FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Friends,

Last Sunday, Father Omar announced in this space that Archbishop Wenski has appointed him as the new administrator of St. Katherine Drexel in Weston. While we are obviously saddened to lose such a wonderful priest, we congratulate Father Omar for soon he will be charged with shepherding a parish, and I thank him for the two years he helped me to shepherd the family of Little Flower. There is a very quick turnaround on this assignment as he will begin his new apostolate on Monday, June 6th which means that he will celebrate his last Mass as our parochial vicar on Sunday, June 5th which is fittingly the Solemnity of Pentecost when the disciples go forth to start preaching the Risen Christ. (More info next week on how we will bid farewell.)

Naturally many of you may be wondering who will be replacing Father Omar as the next parochial vicar of Little Flower. Well, if you've been here for more than 8 years and had a very keen eye in the summer of 2014, the seminarian that Father Davis hosted that summer was ordained a priest two years ago and will be transferred here next month: Father Andrew James Tomonto. Providentially, a year after he spent a summer serving here as a seminarian, he was assigned to serve a summer with me while I was pastor of Immaculate Conception. So, we are getting a good priest who knows our parish, knows how special Little Flower is, and is looking forward to joining the ranks of the many good men who have served this parish well as vicars in its 96-year history.

This news of priestly transfers which is affecting so many of our parishes this summer is a good transition into reminding us to pray for vocations incessantly. There are many parishes who lost a parochial vicar and sadly will not have that position filled because we need more priests. The harvest is indeed abundant, but the laborers are few, as our Lord tells us in the gospel. The parish of St. Coleman where Father Andrew is coming from is not getting a new vicar as we are. You'll recall that 6 years ago, we had two full time vicars but when Father Tran was appointed to the University of Miami, we never filled that second vacant slot. We have been blessed with the generous help of our in-resident priests. Father Uko, Father Stephen, and Father Juan sacrifice so much to help us with the sacraments here and the celebration of the Mass - sometimes when finishing or about to start very long and demanding days in their hospital ministries. Plus, we receive help from various retired priests who live in the area such as Father Angulo and Father Carrion along with the priests of the seminary who love visiting our parishes. We've been blessed that Father Luis Rivero pitches in on Saturday afternoons a couple of times a month.

There is a common joyful theme that we often repeat in our rectory when our priests are gathered for a meal: we love being tired for the sake of all of you our dear people. We love the long confession lines, the packed Masses, the backlog of baptisms that we still have, and yes, since it is Little Flower, the endless number of weddings that we celebrate. To say nothing of the responsibilities of ministering to the largest parochial school in the Archdiocese which is St. Theresa. Jesus promises us an Advocate in today's gospel, and your priests feel the presence of the Holy Spirit and your powerful prayers every single day.

Pray for Father Omar. Pray for Father Andrew. Pray for your priests. Pray for more vocations! We need to fill our seminary with young men on fire with the Spirit and ready to bring Christ to the world. Those young men come from your families, and so in order to increase our awareness of praying more fervently for vocations, I am announcing that starting this fall when school begins, we will be starting the practice of the "Vocations Chalice" in our parish. Every Sunday, a different family will take a retired chalice home with special prayers so that as a family they may pray for more vocations to the priesthood. Who knows? Maybe a little boy in our parish will hold that Vocations Chalice in his little hands and one day be holding a chalice filled with the Blood of Christ over our altar. In August, we will start promoting this more and putting a sign-up form on our website so that every family may have the opportunity of taking the Vocations Chalice home and be part of what I pray will be a springtime of priestly vocations not only for our Archdiocese but for our parish as well.

God bless you all,

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PARROCO

Mis Queridos Amigos:

El domingo pasado, el padre Omar anunció en este espacio que el arzobispo Wenski lo ha nombrado como el nuevo administrador de St. Katherine Drexel en Weston. Si bien obviamente nos entristece perder a un sacerdote tan maravilloso, felicitamos al Padre Omar porque pronto se encargará de pastorear una parroquia, y le agradezco por los dos años que me ayudó a pastorear a la familia de Santa Teresita. Hay un cambio muy rápido en esta asignación, ya que comenzará su apostolado nuevo el lunes 6 de junio, lo que significa que celebrará su última misa como nuestro vicario parroquial el domingo 5 de junio, que apropiadamente es la solemnidad de Pentecostés cuando los discípulos salen a predicar a Cristo resucitado. (Más información la próxima semana sobre cómo nos despediremos).

