FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Friends:

Happy Divine Mercy Sunday! What a beautiful Holy Week and Easter Week we have just had! We thank all of you for your prayerful participation in the most holy days of the year. Our church was full (really full), our confession lines were long, the music was divine, and I kept getting comments on how beautiful everything was during the Triduum. Truth is, there are so many people who work behind the scenes from parish staff to volunteers who help make these last two weeks possible. They are too numerous to count much less list here for I fear of leaving someone out. They do not do it for the recognition or the thanks or praise. All the people who spent time away from their families during the Triduum did so because of their abiding love for the Lord and for their parish. We all owe them a debt of profound gratitude, and I ask you to keep them in your prayers for helping us have such an unforgettable Holy Week at Little Flower.

Today, we contemplate the Divine Mercy of our Lord. So many of us felt that mercy as we entered the confessional during Lent and Holy Week. It is God's tender embrace that we felt healing us of our sins and helping us see the new life he wants us to live this Easter. St. John Paul II brought us this image from his native Poland from what was once a little-known nun known as St. Faustina. Because of these two saints, we gaze upon the image of Divine Mercy and confidently say, "Jesus, I Trust in You!" What else are we to do than to turn to Jesus? St. John Paul II once said, "There is nothing more man needs than Divine Mercy – that love which is benevolent, which is compassionate, which raises man above his weakness to the infinite heights to the holiness of God." On this day, we hand over our weaknesses, anxieties, and fears to our Lord and humbly say, "Jesus, I Trust in You!"

There are so many testimonies of the power of Divine Mercy. I could pass around a microphone in church today and each one of you could give a witness to how God's mercy has transformed your life. We hear in the gospel today how it transformed St. Thomas. There is one particular testimony that I want to highlight today that many of you may have heard about: it is the story of Father Stuart Long. There is a movie currently playing in movie theaters about his life. I did not know of his story until two months ago when I was invited with brother priests and seminarians to a screening hosted by the actor Mark Wahlberg who plays Father Stu in the movie and who financed the film himself because studios kept rejecting the telling of this remarkable story. Stuart Long was an amateur fighter from Montana who was an atheist, a womanizer, and not the kind of person who you would think would be a candidate for the priesthood. Yet, after moving to Los Angeles to pursue an acting career, he met a Catholic girl whom he tried to impress by going to Mass. It doesn't matter if we have ulterior motives when we walk through the doors of a church, God will find a way to rescue a soul and use us to bring others to Him. Stuart was eventually baptized and after barely surviving a horrific motorcycle accident, he decided that God was calling him to the priesthood...that's where I will end his story as I invite you to go to the movies to see the rest of the story in this remarkable film. A bit of warning though: to capture who Stuart was before his conversion, the movie has an excessive amount of vulgar language, but as the Diocese of Helena, Montana said in support of this movie: "raw and unfiltered, combative and grace-filled, witness to the truth that no one is ever beyond redemption." Isn't this what Divine Mercy is all about? I invite you to go see and support this film. It will move and inspire you as did all the priests and seminarians and faithful who have already seen it.

God bless you all,

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PARROCO

Mis Queridos Amigos:

¡Feliz Domingo de la Divina Misericordia! ¡Qué Semana Santa y Pascua de Resurrección tan hermosa acabamos de tener! Les agradecemos a todos ustedes por su participación orando en los días más santos del año. Nuestra iglesia estaba llena (realmente llena), nuestras líneas para la confesión eran largas, la música era divina, y seguí recibiendo comentarios sobre lo hermoso que era todo durante el Triduo. La verdad es que hay muchas personas que trabajan detrás de escena, desde el personal de la parroquia hasta los voluntarios que ayudan a hacer posible estas últimas dos semanas. Son demasiado numerosos para nombrar y mucho menos enumerarlos aquí, por temor a dejar a alguien fuera. No lo hacen por el reconocimiento ni por el agradecimiento ni por la alabanza. Todas las personas que pasaron tiempo lejos de sus familias durante el Triduo lo hicieron debido a su amor permanente por el Señor y por su parroquia. Todos les debemos una deuda de profunda gratitud, y les pido que los mantengan en sus oraciones por ayudarnos a tener una Semana Santa tan inolvidable en Santa Teresita.

