FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Friends,

As we continue our Advent journey, I want to revisit one of the key figures of Christ's nativity: St. Joseph. This coming Wednesday, the Year of St. Joseph draws to a close. One year ago, our Holy Father, Pope Francis, proclaimed a year dedicated to Joseph, the spouse of our Blessed Mother. It was a year full of graces. Many people, including myself, did the 33-day consecration to St. Joseph. Those days were marked by intense meditation into the life of this just and holy man who gave up everything to take Mary into his home and raise the child Jesus as if he were his own son.

Pope Francis gave us the gift of an apostolic letter last December dedicated to St. Joseph called Patris Corde, "With a Father's Heart." I highly encourage you to read this letter which is a sublime meditation on the life of Joseph. It is the perfect spiritual companion for Advent. It is also a beautiful guide for fathers as the Holy Father goes deep into the importance of fatherhood:

Joseph found happiness not in mere self-sacrifice but in self-gift. In him, we never see frustration but only trust. His patient silence was the prelude to concrete expressions of trust. Our world today needs fathers...When fathers refuse to live the lives of their children for them, new and unexpected vistas open up. Every child is the bearer of a unique mystery that can only be brought to light with the help of a father who respects that child's freedom. A father who realizes that he is most a father and educator at the point when he becomes "useless", when he sees that his child has become independent and can walk the paths of life unaccompanied. When he becomes like Joseph, who always knew that his child was not his own but had merely been entrusted to his care...In every exercise of our fatherhood, we should always keep in mind that it has nothing to do with possession, but is rather a "sign" pointing to a greater fatherhood. In a way, we are all like Joseph: a shadow of the heavenly Father, who "makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust" (Mt 5:45). And a shadow that follows his Son. (PC 7)

Let us go to Joseph as we continue these days of Advent. Let him be the companion that we rely on just as our Blessed Mother relied on him to take her to Bethlehem. May he lead us to Jesus in the manger where our hearts long to be. May he protect us from all evil, for the Litany of St. Joseph rightly calls him the "terror of demons." Entrusting your heart to Joseph will have a transformative impact on your spiritual life.

So, as we conclude this year dedicated to the Most Chaste Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary, let us pray one final time the prayer our Holy Father inscribed at the end of Patris Corde.

*Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
To you God entrusted his only Son;
in you Mary placed her trust;
with you Christ became man.*

*Blessed Joseph, to us too,
show yourself a father
and guide us in the path of life.
Obtain for us grace, mercy and courage,
and defend us from every evil. Amen.*

God bless you all,

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PARROCO

Mis Queridos Amigos,

A medida que continuamos nuestro viaje de Adviento, quiero volver a visitar una de las figuras claves de la Natividad de Cristo: San José. Este próximo miércoles, el Año de San José llega a su fin. Hace un año, nuestro Santo Padre, el Papa Francisco, proclamó un año dedicado a José, el esposo de nuestra Santísima Madre. Fue un año lleno de gracias. Muchas personas, incluyéndome a mí, hicimos la consagración de 33 días a San José. Esos días estuvieron marcados por una meditación intensa en la vida de este hombre justo y santo que renunció a todo para llevar a María a su hogar y criar al niño Jesús como si fuera su propio hijo.

El Papa Francisco nos regaló el pasado mes de diciembre una carta apostólica dedicada a San José llamada Patris Corde, "Con corazón de Padre". Los animo a leer esta carta, que es una meditación sublime sobre la vida de José. Es el compañero espiritual perfecto para el Adviento. También es una guía hermosa para los padres, ya que el Santo Padre profundiza en la importancia de la paternidad:

La felicidad de José no está en la lógica del auto-sacrificio, sino en el don de sí mismo. Nunca se percibe en este hombre la frustración, sino sólo la confianza. Su silencio persistente no contempla quejas, sino gestos concretos de confianza. El mundo necesita padres... Un padre que es consciente de que completa su acción educativa y de que vive plenamente su paternidad sólo cuando se ha hecho "inútil", cuando ve que el hijo ha logrado ser autónomo y camina solo por los senderos de la vida, cuando se pone en la situación de José, que siempre supo que el Niño no era suyo, sino que simplemente había sido confiado a su cuidado... Siempre que nos encontremos en la condición de ejercer la paternidad, debemos recordar que nunca es un ejercicio de posesión, sino un "signo" que nos evoca una paternidad superior. En cierto sentido, todos nos encontramos en la condición de José: sombra del único Padre celestial, que «hace salir el sol sobre malos y buenos y manda la lluvia sobre justos e injustos» (Mt 5,45); y sombra que sigue al Hijo. (PC 7)

Vayamos a José mientras continuamos estos días de Adviento. Que sea el compañero en el que confiamos, así como nuestra Santísima Madre confió en él para llevarla a Belén. Que nos conduzca a Jesús en el pesebre donde nuestros corazones anhelan estar. Que nos proteja de todo mal, porque la Letanía de San José lo llama con razón el "terror de los demonios". Confiando nuestro corazón a José tendrá un impacto transformador en nuestra vida espiritual.

Así que, al concluir este año dedicado al Mas Casto Esposo de la Santísima Virgen María, recemos por última vez la oración que nuestro Santo Padre inscribió al final de Patris Corde.

*Salve, custodio del Redentor
y esposo de la Virgen María.*

*A ti Dios confió a su Hijo, en ti María depositó su confianza,
contigo Cristo se forjó como hombre.*

*Oh, bienaventurado José, muéstrate padre también a nosotros
y guíanos en el camino de la vida.
Concédenos gracia, misericordia y valentía,
y defiéndenos de todo mal. Amén.*

Que Dios los bendiga a todos,

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

COME, O LONG-EXPECTED JESUS

STUTTGART

1. Come, O long expected Jesus,
Born to set your people free;
From our fears and sins release us;
Free us from captivity.
Israel's strength and consolation,
You, the hope of all the earth,
Dear desire of ev'ry nation,
Come, and save us by your birth.
2. Born your people to deliver; Born a child and yet a king!
Born to reign in us for ever,
Now your gracious kingdom bring.
By your own eternal Spirit Rule in all our hearts alone;
By your all sufficient merit
Raise us to your glorious throne.

Text: Haggai 2:7; Charles Wesley, 1707-1788, alt.

PREPARATION OF THE GIFTS

A VOICE CRIES OUT

MICHAEL JONCAS

1. Console my people, the ones dear to me:
speak to the heart of Jerusalem:
the time of your morning is ended now.
The Lord of life will come.

A voice cries out in the wilderness: Prepare a way for the Lord!

*A voice cries out in the wilderness:
Make straight a highway for God!*

2. Ev'ry valley is made a plain,
ev'ry mountain is leveled
the glory of God shall then be revealed,
and the nations will sing in praise.
3. A voice shouts: "Cry!" O what shall I cry?
All flesh is like grass and its flowers:
the grass may wither, the flower may fade,
but the Word of the Lord is forever.

THE SYMBOLISM OF THE ADVENT WREATH

Each year, the Advent Wreath is placed prominently in our Sanctuary and its rich symbolism helps guide our spiritual journey through this Advent season.

The Circle — The Eternity of God, whom has no beginning and no end

The Evergreens — Life and Immortality

The Four Candles — The Four Weeks of Advent

The Purple Candles — A sign of Prayer, Penance, & Preparation

The Rose Candle — A sign of Rejoicing. The Rose candle is lit on the 3rd Sunday of Advent, as our celebration of Christmas draws near

We encourage all our families to add an Advent wreath in your homes, as well, and light the candles each night as part of your family prayers!
