FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Friends:

We offer you this beautiful mediation on today's gospel given by Pope Francis. Enjoy.

In today's Gospel passage, Luke's narrative (cf. Lk 5:1-11) offers us the call of Saint Peter. His name — as we know — was Simon, and he was a fisherman. On the shore of the Lake of Galilee, Jesus sees him as he is arranging his nets, along with other fishermen. He finds him exhausted and discouraged, because that night they had caught nothing. And Jesus surprises him with an unexpected gesture: He gets into his boat and asks him to put out a short distance from the land because He wants to speak to the people from there — there were many people. So Jesus sits down in Simon's boat and teaches the crowd gathered along the shore. But His words reopen even Simon's heart to trust. Then, with another surprising 'move', Jesus says to him: "Put out into the deep and let down your nets for a catch" (v. 4).

Simon responds with an objection: "Master, we have toiled all night and took nothing!". And, as an expert fisherman, he could have added: 'If we didn't catch anything during the night, we aren't going to catch anything during the day'. However, inspired by Jesus' presence and enlightened by His Word, he says: "But at your word I will let down the nets" (v. 5). It is the response of faith, which we too are called to give; it is the attitude of willingness that the Lord asks of all his disciples, especially those who are tasked with responsibilities in the Church. And Peter's trustful obedience creates a prodigious result: "when they had done this, they enclosed a great shoal of fish" (v. 6).

It is a miraculous catch, a sign of the power of Jesus' word: when we place ourselves generously in his service, he accomplishes great things in us. This is what he does in each of us: he asks us to welcome him on the boat of our life, in order to set out anew with him and to sail a new sea, one which proves to be full of surprises. His call to go out into the open sea of the humanity of our time, in order to be witnesses to goodness and mercy, gives new meaning to our existence, which is often at risk of collapsing upon itself. At times we may be surprised and uncertain before the call that the divine Master addresses to us, and we may be tempted to reject it due to our inadequacy. Peter too, after this incredible catch, said to Jesus: "Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord" (v. 8). This humble prayer is beautiful: 'Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord'. But he says it on his knees before the One whom by this point he recognizes as 'Lord'. And Jesus encourages him by saying: "Do not be afraid; henceforth you will be catching men" (v. 10); because God — if we trust in Him — frees us from our sin and opens a new horizon before us: to cooperate in his mission.

The greatest miracle that Jesus accomplished for Simon and the other tired and discouraged fishermen is not so much the net full of fish, as having helped them not to fall victim to disappointment and discouragement in the face of failure. He prepared them to become proclaimers of and witnesses to his word and the Kingdom of God. And the disciples' response was immediate and unreserved: "when they had brought their boats to land, they left everything and followed him" (v. 11). May the Blessed Virgin, model of prompt adherence to God's will, help us to feel the allure of the Lord's call, and make us willing to cooperate with him to spread his word of salvation everywhere.

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PARROCO

Mis Queridos Amigos:

Les ofrecemos esta bella meditación sobre evangelio de hoy dada por el Papa Francisco.

El Evangelio de hoy (cf. Lc 5, 1-11) narra, en el relato de Lucas, la llamada de San Pedro. Su nombre, lo sabemos, era Simón y era pescador. Jesús, en la orilla del lago de Galilea, lo ve mientras está arreglando las redes, junto con otros pescadores. Lo encuentra fatigado y decepcionado, porque esa noche no habían pescado nada. Y Jesús lo sorprende con un gesto inesperado: se sube a su barca y le pide que se aleje un poco de tierra porque quiere hablar a la gente desde allí, había mucha gente. Entonces Jesús se sienta en la barca de Simón y enseña a la multitud reunida a lo largo de la orilla. Pero sus palabras también reabren a la confianza el corazón de Simón. Entonces Jesús, con otro "gesto" sorprendente, le dice: «Boga mar adentro y echad vuestras redes para pescar» (v. 4).

Simón responde con una objeción: «Maestro, hemos estado bregando todo la noche y no hemos pescado nada ...». Y, como experto pescador, podría haber agregado: "Si no hemos pescado por la noche, mucho menos vamos a pescar de día". En cambio, inspirado por la presencia de Jesús e iluminado por su Palabra, dice: «...pero, en tu palabra, echaré las redes» (v. 5). Es la respuesta de la fe, que nosotros también estamos llamados a dar; es la actitud de disponibilidad que el Señor pide a todos sus discípulos, sobre todo a aquellos que tienen tareas de responsabilidad en la Iglesia. Y la obediencia confiada de Pedro genera un resultado prodigioso: «Y, haciéndolo así, pescaron gran cantidad de peces» (v. 6).

