FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My dear friends,

One of the most unique and special plaques we have in our school is a plaque just to the right of the school office that is dedicated to all our STS alumni who went off to fight during World War II and ultimately gave their lives for our country. We must remember that in the 1940's, St. Theresa was also a high school so some of these young men went straight from high school to enlistment and promptly off to war. Just recently I presided over the funeral of a long-time parishioner who was 17 years old when the Japanese bombed Pearl Harbor in 1941, and he asked his mother if she could sign in his deferment so that he could enlist, and his mother obliged. He went on to fight in the Pacific Theater for four years and then came home to rebuild our country and became part of what is known as "the greatest generation." After celebrating that funeral, I commented to a staff member that funerals for World War II vets are sadly becoming fewer and farther between because the veterans of that war are quickly advancing in years.

This weekend we celebrate Veteran's Day, and it should never be lost on us how many of our fellow parishioners have served or are still serving in our Armed Forces to defend our nation and our freedoms. During that funeral, I quoted the third verse of "America the Beautiful" which has always been so moving to me:

*"Oh beautiful for heroes proved in liberating strife
Who more than self their country loved
And mercy more than life."*

So many of our veterans enlist with a sense of duty to God and country. They enlist with the conviction that they must serve and defend this great American ideal. It is an ideal that is rooted in Judeo-Christian values of love of God and neighbor. They enlist with that beautiful verse from the St. John's Gospel inscribed in their hearts: "No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends (John 15:13)."

We honor our veterans this weekend, and we thank them for their service to God and country. We also thank and pray for their families who endure so many sacrifices of time and distance so that their loved ones can fulfill their solemn duty. Please keep them in your prayers this weekend, as well as all our veterans who have passed on, that while not having laid their lives down on the fields of battle, came back home, lived quiet and dutiful lives and raised beautiful families before being called home by God.

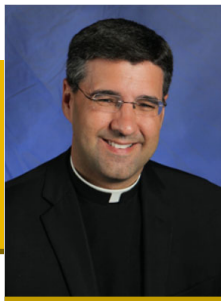

I never cease to be amazed by the morning civic exercises that our school children do every morning. They pledge allegiance to our flag then sing our national anthem. Our teachers and administrators go out of their way that this doesn't become just another morning exercise, but that the children truly understand what they are doing, and that they should thank God that they have the freedom to pray under that flag and more importantly under that big cross that hangs in the north side of the school building... because brave men and women have fought to preserve their freedom to pray to a God who became man to give us the ultimate example of what it means to lay down your life for your friends.

May God bless our Veterans!

God bless you all,

Fr. Anthony

DEL ESCRITORIO DE NUESTRO PARROCO

Mis Queridos Amigos,

Una de las placas más únicas y especiales que tenemos en nuestra escuela es una placa a la derecha de la oficina de la escuela que está dedicada a todos nuestros alumnos de STS que se fueron a luchar durante la Segunda Guerra Mundial y finalmente dieron sus vidas por nuestro país. Debemos recordar que en la década de 1940, St. Theresa era también una escuela secundaria, por lo que algunos de estos jóvenes fueron directamente de la escuela secundaria al alistamiento y rápidamente se fueron a la guerra. Recientemente he presidido el funeral de un feligrés por mucho tiempo que tenía 17 años cuando los japoneses bombardearon Pearl Harbor en 1941, y le preguntó a su madre si podía firmar su prórroga para poder enlistarse, y su madre así lo hizo. Luego pasó a luchar en el Teatro de Operaciones del Pacífico durante cuatro años y después volvió a casa para reconstruir nuestro país y se convirtió en parte de lo que se conoce como "la generación más grande." Después de celebrar ese funeral, le comenté a un miembro del personal que los funerales de la Primera Guerra Mundial tristemente se están volviendo en menos cada vez porque los veteranos de esa guerra avanzan rápidamente en años.

Este fin de semana celebramos el Día de los Veteranos, y nunca deberíamos de olvidar cuántos de nuestros compañeros feligreses han servido o siguen sirviendo en nuestras Fuerzas Armadas para defender nuestra nación y nuestras libertades. Durante ese funeral, cité el tercer verso de "América la bella" que siempre me ha conmovido:

"Oh hermosa para los héroes probados
en luchas liberadoras
¿Quién más que yo amaba a su país?
Y misericordia más que la vida."

Muchos de nuestros veteranos se alistan con un sentido del deber hacia Dios y hacia el país. Se alistan con la convicción de que deben servir y defender este gran ideal estadounidense. Es un ideal que tiene sus raíces en los valores judeocristianos del amor a Dios y al prójimo. Se alistan con ese hermoso verso del

Evangelio de San Juan inscrito en sus corazones: "El amor más grande que uno puede tener es dar su vida por sus amigos (Juan 15:13)".

Honramos a nuestros veteranos este fin de semana y les agradecemos por su servicio a Dios y al país. También agradecemos y rezamos por sus familias que aguantaron tantos sacrificios de tiempo y distancia para que sus seres queridos pudieran cumplir con su deber solemne. Por favor, manténgalos en sus oraciones este fin de semana, al igual que a todos nuestros veteranos que han fallecido, que si bien no perdieron sus vidas en los campos de batalla, volvieron a casa, vivieron una vida tranquila y obediente y criaron familias hermosas antes de ser llamados al hogar por Dios.

Nunca dejo de sorprenderme con los ejercicios cívicos matutinos que nuestros alumnos hacen cada mañana. Prometen lealtad a nuestra bandera y luego cantan nuestro himno nacional. Nuestros maestros y administradores hacen todo lo posible para que esto no se convierta en otro ejercicio matutino, sino que los niños realmente entiendan lo que están haciendo, y que deberían agradecer a Dios que tienen la libertad de rezar bajo esa bandera y, lo que es más importante debajo de esa gran cruz que cuelga en el lado norte del edificio de la escuela ... porque hombres y mujeres valientes han luchado para preservar su libertad de rezar a un Dios que se hizo hombre para darnos el mejor ejemplo de lo que significa dar tu vida por tus amigos.

¡Que Dios bendiga a nuestros veteranos!

Que Dios los bendiga a todos,

TOGETHER | JUNTOS
