FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Friends,

Advent is here! What a blessing that we are able to enter this holy season to prepare our hearts for the coming of our Lord!

When I was a child, my family had a hard and fast rule that we would not start decorating the house for Christmas until December 1st. As our family grew, that rule changed to start on the First Sunday of Advent. My parents were methodical in making sure that we knew that Jesus was truly the reason for the season. The Advent wreath would adorn our dining room table, and every night we would do our Advent prayers before dinner, and my sister, my brother and I would take turns lighting the candle or candles for that week. With the lighting of each candle we would say, "Jesus is the light of the world." Even as children, we knew that the brighter the Advent wreath got, the closer we were getting to Christmas.

This year when the calendar turned to November, I felt a great longing for Advent. I've always been very careful of not starting my Advent prayers or decorating anything until this blessed season arrives. Yet, I was reminded earlier this month of a retired bishop whom I visited about 20 years ago. It was late October, and, he already had his Christmas tree up. I thought it was a bit too early back then, but this year in particular, I thought of him and really wanted to start celebrating this season early. We are blessed this year that Christmas falls on a Saturday, so we are one day short of celebrating the full four weeks of Advent. What a blessing! So yes, I want to celebrate Christmas big because our broken world so desperately needs it. I can't help but think of the old Johnny Mathis song: "We Need a Little Christmas." Two of the verses go like this: "For we need a little Christmas, right this very minute, Candles in the window, carols at the spinet... For we need a little music, need a little laughter, Need a little singing ringing through the rafter... We need a little Christmas now!"

Yes, we all need a little Christmas to brighten up the world and our lives, but it all starts with the wreath that starts off in darkness and ends up with a magnificent light. This is such a wondrous season of grace that sometimes gets rushed between the mad dash from Thanksgiving Day to Christmas Eve. Advent is not as deliberate as the 40+ days of Lent, but if we savor each Advent day as an opportunity to focus on the Christ Child, we know that our hearts will burst with joy when we sing the Gloria with the angels on Christmas Day.

Let's do Advent and Christmas with more joy this year thinking back on the wonder we experienced as children. Obviously, we begin Advent at Mass this weekend, but we can kick off our family celebrations on Monday night with the Blessing of our Parish Nativity Scene at 7:30pm. The kids, young and old, will get cookies right after. And then we enter into a more solemn spiritual preparation with our Advent Holy Hour this coming Wednesday, December 1st at 7pm with Father Kevin Baldwin from the Legionaries of Christ whom I have invited to give the parish an Advent reflection during the Holy Hour.

"There is so much to do," you might think to yourself as this blessed season begins, but it all begins by slowing down with silence and prayer to take advantage of every single day of Advent. We thank God for the joy of the season, and in the stillness of our hearts we sing the ancient hymn: "O come, O come, Emmanuel!"

God bless you all,

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PARROCO

Mis Queridos Amigos,

¡Llegó el Adviento! ¡Qué bendición poder entrar en esta temporada santa para preparar nuestros corazones para la venida de nuestro Señor!

Cuando era niño, mi familia tenía una regla estricta de no comenzar a decorar la casa para Navidad hasta el 1 de diciembre. A medida que nuestra familia creció, esa regla cambió para comenzar el primer domingo de Adviento. Mis padres fueron metódicos para asegurarse de que supiéramos que Jesús era realmente la razón de la temporada. La corona de Adviento adornaría la mesa de nuestro comedor, y todas las noches hacíamos nuestras oraciones de Adviento antes de la cena, y mi hermana, mi hermano y yo nos turnábamos para encender la vela o las velas de esa semana. Con el encendido de cada vela diríamos: "Jesús es la luz del mundo". Incluso aun siendo niños, sabíamos que cuanto más brillante se volvía la corona de Adviento, más nos acercábamos a la Navidad.

Este año, cuando el calendario cambió a noviembre, sentí un gran anhelo por el Adviento. Siempre he tenido mucho cuidado de no comenzar mis oraciones de Adviento ni decorar nada hasta que llegue esta temporada bendita. Sin embargo, a principios de este mes me acordé de un obispo retirado a quien visité hace unos 20 años. Era finales de octubre y ya tenía su árbol de Navidad decorado. Pensé que era demasiado pronto en ese entonces, pero este año en particular, pensé en él y realmente quería comenzar a celebrar esta temporada temprano. Somos bendecidos este año porque la Navidad cae un sábado y podemos celebrar las cuatro semanas completas de Adviento. ¡Que bendición! Así que quiero celebrar la Navidad a lo grande porque nuestro mundo tan secular lo necesita desesperadamente. Me viene a la mente una vieja canción de Johnny Mathis que básicamente decía: "Necesitamos un poco de navidad".