Es una pesca milagrosa, un signo del poder de la palabra de Jesús: cuando nos ponemos con generosidad a su servicio, Él obra grandes cosas en nosotros. Así actúa con cada uno de nosotros: nos pide que lo acojamos en la barca de nuestra vida, para recomenzar con él a surcar un nuevo mar, que se revela cuajado de sorpresas. Su invitación a salir al mar abierto de la humanidad de nuestro tiempo, a ser testigos de la bondad y la misericordia, da un nuevo significado a nuestra existencia, que a menudo corre el riesgo de replegarse sobre sí misma. A veces, podemos sentirnos sorprendidos y titubeantes ante la "llamada del Maestro Divino, y tentados a rechazarlo porque no nos sentimos a la altura. Incluso Pedro, después de aquella pesca increíble, le dijo a Jesús: «Aléjate de mí, Señor, que soy un hombre pecador» (v. 8). Esta humilde oración es hermosa: "Aléjate de mí, Señor, que soy un hombre pecador". Pero lo dijo de rodillas ante Aquel que ahora reconoce como "Señor". Y Jesús lo alienta diciendo: «No temas. Desde ahora serás pescador de hombres» (v. 10), porque Dios, si confiamos en Él, nos libra de nuestro pecado y nos abre un nuevo horizonte: colaborar en su misión.

El mayor milagro realizado por Jesús para Simón y los demás pescadores decepcionados y cansados, no es tanto la red llena de peces, como haberlos ayudado a no caer víctimas de la decepción y el desaliento ante las derrotas. Les abrió el horizonte de convertirse en anunciadores y testigos de su palabra y del reino de Dios. Y la respuesta de los discípulos fue rápida y total: «Llevaron a tierra las barcas y dejando todo lo siguieron» (v. 11). ¡Qué la Santísima Virgen, modelo de pronta adhesión a la voluntad de Dios, nos ayude a sentir la fascinación de la llamada del Señor y nos haga disponibles a colaborar con él para difundir su palabra de salvación en todas partes!

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

FROM SHALLOW WATERS CALL US, LORD

1. From shallow waters call us, Lord, From safety near the shore,
And bid us launch upon the depths Where faith is tested more.
Let not past failures hope destroy Now caution paralyze,
But help us follow where you lead And wait for Love's surprise.
2. We cannot fish the ocean's depths With nets shrunk small by fear.
We need the gift of greater faith When we your summons hear.
And, if we plead unworthiness For what your call demands,
Then may we trust you'll cleanse and calm Our soiled, unsteady hands.
3. We are to launch on unknown seas And cast our nets abroad,
For you have bid us grasp by faith The promises of God.
O Christ, you crossed the same wide seas You send us now to sail;
Be present when we reach the depths With strength that does not fail!
4. For neither fear nor scorn nor death Could turn you back to land.
You knew no storms could carry you Beyond your Father's hand.
Your cross seemed by a fragile craft Upon an angry sea,
Till Easter dawn brought light and peace Through Love that sets us free!

PREPARATION OF THE GIFTS

TWO FISHERMEN

1. Two fishermen, who lived along The Sea of Galilee,
Stood by the shore to cast their nets Into an ageless sea.
Now Jesus watched them from afar Then called them each by name;
It changed their lives, these simple men; They'd never be the same.
Leave all things you have And come and follow me,
And come and follow me.
2. And as he walked along the shore 'Twas James and John he'd find,
And these two sons of Zebedee Would leave their boats behind.
Their work and all they held so dear They left beside their nets.
Their names they'd heard as Jesus called; They came without regret.
Leave all things you have...
3. O Simon Peter, Andrew, James And John beloved one,
You heard Christ's call to speak good news Revealed to God's own Son.
Susanna, Mary, Magdalene Who traveled with your Lord,
You ministered to him with joy For he is God adored.
Leave all things you have...
4. And you, good Christians, one and all Who'd follow Jesus' way,
Come leave behind what keeps you bound To trappings of our day,
And listen as he calls your name To come and follow near,
For still he speaks in varied ways To those his call will hear.
Leave all things you have...

Saint Josephine Bakhita

Saint Josephine grew up in the Sudan and was kidnapped and enslaved when she was seven. She was sold to an Italian family that lived in Sudan. They were kind to her so when they moved to Italy, she asked to join them. In Italy, she was a babysitter for a young girl and attended a Catholic school with her. As she grew up, she realized that slavery was illegal in Italy, so she was free! She became Catholic and joined a convent. She spent the rest of her life praying for others and showing her trust in God.

In God's will,
there is great peace.

Jesus said, "From now on you will be..."

Gospel

Jesus told Simon to lower his nets one more time after a night of unsuccessful fishing. Simon caught so many fish that they almost sank!
It was a miracle!
