FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PARROCO

My Dear Friends,

This coming Friday, October 1, we celebrate the Feast Day of St. Thérèse of the Child Jesus, the Little Flower; our patronal feast! Next month we also celebrate our parish's 95th Anniversary. Back in October 1926, Monsignor Thomas Comber took possession of Church of the Little Flower as its founding pastor. In order to celebrate this milestone anniversary, a couple of weeks ago I asked Archbishop Wenski if we could celebrate the Feast of St. Thérèse on Sunday, October 3 to afford all our parishioners the opportunity to celebrate our patron saint when we gather together for Sunday Mass. The Archbishop graciously granted this request and congratulated our parish for reaching our 95th anniversary. So, when you come to Mass next weekend, our priests will be celebrating the Mass of St. Thérèse and the readings will be the proper for this feast day instead of the readings for the 27th Sunday of Ordinary Time. The readings will be printed in the bulletin and throughout the bulletin you will find prayers from St. Thérèse, a quick biography and more importantly a catechesis of St. Thérèse's "Little Way" which I will begin explaining with this column.

As a parish named after the Little Flower, it is important for us to know who St. Thérèse was and to familiarize ourselves with what made St. John Paul II declare this young saint a doctor of the Church. Last Monday, I asked Sister Rosalie, who is a Carmelite Sister just like Thérèse, a simple question: "How would you explain "The Little Way"? This was her response:

St. Therese had great desires to be a saint, a missionary, a martyr but she would never say that she herself was "great". She saw herself little in the eyes of God and that "little way" was what was going to help her obtain the greatness of a saint. Daily she sought to be great through her littleness and weakness...not only to be little and weak but to use those attributes to depend on God for everything...this was her "little way" of confidence and love. How did she practice this? By self-forgetfulness and love through those daily acts that we would normally think are insignificant: smiling at the one who is the most frustrating; cleaning the dishes without telling anyone; offering to help someone when the schedule is tight... and more can be described. St. Therese's "Little Way" is an imitation of Christ to a heroic virtue: "Whatever you do for the least of these, you do it to me" (Matt. 25:40).

Embracing our littleness is something that goes against our instincts and against our society that places so much emphasis on being the best. Being the best Christian is precisely placing the needs of others before our own. As Sister said, we must see ourselves as little before God and before our brothers and sisters. We must always regard our neighbor as more important than ourselves. Like our Lord, we must be the servant of all. We accomplish this by doing little things, little acts of love that may go unnoticed. St. Thérèse wrote in her Story of a Soul: "Miss no single opportunity of making some small sacrifice, here by a smiling look, there by a kindly word; always doing the smallest right and doing it all for love."

As we prepare for our 95th Anniversary, let us model our lives after our patroness and her "Little Way." I invite you this week to meditate on this spiritual path that led Thérèse to greatness by simply being the least.

God bless you all,

Mis Queridos Amigos,

Este próximo viernes 1 de octubre, celebramos la fiesta de Santa Teresa del Niño Jesús, la Pequeña Flor; nuestra fiesta patronal! El próximo mes también celebramos el 95 aniversario de nuestra parroquia. En octubre del 1926, Monseñor Thomas Comber tomó posesión de la Iglesia de Santa Teresa como su párroco fundador. Para celebrar este aniversario histórico, hace un par de semanas le pregunté al arzobispo Wenski si podíamos celebrar la fiesta de Santa Teresa el domingo 3 de octubre para brindar a todos nuestros feligreses la oportunidad de celebrar a nuestra santa patrona cuando nos reunimos para la misa dominical. El arzobispo accedió amablemente a esta solicitud y felicitó a nuestra parroquia por alcanzar nuestro 95 aniversario. Por lo tanto, cuando vengamos a misa el próximo fin de semana, nuestros sacerdotes celebrarán la Misa de Santa Teresa y las lecturas serán las propias para este día de fiesta en lugar de las lecturas para el 27º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario. Las lecturas se imprimirán en el boletín y a lo largo del boletín encontraran oraciones de Santa Teresa, una biografía corta y, lo que es más importante, una catequesis del "Pequeño Camino" de Santa Teresa que comenzaré explicando con esta columna.

