FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Friends,

A thank you card that I was not expecting is the inspiration for today's column. The Serra Club sent me a card to thank the parish for starting up the Vocations Chalice that I described in last week's bulletin. The Serra Club has been promoting vocations for years in our Archdiocese and throughout the country. On the back of the card was a quote from St. Teresa of Calcutta: "Joy is the net by which we catch souls for Christ."

Joy! It must be the hallmark of the Christian. The joy of Jesus Christ is what draws others to our faith, and they must feel that joy in each and every one of us. When visitors walk into our beautiful church to join us for Mass, I pray they encounter a joyful people. I know they do. So many times, I have been approached after Mass by a visitor who tells me how welcomed they felt here at Little Flower. There has been an anomaly or two, but I do not wish to dwell there because we are a joyful parish. Just this past month with school back in full swing and families returning from their summer vacations, we have all noticed the number of children that delightfully swarm the church especially in the late morning Masses. The sounds of children give life to a parish. They are a reminder that we are a growing family, and that every single one of God's little ones, no matter the age, are always welcomed in this sacred space and not cast aside to a cry room or to Sunday daycare. The family is nurtured at the foot of the altar. We are joyful witnesses to this nurturing and growth. Just last Sunday, a family approached me so that I could bless their 10-day old child! What a gift! (In case you were wondering, that's not the youngest child I have blessed at the steps of our church after a Sunday Mass. That record belongs to the 3-day old baby I blessed last year whose mother had just left the hospital and came straight to Mass.)

Joy is all around us. We just have to let it overwhelm us, and let our hearts be opened to this infectious joy that comes from Christ. Yes, I know that there are times when we can't even crack a smile. We may have just suffered a great loss and are simply coming to church for consolation. As a priest, I am always cognizant of that when I celebrate funerals, but I still do so with a smile. Why? Because even in grief, joy cannot be discarded. If we truly believe in eternal life as we profess in the Creed every Sunday, then we know and pray that our loved ones are with the Lord and sharing in the Resurrection. So many times, I have been present at wake services and witnessed the family of the deceased consoling the mourners, and they usually do it with a smile.

Pope Francis made a passing reference to this in his first encyclical which incidentally is called The Joy of the Gospel. He writes:

...an evangelizer must never look like someone who has just come back from a funeral! Let us recover and deepen our enthusiasm, that "delightful and comforting joy of evangelizing, even when it is in tears that we must sow... And may the world of our time, which is searching, sometimes with anguish, sometimes with hope, be enabled to receive the good news not from evangelizers who are dejected, discouraged, impatient or anxious, but from ministers of the Gospel whose lives glow with fervor, who have first received the joy of Christ". (EG, 10)

Pope Francis quotes St. Paul VI towards the end of the last paragraph, and it should prompt us to ask the question, do we "glow with fervor" and share in the joy of the gospel? Is this a parish where we experience the joy of Jesus Christ? The high number of catechumens and adults who want to come into full communion with Holy Mother Church that we have experienced in the last month is tangible proof that there is indeed joy within these hallowed walls. Catch it. Share it. Delight in it. After all, one of our Lord's most fervent desires can be found in this simple saying to his disciples the night before he died: "I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy may be complete." (John 15:11)

God bless you all,

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PÁRROCO

Mis Queridos Amigos,

Una tarjeta de agradecimiento que no esperaba es la inspiración para la columna de hoy. El Club Serra me envió una tarjeta para agradecer a la parroquia por poner en marcha el Cáliz vocacional que describí en el boletín de la semana pasada. El Club Serra ha estado promoviendo vocaciones durante años en nuestra Arquidiócesis y en todo el país. En el reverso de la tarjeta había una cita de Santa Teresa de Calcuta: "La alegría es la red por la cual atrapamos almas para Cristo".

¡Alegría! Debe ser el sello distintivo del cristiano. El gozo de Jesucristo es lo que atrae a otros a nuestra fe, y ellos deben sentir ese gozo en todos y cada uno de nosotros. Cuando los visitantes entran en nuestra hermosa iglesia para unirse a nosotros para la Misa, oro para que se encuentren con un pueblo alegre. Sé que lo hacen. Muchas veces, un visitante se me ha acercado después de la misa y me dice lo bienvenidos que se sintieron aquí en Santa Teresita. Ha habido una rareza o dos, pero no quiero detenerme allí porque somos una parroquia alegre. Justo este mes pasado, con la escuela de vuelta en pleno apogeo y las familias que regresan de sus vacaciones de verano, todos hemos notado la cantidad de niños que pululan encantadoramente por la iglesia, especialmente en las misas de la mañana. Los sonidos de los niños dan vida a una parroquia. Son un recordatorio de que somos una familia en crecimiento, y que cada uno de los pequeños de Dios, sin importar la edad, siempre son bienvenidos en este espacio sagrado y no se dejan de lado a una sala de llanto o a la guardería dominical. La familia se nutre a los pies del altar. Somos testigos alegres de esta crianza y crecimiento. ¡Justo el domingo pasado, una familia se me acercó para que pudiera bendecir a su hijo de 10 días! ¡Qué regalo! (En caso de que se lo pregunten, ese no es el niño más pequeño que he bendecido en los escalones de nuestra iglesia después de una misa dominical. Ese registro pertenece al bebé de 3 días que bendije el año pasado, cuya madre acababa de salir del hospital y vino directamente a misa).

