FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Friends,

Today we celebrate Catechetical Sunday. All of our wonderful catechists, along with the teachers from our school, will be commissioned this weekend as they begin a new school year. It truly is a vocation to be a catechist especially when it comes to instructing our children. The catechist has to be a joyful herald of the gospel to present to our young people a message that contradicts everything they are learning on their phones and tablets.

While we may be commissioning those who formally teach and catechize our children, all of us share a responsibility in the sharing the Good News. The Greek word "kerygma" is used often when the Church's refers to catechists because "kerygma" basically means proclamation. But this proclamation warrants a response from us. How can we not respond to the life altering news that comes from a herald of the Gospel?

Last year, the Pope's Apostolic Nuncio (Ambassador) to the United States, Archbishop Christophe Pierre, addressed our nation's bishops with these words:

"The kerygma – the proclamation of the Good News – is not a 'traditional' custom or a certain 'social practice.' The kerygma is the joyful announcement that Jesus Christ is a living Person to be encountered, who through his Resurrection has defeated sin and death." (USCCB Nuncio Address, 6/26/21)

One of the challenges that our catechists face is engaging our young people with the joy of the gospel so that they may encounter the living Christ not simply hearing about him. If not, CCD class turns into nothing more than a boring history lesson of what Jesus said and not something that needs a response after encountering Christ. This year, following the National Eucharistic Revival, the theme for this Catechetical Sunday is "This is my body given for you," taken from Luke's gospel (22:19). The Eucharist must be the point of encounter for all our catechists and for all the children receiving catechetical instruction through our Religious Education program and our school. This is where the kerygma comes to life, quite literally, at the altar in the Breaking of the Bread.

Today we are also beginning a new tradition in our parish, or taking it back up if it existed before, of passing the Vocations Chalice from home to home so that our families may pray for more vocations to the priesthood. This practice of praying fervently for vocations is so essential to us as Catholics. Put simply: we need priests. It's been more than five years since our second parochial vicar was transferred and that second vicar has not been replaced. When Father Andrew came to us, his former parish did not receive a priest to replace him. Therefore, there is an urgency to our prayers. We need men of courage and conviction to preach the kerygma boldly. We need priests who will show us the living Christ especially when we receive the sacraments. So today I invite you and your family to sign up to receive the Vocations Chalice. I have asked Father Andrew to facilitate this program, and he already has a group of families signed up for the first month or two. We will be presenting this chalice to a family at Mass every week, and they in turn bring it back the following Sunday so that another family can take it home. But even if we don't have the chalice physically in our homes, please pray for vocations. I am grateful that I have a parochial vicar and three "in resident" priests (which is a rarity), but I pray that neither I nor any of my successors ever be left alone to tend to such a vibrant parish by themselves. So please, pray to our Lord, the Divine Harvest Master, to send more laborers to be priests! .

God bless you all,

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PÁRROCO

Mis Queridos Amigos,

Hoy celebramos el Domingo Catequético. Todos nuestros maravillosos catequistas, junto con los maestros de nuestra escuela, serán comisionados este fin de semana cuando comiencen un nuevo año escolar. Realmente es una vocación ser catequista, especialmente cuando se trata de enseñar a nuestros hijos. El catequista tiene que ser un heraldo alegre del Evangelio para presentar a nuestros jóvenes un mensaje que contradiga todo lo que están aprendiendo en sus teléfonos y tabletas.

Si bien podemos estar comisionando a aquellos que enseñan y catequizan formalmente a nuestros hijos, todos nosotros compartimos la responsabilidad de compartir las Buenas Nuevas. La palabra griega "kerigma" se usa a menudo cuando la Iglesia se refiere a los catequistas porque "kerigma" básicamente significa proclamación. ¿Cómo no responder a las noticias que alteran la vida que provienen de un heraldo del Evangelio?

El año pasado, el Nuncio Apostólico (Embajador) del Papa en los Estados Unidos, el arzobispo Christophe Pierre, se dirigió a los obispos de nuestra nación con estas palabras:

"El kerigma, la proclamación de la Buena Nueva, no es una costumbre 'tradicional' o una cierta 'práctica social'. El kerigma es el anuncio gozoso de que Jesucristo es una Persona viva que debe ser encontrada, que a través de su Resurrección ha derrotado el pecado y la muerte". (Discurso del Nuncio de la USCCB, 26/06/21)

Uno de los desafíos que enfrentan nuestros catequistas es involucrar a nuestros jóvenes con la alegría del evangelio para que puedan encontrar al Cristo vivo y no simplemente escuchar acerca de él. Si no, la clase de CCD se convierte en nada más que una lección aburrida de historia de lo que Jesús dijo y no en algo que necesita una respuesta después de encontrarse con Cristo. Este año, después del Renacimiento Eucarístico Nacional, el tema de este Domingo Catequético es "Este es mi cuerpo dado por ti", tomado del evangelio de Lucas (22:19). La Eucaristía debe ser el punto de encuentro para todos nuestros catequistas y para todos los niños que reciben instrucción catequética a través de nuestro programa de Educación Religiosa y nuestra escuela. Aquí es donde el kerigma cobra vida, literalmente, en el altar en la Fracción del Pan.