Como parroquia que lleva el nombre de Santa Teresa, es importante para nosotros saber quién era Santa Teresa y familiarizarnos con lo que hizo que San Juan Pablo II declarara a esta joven santa doctora de la Iglesia. El lunes pasado, le hice a la hermana Rosalie, que es una hermana carmelita al igual que Teresa, una pregunta simple: "¿Cómo explicarías "El pequeño Camino"? Esta fue su respuesta:

Santa Teresa tenía grandes deseos de ser santa, misionera, mártir, pero nunca diría que ella misma era "grande". Se veía menor ante los ojos de Dios y ese "pequeño camino" era lo que la iba a ayudar a obtener la grandeza de una santa. Diariamente buscaba ser grande a través de su pequeñez y debilidad... no sólo para ser pequeña y débil, sino para usar esos atributos para depender de Dios para todo... este era su "pequeño camino" de confianza y amor. ¿Cómo practicó esto? Por el olvido a sí misma y el amor a través de esos actos cotidianos que normalmente pensaríamos que son insignificantes: sonreír al que más nos frustra; limpiar los platos sin decirselo a nadie; ofreciéndose a ayudar a alguien cuando el horario es apretado... y se pueden describir más. El "Pequeño Camino" de Santa Teresa es una imitación de Cristo a una virtud heroica: "Todo lo que haces por el más pequeño de estos, me lo haces a mí" (Mateo 25:40).

Abrazar nuestra pequeñez es algo que va en contra de nuestros instintos y en contra de nuestra sociedad que pone tanto énfasis en ser los mejores. Ser el mejor cristiano es precisamente poner las necesidades de los demás antes que las nuestras. Como dijo la hermana, debemos vernos a nosotros mismos menos ante Dios y ante nuestros hermanos y hermanas. Siempre debemos considerar a nuestro prójimo como más importante que a nosotros mismos. Al igual que nuestro Señor, debemos ser el siervo de todos. Esto lo logramos haciendo pequeñas cosas, pequeños actos de amor que pueden pasar desapercibidos. Santa Teresa escribió en su Historia de un alma: "No pierdas ni una sola oportunidad de hacer un pequeño sacrificio, aquí por una mirada sonriente, allí por una palabra amable; siempre haciendo el más mínimo bien y haciéndolo por amor".

Al prepararnos para nuestro 95 aniversario, vamos a tomar el ejemplo de nuestra patrona y su "Pequeño Camino." Los invito esta semana a que mediten sobre este camino espiritual que llevo a Teresa a grandezas simplemente siendo menos.

Que Dios los bendiga a todos,

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

PRAISE TO THE LORD, THE ALMIGHTY

LOBE DE HERREN

1. Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the king of creation!
O my soul, praise him, for he is your health and salvation!
All you who hear, Now to his temple draw near.
Praise him in glad adoration!
2. Praise to the Lord, who o'er all things is wondrously reigning
And, as on wings of an eagle, uplifting, sustaining.
Have you not seen All you have needed has been Met by his gracious ordaining?
3. Praise to the Lord, who will prosper your work and defend you;
Surely his goodness and mercy shall daily attend you.
Ponder anew What the Almighty can do,
Who with his love will befriend you.

Text: Lobe den Herren; Joachim Neander, 1650-1680; tr. by Catherine Winkworth, 1827-1878, alt.

PREPARATION OF THE GIFTS

PRAYER OF ST. FRANCIS

SEBASTIAN TEMPLE

1. Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there is hatred, let me bring your love.
Where there is injury, your pardon, Lord,
And where there's doubt, true faith in you.
2. Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there's despair in life, let me bring hope.
Where there is darkness only light,
And where there's sadness ever joy.
3. O Master, grant that I may never seek
So much to be consoled, as to console,
To be understood, as to understand,
To be loved, as to love, with all my soul.

