FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Friends,

This day will always be solemn for us. Even though 21 years have passed, the scars of this day still hurt us. We were wounded as a nation on September 11, 2001, yet we will never forget how our churches were filled that night and the following Sunday with people just simply turning to God for answers. We wanted peace. We wanted to feel close to God, and yes, to each other. One of the things that I will always hold close to my heart is the sense of unity that we felt as a nation in the aftermath of those terrorist attacks. That unity feels fleeting two decades later. While we mourn those who died in the planes and those first responders who gave their lives, we can truly honor their sacrifice by praying for and working towards unity as a nation.

There are two iconic images that many of us will recall from the days after 9/11. The first was the steel beam cross that emerged in the rubble of the World Trade Center. A reminder that Christ accompanies us even in the darkest of places. The other image was of the three firefighters hoisting the American flag in Ground Zero. I made two copies of that photograph. One I gave to my brother as a present when he graduated from the Fire Academy and became a firefighter that very month. The other still sits on a bookshelf in my office as a reminder not only of this date but that I must always pray for those who protect us.

Our police officers, firefighters, and first responders, along with the members of our military, represent the best among us. Heroic, selfless men and women, who as we saw on that tragic Tuesday morning, without regard for their personal safety, ran into two burning towers. Those heroes of 9/11 personify that beautiful verse uttered by our Lord in St. John's Gospel: "There is no greater love than to lay down your life for your friends (John 15:13)."

So today, we honor all the victims of 9/11, and we pray for our nation. We pray that the unity we experienced during that fateful September may somehow be rekindled. And I want to leave you with the powerful prayer recited by Pope Benedict XVI when he visited Ground Zero in 2008, and ask you to pray it on this solemn day as well.

O God of love, compassion, and healing,
look on us, people of many different faiths
and traditions, who gather today at this site,
the scene of incredible violence and pain.

We ask you in your goodness
to give eternal light and peace
to all who died here—
the heroic first-responders:
our fire fighters, police officers,
emergency service workers,
and Port Authority personnel,
along with all the innocent men and women who were victims of this tragedy simply because their work or service brought them here on September 11, 2001.

We ask you, in your compassion to bring healing to those who, because of their presence here that day, suffer from injuries and illness.

Heal, too, the pain of still-grieving families and all who lost loved ones in this tragedy.

Give them strength to continue their lives
with courage and hope.

We are mindful as well of those who suffered death, injury, and loss on the same day at the Pentagon and in Shanksville, Pennsylvania.

Our hearts are one with theirs
as our prayer embraces their pain and suffering.

God of peace, bring your peace to our violent world:
peace in the hearts of all men and women
and peace among the nations of the earth.
Turn to your way of love those whose hearts and minds are consumed with hatred.

God of understanding,
overwhelmed by the magnitude of this tragedy,
we seek your light and guidance
as we confront such terrible events.

Grant that those whose lives were spared
may live so that the lives lost here may not have been lost in vain.

Comfort and console us, strengthen us in hope,
and give us the wisdom and courage to work tirelessly for a world where true peace and love reign among nations and in the hearts of all.

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PÁRROCO

Mis Queridos Amigos,

Este día siempre será solemne para nosotros. A pesar de que han pasado 21 años, las cicatrices de ese día todavía nos duelen. Fuimos heridos como nación el 11 de septiembre del 2001, sin embargo, nunca olvidaremos cómo nuestras iglesias se llenaron esa noche y el domingo siguiente con personas que simplemente acudieron a Dios en busca de respuestas. Queríamos la paz. Queríamos sentirnos cerca de Dios, y sí, del uno al otro. Una de las cosas que siempre tendré cerca de mi corazón es el sentido de unidad que sentimos como nación después de esos ataques terroristas. Esa unidad se siente fugaz dos décadas después. Mientras lloramos a los que murieron en los aviones y a los socorristas que dieron sus vidas, realmente podemos honrar su sacrificio orando y trabajando por la unidad como nación.

Hay dos imágenes icónicas que muchos de nosotros recordaremos de los días posteriores al 9/11. La primera fue la cruz de viga de acero que apareció entre los escombros del World Trade Center. Un recordatorio de que Cristo nos acompaña incluso en los lugares más oscuros. La otra imagen era de los tres bomberos izando la bandera estadounidense en la Zona Cero. Yo hice dos copias de esa fotografía. Una se la di a mi hermano como regalo cuando se graduó de la academia de bomberos y se convirtió en bombero ese mismo mes. La otra todavía se encuentra en un librero en mi oficina como un recordatorio no solo de esta fecha, sino de que siempre debo orar por aquellos que nos protegen.

