FROM THE DESK OF FATHER MANNY

My dear friends...

What a welcome to Little Flower last weekend! I want to thank each of you for your graciousness, warmth and hospitality after greeting you at the end of each of the Masses. I truly felt at home. So many of you offered your prayers, and I have truly felt them during my first week. Your love for your parish and for your priests is fervent, and that was so evident last week.

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of Corpus Christi, the Body and Blood of Christ. We celebrate what makes us uniquely Catholic: the Eucharist. Our priests are edified every time they walk into our church to celebrate Mass and see all of you especially during weekdays for daily Mass. So many parishioners come to our church on a daily basis or to our chapel in the parish center just to be in the presence of our Lord who is there in body, soul and divinity. Christ is truly there! Waiting for us. Waiting for you. In our chapel, we have Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament during the week where our faithful come to pray and make their holy hours. Whether in the monstrance or in the tabernacle, what great solace to know that our Lord is there with us. Mother Teresa once said, "When you look at the crucifix, you understand how much Jesus loved you. When you look at the Sacred Host you understand how much Jesus loves you now." I invite you to discover that little gem of a chapel where you can gaze upon the Precious Host.

Of course, all of us gather every Sunday in our beautiful church to partake of the Eucharist. This is the most important thing we do all week. Everything we do as a parish community flows from and flows back to the Eucharist where we are nourished by Christ with his very Body and Blood. After Mass, so many of you stay to adore the Lord you have just received and simply gaze at the tabernacle. We can move spiritual mountains on our knees before the Blessed Sacrament. This is emphasized by St. Alphonsus Liguori: "Know also that you will probably gain more by praying fifteen minutes before the Blessed Sacrament than by all the other spiritual exercises of the day. True, Our Lord hears our prayers anywhere, for He has made the promise, 'Ask, and you shall receive,' but He has revealed to His servants that those who visit Him in the Blessed Sacrament will obtain a more abundant measure of grace."

That grace is yours! Spend more time with the Lord. Visit our church or our chapel more often during the week. We have a gift more precious than anything created with human hands. Our lives are forever altered when we dedicate more time to be with our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.

God bless you all,

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PADRE MANNY

Mis queridos amigos...

¡Qué bienvenida a Little Flower el fin de semana pasado! Quiero agradecer a cada uno de ustedes por su amabilidad, calidez y hospitalidad después de saludarlos al final de cada una de las Misas. Realmente me sentí como en casa. Muchos de ustedes ofrecieron sus oraciones, y realmente las he sentido durante mi primera semana. Su amor por su parroquia y por sus sacerdotes es ferviente, y eso fue muy evidente la semana pasada.

Hoy celebramos la solemnidad de Corpus Christi, el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo. Celebramos lo que nos distingue como católicos: la Eucaristía. Nuestros sacerdotes son edificados cada vez que entran a nuestra iglesia para celebrar la misa y verlos a todos especialmente durante los días de semana para la misa diaria. Muchos feligreses vienen a nuestra iglesia diariamente o a nuestra capilla en el centro parroquial solo para estar en la presencia de nuestro Señor que está allí en cuerpo, alma y divinidad. ¡Cristo está verdaderamente allí! Esperándonos. Esperando por ustedes. En nuestra capilla, tenemos la Exposición del Santísimo Sacramento durante la semana, donde nuestros fieles vienen a orar y hacer sus horas santas. Ya sea en la custodia o en el tabernáculo, qué gran consuelo saber que nuestro Señor está allí con nosotros. La Madre Teresa dijo una vez: "Cuando miras el crucifijo, comprendes cuánto te amaba Jesús. Cuando miras la Hostia Sagrada, comprendes lo mucho que Jesús te ama ahora". Los invito a descubrir esa pequeña joya de capilla donde pueden contemplar la Hostia Preciosa.

Por supuesto, todos nosotros nos reunimos todos los domingos en nuestra iglesia hermosa para participar de la Eucaristía. Esto es lo más importante que hacemos en toda la semana. Todo lo que hacemos como comunidad parroquial fluye desde y regresa a la Eucaristía, donde Cristo nos nutre con su propio Cuerpo y Sangre. Después de la misa, muchos de ustedes se quedan para adorar al Señor que acaban de recibir y simplemente contemplar el tabernáculo. Podemos mover montañas espirituales de rodillas ante el Santísimo Sacramento. San Alfonso Liguori enfatiza esto: "Sepan también que probablemente ganarán más orando quince minutos ante el Santísimo Sacramento que por todos los otros ejercicios espirituales del día. Es cierto, Nuestro Señor escucha nuestras oraciones en cualquier lugar, porque Él ha hecho la promesa, 'Pide, y recibirás', pero Él ha revelado a sus siervos que aquellos que lo visiten en el Santísimo Sacramento obtendrán una medida de gracia más abundante".

¡Esa gracia es suya! Pasen más tiempo con el Señor. Visiten nuestra iglesia o nuestra capilla más a menudo durante la semana. Tenemos un regalo más precioso que cualquier cosa creada con manos humanas. Nuestras vidas se alteran para siempre cuando dedicamos más tiempo a estar con nuestro Señor en el Santísimo Sacramento.

Que Dios los bendiga a todos,

Fr. Manny

DO YOU KNOW WE HAVE A POOR BOX?

One of the regular ways that the good works of our "COTLF Charities" organization takes place is through the resources given in generosity to the Poor Box. Located in the back of church, near the Saint Anthony statue, the Poor Box is available to receive your donations, sacrifices, and gestures of almsgiving and penance which, in turn, are utilized to assist the poor, the needy, and those in emergency circumstances of our parish and within our parish territory.

Thank you for considering providing a gift of support to assist the most vulnerable.
