FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Friends:

Happy Easter! We welcome all our parishioners and all of those visiting our beautiful church to celebrate the Resurrection of our Lord!

"The joy of the resurrection renews the whole world." --From the Old Translation of the First Easter Preface

We are filled with overwhelming joy on the Easter morning. We have gathered to celebrate the triumph of our Lord over sin and death. This joy, as the liturgy tells us, renews the whole world and should renew us this day. During Lent, we put to death our sinful ways and now we walk in the freedom of God's children. This Sunday is special because we gather in great numbers to celebrate the central mystery of our faith. This indeed is the day the Lord has made and we rejoice and are glad as the psalm says. But my friends, every Sunday is special, every Sunday is a mini-Easter, every Sunday IS the Lord's Day. A dear friend texts me every Sunday morning to wish me a "Happy Sunday." It is a recognition that this day is different from all others. It is a day dedicated to family, rest, and most importantly, it is the Lord's Day. But today is the Sunday of Sundays. It is Easter Sunday, and we are definitely filled with the radiant joy of the resurrection that transforms us.

Last night at our Easter Vigil, five of your fellow parishioners received the Easter sacraments and were baptized, confirmed, and received first communion. Last week I recalled an Easter Vigil that I celebrated 10 years ago where a 16-year-old girl wise beyond her years was baptized. That night, her face was as radiant as that of the risen Christ as she came before the baptismal font and was baptized. Later on in the liturgy she was confirmed and received the Eucharist for the first time. While I was finishing to distribute communion, she was kneeling in the first pew about three feet away from me. When I was done, she murmured something to me that I couldn't quite understand.

I leaned in closer, and she told me with an angelic and joy-filled smile, "Father, I want to do it again!" I smiled from ear to ear. Imagine a 16-year-old girl who gets what Easter is all about! And like hers are countless stories of so many catechumens whose lives are completely transformed through the living waters of baptism. One of the parishioners who was baptized last night is one of our 7th graders in the school. And though I am writing this will before her baptism and official entrance into the Church, I can't help but think of all the times we've discussed her baptism and the luminous smile it brings to her face. The same goes for all the adult catechumens who will be baptized Catholics by the time this is read. Their testimonies are extraordinary and can teach us so much about the faith we sometimes take for granted. The joy of the resurrection truly does indeed renew the whole world. Sometimes we cradle Catholics who have practiced the faith for many years have to pause and reflect on what Easter really means to them and see Easter through the eyes of the newly baptized.

We know the story of this day. But what are we doing to share the joy of the resurrection? We cannot leave this joy here in church. Yes, it feels great here on Easter morning with a beautifully decorated altar and heavenly music, but this joy dies here as surely as Christ died on the cross if we do not take it beyond the walls of this church and spread it to every corner of the earth. My friends, the Lord has freed us from our bondage to sin. He has freely given to us the gift of immortality. He has filled our lives with joy and peace. Is that not worth sharing? Our catechumens through their witness will share this joy because they have fallen in love with their faith and with this man named Jesus who died and rose for them and gave them new life. He did the same for you. What will you do for Him?

God bless you all,

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PARROCO

Mis Queridos Amigos:

¡Feliz Pascua de Resurrección! ¡Damos la bienvenida a todos nuestros feligreses y a todos aquellos que visitan nuestra hermosa iglesia por primera vez para celebrar la Resurrección de nuestro Señor!

"La alegría de la resurrección renueva el mundo entero". --De la traducción antigua del primer prefacio de Pascua Estamos llenos de una alegría abrumadora en la mañana de Pascua. Nos hemos reunido para celebrar el triunfo de nuestro Señor sobre el pecado y la muerte. Esta alegría, como nos dice la liturgia, renueva el mundo entero y debe renovarnos a nosotros también en este día. Durante la Cuaresma, damos muerte a nuestros caminos pecaminosos y ahora caminamos en la libertad de los hijos de Dios. Este domingo es especial porque nos reunimos en gran número para celebrar el misterio central de nuestra fe. Este en verdad es el día que hizo el Señor y nos regocijamos y nos alegramos como dice el salmo. Pero mis amigos, cada domingo es especial, cada domingo es una mini-Pascua, cada domingo ES el Día del Señor. Una querida amiga me envía un mensaje de texto todos los domingos por la mañana para desearme un "Feliz domingo". Es un reconocimiento de que este día de la semana es diferente a todos los demás. Es un día dedicado a la familia, al descanso y lo más importante, es el día del Señor. Pero hoy es el domingo de los domingos. Es el Domingo de Resurrección y definitivamente estamos llenos del gozo radiante de la resurrección que nos transforma.