Naturalmente, muchos de ustedes pueden preguntarse quién reemplazará al Padre Omar como el próximo vicario parroquial de Santa Teresita. Bueno, si han estado aquí por más de 8 años y estuvieron atentos en el verano del 2014, el seminarista que el Padre Davis recibió ese verano fue ordenado sacerdote hace dos años y será transferido aquí el próximo mes: el Padre Andrew James Tomonto. Providencialmente, un año después de pasar un verano sirviendo aquí como seminarista, se le asignó servir un verano conmigo mientras yo era párroco de la Inmaculada Concepción. Por lo tanto, estamos recibiendo un buen sacerdote que conoce nuestra parroquia, sabe lo especial que es Santa Teresita y espera unirse a las filas de los muchos hombres buenos que han servido a esta parroquia como vicarios en sus 96 años de historia.

Esta noticia de los traslados sacerdotales que está afectando a tantas de nuestras parroquias este verano es una buena transición para recordarnos que debemos orar por las vocaciones incesantemente. Hay muchas parroquias que perdieron un vicario parroquial y lamentablemente no tendrán ese puesto ocupado porque necesitamos más sacerdotes. La cosecha es ciertamente abundante, pero los obreros son pocos, como nuestro Señor nos dice en el evangelio. La parroquia de St. Coleman de donde viene el Padre Andrew no está recibiendo un vicario nuevo como nosotros. Recordarán que hace 6 años, teníamos dos vicarios a tiempo completo, pero cuando el Padre Tran fue nombrado para la Universidad de Miami, nunca llenamos ese segundo espacio vacante. Hemos sido bendecidos con la ayuda generosa de nuestros sacerdotes residentes. El Padre Uko, el Padre Stephen y el Padre Juan sacrifican mucho para ayudarnos con los sacramentos aquí y la celebración de la Misa, a veces al terminar o a punto de comenzar días muy largos y exigentes en el ministerio de los hospitales. Además, recibimos ayuda de varios sacerdotes jubilados que viven en el área, como el Padre Angulo y el Padre Carrión, junto con los sacerdotes del seminario que aman visitar nuestras parroquias. Hemos tenido la bendición de que el padre Luis Rivero colabore los sábados por la tarde un par de veces al mes.

Hay un tema gozoso en común que a menudo repetimos en nuestra rectoría cuando nuestros sacerdotes están reunidos para una comida: nos encanta estar cansados por el bienestar de todos ustedes, nuestro querido pueblo. Nos encantan las filas largas de confesión, las misas abarrotadas, la acumulación de bautismos que todavía tenemos, y sí, ya que es Santa Teresita, el sinfín de bodas que celebramos. Y no he mencionado nada de las responsabilidades sacerdotales en la escuela parroquial más grande de la Arquidiócesis que es Santa Teresa. Jesús nos promete un Abogado en el evangelio de hoy, y sus sacerdotes sienten la presencia del Espíritu Santo y sus oraciones poderosas todos los días.

Oren por el Padre Omar. Oren por el Padre Andrew. Oren por sus sacerdotes. ¡Oren por más vocaciones! Necesitamos llenar nuestro seminario con jóvenes en llamas con el Espíritu y listos para traer a Cristo al mundo. Esos jóvenes provienen de sus familias, y así, para aumentar nuestra conciencia de orar más fervientemente por las vocaciones, anuncio que, a partir de este otoño, cuando comience la escuela, comenzaremos la práctica del "Cáliz de las Vocaciones" en nuestra parroquia. Cada domingo, una familia diferente llevará un cáliz que ha sido retirado a su casa con oraciones especiales para que, como familia, puedan orar por más vocaciones al sacerdocio. ¿Quién sabe? Tal vez un niño pequeño en nuestra parroquia sostenga ese Cáliz de las Vocaciones en sus manos pequeñas y un día sostenga un cáliz lleno de la Sangre de Cristo sobre nuestro altar. En agosto, comenzaremos a promover esto más y pondremos un formulario de registro en nuestro sitio web para que cada familia pueda tener la oportunidad de llevar el Cáliz de las Vocaciones a la casa y ser parte de lo que rezo será una primavera de vocaciones sacerdotales no solo para nuestra Arquidiócesis sino también para nuestra parroquia.

Que Dios los bendiga a todos,

AMERICAN HERITAGE GIRLS®
FAITH | SERVICE | FUN

Changing Girls' Lives and Leading Them Towards a More Christ-Centered Life.

This coming Fall, we hope to launch a Troop of American Heritage Girls (AHG) here at COTLF. AHG was founded by a group of parents wanting a faith-based, scout-type character development program for their daughters in 1995.

The AHG Program is dedicated to the mission of building women of integrity through service to God, family, community and country. AHG girls across the nation and the globe participate in badge programs, service projects, leadership opportunities, and outdoor experiences, all with an emphasis on Christian values and family involvement.

At this time, we are seeking parents/adults who would be willing to serve on our local AHG Troop Board. Those interested are asked to contact Jorge Santibáñez at the Parish Office: JSantibanez@cotlf.org or 305-446-9950, Ext 307.
