FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Father Manny asked Father Andrew to publish his homily from last weekend in today's bulletin:

There is always far more going on than meets the eye. A great benefit in our modern era has been the advance of science allowing us to peer into the mysteries of the universe both far beyond us in the cosmos and within us at the molecular level. We have been able to grasp so much more than the naked human eye can see. Everything is held together by gravity, a force that cannot be seen, but is certainly felt. The spiritual life is very similar. God's grace works in many powerful, yet unseen ways. The secret is prayer.

Prayer is our lifeblood. It brings us into intimate communion with Jesus Christ who Himself took time to pray. In prayer, we praise and adore God, we thank Him, we atone for our sins, and we plead with Him for ourselves, our families, and our world. We belong to a Praying Church, best exemplified by Our Blessed Mother who kept all things in her heart. So much of the Church at prayer happens in silence, in the unknown to us, seen by God alone. Yet, it holds us all together. Think of the service done to the Church by the contemplative men and women religious who spend their lives in prayer for us.

Today's first reading offers us a fascinating account which can be applied to the state of the Church today. We, brothers and sisters, are embroiled in a raging spiritual battle, much of it unseen. We are the people of Israel waging war against the forces of Amalek. The people of light against the forces of darkness. Moses stood on top of the hill overlooking the battle with the staff of God in his hand. As long as Moses kept his hands raised, Israel had the better of the fight, but when he let his hands rest, Amalek had the upper hand. In our context, see that gesture of Moses as the prayer of God's people. When we are praying, we have the better of the fight. When we lose sight of the Lord, the forces of darkness gain the upper hand. It is the unseen prayer that helps navigate our Church through the ages. It is fair to say that the ages of greatest sin and confusion came about because we grew lax in our prayer. Those closest to the spiritual battle attest to this truth. This is absolutely crucial to keep in mind as we consider our world and our Church today.

Padre Pio, one of those brightest spiritual lights, told us to pray, hope, and not worry. Simple, yet profound. We must persevere in that prayer like the widow in today's Gospel who won her cause due to her persistence. In the same way, we win over the heart of God when we persevere in prayer. That is, when we persevere over our own aversion to prayer, our distractions, our impatience, and our exasperation when it seems that God doesn't hear us. That is when prayer is at its most powerful, when we offer it at our most desperate. Prayer is the easiest, yet most important thing for us to do as the People of God. It can be those Our Fathers and Hail Marys. It can be that simple conversation acknowledging God during a busy day. It can be time spent before the Blessed Sacrament in the tabernacle or in adoration. What's most important is letting God in and letting Him stay.

The difficulty is that in the spiritual battle, it is easy for us to grow cynical and critical. We look at the Church and the world and we fret. We gossip, we criticize the Pope and the bishops, we wring out all the dirty laundry. We like to get ahold of the juiciest piece of gossip and be the first to tell others. For some reason, that makes us feel good. Sometimes, we even look for websites and news sources with commentators saying exactly what we feel. Then we spread it to whomever will listen. In all that, we lose sight of the fact that the Church is our Mother, whom we must never abandon. Instead, we need to pray for her. Teresa of Avila once said that if we have the words to criticize a priest, we must have double to pray for him. The same is true for every member of the Church. We must have double the time and effort to pray for each other.

Now, that's not to say that there isn't justified criticism. We have to be real here. There are forces in this world and in hell actively seeking to undermine the Faith and tear the Church to shreds. Teresa of Avila offered her fair share of criticism within the Church as she was reforming the Carmelite order. St. Catherine of Siena once called the clergy, "those dogs who had lost their bark". She even stood up to the Pope on various occasions. He listened to her, by the way. But read about her life. No one prayed for the Church like Catherine of Siena. No one fasted and did penance for the Church like Catherine of Siena. When was the last time that we fasted or did penance for the Church rather than sharing that salacious news story or clicking on that link to that website critical of the Pope?

Brothers and sisters, prayer and sacrifice are tangible and powerful things that you and I can do. It will tip the scales of the spiritual battle. Prayer will allow Israel to overcome the forces of Amalek. That much has already been guaranteed to us by Our Lord in His death on the Cross and in His glorious Resurrection! The powers of hell have nothing to overcome that! That is an immutable fact. Prayer will hold us together as gravity does, as God's grace does. Pray, Hope, and Don't Worry. I repeat, brothers and sisters, Pray, Hope, and Don't Worry. We are in the battle, yet the battle has already been won.

- Fr. Andrew Tomonto, Homily for the XXIX Sunday in Ordinary Time; Sunday, October 16, 2022.

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PÁRROCO

El Padre Manny le pidió al Padre Andrew que compartiera su homilía del pasado domingo en el boletín de esta semana:

Siempre hay mucho más sucediendo de lo que parece. Un gran beneficio en nuestra era moderna ha sido el avance de la ciencia que nos permite mirar en los misterios del universo tanto mucho más allá de nosotros en el cosmos como dentro de nosotros a nivel molecular. Hemos sido capaces de captar mucho más de lo que el ojo humano puede ver. Todo se mantiene unido por la gravedad, una fuerza que no se puede ver, pero que ciertamente se siente. La vida espiritual es muy similar. La gracia de Dios obra de muchas maneras poderosas, pero invisibles. El secreto es la oración.