Hoy contemplamos la Divina Misericordia de nuestro Señor. Muchos de nosotros sentimos esa misericordia al entrar en el confesionario durante la Cuaresma y la Semana Santa. Es el tierno abrazo de Dios que sentimos sanándonos de nuestros pecados y ayudándonos a ver la nueva vida que Él quiere que vivamos esta Pascua. San Juan Pablo II nos trajo esta imagen de su Polonia natal de lo que una vez fue una monja poco conocida como Santa Faustina. Debido a estos dos santos, contemplamos la imagen de la Divina Misericordia y decimos con confianza: "¡Jesús, confío en ti!" ¿Qué más debemos hacer que volvernos a Jesús? San Juan Pablo II dijo una vez: "No hay nada más que el hombre necesite que la Divina Misericordia, ese amor que es benevolente, que es compasivo, que eleva al hombre por encima de su debilidad a las alturas infinitas a la santidad de Dios". En este día, entregamos nuestras debilidades, ansiedades y temores a nuestro Señor y humildemente decimos: "¡Jesús, confío en ti!"

Hay tantos testimonios del poder de la Divina Misericordia. Pudiera pasar alrededor un micrófono en la iglesia hoy y cada uno de ustedes podría dar un testimonio de cómo la misericordia de Dios ha transformado su vida. Hoy escuchamos en el evangelio cómo transformó a Santo Tomás. Hay un testimonio en particular que quiero destacar hoy y del que muchos de ustedes pueden haber oído hablar: es la historia del Padre Stuart Long. Hay una película que se está presentando actualmente en las salas de cine sobre su vida. No conocía su historia hasta hace dos meses, cuando me invitaron con hermanos sacerdotes y seminaristas a una proyección organizada por el actor Mark Wahlberg, que interpreta al padre Stu en la película y que financió la película él mismo porque los estudios seguían rechazando la narración de esta historia notable. Stuart Long era un luchador aficionado de Montana que era ateo, mujeriego, y no el tipo de persona que uno pensaría que sería un candidato para el sacerdocio. Sin embargo, después de mudarse a Los Ángeles para seguir una carrera como actor, conoció a una chica católica a quien trató de impresionar yendo a misa. No importa si tenemos motivos ocultos cuando entramos por las puertas de una iglesia, Dios encontrará una manera de rescatar un alma y usarnos para llevar a otros a Él. Stuart finalmente fue bautizado y después de apenas sobrevivir un accidente horrible de motocicleta, decidió que Dios lo estaba llamando al sacerdocio ... ahí es donde terminaré su historia ya que los invito a ir al cine para ver el resto de la historia en esta película notable. Sin embargo, un poco de advertencia: para capturar quién era Stuart antes de su conversión, la película tiene una cantidad excesiva de lenguaje vulgar, pero como dijo la Diócesis de Helena, Montana en apoyo de la película: "cruda y sin filtros, combativa y llena de gracia, testigo de la verdad de que nadie está más allá de la redención". ¿No es esto de lo que se trata la Divina Misericordia? Los invito a que vayan a ver y apoyen esta película. Los conmoverá e inspirará como lo hicieron a todos los sacerdotes, seminaristas y fieles que ya la han visto.

Que Dios los bendiga a todos,

PROMISE to Protect

Pledge to HEAL

April is National Child Abuse Prevention Month.

Did you know... The Catholic Church is deeply committed to protecting children from abuse and holding people accountable for inflicting such pain. In December 2021, the revised Book VI of the Code of Canon Law went into effect. This is the most recent of several documents that specifically address the issue of the abuse of children. Other documents include Vos estis lux mundi and Vademecum. These documents expand the acts which are considered abusive, clarify the manner in which the cases are processed, and hold people accountable for their action or inaction with regard to processing of a case. Of significant importance is attention given to the care of victim survivors and all who have been harmed. Bishops in the US lead the way for these changes with the implementation of the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People 20 years ago. Today every diocese and eparchy must have in place systems for tending to those who have been harmed, protecting those in our care and seeking restorative justice.

¿Sabía que...? La Iglesia Católica está profundamente comprometida con la protección de los niños frente a los abusos y la exigencia de rendición de cuentas a las personas que infligen ese dolor. En diciembre del 2021 entró en vigor el Libro VI actualizado del Código de Derecho Canónico. Este es el más reciente de varios documentos que abordan específicamente el tema de los abusos a menores. Otros documentos incluyen el Vos estis lux mundi y el Vademecum. Estos documentos amplían los actos que se consideran abusivos, aclaran el modo en que los casos son procesados, y hacen rendir cuentas a las personas por su acción u omisión con respecto al procesamiento de un caso. Es de gran importancia la atención que se presta al cuidado de las víctimas sobrevivientes y de todos los que han sido perjudicados. Los obispos de EE.UU. abrieron el camino para estos cambios con la aplicación de la Carta para la Protección de los Niños y Jóvenes hace 20 años. Hoy en día, todas las diócesis y eparquías deben contar con sistemas para atender a los que han sido lastimados, proteger a los que están bajo nuestro cuidado y buscar la justicia reparadora.
