FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Friends:

As we begin the season of Lent, our hearts are obviously heavy with the events transpiring in Ukraine. On Ash Wednesday, we all spent the day in fasting and prayer to implore our Lord, the Prince of Peace, to restore peace and stability to that region. We have been edified by the example of Ukrainian priests and religious who have stayed behind to serve their suffering people. May we continue to make sacrifices and do penance during this Lenten season for peace in our world.

The passion of our Lord Jesus Christ is what we contemplate during every Lent. The crushing reality of the cross is something that we cannot ignore. Like Christ, we must embrace the cross, especially our personal ones, in order to attain salvation. We cannot look past Calvary and just focus on the empty tomb. There would be no victory on Easter Morning without Good Friday. That is why this week we will focus as a parish on the mystery of Christ's passion and death.

After the success of the exhibit of the Eucharistic Miracles a few months ago, we've invited the same people back to our parish to bring their exhibit on the "Sacred Cloths of the Passion." Among them is obviously the Shroud of Turin. I remember a few years ago standing before an exact replica of the Shroud of Turin when I was abroad. I was mesmerized by the details of the shroud but also by the violence of the Cross that we so often overlook. When we sit and contemplate the sheer brutality of what our Lord went through to conquer sin and death, the beating he took, and the scars he bears, we understand the reaction of St. Thomas the Apostle who fell to his knees and exclaimed, "My Lord and my God!"

Yes, it is the perfect time to bring in this exhibit, and I invite all of you this Wednesday, March 9 at 7:00 p.m. to Comber Hall for the formal presentation of the exhibit. Comber Hall will be open from 4:00 p.m. until 9:30 p.m. on Wednesday. As a bonus, we will also have the same presentation given after the 8:00 a.m. Mass on Thursday, March 10. The presentation will be at 8:45 a.m. and the hall will be open for the exhibit on Thursday until 11:00 a.m. Join your fellow parishioners in contemplating the sacred shrouds of our Lord's passion. May these exhibits and presentations allow us to feel closer to Jesus' suffering and the suffering of our brothers and sisters around the world who are victims of violence, especially in Ukraine and other war-torn countries.

Finally, last Tuesday the Archbishop lifted a few more COVID related restrictions when it came to the Mass. Masks continue to be optional regardless of vaccination status and social distancing has been eliminated. The Sign of Peace and the Offertory Procession have been restored! (Please be patient as we reinstitute these parts of the liturgy in our parish, which here includes the return of the traditional Children's Collection which I participated in when I was a boy.) I received that letter from the Archbishop two days before Lent started and saw it as a battle cry: it is time to bring ALL our people back to Mass! We have been blessed here at Little Flower with good Mass attendance during the pandemic especially at daily Mass, but I need all of you to join in the effort to bring everyone back to God's house during Lent. Invite your friends and families who may be hesitant to come back to our beautiful church during this sacred season. Yes, the livestreams will continue for the sick and infirmed, but even our sick parishioners rejoice when they see our church full. Spread the word! Bring a friend who has been away back to Mass! Let that be part of our Lenten journey!

God bless you all,

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PARROCO

Mis Queridos Amigos:

Al comenzar la temporada de Cuaresma, nuestros corazones están obviamente pesados con los eventos que ocurren en Ucrania. El Miércoles de Ceniza, todos nos pasamos el día en ayuno y oración para implorar a nuestro Señor, el Príncipe de Paz, que restaure la paz y la estabilidad en esa región. Hemos sido edificados por el ejemplo de sacerdotes y religiosos ucranianos que se han quedado atrás para servir a su pueblo que sufre. Que sigamos haciendo sacrificios y haciendo penitencia durante este tiempo de Cuaresma por la paz en nuestro mundo.

La pasión de nuestro Señor Jesucristo es lo que contemplamos durante cada Cuaresma. La espantosa realidad de la cruz es algo que no podemos ignorar. Al igual que Cristo, debemos abrazar la cruz, especialmente la nuestra personal, para alcanzar la salvación. No podemos mirar más allá del Calvario y simplemente enfocarnos en la tumba vacía. No habría victoria en la Mañana de Pascua sin el Viernes Santo. Es por eso por lo que esta semana nos centraremos como parroquia en el misterio de la pasión y muerte de Cristo.