La oración es nuestro elemento vital. Nos lleva a una comunión íntima con Jesucristo, quien se tomó el tiempo para orar. En oración, alabamos y adoramos a Dios, le damos gracias, expiamos nuestros pecados y le suplicamos por nosotros mismos, nuestras familias y nuestro mundo. Pertenecemos a una Iglesia Orante, mejor ejemplificada por Nuestra Santísima Madre que guardó todas las cosas en su corazón. Gran parte de la Iglesia en oración sucede en silencio, en lo desconocido para nosotros, visto solo por Dios. Sin embargo, nos mantiene a todos juntos. Piensen en el servicio prestado a la Iglesia por los religiosos y religiosas contemplativos que dedican su vida a la oración por nosotros.

La primera lectura de hoy nos ofrece un relato fascinante que se puede aplicar al estado de la Iglesia hoy. Nosotros, hermanos y hermanas, estamos envueltos en una furiosa batalla espiritual, gran parte de ella invisible. Somos el pueblo de Israel librando una guerra contra las fuerzas de Amalec. La gente de la luz contra las fuerzas de la oscuridad. Moisés estaba en la cima de la colina con vistas a la batalla con el bastón de Dios en su mano. Mientras Moisés mantuviera sus manos levantadas, Israel tuvo lo mejor de la lucha, pero cuando dejó que sus manos descansaran, Amalec tenía la ventaja. En nuestro contexto, vean ese gesto de Moisés como la oración del pueblo de Dios. Cuando estamos orando, tenemos lo mejor de la batalla. Cuando perdemos de vista al Señor, las fuerzas de las tinieblas ganan la partida. Es la oración invisible la que ayuda a navegar nuestra Iglesia a través de los siglos. Es justo decir que las épocas de mayor pecado y confusión se produjeron porque nos volvimos laxos en nuestra oración. Los más cercanos a la batalla espiritual dan fe de esta verdad. Esto es absolutamente crucial para tener en cuenta al considerar nuestro mundo y a nuestra Iglesia hoy.

El Padre Pío, una de esas luces espirituales más brillantes, nos dijo que oráramos, esperáramos y no nos preocupáramos. Simple, pero profundo. Debemos perseverar en esa oración como la viuda del Evangelio de hoy que ganó su causa debido a su persistencia. De la misma manera, ganamos el corazón de Dios cuando perseveramos en la oración. Eso es, cuando perseveramos contra nuestra propia aversión a la oración, nuestras distracciones, nuestra impaciencia y nuestra exasperación cuando creemos que Dios no nos escucha. Es entonces cuando la oración es más poderosa, cuando la ofrecemos en nuestra situación más desesperada. La oración es lo más fácil, pero también es lo más importante que debemos hacer como Pueblo de Dios. Pueden ser esos Padre Nuestros y Ave Marías. Puede ser esa conversación simple reconociendo a Dios durante un día ocupado. Puede ser un tiempo pasado frente al Santísimo Sacramento en el tabernáculo o en adoración. Lo más importante es dejar entrar a Dios y dejar que se quede.

La dificultad es que, en la batalla espiritual, es fácil para nosotros volvernos cínicos y críticos. Miramos a la Iglesia y al mundo y nos preocupamos. Chismorreamos, criticamos al Papa y a los obispos, hablamos de las cosas malas de la Iglesia. Nos gusta conseguir el chisme más jugoso y ser los primeros en contarlo a los demás. Por alguna razón, eso nos hace sentir bien. A veces, incluso buscamos sitios web y fuentes de noticias con comentaristas que dicen exactamente lo que sentimos. Luego lo difundimos a quien quiera escuchar. En todo eso, perdemos de vista al hecho de que la Iglesia es nuestra Madre, a quien nunca debemos abandonar. En cambio, necesitamos orar por ella. Teresa de Ávila dijo una vez que, si tenemos las palabras para criticar a un sacerdote, debemos hacer el doble para orar por él. Lo mismo es cierto para cada miembro de la Iglesia. Debemos tener el doble de tiempo y esfuerzo para orar unos por otros.

Ahora, eso no quiere decir que no haya críticas justificadas. Tenemos que ser realistas aquí. Hay fuerzas en este mundo y en el infierno que buscan activamente socavar la fe y desgarrar a la Iglesia en pedazos. Teresa de Ávila ofreció su parte justa de críticas dentro de la Iglesia mientras reformaba la orden carmelita. Santa Catalina de Siena una vez llamó al clero, "aquellos perros que habían perdido su ladrido". Incluso se enfrentó al Papa en varias ocasiones. Él la escuchó, por cierto. Pero lean sobre su vida. Nadie rezó por la Iglesia como Catalina de Siena. Nadie ayunaba y hacía penitencia por la Iglesia como Catalina de Siena. ¿Cuándo fue la última vez que ayunamos o hicimos penitencia por la Iglesia en lugar de compartir ese chisme o hacer clic en ese enlace a ese sitio web criticando al Papa?

Hermanos y hermanas, la oración y el sacrificio son cosas tangibles y poderosas que ustedes y yo podemos hacer. Inclinará la balanza de la batalla espiritual. La oración permitirá a Israel vencer las fuerzas de Amalec. ¡Eso ya nos ha sido garantizado por Nuestro Señor en Su muerte en la Cruz y en Su gloriosa Resurrección! ¡Los poderes del infierno no tienen nada que supere eso! Ese es un hecho inmutable. La oración nos mantendrá unidos como lo hace la gravedad, como lo hace la gracia de Dios. Oren, esperen y no se preocupen. Repito, hermanos y hermanas, oren, esperen y no se preocupen. Estamos en la batalla, pero la batalla ya ha sido ganada.

 Pray to Saint Jude when you have a bad day.

Gospel Jesus talks about two men praying. One man stands up and tells God about his own greatness. The other man bows his head and asks God for help and prays about God's greatness. The second man is being humble. Jesus asks us to be humble.
