FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Friends,

As we commemorate Memorial Day this weekend, it is "right and just" to remember and pray for those who gave their lives for our country and our freedoms. In our school there is a World War II memorial plaque honoring the brave young men who not long after leaving our school (St. Theresa was still a high school in the 1940's) enlisted or were drafted and ultimately died defending our homeland. I know that in our parish family, throughout our 96 year history, there are many more young men and women who have died while serving our country who we remember this weekend especially at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

Memorial Day always prompts me to read a moving letter that President Lincoln wrote during the Civil War to the widowed mother of several soldiers. I would like to share the text of the letter with you:

Dear Madam,

I have been shown in the files of the War Department a statement of the Adjutant General of Massachusetts that you are the mother of five sons who have died gloriously on the field of battle.

I feel how weak and fruitless must be any word of mine which should attempt to beguile you from the grief of a loss so overwhelming. But I cannot refrain from tendering you the consolation that may be found in the thanks of the Republic they died to save.

I pray that our Heavenly Father may assuage the anguish of your bereavement, and leave you only the cherished memory of the loved and lost, and the solemn pride that must be yours to have laid so costly a sacrifice upon the altar of freedom.

*Yours, very sincerely and respectfully,
A. Lincoln*

The letter was written to Mrs. Lydia Bixby, and even though it was later discovered that only two of her sons had died in battle, it still does not diminish the price that she paid "upon the altar of freedom."

There is a beautiful tradition in our cemeteries to place an American flag at the tomb of those who served in our Armed Forces. Each tomb tells a different story of sacrifice: selfless men and women who, as Christ taught us, laid down their lives for their friends, their country, and their families. We not only pray for our honored dead this weekend, but we also pray for the mothers and fathers who have had to bury their children who never returned from war. They are heroes whose memory we honor and whose service we cherish, yet it does not take away the pain of a parent losing a child.

Praying for the dead is one of the Spiritual Works of Mercy. As Catholics, we do this at every Mass when we pray for the faithful departed. This weekend it carries an extra weight as we remember and honor the sacrifice of our brothers and sisters "who more than self their country loved, and mercy more than life." (Third verse of America the Beautiful)

God bless you all,

Fr. Manning

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PARROCO

Mis Queridos Amigos:

Al conmemorar el Día de los Caídos este fin de semana, es "justo y correcto" recordar y orar por aquellos que dieron sus vidas por nuestro país y nuestras libertades. En nuestra escuela hay una placa conmemorativa de la Segunda Guerra Mundial en honor a los jóvenes valientes que no mucho después de dejar nuestras escuelas (Santa Teresa todavía era una escuela secundaria en la década del 1940) se alistaron o fueron reclutados y finalmente murieron defendiendo nuestra patria. Sé que, en nuestra familia parroquial, a lo largo de nuestros 96 años de historia, hay muchos más hombres y mujeres jóvenes que han muerto mientras servían a nuestro país y que recordamos este fin de semana especialmente en el Santo Sacrificio de la Misa.

El Día de los Caídos siempre me impulsa a leer una carta conmovedora que el presidente Lincoln escribió durante la Guerra Civil a la madre viuda de varios soldados. Me gustaría compartir el texto de la carta con ustedes:

Querida señora,

Me han mostrado en los archivos del Departamento de Guerra una declaración del Ayudante General de Massachusetts de que usted es madre de cinco hijos que han muerto gloriosamente en el campo de batalla.

Siento cuán débiles e infructuosas deben ser mis palabras que intenten desviarlos del dolor de una pérdida tan abrumadora. Pero no puedo dejar de ofrecerles el consuelo que se puede encontrar en el agradecimiento de la República por la que murieron salvar.

Oro para que nuestro Padre Celestial alivie la angustia de su duelo y le deje solo el preciado recuerdo de los amados y los perdidos, y el solemne orgullo que debe ser suyo para haber puesto un sacrificio tan costoso sobre el altar de la libertad.

*Suyo, muy sincero y respetuoso,
A. Lincoln*

La carta fue escrita a la señora Lydia Bixby, y aunque más tarde se descubrió que solo dos de sus hijos habían muerto en la batalla, todavía no disminuye el precio que pagó "sobre el altar de la libertad".

