep renewing the face of the earth to the glory of Christ!

Love,

Fr. Davis

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PADRE DAVIS

“Renueva la faz de la tierra”. Ambr1955
Ahora que Jesús ha resucitado de entre los muertos, habiéndose aparecido personalmente a muchas personas a lo largo de 40 días, y ascendido al Padre, el Prometido ahora es enviado a los Apóstoles, el Defensor, el Paráclito, el viviente, siempre permanente, siempre inspirando, el Espíritu Santo de Dios descendió sobre ellos en fuego y poder. En ese aposento alto, un lugar que algunos de nosotros que hemos viajado a Tierra Santa hemos visto con nuestros propios ojos, el Espíritu del Dios Viviente descendió sobre los Apóstoles en el cenáculo (con María presente), encendiendo un nuevo capítulo en la historia de la Salvación. Lejos de sentirse abandonados y confundidos, los apóstoles estaban llenos de certeza y confianza espiritual; fueron energizados, ennoblecidos con dones espirituales (entre ellos la fortaleza) y enviados con el poder del Espíritu para renovar la faz de la tierra a la luz del Evangelio de Cristo. Revitalizar, espiritualizar y cristianizar la faz de la tierra era ahora el propósito y la misión de sus vidas. Ahora nos corresponde a nosotros, la comunidad contemporánea de los seguidores de Jesús, dar la bienvenida al mismo Espíritu de Dios en nuestras vidas y hacer lo mismo. ¡Renueva la faz de la tierra!

En cada una de mis once asignaciones como sacerdote, he sido consciente de la responsabilidad de sanar, vivificar y renovar a la Iglesia y a sus miembros. Mi metodología ha consistido en organizar un equipo de compañeros de trabajo de calidad, embellecer el paisaje de nuestras labores, reunir en comunidad a una diversidad de personas enamoradas del Señor, expresar solemnemente y con reverencia ese amor en una oración y alabanza litúrgica de adoración, respondiendo con celo a aquellos ansiosos por ser alimentados, ayudando a las personas a avanzar en el conocimiento de la verdad, e invitando a todos a ser generosos con su tiempo y recursos para la gloria de Dios. Como lo haría la Providencia, nuestro Consejo Parroquial asumió una declaración maravillosa de misión, impresa cada semana en la portada de nuestro boletín, que resume de manera concisa y significativa estos sentimientos. Estamos "juntos, adorando al Señor, formando discípulos, sirviendo en el nombre de Jesús". Mi misión sacerdotal, y sí, nuestra misión parroquial, tiene todo que ver con "renovar la faz de la tierra" de una manera que promueva la causa de Cristo y sus promesas en los corazones de todos. Esto se hace a veces en oración, a veces artísticamente, a veces con exhortación, a veces con disciplina, pero sobre todo con amor al Señor y al servicio de Su Cuerpo Místico, la Iglesia.

Cuando me despido de ustedes esta semana, les invito nuevamente a recibir los dones del Espíritu Santo en su vida. Si no saben los que son, entonces pongan en marcha una fe celosa que los lleve a buscar y descubrir su potencial espiritual en Cristo. La vida es muy corta. A menudo perdemos tanto tiempo. Frecuentemente perdemos la oportunidad de vivir profunda y completamente. "Renovar la faz de la tierra" tiene todo que ver con la renovación de nuestras propias vidas, saturándolas con santidad, oración, amabilidad, generosidad, misericordia, bondad, perdón y caridad. Estos carismas formarán corazones que reflejarán a nuestro Señor resucitado a un mundo que espera.

Y, finalmente, los encomiendo al cuidado materno de la Santísima Madre, María. El Espíritu Santo la convirtió en la obra maestra de Dios. El Espíritu Santo descendió sobre ella y la guio a cada paso y en cada una de sus palabras. Que siempre tengan un lugar en su jornada para la "Mamá" de nuestro Bendito Señor. ¡Con María, nunca pueden equivocarse!

Gracias, Santa Teresita, ¡por 8 años grandes en el camino de la fe! Si no los veo antes, los veré en la eternidad. Mientras tanto, ¡sigamos renovando la faz de la tierra para la gloria de Cristo!

Con amor,
Padre Davis
