A PRAYER FOR THE ASSUMPTION OF MARY

Father in heaven, all creation rightly gives you praise, for all life and all holiness come from you.
In the plan of your wisdom she who bore
the Christ in her womb was raised body and soul in glory to be with him in heaven.
May we follow her example in reflecting your holiness and join in her hymn of endless love and praise.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PARROCO

My Dear Friends,

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. We are blessed this year that it falls on a Sunday! Here is a catechesis from St. John Paul II on the dogma of the Assumption:

The Church's constant and unanimous Tradition shows how Mary's Assumption is part of the divine plan and is rooted in her unique sharing in the mission of her Son.

The Second Vatican Council, recalling the mystery of the Assumption in the Dogmatic Constitution on the Church, draws attention to the privilege of the Immaculate Conception: precisely because she was "preserved free from all stain of original sin" (Lumen gentium, n. 59), Mary could not remain like other human beings in the state of death until the end of the world. The absence of original sin and her perfect holiness from the very first moment of her existence required the full glorification of the body and soul of the Mother of God.

Looking at the mystery of the Blessed Virgin's Assumption, we can understand the plan of divine Providence plan for humanity: after Christ, the Incarnate Word, Mary is the first human being to achieve the eschatological ideal, anticipating the fullness of happiness promised to the elect through the resurrection of the body.

In the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin we can also see the divine will to advance woman. In a way analogous to what happened at the beginning of the human race and of salvation history, in God's plan the eschatological ideal was not to be revealed in an individual, but in a couple. Thus in heavenly glory, beside the risen Christ there is a woman who has been raised up, Mary: the new Adam and the new Eve, the first-fruits of the general resurrection of the bodies of all humanity.

The eschatological conditions of Christ and Mary should not, of course, be put on the same level. Mary, the new Eve, received from Christ, the new Adam, the fullness of grace and heavenly glory, having been raised through the Holy Spirit by the sovereign power of the Son.

Despite their brevity, these notes enable us to show clearly that Mary's Assumption reveals the nobility and dignity of the human body. In the face of the profanation and debasement to which modern society frequently subjects the female body, the mystery of the Assumption proclaims the supernatural destiny and dignity of every human body, called by the Lord to become an instrument of holiness and to share in his glory. Mary entered into glory because she welcomed the Son of God in her virginal womb and in her heart. By looking at her, the Christian learns to discover the value of his own body and to guard it as a temple of God, in expectation of the resurrection. The Assumption, a privilege granted to the Mother of God, thus has immense value for the life and destiny of humanity.

- Pope St. John Paul II, General Audience, July 9, 1997

May God bless you all,

Mis Queridos Amigos,

Hoy celebramos la Solemnidad de la Asunción de la Virgen María. Que bendición que cae esta fiesta en el domingo este año. Quisiera compartir esta catequesis de San Juan Pablo II sobre el dogma de la Asunción:

La perenne y concorde tradición de la Iglesia muestra cómo la Asunción de María forma parte del designio divino y se fundamenta en la singular participación de María en la misión de su Hijo. El concilio Vaticano II, recordando en la constitución dogmática sobre la Iglesia el misterio de la Asunción, atrae la atención hacia el privilegio de la Inmaculada Concepción: precisamente porque fue «preservada libre de toda mancha de pecado original» (Lumen gentium, 59), María no podía permanecer como los demás hombres en el estado de muerte hasta el fin del mundo. La ausencia del pecado original y la santidad, perfecta ya desde el primer instante de su existencia, exigían para la Madre de Dios la plena glorificación de su alma y de su cuerpo.

Contemplando el misterio de la Asunción de la Virgen, es posible comprender el plan de la Providencia divina con respecto a la humanidad: después de Cristo, Verbo encarnado, María es la primera criatura humana que realiza el ideal escatológico, anticipando la plenitud de la felicidad, prometida a los elegidos mediante la resurrección de los cuerpos.

En la Asunción de la Virgen podemos ver también la voluntad divina de promover a la mujer. Como había sucedido en el origen del género humano y de la historia de la salvación, en el proyecto de Dios el ideal escatológico no debía revelarse en una persona, sino en una pareja. Por eso, en la gloria celestial, al lado de Cristo resucitado hay una mujer resucitada, María: el nuevo Adán y la nueva Eva, primicias de la resurrección general de los cuerpos de toda la humanidad.

Ciertamente, la condición escatológica de Cristo y la de María no se han de poner en el mismo nivel. María, nueva Eva, recibió de Cristo, nuevo Adán, la plenitud de gracia y de gloria celestial, habiendo sido resucitada mediante el Espíritu Santo por el poder soberano del Hijo.

Estas reflexiones, aunque sean breves, nos permiten poner de relieve que la Asunción de María manifiesta la nobleza y la dignidad del cuerpo humano. Frente a la profanación y al envilecimiento a los que la sociedad moderna somete frecuentemente, en particular, el cuerpo femenino, el misterio de la Asunción proclama el destino sobrenatural y la dignidad de todo cuerpo humano, llamado por el Señor a transformarse en instrumento de santidad y a participar en su gloria. María entró en la gloria, porque acogió al Hijo de Dios en su seno virginal y en su corazón. Contemplándola, el cristiano aprende a descubrir el valor de su cuerpo y a custodiarlo como templo de Dios, en espera de la resurrección. La Asunción, privilegio concedido a la Madre de Dios, representa así un inmenso valor para la vida y el destino de la humanidad.

- Papa San Juan Pablo II, Audiencia General, 7/9/1997

COMMUNION SONG HOLY IS HIS NAME

John Michael Talbot

My soul proclaims he greatness of the Lord,
and my spirit exults in God my Savior.
For he has looked with mercy on my lowliness,
and my name will be forever exalted.
For the mighty God has done great things for me,
and his mercy will reach from age to age.
And holy, holy, holy is his name.
He has mercy in every generation.
He has revealed his power and his glory.
He has cast down the mighty in their arrogance,
and has lifted up the meek and the lowly.
He has come to help his servant Israel;
he remembers his promise to our fathers.

PARISH RELIGIOUS ED PROGRAM

Whether just starting to learn about the faith as a Kindergartner or continuing to discover the beauty of the Catholic faith through ongoing catechesis and formation, our Parish Religious Ed Program offers Catholic religion classes for every grade level through High School.

These classes help to "fill the gap" in Catholic Religious Education that is encountered by families whose children attend public, charter, or private, non-Catholic schools.

The 2-Year Preparation for Sacraments of Initiation is incorporated into the classes with First Communion Prep beginning as early as 1st Grade and Confirmation Prep beginning as early as 7th Grade.

Children who have already turned 7 years old but who have not yet been Baptized will be prepared for all 3 Sacraments of Initiation over a 2 or 3 year preparation period.

Registration for the 2021-2022 Catechetical Year is now OPEN.

All details for the Rel.Ed. Program are posted online, including calendars, schedules, registration and fees.

MISSALETTES AVAILABLE AT THE DOORS OF CHURCH

These missalettes are yours to keep, so you can take one home with you and bring it back with you every Sunday through Advent, when the next edition begins. We ask that you please not leave the missalettes behind after Mass, as we cannot place them in the pews for communal use just yet.