Sí, todos necesitamos un poco de Navidad para alegrar el mundo y nuestras vidas, pero todo comienza con la corona de adviento que empieza en la oscuridad y termina con una luz magnífica. Esta es una temporada de gracia tan maravillosa que a veces se apresura entre la carrera loca desde el Día de Acción de Gracias hasta la Noche Buena. El Adviento no es tan deliberado como los más de 40 días de Cuaresma. Pero si saboreamos cada día de Adviento como una oportunidad para enfocarnos en el Niño Jesús, sabemos que nuestros corazones estallarán de gozo cuando cantemos el Gloria con los ángeles el día de Navidad.

Celebremos el Adviento y la Navidad con más alegría este año pensando en la maravilla que experimentamos cuando éramos niños. Obviamente, comenzamos el Adviento en la Misa este fin de semana, pero podemos comenzar nuestras celebraciones familiares el lunes por la noche con la Bendición del Pesebre de nuestra Parroquia a las 7:30 pm. Los niños, jóvenes y mayores, recibirán galletitas inmediatamente después. Y luego entramos en una preparación espiritual más solemne con nuestra Hora Santa de Adviento el próximo miércoles 1 de diciembre a las 7 pm con el Padre Kevin Baldwin de los Legionarios de Cristo, a quien he invitado a dar a la parroquia una reflexión de Adviento en inglés durante la Hora Santa.

"Hay tanto que hacer", podría pensar para sí mismo al comenzar esta temporada bendita, pero todo comienza disminuyendo la velocidad de nuestras vidas con el silencio y la oración para aprovechar cada día de Adviento. Demos gracias a Dios por la alegría de la temporada, y en la quietud de nuestro corazón cantamos el antiguo himno: "¡O ven, o ven, Emanuel!"

Que Dios los bendiga a todos,

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

THE KING SHALL COME WHEN MORNING DAWNS

1. The King shall come when morning dawns
And light triumphant breaks.
When beauty gilds the eastern hills
And life to joy awakes.
2. Not, as of old, a little child,
To suffer and to die,
But crowned with glory like the sun
That lights the morning sky.
3. The King shall come when morning dawns
And earth's dark night is past;
O haste the rising of that morn
Whose day shall ever last.

PREPARATION OF THE GIFTS

CREATOR OF THE STARS OF NIGHT

1. Creator of the stars of night,
Your people's everlasting light,
O Christ, Redeemer of us all,
We pray you hear us when we call.

2. In sorrow that the ancient curse
Should doom to death a universe,
You came, O Savior, to set free
Your own in glorious liberty.

3. When this old world drew on toward night,
You came; but not in splendor bright,
Not as a monarch, but the child
Of Mary, blameless mother mild.

4. At your great Name, O Jesus, now
All knees must bend, all hearts must bow:
All things on earth with one accord,
Like those in heav'n, shall call you Lord.

TODA LA TIERRA

ALBERTO TAULÉ/TIRSO VAQUERO

1. Toda la tierra espera al Salvador:
viene a traer a los hombres la verdad,
a sembrar por el mundo semillas de amor.
A todos los pobres su brazo salvará.
2. Dice el profeta al pueblo de Israel:
"Pronto la luz del Mesías brillará.
Dios se acerca a nosotros: su nombre, Emmanuel".
¡Germinen la tierra amor y libertad!
3. De nuestra carne se quiso revestir,
pobre y sencillo, de humilde corazón.
Nacerá como entonces, vendrá a compartir
la suerte del hombre, su angustia y su dolor.
4. Él viene siempre. Vivimos de esperar todos los días la vuelta de Jesús.
¡Contemplad su mirada, su voz escuchad,
dejad que las sombras se llenen de su luz!

COMMUNION

THERE IS A LONGING

*There is a longing in our hearts, O Lord,
for you to reveal yourself to us.
There is a longing in our hearts for love
we only find in you, our God.*

1. For justice, for freedom, for mercy: hear our prayer.
In sorrow, in grief: be near, hear our prayer, O God.
2. For wisdom, for courage, for comfort: hear our prayer.
In weakness, in fear: be near, hear our prayer, O God.
3. For healing, for wholeness, for new life: hear our prayer.
In sickness, in death: be near, hear our prayer, O God.
4. Lord, save us, take pity, light in our darkness.
We call you we wait: be near, hear our prayer, O God.

THE SYMBOLISM OF THE ADVENT WREATH

Each year, the Advent Wreath is placed prominently in our Sanctuary and its rich symbolism helps guide our spiritual journey through this Advent season.

The Circle — The Eternity of God, whom has no beginning and no end

The Evergreen — Life and Immortality

The Four Candles — The Four Weeks of Advent

The Purple Candles — A sign of Prayer, Penance, & Preparation

The Rose Candle — A sign of Rejoicing. The Rose candle is lit on the 3rd Sunday of Advent, as our celebration of Christmas draws near

We encourage all our families to add an Advent wreath in your homes, as well, and light the candles each night as part of your family prayers!
