FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Friends,

This weekend we welcome to our parish the young people who will be representing the Archdiocese of Miami at next Friday's March for Life in Washington, D.C. I have been honored to be the Archdiocese's Spiritual Director/Chaplain for the March for Life since 2015. The young people among us come from our Archdiocesan high schools, local colleges, and parochial youth groups. We have 12 young people who will be representing our parish along with two of our Carmelite Sisters. We are indeed honored to represent the Church of the Little Flower in standing up for the unborn in our nation's capital.

This will be the first march since Roe v. Wade was struck down by the Supreme Court last year. For 49 years, we marched to the Supreme Court to protest the egregious decision made in 1972 that cost so many unborn children their lives. This year we will be doing something new and marching to Congress because now the question of abortion resides in the hands of the legislative branch of our government. Sadly, even with the landmark decision last June that we have ardently prayed for all those years, the tragedy of abortion continues in America. We need to pray for true change of hearts in our country particularly for those we elect to write our laws. And so, I ask you to pray for these young people who, under the mantle of freedom of speech afforded us in the Bills of Rights, travel to Washington to lend their voices to the those who have no voice, the most vulnerable among us, the tiny child in the womb of his/her mother. They follow the call of Pope St. John Paul II who once said, "You are called to stand up for life! To respect and defend the mystery of life always and everywhere, including the lives of unborn babies, giving real help and encouragement to mothers in difficult situations. You are called to work and pray against abortion."

Even though the once insurmountable Roe decision has been struck down, I truly believe that now the work of the church to help sway expectant mothers away from abortion becomes more urgent and more difficult. We need to help mothers from the moment of conception to the moment of birth and beyond. This was emphasized by the U.S. Bishops back in June when the Dobbs decision came down: "Now is the time to begin the work of building a post-Roe America. It is a time for healing wounds and repairing social divisions; it is a time for reasoned reflection and civil dialogue, and for coming together to build a society and economy that supports marriages and families, and where every woman has the support and resources she needs to bring her child into this world in love." (USCCB Statement, 6/24/2022)

May we continue our prayers, our fasting, our activism, our unyielding support of the truth, not the belief, but the truth that every life begins at conception. Every human being no matter how small or how old, no matter how rich or how poor, no matter if they are home or far from home like the immigrant: every human being is to be loved because we all receive our dignity from God above who lovingly created us in his image and likeness.

Dear young people going to Washington: thank you for your witness, your courage, and your love for human life. This parish and the entire Archdiocese of Miami accompanies you with their prayers. You inspire fellow Catholics far older than you to roll up their sleeves to work and get down on their knees to pray that every human life, especially the tiniest, be respected, cherished, and loved.

" . . . we are facing an enormous and dramatic clash between good and evil, death and life, the "culture of death" and the "culture of life". We find ourselves not only faced with but necessarily in the midst of this conflict: we are all involved and we all share in it, with the inescapable responsibility of choosing to be unconditionally pro-life."

Pope St. John Paul II, Evangelium Vitae, 1995

God bless you all,

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PÁRROCO

Mis queridos amigos,

Este fin de semana le damos la bienvenida a nuestra parroquia a los jóvenes que representarán a la Arquidiócesis de Miami en la Marcha por la Vida del próximo viernes en Washington, D.C. He tenido el honor de ser el Director Espiritual / Capellán de la Marcha por la Vida de la Arquidiócesis desde el 2015. Los jóvenes entre nosotros provienen de nuestras escuelas secundarias arquidiocesanas, universidades locales y grupos juveniles parroquiales. Tenemos 12 jóvenes que representarán a nuestra parroquia junto con dos de nuestras Hermanas Carmelitas. De hecho, nos sentimos honrados de representar a la Iglesia de Santa Teresita al defender a los no nacidos en la capital de nuestra nación.

Este será la primera marcha desde que Roe v. Wade fue anulado por la Corte Suprema el año pasado. Durante 49 años, marchamos a la Corte Suprema para protestar por la decisión atroz tomada en 1972 que le costó la vida a tantos niños no nacidos. Este año haremos algo nuevo y marcharemos al Congreso porque ahora el tema del aborto reside en manos de la rama legislativa de nuestro gobierno. Lamentablemente, incluso con la decisión histórica en junio pasado la cual hemosorado ardientemente durante todos estos años, la tragedia del aborto continúa en Estados Unidos. Necesitamos orar por un verdadero cambio de corazones en nuestro país, particularmente por aquellos que elegimos para escribir nuestras leyes. Y entonces, les pido que recen por estos jóvenes que, bajo el manto de la libertad de expresión que nos otorga la Declaración de Derechos, viajan a Washington para prestar sus voces a los que no tienen voz, los más vulnerables entre nosotros, el niño pequeño en el vientre de su madre. Siguen el llamado del Papa San Juan Pablo II, quien una vez dijo: "¡Estás llamado a defender la vida! Respetar y defender el misterio de la vida siempre y en todas partes, incluidas las vidas de los bebés por nacer, dando ayuda y aliento verdadero a las madres en situaciones difíciles. Estás llamado a trabajar y orar contra el aborto".