Dedicated to Mrs. Frances Tracy.

ONE BREAD, ONE BODY

JOHN FOLEY, SJ

*One bread, one body, one Lord of all,
one cup of blessing which we bless.
And we, though many, throughout the earth,
we are one body in this one Lord.*

1. Gentile or Jew, servant or free, woman or man, no more.
2. Many the gifts, many the works, one in the Lord of all.
3. Grain for the fields, scattered and grown, gathered to one, for all.

Text: Based on 1 Corinthians 10:16-17; 12:4, 12-13, 20; Galatians 3:28; Ephesians 4:4-6; The Didache 9.

RECESSIONAL HYMN

WHERE CHRIST IS, HIS CHURCH IS THERE

SALZBURG

1. Where Christ is, his Church is there. What a faith to hold and share!
Those who hold it must not part Church and Kingdom in their heart.
They, their worship ended, know: in that world to which they go,
Though no bells invite to prayer, where Christ is, his Church is there.
2. Where Christ is, his Kingdom grows. His the truth that overthrows
Every hard and godless creed born of fear or hate or greed.
Some who never called him Lord speak his reconciling word:
His all love that overflows. Where Christ is, his Kingdom grows.

a un mundo que busca y que no alcanza caminos de amor y de amistad.
2. Vienen trayendo entre sus manos esfuerzos de hermanos por la paz,

NEW BEREAVEMENT MINISTRY

We are pleased to announce the creation of a new Bereavement Ministry here at the parish. Through this new parish outreach ministry, volunteers will be able to bring the loving support of our community to parishioners, neighbors and friends who are mourning the death of a loved one.

Bereavement ministers strive to be the compassionate heart and hands of our Lord Jesus. Although no one can really feel or remove another's pain, everyone can walk beside and support another who is sorrowful. As part of the new ministry, one Mass will be offered toward the end of each month for all those in our parish who have passed away throughout that month. If you are interested in learning more about the Bereavement Ministry, or would like to add your name to the list of volunteers, please contact the Parish Office.

COTLF offers adults an opportunity to come together in a small group to learn more about our faith through the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults.

The program serves:

- † Unbaptized adults who wish to become Catholics.
- † Those baptized in another Christian Church who are seeking full communion with the Roman Catholic Church and the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist.
- † Baptized Catholic adults who were baptized as infants in the Catholic Church and now seek the Sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation.

The 2021-2022 Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults ("RCIA") program began this past Tuesday, September 21st and will meet every Tuesday from 7:00 PM through 9:00 PM until May. There is still time to register to be part of this year's RCIA Class!

To register for the program, please visit our Parish Website at www.cotlf.org/RCIA or contact Deacon Roberto Fleitas at RFleitas@cotlf.org

BULLETIN ADVERTISERS NEEDED

Next week, our new, full parish bulletin with official ads will begin printing!

Many of you may already be familiar with our new provider, Diocesan, through their work with our parish websites and the MyParish App. Our Diocesan Rep, Jenny Lusk, is reaching out to the local community about placing an ad in the bulletin. Please let her know if we can count on your continued support! The bulletin is available in print at the doors of the church, online on our church website, and on the MyParish App. We are grateful that this crucial communication piece is provided to our parish at NO COST thanks to the generous advertising support of our parishioners and community-minded businesses. Bulletin advertisers/sponsors recognize the tremendous value of connecting with our 3,000+ parish families and we ask our parishioners and guests to patronize our supporters when using a local service. If you have any questions about advertising in the weekly parish bulletin, please contact Jenny at 913-205-6387 or JLusk@diocesan.com. Thank you!

We Thank Our Generous Bulletin Supporters:
