FROM THE DESK OF FR. OMAR AYUBI

Dear Family:

In today's Gospel the Lord is giving us an enormous responsibility. He is giving us a new commandment, as he did to his disciples during the Last Supper: "Love one another." Furthermore, Jesus added an important thing right after that: "This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another." Because of this, we know our identity as Christians and that identity is love. Pope Francis talked about it in his homily for the Jubilee for Boys and Girls on April 24, 2016: "Love, in other words, is the Christian's identity card, the only valid "document" identifying us as Christians. It is the only valid document. If this card expires and is not constantly renewed, we stop being witnesses of the Master. So, I ask you: Do you wish to say yes to Jesus' invitation to be his disciples? Do you wish to be his faithful friends? The true friends of Jesus stand out essentially by the genuine love; not some "pie in the sky" love; no, it is a genuine love that shines forth in their way of life. Love is always shown in real actions. Those who are not real and genuine and who speak of love are like characters in a soap opera, some fake love story."

Anyone may think that this is a very high expectation Jesus is putting in our shoulders for we are his disciples. But this commandment has not been given to us randomly and without base; He himself has fulfilled this commandment in His relationship with us. Jesus even reminded us about it as he says in today's gospel reading, "As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." He has loved us first and in such great way, by dying for our sins in the Cross and by Resurrecting on the third day restoring for us life eternal. This, my dear family, is the greatest gift humanity has ever received. He laid down His own life for each and every one of us; what a generous gesture of total and complete love! But Jesus wanted for us to know with great certainty of His love for us, leaving us with the Sacrament of the Eucharist, His Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity, so that He can touch us physically even though He is at the right hand of our heavenly Father.

For almost two years I have been an instrument of the Lord for all parishioners of this great community of love, the Church of the Little Flower and St. Theresa's School, and I have tried my best to remain faithful to the Lord's Gospel teachings and to all of you. However, it is time for me to leave you. Archbishop Thomas Wenski has asked me to lead another community of love in the ways of the Gospel; he is sending me as the Administrator of St. Katherine Drexel in Weston.

I want to thank first and foremost, Fr. Manny, for being not only a great pastor but a loving brother to me. I also want to thank all of you for receiving and embracing me in such loving way. I will leave physically this community, but my heart will always be here. My last day here will be June 5th. May the Lord continue blessing you abundantly and remember that our Christian identity will always be love.

Peace, blessings and love!

Fr. Omar

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PADRE OMAR AYUBI

Querida Familia:

En el evangelio de hoy el Señor nos da una responsabilidad enorme. Nos da un mandamiento nuevo, como lo hizo con sus discípulos durante la Última Cena: "Ámense los unos a los otros". Adicionalmente, Jesús añadió una cosa importante justo después de esto: "...y por este amor reconocerán todos que ustedes son mis discípulos". Por eso conocemos nuestra identidad como cristianos y esa identidad es el amor. El Papa Francisco habló de ello en su homilía para el Jubileo de los Jóvenes del 24 de abril del 2016: "El amor es el documento de identidad del cristiano, es el único "documento" válido para ser reconocidos como discípulos de Jesús. Es el único documento válido. Si este documento caduca y no se renueva continuamente, dejamos de ser testigos del Maestro. Entonces les pregunto: ¿Quieren acoger la invitación de Jesús para ser sus discípulos? ¿Quieren ser sus amigos fieles? El amigo verdadero de Jesús se distingue principalmente por el amor concreto, no el amor en las nubes. El amor siempre es concreto, lo que habla de amor y no es concreto es telenovela, un romance."

Cualquiera puede pensar que esta es una expectativa muy alta que Jesús está colocando sobre nuestros hombros porque somos sus discípulos. Pero este mandamiento no se nos ha dado al azar y sin fundamento; Él mismo ha cumplido este mandamiento en su relación con nosotros. Jesús incluso nos lo recordó cuando dice en la lectura del evangelio de hoy: "Como yo los he amado, así también deben amarse los unos a los otros". Él nos ha amado primero y de manera muy grande, muriendo por nuestros pecados en la Cruz y Resucitando al tercer día devolviéndonos a la vida eterna. Este, mi querida familia, es el regalo más grande que jamás haya recibido la humanidad. Él dio Su propia vida por todos y cada uno de nosotros; ¡Qué gesto generoso de un amor, total, y completo! Pero Jesús quiso que supiéramos con toda certeza de Su amor por nosotros, dejándonos con el Sacramento de la Eucaristía, Su Cuerpo, Sangre, Alma y Divinidad, para poder tocarnos físicamente, aunque está a la diestra de nuestro Padre celestial.

Durante casi dos años he sido un instrumento del Señor para todos los feligreses de esta gran comunidad de amor, la parroquia de Santa Teresita y su escuela, y he hecho todo lo posible para permanecer fiel a las enseñanzas del Evangelio del Señor y a todos ustedes. Sin embargo, es hora de que les deje. El arzobispo Thomas Wenski me ha pedido que dirija otra comunidad de amor por los caminos del Evangelio; me envía como administrador de la parroquia Santa Caterina Drexel en Weston.

Quiero agradecer, ante todo, al Padre Manny, por ser no solo un gran párroco sino también un hermano amoroso para mí. También quiero agradecerles a todos ustedes por recibirme y abrazarme de una manera tan especial. Dejaré físicamente esta comunidad, pero mi corazón siempre estará aquí y con ustedes. Mi último día en la parroquia será el 5 de junio. Que el Señor les continúe bendiciendo abundantemente y recuerden que nuestra identidad cristiana siempre será el amor.

¡Paz, bendiciones y amor!

Padre Omar

AMERICAN HERITAGE GIRLS®
FAITH | SERVICE | FUN

Changing Girls' Lives and Leading Them Towards a More Christ-Centered Life.

This coming Fall, we hope to launch a Troop of American Heritage Girls (AHG) here at COTLF. AHG was founded by a group of parents wanting a faith-based, scout-type character development program for their daughters in 1995.

The AHG Program is dedicated to the mission of building women of integrity through service to God, family, community and country. AHG girls across the nation and the globe participate in badge programs, service projects, leadership opportunities, and outdoor experiences, all with an emphasis on Christian values and family involvement.

At this time, we are seeking parents/adults who would be willing to serve on our local AHG Troop Board. Those interested are asked to contact Jorge Santibáñez at the Parish Office: JSantibanez@cotlf.org or 305-446-9950, Ext 307.
