FROM THE DESK OF FR. FLORES

Leprosy is an infectious skin disease. For Jews in Palestine, the skin disease itself was not the worst thing. Far worse was the social isolation that the skin disease brought. The Old Testament told lepers they had to live outside the town, wear torn clothes, cover the upper lip and cry “unclean, unclean” when anyone approached (Lev 13:45-46). The disease cut lepers off from everyone close to them. It was almost as if they had died.

As Jesus entered a village ten lepers begged Jesus for help (Luke 17:11-19), “Jesus, Master! Have pity on us.” They remind us that in all our difficulties and problems we can turn to Jesus and say, “Jesus, have pity of me.” Jesus is the One with whom we can share our deepest needs. The leper who returned to thank Jesus was a Samaritan, and the Samaritans were not on good terms with the Jews at that time. Jesus said to him, “your faith has saved you.” (Luke 17:19). Why did Jesus tell him his faith had saved him? After all, the other nine also had been cleansed of their leprosy. The other nine did not return to humbly prostrate themselves at the feet of Jesus after their healing whereas this man did. His faith brought him before Jesus and made him fall prostrate before the Lord. Hence, salvation comes from Jesus and when we come before Him, he is saving us.

The skin deformations caused by leprosy made lepers look repugnant in the eyes of some. Jesus would also have looked repugnant to some during his Passion. For that reason, St. Thérèse of Lisieux referred to Jesus during his Passion as looking like a leper:

I worship Thy Divine Face. Once It shone with the beauty and sweetness of the Divinity: now for my sake It is become as the face of a “leper.” (Pius X, from Prayer to the Holy Face composed by St. Thérèse, page 427 of the 1912 edition of Story of a Soul published by Burns and Oats)

In Isaiah, centuries before Jesus, in a passage we regard as a prophecy of Jesus’ Passion, there is a description of how awful Jesus looked during his Passion: so marred was his look beyond that of man, and his appearance beyond that of mortals (Isa 52:14) ...One of those from whom men hide their faces, spurned, and we held him in no esteem (Isa 53:3).

Jesus, who healed the skin deformations in ten lepers, looked so badly during his Passion from bleeding and scourges and falling under the weight of the cross. Jesus who healed lepers now looked like a leper or worse than a leper. Jesus suffered all of that so that we could be healed of something much worse than a skin ailment, so that we could be healed of sin, so that we could be saved. That salvation flows to us from Jesus on the cross. The grace of all the sacraments flow to us from Jesus on the cross.

Jesus cured the ten lepers but only one of them received salvation from Jesus. The other nine did not return to humbly prostrate themselves at the feet of Jesus after their healing whereas this man did. His faith brought him before Jesus and made him fall prostrate before Jesus. Salvation comes from Jesus on the cross who looked worse than a leper and when we come before Jesus our faith is saving us. We come before Jesus in the humble ways God has chosen for us, in the waters of baptism, being anointed with Holy Chrism by the bishop during Confirmation, receiving the Body and Blood of Jesus in the form of bread and wine, being anointed with the Oil of the Sick by a priest and receiving God’s forgiveness through the words of priest as he says “I absolve you from your sins.” All we need is faith, faith like the Samaritan leper to see and believe and fall prostrate at the feet of Jesus to receive his salvation. When was the last time we fell prostrate before the Lord to thank Him for His mercy?

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PADRE FLORES

La lepra es una enfermedad infecciosa de la piel. Para los judíos en Palestina, la enfermedad de la piel en sí no era lo peor. Mucho peor fue el aislamiento social que trajo la enfermedad de la piel. El Antiguo Testamento les dijo a los leprosos que tenían que vivir fuera de la ciudad, usar ropa rasgada, cubrirse el labio superior y gritar "impuro, impuro" cuando alguien se acercaba (Lev. 13: 45-46). La enfermedad separó a los leprosos de todas las personas cercanas a ellos. Era casi como si hubieran muerto.

Cuando Jesús entró en una aldea, diez leprosos le pidieron ayuda a Jesús (Lucas 17: 11-19): "¡Jesús, Maestro! Ten piedad de nosotros". Nos recuerdan que en todas nuestras dificultades y problemas podemos recurrir a Jesús y decir: "Jesús, ten piedad de mí". Jesús es Aquel con quien podemos compartir nuestras necesidades más profundas. El leproso que regresó para agradecer a Jesús era un samaritano, y los samaritanos no estaban en buenos términos con los judíos en ese momento. Jesús le dijo: "tu fe te ha salvado" (Lucas 17:19). ¿Por qué Jesús le dijo que su fe lo había salvado? Después de todo, los otros nueve también habían sido limpiados de su lepra. Los otros nueve no volvieron a postrarse humildemente a los pies de Jesús después de su curación, mientras que este hombre sí. Su fe lo trajo ante Jesús y lo hizo postrarse ante el Señor. Por lo tanto, la salvación viene de Jesús y cuando venimos ante Él, él nos está salvando.

Las deformaciones de la piel causadas por la lepra hicieron que los leprosos parecieran repugnantes a los ojos de algunos. Jesús también habría parecido repugnante para algunos durante su Pasión. Por esa razón, Santa Teresa de Lisieux se refirió a Jesús durante su Pasión como un leproso:

"Adoro Tu Divino Rostro. Una vez brilló con la belleza y la dulzura de la Divinidad: ahora por mí se ha convertido en la cara de un 'leproso'". (Pio X, de la Oración a La Cara Santa escrita por Santa Teresa, página 427 de la edición de "Historia de Un Alma," publicada por Burns and Oats).

En Isaías, siglos antes de Jesús, en un pasaje que consideramos como una profecía de la Pasión de Jesús, hay una descripción de cuán horrible se veía Jesús durante su Pasión: tan desfigurado que había perdido toda apariencia humana (Isa 52:14) ... Lo despreciaban y lo rechazaban, lo despreciamos, no lo tuvimos en cuenta. (Isa 53: 3)

Jesús, que curó las deformaciones de la piel en diez leprosos, se veía tan mal durante su Pasión por los azotes y el sangramiento de caer bajo el peso de la cruz. Jesús que curó leprosos ahora parecía un leproso o peor que un leproso. Jesús sufrió todo eso para que pudiéramos ser curados de algo mucho peor que una enfermedad de la piel, para que pudiéramos ser curados del pecado, para que pudiéramos ser salvados. Esa salvación nos llega de Jesús en la cruz. La gracia de todos los sacramentos nos llega de Jesús en la cruz.

Jesús curó a los diez leprosos, pero solo uno de ellos recibió la salvación de Jesús. Los otros nueve no volvieron a postrarse humildemente a los pies de Jesús después de su curación, mientras que este hombre sí. Su fe lo trajo ante Jesús y lo hizo postrarse ante Jesús. La salvación viene de Jesús en la cruz que parecía peor que un leproso y cuando venimos ante Jesús nuestra fe nos está salvando. Venimos ante Jesús en las formas humildes que Dios ha elegido para nosotros, en las aguas del bautismo, siendo ungido con el Santo Crisma por el obispo durante la Confirmación, recibiendo el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Jesús en las formas de pan y vino, siendo ungidos con el Aceite de los enfermos por un sacerdote y recibiendo el perdón de Dios a través de las palabras del sacerdote cuando dice: "Te absuelvo de tus pecados". Todo lo que necesitamos es fe, fe como el leproso samaritano para ver y creer y caer postrado a los pies de Jesús para recibir su salvación. ¿Cuándo fue la última vez que nos postramos ante el Señor para darle gracias por su misericordia?