Hay una tradición hermosa en nuestros cementerios de colocar una bandera estadounidense en la tumba de aquellos que sirvieron en nuestras Fuerzas Armadas. Cada tumba cuenta una historia diferente de sacrificio: hombres y mujeres desinteresados que, como Cristo nos enseñó, dieron sus vidas por sus amigos, su país y sus familias. No solo oramos por nuestros fallecidos honrados este fin de semana, sino que también oramos por las madres y padres que han tenido que enterrar a sus hijos que nunca regresaron de la guerra. Son los héroes cuya memoria honramos y cuyo servicio apreciamos, pero no quita el dolor de un padre que pierde a un hijo.

Orar por los muertos es una de las Obras Espirituales de Misericordia. Como católicos, hacemos esto en cada Misa cuando oramos por los fieles difuntos. Este fin de semana tiene un peso adicional al recordar y honrar el sacrificio de nuestros hermanos y hermanas "que más que a sí mismos su país amado, y misericordia más que vida". (Tercer verso de América la Bella)

Que Dios los bendiga a todos,

FAREWELL TO FR. OMAR

Next weekend will be Fr. Omar's final weekend here at Church of the Little Flower before he begins his new assignment as Administrator of St. Katharine Drexel Parish in Weston. In order to give Fr. Omar a proper farewell, he will be presiding at both the 10:30am and 12:30pm Masses on Sunday, June 5th. After each of the two Masses, parishioners will have the opportunity to say goodbye to him next door in Comber Hall. Light snacks and refreshments will be available.

Thank you, Fr. Omar for two wonderful years of ministry here at the parish and God bless you in your newest apostolate! Be assured of our prayers for you and all those you will minister to at St. Katharine's.

If you've watched a livestream of our Sunday Masses over the past two years, you may have noticed that, unlike our daily Masses, our camera zooms in and out, more directly focusing on what's happening during the Mass, whether it's one of the Readings, the Homily, Consecration, or a special devotion. This is all thanks to Bernardo, a young parishioner who desired to give back to his parish and serve in any way he could after having received his Confirmation mid-pandemic. Every weekend, Bernardo would come in to control the camera for the 10:30am English and 12:30pm Spanish livestreamed Masses, bringing us all a close up view of our beautiful liturgy. This weekend will be Bernardo's last weekend at the controls, as he will soon be moving away to start his collegiate studies. Beginning next Sunday, June 5th, our Sunday livestream Masses will remain in a static view of the entire sanctuary, as is currently the case with all our daily Masses. We are grateful to Bernardo for his dedication and service each weekend.

Please keep him and all the youth of our parish in your prayers, especially those who will be going off to college or beginning new schools in the Fall.

FIRST SATURDAY DEVOTION

AMERICAN HERITAGE GIRLS®
FAITH | SERVICE | FUN

Changing Girls' Lives and Leading Them Towards a More Christ-Centered Life.

This coming Fall, we hope to launch a Troop of American Heritage Girls (AHG) here at COTLF. AHG was founded by a group of parents wanting a faith-based, scout-type character development program for their daughters in 1995.

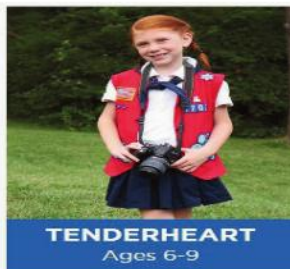

The AHG Program is dedicated to the mission of building women of integrity through service to God, family, community and country. AHG girls across the nation and the globe participate in badge programs, service projects, leadership opportunities, and outdoor experiences, all with an emphasis on Christian values and family involvement.

At this time, we are seeking parents/adults who would be willing to serve on our local AHG Troop Board. Those interested are asked to contact Jorge Santibáñez at the Parish Office: JSantibanez@cotlf.org or 305-446-9950, Ext 307.

PFORWTHESLORDP

God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord.

THRONEPTOSHOUTSA

OFJOYPAOBLAREPWOFTRUMPETS

During the Nicene Creed, we say, "He ascended into Heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father." Listen for those words during Mass.

Draw a picture of Jesus rising into heaven.

Gospel

Today we celebrate the Feast of the Ascension. Jesus ASCENDED into heaven. That means that his body and soul rose into Heaven. Awesome!

Ascension

Can you find Jesus' path through the clouds?