Hoy también estamos comenzando una nueva tradición en nuestra parroquia, o retomando si existía antes, de pasar el Cáliz de las Vocaciones de casa en casa para que nuestras familias puedan orar por más vocaciones al sacerdocio. Esta práctica de orar fervientemente por las vocaciones es tan esencial para nosotros como católicos. En pocas palabras: necesitamos sacerdotes. Han pasado más de cinco años desde que nuestro segundo vicario parroquial fue transferido y ese segundo vicario no ha sido reemplazado. Cuando el Padre Andrew vino a nosotros, su parroquia anterior no recibió un sacerdote para reemplazarlo. Por lo tanto, hay una urgencia en nuestras oraciones. Necesitamos hombres de coraje y convicción para predicar el kerigma con valentía. Necesitamos sacerdotes que nos muestren al Cristo vivo, especialmente cuando recibimos los sacramentos. Así que hoy los invito a ustedes y a su familia a inscribirse para recibir el Cáliz de las Vocaciones. Le he pedido al Padre Andrew que se encargue de este programa, y él ya tiene un grupo de familias inscritas para el primer mes o dos. Presentaremos este cáliz a una familia en la misa cada semana, y ellos a su vez lo traen de vuelta el domingo siguiente para que otra familia pueda llevarlo a casa. Pero incluso si no tenemos el cáliz físicamente en nuestros hogares, por favor oren por vocaciones. Estoy agradecido de tener un vicario parroquial y tres sacerdotes "residentes" (lo cual es una rareza), pero rezo para que ni yo ni ninguno de mis sucesores nos quedemos solos para atender una parroquia tan vibrante por sí mismos. ¡Así que, por favor, oren a nuestro Señor, el Divino Maestro de la Cosecha, ¡para que envíe más obreros a ser sacerdotes!

Que Dios los bendiga a todos,

Fr. Manny

FORMATION

Wednesdays

Our calendar for the month of September is very active which is great news for our community. Unfortunately, that is prompting us to move the return of our Formation Nights to Wednesday, October 5th at 7:30p in the School Cafeteria. After much discussion with our parish staff and many of you, we're going to scale back the Formation Nights to once a month because of everyone's busy schedules, but that doesn't mean there will not be formation opportunities the rest of the month.

We are currently working on bringing in speakers in addition to our monthly Formation Nights to help us grow as a parish community. The days of Formation Nights and special speakers will vary as to not to affect our ministries and their regular meetings.

Prayer for Catechists

CATECHETICAL SUNDAY 2022

A PRAYER FOR CATECHISTS

Loving Father, we pray today for our catechists.
We thank you for their gift of ministry in your Church.

Grant them your wisdom that they may grow in the understanding and teaching of your Word.

Grant them also your love that they may be fruitful heralds of your Word and lead others to love you. Pour forth your Holy Spirit upon them to grant them wisdom about what is important; knowledge of the truths of faith;
understanding of their meaning; right judgement about how to apply them in life;
courage to persevere even in the face of adversity;
reverence before all that is sacred and holy;
and that loving zeal which leads others to a transforming encounter with your Son.
We pray this through Christ, our Lord.

Amen.

EJERCICIOS ESPIRITUALES DE SAN IGNACIO

"Los Ejercicios Espirituales son todo lo mejor que yo en esta vida puedo pensar, sentir y entender, así para el hombre poderse aprovechar a sí mismo como para poder fructificar, ayudar y aprovechar a otros muchos"

San Ignacio de Loyola

Los Ejercicios Espirituales de San Ignacio de Loyola son una secuencia ordenada de meditaciones y contemplaciones -ejercicios- que surgen de la profunda experiencia espiritual que el santo vive a partir de su conversión; su objetivo es ayudar al que se ejercita en ellos a descubrir cuál es la voluntad de Dios para su vida. Los Ejercicios se remontan al Cuaderno de notas en el que Ignacio describe sus experiencias espirituales durante su visita a la ciudad de Manresa, donde -como lo escribe en su Autobiografía- "le trataba Dios de la misma manera que trata un maestro de escuela a un niño, enseñándole."

Los Ejercicios Espirituales de San Ignacio se ofrecerán aquí en la parroquia comenzando el lunes, 12 de septiembre a las 7:30pm en la oficina parroquial, y continuando cada lunes hasta el Abril del 2023 (30 sesiones).