La alegría está a nuestro alrededor. Solo tenemos que dejar que nos abruma y dejar que nuestros corazones se abran a este gozo contagioso que viene de Cristo. Sí, sé que hay momentos en los que ni siquiera podemos enseñar una sonrisa. Es posible que acabemos de sufrir una gran pérdida y simplemente estemos viniendo a la iglesia en busca de consuelo. Como sacerdote, siempre soy consciente de eso cuando celebro funerales, pero todavía lo hago con una sonrisa. ¿Por qué? Porque incluso en el dolor, la alegría no puede ser descartada. Si realmente creemos en la vida eterna como profesamos en el Credo todos los domingos, entonces sabemos y oramos que nuestros seres queridos están con el Señor y compartiendo la Resurrección. Muchas veces, he estado presente en los servicios de velatorio y he sido testigo de cómo la familia del difunto consolaba a los dolientes, y generalmente lo hacen con una sonrisa.

El Papa Francisco hizo una referencia pasajera a esto en su primera encíclica que, por cierto, se llama La alegría del Evangelio. Escribe:

... Por consiguiente, un evangelizador no debería tener permanentemente cara de funeral. Recobremos y acrecentemos el fervor, «la dulce y confortadora alegría de evangelizar, incluso cuando hay que sembrar entre lágrimas [...] Y ojalá el mundo actual —que busca a veces con angustia, a veces con esperanza— pueda así recibir la Buena Nueva, no a través de evangelizadores tristes y desalentados, impacientes o ansiosos, sino a través de ministros del Evangelio, cuya vida irradia el fervor de quienes han recibido, ante todo en sí mismos, la alegría de Cristo (EG, 10)

El Papa Francisco cita a San Pablo VI hacia el final del último párrafo, y debería llevarnos a hacer la pregunta, ¿"brillamos con fervor" y compartimos la alegría del evangelio? ¿Es esta una parroquia donde experimentamos el gozo de Jesucristo? El alto número de catecúmenos y adultos que quieren entrar en plena comunión con la Santa Madre Iglesia que hemos experimentado en el último mes es una prueba tangible de que efectivamente hay alegría dentro de estos muros sagrados. Atrápenla. Compártanla. Deléitense con ella. Después de todo, uno de los deseos más fervientes de nuestro Señor se puede encontrar en este simple dicho a sus discípulos la noche antes de morir: "Os he dicho esto para que mi gozo esté en vosotros y vuestro gozo sea completo". (Juan 15:11)

Que Dios los bendiga a todos,

DIOCESAN BULLETIN ADVERTISERS NEEDED

Catholic Life Every Day

Jenny Lusk from Diocesan (our bulletin publishing partner) is working to renew the advertisements currently running on the bulletin and to secure NEW bulletin advertisers. The bulletin is available in print and digitally online. We are grateful that this crucial communication piece is provided to our parish at NO COST thanks to the generous support of our bulletin sponsors. Jenny is calling the current sponsors so please let her know if we can count on your continued support by renewing your listing, and please call her if you're interested in placing an advertisement in the bulletin on behalf of your business, family OR to memorialize a loved one. Bulletin sponsors recognize the tremendous value of connecting with our church family, and we ask our parishioners and guests to patronize our supporters when using a local service. Jenny can be reached at 913-205-6387 or JLusk@Diocesan.com. Thank you and God bless you!

ADULT SACRAMENTAL PREPARATION - RCIA

COTLF offers adults an opportunity to come together in a small group to learn more about our faith through the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults. The program serves:

- † Unbaptized adults who wish to become Catholics.
- † Those baptized in another Christian Church who are seeking full communion with the Roman Catholic Church and the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist.
- † Baptized Catholic adults who were baptized as infants in the Catholic Church and now seek the Sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation.

The 2022-2023 Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults ("RCIA") program began on Tuesday, September 20th and meets every Tuesday from 7pm to 9pm, through April 18, 2023.

There is still time to register for the program by visiting our Parish Website at www.cotlf.org/RCIA or contact Deacon Roberto Fleitas at RFleitas@cotlf.org

Saint Gregory the Great

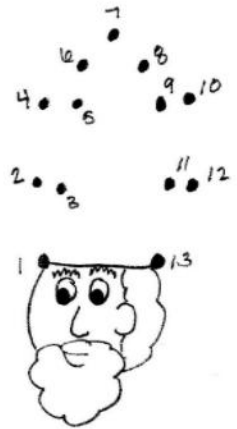

Saint Gregory the Great was a Pope.
Do you remember the name of our current Pope?

Pope Francis

Follow the dots to draw the Papal Crown worn by Pope Gregory. It looks like three crowns stacked together.

Gregorian Chant is music named after Saint Gregory. The squares tell people what notes to sing.

The words are in Latin. It means, "Pray for us to God. Alleluia."