A pesar de que la decisión Roe, una vez insuperable, ha sido anulada, realmente creo que ahora el trabajo de la iglesia para ayudar a alejar a las mujeres embarazadas del aborto se vuelve más urgente y difícil. Necesitamos ayudar a las madres desde el momento de la concepción hasta el momento del nacimiento y más adelante. Esto fue enfatizado por los obispos de los Estados Unidos en junio cuando se tomó la decisión de Dobbs: "Ahora es el momento de comenzar el trabajo de construir una América post-Roe. Es un momento para sanar heridas y reparar las divisiones sociales; Es un momento para la reflexión razonada y el diálogo civil, y para unirse para construir una sociedad y una economía que apoyen los matrimonios y las familias, y donde cada mujer tenga el apoyo y los recursos que necesita para traer a su hijo a este mundo en amor". (Declaración de la USCCB, 6/24/2022)

Que continuemos nuestras oraciones, nuestro ayuno, nuestro activismo, nuestro apoyo inquebrantable a la verdad, no a la creencia, sino a la verdad de que toda vida comienza en la concepción. Cada ser humano, no importa cuán pequeño o viejo, no importa cuán rico o cuán pobre, no importa si está en casa o lejos de casa como el inmigrante: cada ser humano debe ser amado porque todos recibimos nuestra dignidad de Dios que amorosamente nos creó a su imagen y semejanza.

Queridos jóvenes que van a Washington: gracias por su testimonio, su valentía y su amor por la vida humana. Esta parroquia y toda la Arquidiócesis de Miami los acompañan con sus oraciones. Ustedes inspiran a compañeros católicos mucho mayores que ustedes a arremangarse para trabajar y arrodillarse para orar para que cada vida humana, especialmente la más pequeña, sea respetada, apreciada y amada.

"... estamos ante un enorme y dramático choque entre el bien y el mal, la muerte y la vida, la « cultura de la muerte » y la « cultura de la vida ». Estamos no sólo « ante », sino necesariamente « en medio » de este conflicto: todos nos vemos implicados y obligados a participar, con la responsabilidad ineludible de elegir incondicionalmente en favor de la vida."

Papa San Pablo II, Evangelium Vitae, 1995

Que Dios los bendiga a todos,

Fr. Manny

NATIONAL MARCH FOR LIFE 2023

This week, 12 young COTLF parishioners will be joining the Archdiocese of Miami delegation, whom we welcome here to the parish for this weekend's 10:30am Mass, to participate in the National March for Life in Washington DC, alongside tens of thousands of others from across the country.

"This year will be a somber reminder of the millions of lives lost to abortion in the past 50 years, but also a celebration of how far we have come..."

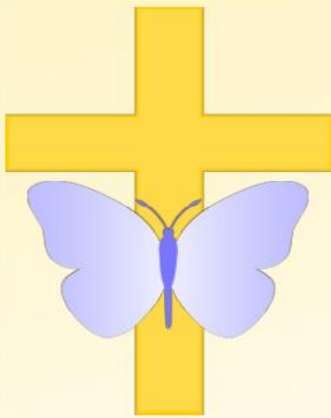

Please pray for all participants in the March for Life as we continue witnessing to and building up a culture of life in the United States. If you are able, we also encourage you to walk 1.7 miles on Friday in solidarity with those at the March for Life. #WhyWeMarch

LITTLE FLOWER CONCERT SERIES

SERAPHIC FIRE PRESENTS: BEGINNING/END
FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 24TH — 8:00PM

Joyous arrivals and awe-inspiring departures feature in the closing concert of Seraphic Fire's third annual Enlightenment Festival. Selections from Johann Sebastian Bach's Christmas Oratorio portray an expectant mother preparing for a child's arrival and the Magi searching for that child. The Ascension Oratorio is particularly thrilling with spectacular opening and closing trumpets, its coloratura passages, and equally challenging chorale. Chamber orchestra and students from the UCLA Ensemble Artist Program join Seraphic Fire singers to perform two of Bach's great works in a burst of sonic glory in this arresting program.
