WELCOME, FATHER MANNY ALVAREZ

BIENVENIDO, PADRE MANNY ALVAREZ!

It was a majestic send-off for Father Davis last week, an amazing wine and food festival last Saturday night, a glorious Pentecost Sunday Mass, concelebrated by eight additional priests (including Father O'Sullivan), stately music with trumpet and timpani, tearful testimonials, and a beautiful reception in Comber Hall during which hundreds of parishioners thanked Father for his amazing eight years of service and love. This past Thursday, Father Davis moved to his new parish of Saint Gregory the Great in Plantation. He sends his greetings, gratitude and love to us as a new chapter in our spiritual lives begins under the leadership of Little Flower's new pastor: Father Manuel Alvarez.

Words of welcome are now in order for Father Alvarez, the 9th Pastor of the historical Church of the Little Flower in Coral Gables. He moved in this past Friday, with his first day on the job this past Saturday, June 15th. He takes the helm of a very vibrant and highly regarded Catholic community in the Archdiocese of Miami, bringing with him his energetic personality, a zeal for ministry, an excellent work ethic, and his abundant spiritual gifts. His excellent service as the former Pastor of Our Lady of Divine Providence Catholic Church in Sweetwater, and most recently as Pastor of Immaculate Conception Church in Hialeah, has set the stage for his service among us as our new Pastor. He follows in the path of our beloved Monsignor Morras, who likewise came to Little Flower directly from Immaculate Conception Church as well. Father Alvarez' curriculum vitae is newly posted on our parish website for our perusal.

Our community is now delighted to warmly welcome him with our prayers and best wishes for a fruitful ministry, as the newest member of our parish family. Father: may you be at home among us and be choicely blessed by the Lord.

Ad Multos Annos!

Fue una despedida majestuosa para el Padre Davis la semana pasada, un festival de comidas y vinos increíble el sábado pasado por la noche, una misa gloriosa del domingo de Pentecostés, concelebrada por ocho sacerdotes adicionales (incluyendo al Padre O'Sullivan), música majestuosa con trompeta y timbales, testimonios con lágrimas y una hermosa recepción en Comber Hall durante la cual cientos de feligreses agradecieron al Padre por sus ocho años increíbles de servicio y amor. El jueves pasado, el Padre Davis se mudó a su nueva parroquia de San Gregorio Magno en Plantation. Él nos envía sus saludos, gratitud y amor cuando comienza un capítulo nuevo en nuestras vidas espirituales bajo el liderazgo del nuevo párroco de Santa Teresita: el padre Manuel Álvarez.

Las palabras de bienvenida están ahora apropiadas para el Padre Álvarez, el 9no Párroco de la histórica Iglesia de Santa Teresita en Coral Gables. Se mudó el viernes pasado, con su primer día en el trabajo el sábado pasado, 15 de junio. Toma el timón de una comunidad católica muy vibrante y de gran prestigio en la Arquidiócesis de Miami, trayendo consigo su personalidad enérgica, un celo por el ministerio, una excelente ética de trabajo y sus abundantes dones espirituales. Su excelente servicio como ex párroco de la Iglesia Católica Nuestra Señora de la Divina Providencia en Sweetwater, y más recientemente como párroco de la Iglesia de la Inmaculada Concepción en Hialeah, han preparado el escenario para su servicio entre nosotros como nuestro nuevo párroco. Sigue el camino de nuestro querido Monseñor Morras, quien también vino a Santa Teresita directamente desde la Iglesia de la Inmaculada Concepción. El currículum vitae del Padre Álvarez se publicó recientemente en nuestro sitio web parroquial para nuestra lectura.

Nuestra comunidad ahora está encantada de darle una bienvenida afectuosa con nuestras oraciones y nuestros mejores deseos de un ministerio fructífero, como el miembro más nuevo de nuestra familia parroquial. Padre: que se sienta como en su casa entre nosotros y que Nuestro Señor lo bendiga.

Ad Multos Annos!

FROM THE DESK OF FATHER MANNY

My dear friends...

Growing up near the corner of LeJeune and 13th Terrace, I would take my bike on most afternoons after school and ride through the beautiful streets of Coral Gables. The canopy of trees that line each road always led me into different directions. Each day a different adventure, but for whatever reason I never made it from my childhood home all the way to the corner of Sevilla Avenue and Indian Mound Trail. While my parents were very active in another parish, every now and again we would stop by the parish we actually belonged to geographically: the Church of the Little Flower. My mother tells me that as a child I would have a sense of wonder when walking into a church and obviously this would be heightened when I would walk through the main doors of Little Flower.

Now this great adventure of the priesthood has led me back to this magnificent church. Never did I imagine that I would someday be named her pastor. When the Archbishop called me on April 29 with the news, I thought back to this neighborhood that I have not called home for a very long time. I thought about all those beautiful memories growing up in this beautiful corner of God's kingdom, and how the Lord has now brought me back here to serve all of you.