Anoche en nuestra Vigilia Pascual, cinco feligreses recibieron los sacramentos pascuales y fueron bautizados, confirmados y recibieron la primera comunión. La semana pasada recordé una Vigilia Pascual que celebré hace 10 años donde fue bautizada una niña de 16 años con una sabiduría más allá de su edad. Esa noche, su rostro estaba tan radiante como el de Cristo resucitado cuando se acercó a la pila bautismal y fue bautizada. Posteriormente en la liturgia fue confirmada y recibió la Eucaristía por primera vez. Mientras yo terminaba de distribuir la comunión, ella estaba arrodillada en el primer banco a unos tres pies de mí. Cuando terminé, me susurró algo que no pude entender. Me acerqué más y me dijo con una sonrisa angelical y llena de alegría: "¡Padre, quiero volver a hacerlo!". Sonreí de oreja a oreja. ¡Imagínense a una niña de 16 años que entiende de qué se trata la Pascua! Y como la suya son innumerables las historias de tantos catecúmenos cuyas vidas se transforman por completo a través de las aguas vivas del bautismo. Uno de los feligreses que fue bautizado anoche es uno de nuestros alumnos de séptimo grado en la escuela. Y aunque estoy escribiendo estas líneas mucho antes de su bautismo y entrada oficial a la Iglesia, no puedo dejar de pensar en todas las veces que hemos hablado de su bautismo y la sonrisa luminosa que trae a su cara. Lo mismo ocurre con todos los catecúmenos adultos que serán católicos bautizados cuando lean esto. Sus testimonios son extraordinarios y pueden enseñarnos mucho sobre la fe que a veces echamos de menos. El gozo de la resurrección verdaderamente renueva al mundo entero. A veces, los católicos "veteranos" que han practicado la fe durante toda su vida tienen que hacer una pausa y reflexionar sobre lo que realmente significa la Pascua para ellos y ver la Pascua a través de los ojos de los recién bautizados.

Conocemos la historia de este día. Pero ¿qué estamos haciendo para compartir la alegría de la resurrección? No podemos dejar esta alegría aquí en la iglesia. Sí, se siente muy bien aquí en la mañana de Pascua con un altar bellamente decorado y música celestial, pero este gozo muere aquí con tanta seguridad como Cristo murió en la cruz si no lo llevamos más allá de los muros de esta iglesia y lo esparcimos a todos los rincones de la tierra. Mis amigos, el Señor nos ha liberado de nuestra esclavitud al pecado. Él nos ha dado gratuitamente el don de la inmortalidad. Él ha llenado nuestras vidas de alegría y paz. ¿No vale la pena compartir eso? Nuestros catecúmenos a través de su testimonio compartirán esta alegría porque se han enamorado de su fe y de este hombre llamado Jesús que murió y resucitó por ellos y les dio vida nueva. Él hizo lo mismo por ti. ¿Qué harás por Él?

Que Dios los bendiga a todos,

PROMISE to Protect

Pledge to HEAL

April is National Child Abuse Prevention Month.

Did you know... Hope is rising. Throughout scripture there is evidence that we are called to be ambassadors of hope and healing. Did you know children of abuse long to hear this message of hope. Victims of crime, their family and loved ones need to know that their voices are heard. Organizations throughout the nation are striving to share the message that He has risen and there is hope. Each of us has a unique ability to support individuals who are hurting, to promote healthy relationships, and to build communities that are safe from those who may want to do harm. How has He called you to be an ambassador of hope and healing?

¿Sabía que...? La esperanza surge. A lo largo de las escrituras hay pruebas de que estamos llamados a ser embajadores de la esperanza y la sanación. ¿Sabía que los niños víctimas de abusos anhelan escuchar este mensaje de esperanza? Las víctimas de delitos, sus familias y sus seres queridos necesitan saber que sus voces son escuchadas. Organizaciones de todo el país se esfuerzan por compartir el mensaje de que Él ha resucitado y hay esperanza. Cada uno de nosotros tiene una capacidad única para apoyar a las personas que están sufriendo, para promover relaciones sanas y para construir comunidades que estén a salvo de los que quieren hacerles daño. ¿Cómo le ha llamado Él a ser un embajador de la esperanza y la sanación?
