FROM THE DESK OF FATHER MANNY

My dear friends...

A few days ago, I ran across a quote from St. John Paul II that I should have shared with you two weeks ago when I wrote about rest: "We have entered... the time for holidays... We all in fact need an occasional period of extended rest... For a vacation to truly such and bring genuine well-being, in it a person must recover a good balance with himself, with others and with the environment. It is this interior and exterior harmony which revitalizes the mind and reinvigorates the body and spirit... Today I would like to entrust everyone's holidays to Mary most holy, so that they will be peaceful and beneficial." –St. John Paul II.

Our dear late and holy Pope John Paul II loved to take his days of rest in the mountains. There are pictures of him serenely hiking wearing his white papal cassock rosary in hand. Out there in nature, he looked to be in perfect communion with God's creation. Many of our fellow parishioners are still out and about travelling around the world and spending time with family and friends. We pray for them and for safe travels.

As for me, I will be taking a few weeks away from the parish to rest and spend time with my family. St. John Paul loved the mountains. I love the sea. Just sitting on a beach or a dock and gazing out across the waters towards the horizon. Praying and reflecting on how great God is to all of us by gifting us with such wonders. He is constantly reminding us of his presence and that he is always walking with us.

After completing my first month here at Little Flower, I want to once again thank all of you for welcoming me to this wonderful community of faith. When I return, school will be upon us, families will be coming home, and parish and school life will start to pick up again. Just this past Monday, I took a walk through our school to see all the improvement projects that have been undertaken while the kids are on vacation. Everything is progressing nice and our students and teachers and parents will see the improvements next month. Still, walking through the hallways of an empty school during the summer feels strange as the joyful noise of our school and religious education children are missing. That is why I cannot wait to share in all the ministerial adventures that the new pastoral year has in store for us. Since I started here during the summer, I know that I've only experienced a fraction of our vibrant parish life.

But first, rest is needed. So let us keep each other in prayer as we reach the halfway point of summer. There will be much to do when fall comes.

God bless you all,

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PADRE MANNY

Mis queridos amigos...

Hace unos días, encontré una cita de San Juan Pablo II que debería haber compartido con ustedes hace dos semanas cuando escribí sobre el descanso: "Hemos entrado... en el tiempo de vacaciones ... De hecho, todos necesitamos un período ocasional de descanso prolongado... Para unas tales vacaciones verdaderamente y para brindar un bienestar genuino, en ella una persona debe recuperar un buen equilibrio consigo mismo, con los demás y con el medio ambiente. Es esta armonía interior y exterior la que revitaliza la mente y revitaliza el cuerpo y el espíritu... Hoy me gustaría encomendar las vacaciones de todos a María Santísima, para que sean pacíficas y beneficiosas". Juan Pablo II.

Nuestro querido y difunto Papa San Juan Pablo II amaba tomar sus días de descanso en las montañas. Hay fotos de él caminando serenamente con la sotana papal blanca y el rosario en la mano. Allí en la naturaleza, parecía estar en perfecta comunión con la creación de Dios. Muchos de nuestros compañeros feligreses todavía están viajando por el mundo y pasando tiempo con la familia y los amigos. Oremos por ellos y porque tengan viajes buenos.

En lo que a mí respecta, me tomaré algunas semanas fuera de la parroquia para descansar y pasar tiempo con mi familia. San Juan Pablo amaba las montañas. Yo amo el mar. Solo sentado en una playa o en un muelle y contemplando las aguas hacia el horizonte. Orando y reflexionando sobre cuán grande es Dios para todos nosotros al regalarnos esas maravillas. Nos recuerda constantemente su presencia y que siempre está caminando con nosotros.

Después de completar mi primer mes aquí en Little Flower, quiero agradecerles una vez más por darme la bienvenida a esta maravillosa comunidad de fe. Cuando regrese, la escuela estará al comenzar, las familias volverán a casa y la vida de la parroquia y la escuela comenzarán nuevamente. Apenas el lunes pasado, di un paseo por nuestra escuela para ver todos los proyectos de mejora que se han llevado a cabo mientras los niños están de vacaciones. Todo está progresando bien y nuestros estudiantes, maestros y padres verán las mejoras el próximo mes. Sin embargo, caminar por los pasillos de una escuela vacía durante el verano es extraño ya que faltan los ruidos alegres de los niños de nuestra escuela y de la educación religiosa. Por eso no puedo esperar para compartir todas las aventuras ministeriales que nos espera el año nuevo pastoral. Desde que empecé aquí durante el verano, sé que solo he experimentado una fracción de nuestra vida parroquial vibrante.

Pero primero, el descanso es necesario. Así que mantengámonos unos a otros en oración al llegar a la mitad del verano. Habrá mucho que hacer cuando llegue el otoño.

Que Dios los bendiga a todos,

TOGETHER | JUNTOS

One of the regular ways that the good works of our “COTLF Charities” organization takes place is through the resources given in generosity to the Poor Box. Located in the back of church, near the Saint Anthony statue, the Poor Box is available to receive your donations, sacrifices, and gestures of almsgiving and penance which, in turn, are utilized to assist the poor, the needy, and those in emergency circumstances of our parish and within our parish territory.

Thank you for considering providing a gift of support to assist the most vulnerable.