Después del éxito de la exposición de los Milagros Eucarísticos hace unos meses, hemos invitado a las mismas personas a regresar a nuestra parroquia para traer su exposición sobre los "Paños Sagrados de la Pasión". Entre ellos se encuentra obviamente la Sábana Santa de Turín. Recuerdo que hace unos años estaba de pie ante una réplica exacta del Sudario de Turín cuando estaba en el extranjero. Me quedé hipnotizado por los detalles del sudario, pero también por la violencia de la Cruz que tan a menudo pasamos por alto. Cuando nos sentamos y contemplamos la pura brutalidad de lo que nuestro Señor pasó para conquistar el pecado y la muerte, los golpes que recibió y las cicatrices que lleva, entendemos la reacción de Santo Tomás el Apóstol que cayó de rodillas y exclamó: "¡Mi Señor y mi Dios!"

Sí, es el momento perfecto para traer esta exhibición, y los invito a todos ustedes este miércoles 9 de marzo a las 7:00 p.m. a Comber Hall para la presentación formal de la exhibición. Comber Hall estará abierto desde las 4:00 p.m. hasta las 9:30 p.m. del miércoles. Como beneficio adicional, también tendremos la misma presentación después de la misa de las 8:00 a.m. el jueves 10 de marzo. La presentación será a las 8:45 a.m. y la sala estará abierta para la exposición el jueves hasta las 11:00 a.m. Únase a sus compañeros feligreses para contemplar los sagrados sudarios de la pasión de nuestro Señor. Que estas exposiciones y presentaciones nos permitan sentirnos más cerca del sufrimiento de Jesús y del sufrimiento de nuestros hermanos y hermanas de todo el mundo que son víctimas de la violencia, especialmente en Ucrania y otros países devastados por la guerra.

Finalmente, el martes pasado, el arzobispo quitó algunas restricciones más relacionadas con el COVID cuando se trata de la misa. Las máscaras siguen siendo opcionales independientemente del estado de vacunación y se ha eliminado el distanciamiento social. ¡El Signo de la Paz y la Procesión del Ofertorio han sido restauradas! (Por favor, tengan paciencia mientras reinstituimos estas partes de la liturgia en nuestra parroquia, que aquí incluye el regreso de la colecta tradicional de niños en la que participé cuando era niño). Recibí esa carta del arzobispo dos días antes de que comenzara la Cuaresma y la vi como un grito de batalla: ¡es hora de traer a TODA nuestra gente de vuelta a misa! Hemos sido bendecidos aquí en Santa Teresita con una buena asistencia a la Misa durante la pandemia, especialmente a la Misa diaria, pero necesito que todos ustedes se unan al esfuerzo de traer a todos de vuelta a la casa de Dios durante la Cuaresma. Inviten a sus amigos y familiares que puedan dudar en regresar a nuestra hermosa iglesia durante esta temporada sagrada. Sí, las transmisiones en vivo continuarán para los enfermos y débiles, pero incluso nuestros feligreses enfermos se regocijan cuando ven nuestra iglesia llena. ¡Corran la voz! ¡Traigan a un amigo que ha estado fuera de vuelta a la misa! ¡Que eso sea parte de nuestro viaje cuaresmal!

Que Dios los bendiga a todos,

RESTORE

Join Sister Miriam Heidland throughout Lent for weekly video reflections on her new book, RESTORE, by Ave Maria Press

To help celebrate this holy season of Lent, we've temporarily added a Lent background along with two new buttons in the MyParish App.

1. Weekly Lenten video reflections from RESTORE by Sr. Miriam Heidland.
2. Daily Lenten reflections from Fragments of Your Ancient Name by Joyce Rupp (both from Ave Maria Press).

We hope these simple resources will aid you in your journey through Lent to Easter Sunday. Be sure to visit www.cotlf.org/lent for other family resources throughout the season!

FASTING AND ABSTINENCE

The holy season of Lent begins on Ash Wednesday.
Both Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of abstinence from meat for all who are 14 years and older. They are also days of fast (one full meal and two small meals, with nothing eaten between the meals) for adults from 18 to 59 years of age.
All Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence from meat for those 14 years and older.

Saint Dismas

Saint Dismas was crucified on the cross next to Jesus. Saint Dismas was a criminal, but he asked for forgiveness before he died.

Saint Dismas said,
"Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom."

Gospel

Jesus lived in the desert for 40 days! The devil tried to tempt him to turn the rocks into bread when he was hungry. Jesus got help from the angels and knew that He could wait. He didn't listen to the devil.
