FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Friends:

On March 15, Archbishop Wenski promulgated a letter that I would like to share with you today. In it he ends the dispensation that has been in place since the pandemic began and restores the obligation to attend Sunday Mass. The letter starts off with a quote from the Catechism of the Catholic Church:

"The Sunday Eucharist is the foundation and confirmation of all Christian practice. For this reason, the faithful are obliged to participate in the Eucharist on days of obligation Participation in the communal celebration of the Sunday Eucharist is a testimony of belonging and being faithful to Christ and to his Church." (Cf CCC 2181, 2182)

Effective Palm Sunday, April 10, 2022, the obligation to participate in the Eucharist in person on Sundays and other holy days of obligation is restored. Unless excused for a serious reason (illness, care of infants or elderly, etc.) those who deliberately fail in this obligation commit a grave sin.

The Palm Sunday date was chosen to give pastors adequate time to prepare their parishioners and perhaps readjust Mass schedules, etc. As already published, mask requirements as well as requirements for social distancing have been lifted. In March 2020, because of the extraordinary circumstances surrounding the Corona virus pandemic, the obligation of the faithful to participate in the Mass on Sundays and other holy days of obligation was suspended - although all were encouraged to participate in Mass via livestreamed or by "keeping holy the Lord's Day" through prayer and reflection on the Scriptures personally or with their families. Sincerely yours in Christ, Most Reverend Thomas Wenski

Having read the Archbishop's words, let me add a few reflections of my own:

Sunday Mass is the highlight and cornerstone of our week as a parish. All that we do, every ministry, every act of service flows from the Sunday celebration of the Eucharist. We have seen Mass attendance rise significantly since Lent began in quite a few of our Sunday Masses. It has been so encouraging and joyful for the priests of your parish. As I mentioned two weeks ago in this space: we need to start preparing as a community to welcome the big crowds that will join us for Mass on Palm Sunday and Easter Sunday. This means getting used to sitting together again. Yes, that includes squeezing into the pews. I understand that some may not be comfortable with that just yet, but if we can squeeze into a plane or a movie theater, we can do it in church in the presence of our Lord. Remember, that masks are still optional and many of our parishioners are still wearing them. The Eucharist is a sacrament of encounter not only with our Lord, but with our brothers and sisters in Christ.

Lent is a time to turn away from bad habits, and yes, many of us have fallen into the habit over the last two years of putting other things ahead of Sunday Mass because we knew the dispensation was in place and we could watch the livestream any time of the day. We must once again realize the seriousness of this obligation because it is putting God first in our lives and the lives of our family, and it would be a dereliction of duty on my part as your pastor if I did not underscore what the Archbishop so clearly states: "those who deliberately fail in this obligation commit a grave sin."

If I can add one more bit of wisdom on the Sunday Mass from Pope St. John Paul II:

Do not be afraid to give your time to Christ! Yes, let us open our time to Christ, that he may cast light upon it and give it direction. He is the One who knows the secret of time and the secret of eternity, and he gives us "his day" as an ever new gift of his love. The rediscovery of this day is a grace which we must implore, not only so that we may live the demands of faith to the full, but also so that we may respond concretely to the deepest human yearnings. Time given to Christ is never time lost, but is rather time gained, so that our relationships and indeed our whole life may become more profoundly human. (Dies Domini 7)

Again, I implore you, announce it far and wide to all you meet: it's time to come home for Mass!

God bless you all,

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PARROCO

Mis Queridos Amigos:

El 15 de marzo, el arzobispo Wenski promulgó una carta que me gustaría compartir con ustedes hoy. En ella él pone fin a la dispensa que ha estado vigente desde que comenzó la pandemia y restablece la obligación de asistir a la misa dominical. La carta comienza con una cita del Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica:

"La Eucaristía del domingo fundamenta y confirma toda la práctica cristiana. Por eso los fieles están obligados a participar en la Eucaristía los días de precepto... La participación en la celebración común de la Eucaristía dominical es un testimonio de pertenencia y de fidelidad a Cristo y a su Iglesia". (cf. CIC 2181, 2182)

A partir del Domingo de Ramos, 10 de abril del 2022, se restablece la obligación de participar personalmente en la Eucaristía los domingos y otros días de precepto. A no ser que estén excusados por una razón seria (por ejemplo, enfermedad, o por cuidar a niños pequeños o a ancianos), quienes deliberadamente faltan a esta obligación cometen un pecado grave.