Nuestros oficiales de policía, bomberos y socorristas, junto con los miembros de nuestras fuerzas armadas, representan lo mejor entre nosotros. Hombres y mujeres heroicos y desinteresados, que como vimos en aquella trágica mañana del martes, sin tener en cuenta su seguridad personal, se toparon con dos torres en llamas. Esos héroes del 9/11 personifican ese hermoso versículo pronunciado por nuestro Señor en el Evangelio de San Juan: "No hay amor más grande que dar tu vida por tu amigo (Juan 15:13)".

Así que hoy, honramos a todas las víctimas del 9/11, y oramos por nuestra nación. Oramos para que la unidad que experimentamos durante ese fatídico septiembre pueda reavivarse de alguna manera. Y quiero dejarlos con la poderosa oración recitada por el Papa Benedicto XVI cuando visitó la Zona Cero en el 2008, y pedirles que la recen también en este día solemne

¡Oh Dios de amor, compasión y salvación!

¡Míranos, gente de diferentes creencias y tradiciones, reunidos hoy en este lugar, escenario de violencia y dolor increíbles.

Te pedimos que por tu bondad concedas la luz y la paz eternas a todos los que murieron aquí— a los que heroicamente acudieron los primeros, nuestros bomberos, policías, servicios de emergencia y las autoridades del puerto, y a todos los hombres y mujeres inocentes que fueron víctimas de esta tragedia simplemente porque vinieron aquí para cumplir con su deber el 11 de septiembre de 2001.

Te pedimos que tengas compasión y alivies las penas de aquellos que, por estar presentes aquí ese día, hoy están heridos o enfermos.

Alivia también el dolor de las familias que todavía sufren y de todos los que han perdido a sus seres queridos en esta tragedia.

Dales fortaleza para seguir viviendo con valentía y esperanza.

También tenemos presentes a cuantos murieron, resultaron heridos o sufrieron pérdidas ese mismo día en el Pentágono y en Shansville, Pennsylvania.

Nuestros corazones se unen a los suyos, mientras nuestras oraciones abrazan su dolor y sufrimiento.

Dios de la paz, concede tu paz a nuestro violento mundo:

paz en los corazones de todos los hombres y mujeres y paz entre las naciones de la tierra.

Lleva por tu senda del amor a aquellos cuyas mentes y corazones están nublados por el odio.

Dios de comprensión, abrumados por la magnitud de esta tragedia, busquemos tu luz y tu guía cuando nos enfrentamos con hechos tan terribles como éste.

Haz que aquellos cuyas vidas fueron salvadas vivan de manera que las vidas perdidas aquí no lo hayan sido en vano.

Confortanos y consuélanos, fortalécenos en la esperanza, y danos la sabiduría y el coraje para trabajar incansablemente por un mundo en el que la verdadera paz y el amor reinen entre las naciones y en los corazones de todos.

FORMATION

Wednesdays

Our calendar for the month of September is very active which is great news for our community. Unfortunately, that is prompting us to move the return of our Formation Nights to Wednesday, October 5th at 7:30p in the School Cafeteria. After much discussion with our parish staff and many of you, we're going to scale back the Formation Nights to once a month because of everyone's busy schedules, but that doesn't mean there will not be formation opportunities the rest of the month.

We are currently working on bringing in speakers in addition to our monthly Formation Nights to help us grow as a parish community. The days of Formation Nights and special speakers will vary as to not to affect our ministries and their regular meetings.

EJERCICIOS ESPIRITUALES DE SAN IGNACIO

"Los Ejercicios Espirituales son todo lo mejor que yo en esta vida puedo pensar, sentir y entender, así para el hombre poderse aprovechar a sí mismo como para poder fructificar, ayudar y aprovechar a otros muchos"

San Ignacio de Loyola

Los Ejercicios Espirituales de San Ignacio de Loyola son una secuencia ordenada de meditaciones y contemplaciones -ejercicios- que surgen de la profunda experiencia espiritual que el santo vive a partir de su conversión; su objetivo es ayudar al que se ejercita en ellos a descubrir cuál es la voluntad de Dios para su vida. Los Ejercicios se remontan al Cuaderno de notas en el que Ignacio describe sus experiencias espirituales durante su visita a la ciudad de Manresa, donde -como lo escribe en su Autobiografía - "le trataba Dios de la misma manera que trata un maestro de escuela a un niño, enseñándole."

Los Ejercicios Espirituales de San Ignacio se ofrecerán aquí en la parroquia comenzando el lunes, 12 de septiembre a las 7:30pm en la oficina parroquial, y continuando cada lunes hasta el Abril del 2023 (30 sesiones).

