FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My dear friends,

Three years ago, the Church brought to conclusion the Year of Mercy that was declared by Pope Francis. It was a year full of grace and forgiveness. It seemed that each day the Holy Father would tweet out something related to God's mercy that caused me to pause what I was doing and reflect on the depth of that mercy. I remember picking out 10 of the pope's tweets on mercy from that year to meditate on and I want to share them with you and offer them to you so that you might reflect on them as well:

- God's mercy toward us is linked to our mercy toward our neighbor.

- It is not enough to experience God's mercy in one's life; whoever receives it must also become a sign and instrument for others.

- God never tires of offering His forgiveness each time we ask for it.

- Mercy can truly contribute to the building up of a more humane world.

- An easy prayer to say every day: "Lord, I am a sinner: come with your mercy".

- Mercy does not just mean being a "good person" nor is it mere sentimentality. It is the measure of our authenticity as disciples of Jesus.

- A merciful heart has the courage to leave comforts behind and to encounter others, embracing everyone.

- No one can be excluded from the mercy of God. The Church is the house where everyone is welcomed and no one is rejected.

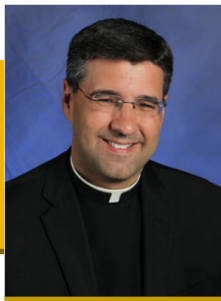

- Mercy is the path uniting God with man, for it opens the heart to the hope of an eternal love

- Even in the worst situation of life, God waits for me, God wants to embrace me, God expects me.

That last quote goes to the very heart of today's gospel of "The Good Thief" on this Solemnity of Christ the King. Can you think of a worse situation than what the repentant thief found himself in on that first Good Friday? We don't know what he did. We don't know how grave his crime was. We don't even know if he did any good in his life. But right there, on his cross, next to the crucified Lord, none of that mattered. In the worst moment of his life, he turned to Jesus. And there, even as he was dying, as he struggled for every precious breath, Jesus assured the repentant thief that he would soon be in paradise. There is nothing more powerful than the mercy of God. It turns thieves into saints.

As we celebrate Christ as King today, we worship him not on a golden throne but on the throne of the cross because it is precisely at his most vulnerable moment that our Lord was truly powerful: a King who forgives, a King who thirsts for us, a King who gives his life for us. The true measure of power is not in how we rule but in how we serve. So today we gaze up at the cross at our Lord and King. And perhaps our prayer this day is a prayer of mercy like that of this blessed thief: "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom."

God bless you all,

DEL ESCRITORIO DE NUESTRO PARROCO

Mis Queridos Amigos,

Hace tres años, la Iglesia finalizó el Año de la Misericordia declarado por el Papa Francisco. Fue un año lleno de gracia y perdón. Parecía que cada día el Santo Padre ponía en twitter algo relacionado con la misericordia de Dios que me hizo detener lo que estaba haciendo y reflexionar sobre la profundidad de esa misericordia. Recuerdo haber elegido 10 de los tweets del Papa de ese año sobre la misericordia para meditar y quiero compartirlos con ustedes y ofrecérselos para que también puedan reflexionar sobre ellos:

- La misericordia de Dios hacia nosotros está vinculada a nuestra misericordia hacia nuestro prójimo.

- No es suficiente experimentar la misericordia de Dios en la vida de uno; quien lo recibe también debe convertirse en un símbolo e instrumento para los demás.

- Dios nunca se cansa de ofrecer su perdón cada vez que lo pedimos.

- La misericordia realmente puede contribuir a la construcción de un mundo más humano.

- Una oración fácil de decir todos los días: "Señor, soy un pecador: ven con tu misericordia".

- Misericordia no solo significa ser una "buena persona" ni es un mero sentimentalismo. Es la medida de nuestra autenticidad como discípulos de Jesús.

- Un corazón misericordioso tiene el coraje de dejar atrás las comodidades y encontrarse con otros, abrazando a todos.

- Nadie puede ser excluido de la misericordia de Dios. La Iglesia es la casa donde todos son bienvenidos y nadie es rechazado.

- La misericordia es el camino que une a Dios con el hombre, porque abre el corazón a la esperanza de un amor eterno.

- Incluso en la peor situación de la vida, Dios me espera, Dios quiere abrazarme, Dios me aguarda.

Esa última cita va al corazón del evangelio de hoy de "El buen ladrón" en esta solemnidad de Cristo Rey. ¿Puedes pensar en una situación peor que en la que se encontró el ladrón arrepentido ese primer Viernes Santo? No sabemos lo que hizo. No sabemos cuán grave fue su crimen. Ni siquiera sabemos si hizo algo bueno en su vida. Pero allí mismo, en su cruz, al lado del Señor crucificado, nada de eso importaba. En el peor momento de su vida, recurrió a Jesús. Y allí, incluso mientras moría, mientras luchaba por cada precioso aliento, Jesús le aseguró al ladrón arrepentido que pronto estaría en el paraíso. No hay nada más poderoso que la misericordia de Dios. Convierte a los ladrones en santos.

Mientras que hoy celebramos a Cristo como Rey, no lo adoramos en un trono dorado sino en el trono de la cruz porque es precisamente en su momento más vulnerable que nuestro Señor fue verdaderamente poderoso: un Rey que perdona, un Rey que tiene sed de nosotros. , un rey que da su vida por nosotros. La verdadera medida del poder no está en cómo gobernamos sino en cómo servimos. Así que hoy contemplamos en la cruz a nuestro Señor y Rey. Y quizás nuestra oración de este día es una oración de misericordia como la de este ladrón bendito: "Jesús, acuérdate de mí cuando vengas con tu reino".

Que Dios los bendiga a todos,

Fr. Manny