Se eligió la fecha del Domingo de Ramos a fin de que los párrocos tuvieran tiempo suficiente para preparar a sus feligreses y quizás reajustar los horarios de las Misas, entre otros detalles. Como ya se ha publicado, los requisitos de mascarillas, así como los de distanciamiento social, se han cancelado. En marzo del 2020, debido a las circunstancias extraordinarias que rodearon la pandemia del coronavirus, se suspendió la obligación de los fieles de participar en la Misa los domingos y otros días de precepto, aunque se exhortó a todos a participar en la Misa a través de la transmisión en directo, o a "santificar el Día del Señor" mediante la oración y la reflexión sobre las Escrituras, personalmente o en familia. Atentamente suyo en Cristo, Reverendísimo Thomas Wenski

Después de haber leído las palabras del Arzobispo, permítanme añadir algunas reflexiones propias:

La misa dominical es el punto culminante y la piedra angular de nuestra semana como parroquia. Todo lo que hacemos, cada ministerio, cada acto de servicio fluye de la celebración dominical de la Eucaristía. Hemos visto que la asistencia a la Misa ha aumentado significativamente desde que comenzó la Cuaresma en bastantes de nuestras Misas dominicales. Ha sido muy alentador y de gran alegría para los sacerdotes de su parroquia. Como mencioné hace dos semanas en este espacio: necesitamos comenzar a prepararnos como comunidad para darle la bienvenida a las multitudes grandes que se unirán a nosotros para la Misa del Domingo de Ramos y el Domingo de Pascua. Esto significa acostumbrarse a sentarse juntos de nuevo. Sí, eso incluye apretarse en los bancos. Entiendo que algunos pueden no sentirse cómodos con eso todavía, pero si podemos apretarnos en un avión o en un cine, podemos hacerlo en la iglesia en la presencia de nuestro Señor. Recuerden, que las máscaras siguen siendo opcionales y muchos de nuestros feligreses todavía las usan. La Eucaristía es un sacramento de encuentro no sólo con nuestro Señor, sino con nuestros hermanos y hermanas en Cristo.

La Cuaresma es un tiempo para alejarse de los malos hábitos, y sí, muchos de nosotros hemos caído en el hábito en los últimos dos años de poner otras cosas antes de la Misa dominical porque sabíamos que la dispensa estaba en su lugar y podíamos ver la transmisión en vivo en cualquier momento del día. Debemos darnos cuenta una vez más de la seriedad de esta obligación porque está poniendo a Dios en primer lugar en nuestras vidas y en las vidas de nuestra familia, y sería una negligencia de deber de mi parte como su párroco si no subrayara lo que el Arzobispo dice tan claramente: "aquellos que deliberadamente faltan en esta obligación cometen un pecado grave".

Y si puedo agregar un poco más de sabiduría en la Misa dominical del Papa San Juan Pablo II:

¡No tengan miedo de dar su tiempo a Cristo! Sí, abramos nuestro tiempo a Cristo para que él lo pueda iluminar y dirigir. Él es quien conoce el secreto del tiempo y el secreto de la eternidad, y nos entrega « su día » como un don siempre nuevo de su amor. El descubrimiento de este día es una gracia que se ha de pedir, no sólo para vivir en plenitud las exigencias propias de la fe, sino también para dar una respuesta concreta a los anhelos íntimos y auténticos de cada ser humano. El tiempo ofrecido a Cristo nunca es un tiempo perdido, sino más bien ganado para la humanización profunda de nuestras relaciones y de nuestra vida. (Dies Domini 7)

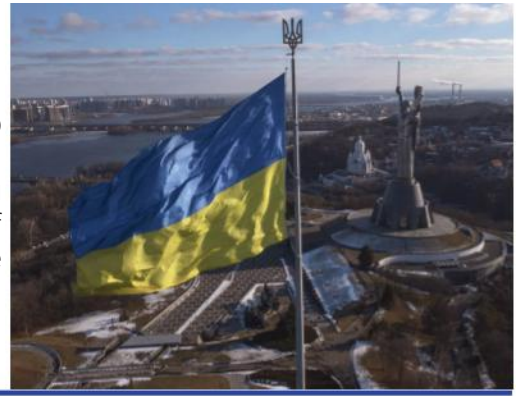

Una vez más, les imploro, anúncienlo por todas partes a todos los que se encuentren: ¡es hora de regresar a casa para la Misa!

Que Dios los bendiga a todos,