A few weeks ago, I came to visit Father Davis who offered to give me a tour of the grounds and to start the transition process. He could not have been more welcoming and gracious. I thank him for 8 years of grace-filled service as your pastor. Please keep him in your prayers. It is providential that I begin my ministry at Little Flower on the weekend of Father's Day. This parish and school has a wonderful history of good spiritual fathers who have served this community. They have baptized you and married you, confessed you and anointed you, and most importantly fed you at the table of the Lord with the Holy Eucharist. Many of those spiritual fathers have now gone home to their Father in heaven, but their legacy lives on in what they taught us and how they loved us.

This Sunday we also celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity that reminds us that God himself, Father, Son, and Spirit, is a community of love. Ten years ago while offering a reflection on the Trinity, Pope Benedict XVI contemplated the concept of our God who is love: "All things derive from love, aspire to love and move impelled by love." And so we are called to live as God lives: as a community of love. I am humbled to now serve this community as your pastor. I ask you to please pray for me and for all your priests. I entrust my ministry to the maternal care of our Blessed Mother and to the intercession of our patroness, St. Theresa, who once prayed: "O my God, Most Blessed Trinity, I desire to love Thee and to make Thee loved..."

God bless you all,

Father Manny

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PADRE MANNY

Mis queridos amigos...

Al crecer cerca de la esquina de LeJeune y la 13 Terrace, tomaría mi bicicleta casi todas las tardes después de la escuela y pasearía por las hermosas calles de Coral Gables. El pabellón de árboles que bordean cada camino siempre me llevó en direcciones diferentes. Cada día, una aventura diferente, pero por la razón que sea, nunca logré salir de la casa donde crecí hasta la esquina de la avenida Sevilla y la Indian Mound Trail. Mientras mis padres eran muy activos en otra parroquia, de vez en cuando nos deteníamos en la parroquia a la que pertenecíamos geográficamente: la Iglesia de Santa Teresita. Mi madre me dice que de niño me sentía maravillado al entrar a una iglesia y, obviamente, esto aumentaría cuando cruzaba las puertas principales de Santa Teresita.

Ahora, esta gran aventura del sacerdocio me ha llevado de regreso a esta magnífica iglesia. Nunca imaginé que algún día me nombrarían como su párroco. Cuando el arzobispo me llamó el 29 de abril con la noticia, recordé a ese vecindario que no he llamado mi casa por mucho tiempo. Pensé en todos esos hermosos recuerdos creciendo en este hermoso rincón del reino de Dios, y en cómo el Señor ahora me ha traído de regreso aquí para servirles a todos.

Hace unas semanas, vine a visitar al padre Davis, quien se ofreció a darme un recorrido por los terrenos y comenzar el proceso de transición. No podría haber sido más acogedor y amable. Le agradecí por sus 8 años de servicio llenos de gracia como su párroco.

Por favor, manténganlo en sus oraciones. Es providencial que comience mi ministerio en Santa Teresita el fin de semana del Día del Padre. Esta parroquia y escuela tienen una historia maravillosa de muy buenos padres espirituales que han servido a esta comunidad. Los bautizaron y los casaron, los confesaron y los ungieron y, lo que es más importante, los alimentaron en la mesa del Señor con la Sagrada Eucaristía. Muchos de esos padres espirituales ahora se han ido a casa con su Padre en el cielo, pero su legado vive de acuerdo con lo que nos enseñaron y cómo nos amaron.

Este domingo también celebramos la solemnidad de la Santísima Trinidad que nos recuerda que Dios mismo, Padre, Hijo y Espíritu, es una comunidad de amor. Hace diez años, mientras ofrecía una reflexión sobre la Trinidad, el Papa Benedicto XVI contempló el concepto de nuestro Dios que es amor: "Todas las cosas se derivan del amor, aspiran al amor y se mueven impulsadas por el amor". Y por eso estamos llamados a vivir como Dios vive: como una comunidad de amor. Me siento honrado de servir ahora a esta comunidad como su párroco. Les pido que por favor recen por mí y por todos sus sacerdotes. Confío mi ministerio al cuidado materno de nuestra Santísima Madre y a la intercesión de nuestra patrona, Santa Teresita, que una vez oró: "Oh Dios mío, Santísima Trinidad, deseo amarte y hacerte amar ..."

Que Dios los bendiga a todos,

Padre Manny

IS YOUR PARISH REGISTRATION UP TO DATE?

Membership has its benefits and we want all of the good people of our community to be accounted for, supported, included, and known!

Registering as a new parishioner OR updating your family information has never been easier. Every COTLF family has the ability to access their parish registry record from the convenience of home or right from your smart devices. Simply create a “My Own Church” username and password and you’ll be able to review the information we have on file, provide updates if you’ve moved or changed your phone or email, find your envelope number, view your contribution history, and more. Gaining access to the “My Own Church” portal takes only a minute. Just click the “Registration” option in the menu of our parish website (www.COTLF.org). Once you are matched to an existing record, or have a new record created, you’ll be granted full access to update your family details and remain informed of all the good things happening at COTLF! As always, you are welcome to call or visit the parish office for any assistance with registering or updating your contact information, as well.