Have you ever seen the monstrance in your church? Ask your priest if he can show it to you and your family.

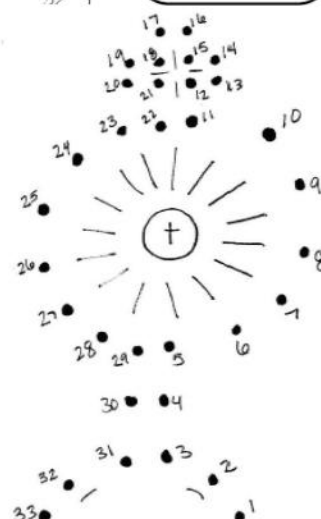

Saint Padre Pio

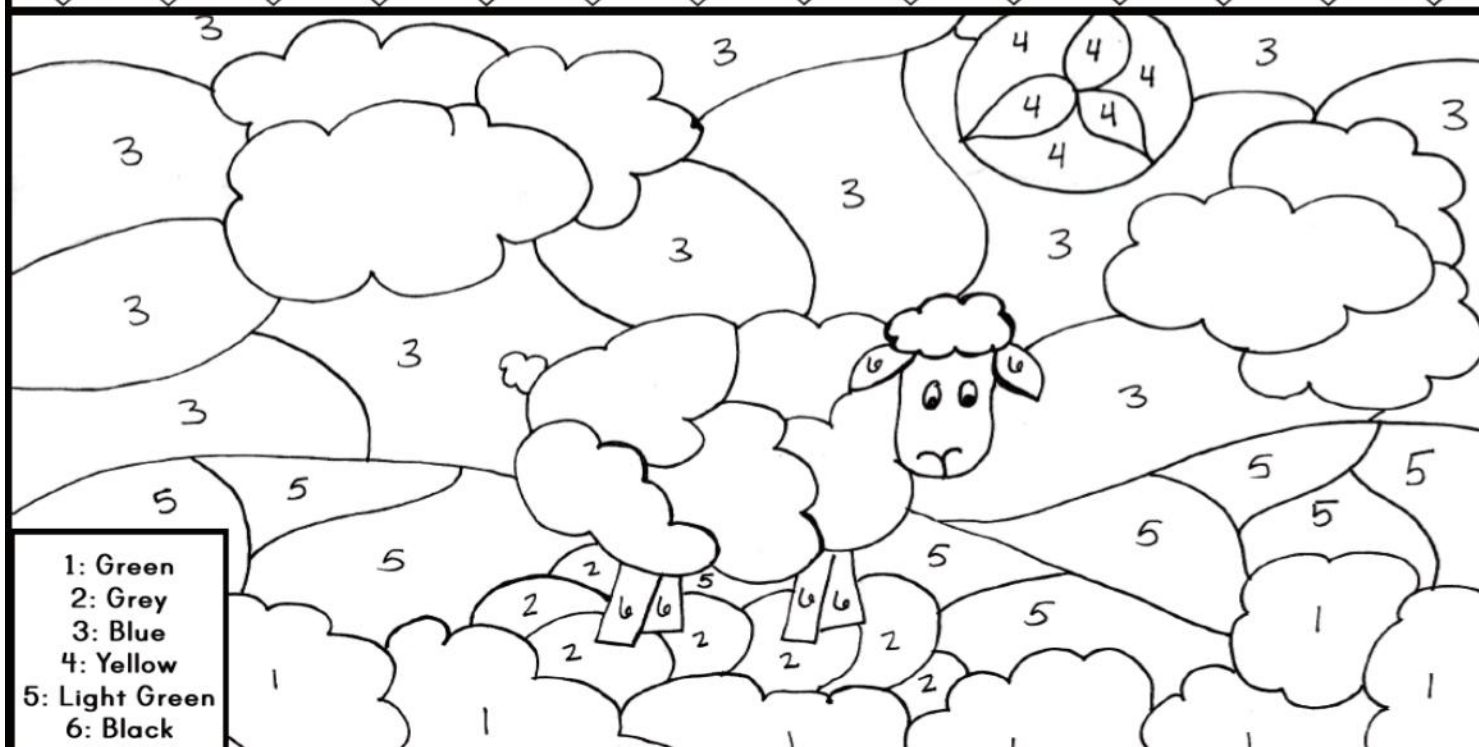

Follow the dots to draw a Monstrance. A monstrance is a special place to hold the Eucharist.

Saint Padre Pio told people to pray, go to church, and go to confession.

When people went to confession with him, he KNEW when they were forgetting something. He would help them remember so they learned from all of their sins.
