FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Friends,

Thank you so much for your overwhelming generosity during ABCD Sunday last week. We received phenomenal support from our in-pew appeal and are well on the way to surpassing our parish goal of $323,000. If you were not here last Sunday, I invite you to go on our website and watch the moving ABCD video and take a pledge envelope home to fill out. You can put your pledge in the collection basket at any of our Masses. We not only want to surpass our goal, but we want to invite as many parishioners as possible to put their grain of sand into the charitable works of the Archdiocese. As I said last weekend, every gift, no matter how big or small, makes a difference in the lives of so many. Again, on behalf of Archbishop Wenski, thank you for your support of ABCD.

Today the Church in the United States begins its celebration of Catholic Schools Week. St. Theresa has plenty of fun and faith-filled activities planned for our students this week, but I wanted to highlight in today's bulletin the unsung heroes of our Catholic schools (and of any school for that matter): our teachers!

Our teachers at St. Theresa embraced the vocation to be a Catholic educator. That not only means they sacrificed more financially lucrative careers to pass on the gift of knowledge to our children, but as Catholic educators, it meant that each day, they get to be a living witness of Jesus Christ. The late Pope Benedict XVI in his address to Catholic educators of our country said: "Teachers and administrators, whether in universities or schools, have the duty and privilege to ensure that students receive instruction in Catholic doctrine and practice. This requires that public witness to the way of Christ, as found in the Gospel and upheld by the Church's Magisterium, shapes all aspects of an institution's life, both inside and outside the classroom. Divergence from this vision weakens Catholic identity and, far from advancing freedom, inevitably leads to confusion, whether moral, intellectual or spiritual (Address to Catholic Educators at the Catholic University of America, 4/17/08)."

Catholic identity is something that is discussed constantly at St. Theresa both at the administrative and faculty level. There must be no confusion that when anyone walks on to our historic campus, that Jesus Christ is the reason for this school. That is fostered, exemplified, and strengthened by our teachers. Sometimes they are the first evangelists of our children as they model our faith both in word and deed. A teacher's job continues long after the dismissal bell rings. There are papers to grade, emails to answer, phone calls to make, and prayers to be said for their students.

It also helps that Saint Theresa is administered by our beloved Carmelite Sisters. If you want Catholic identity, you can't get more Catholic than 6 Carmelite Sisters who give their lives to this school and whose mere presence in our hallways simply reinforces to our students that a life of service and surrender to God is a joyful life worth pursuing.

Pope Benedict emphasizes the important role of our teachers being clear in their transmission of the faith. Each of our teachers is a certified catechist whether they teach Science or History or Physical Education. They lead our children in prayer every morning, they worship with them in our Friday School Masses, they teach them to be disciples, and they are called to be like Jesus in their classrooms.

We thank God for the gift of Catholic Schools this week, we give thanks for St. Theresa and almost 98 years of academic and faith-filled excellence, and we give thanks for our teachers who bring the gift of faith to our students every single day.

God bless you all,

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PÁRROCO

Mis queridos amigos,

Muchas gracias por su generosidad abrumadora durante el domingo del ABCD la semana pasada. Recibimos un apoyo fenomenal de nuestra campaña en el banco y estamos en camino de superar nuestra meta parroquial de $ 323,000. Si no estuvieron aquí el domingo pasado, los invito a ir a nuestro sitio web y ver el video conmovedor del ABCD y llevar un sobre de compromiso a casa para llenarlo. Pueden poner su promesa en la cesta de colecta en cualquiera de nuestras misas. No solo queremos superar nuestra meta, sino que queremos invitar a tantos feligreses como sea posible a poner su granito de arena en las obras de caridad de la Arquidiócesis. Como dije el fin de semana pasado, cada regalo, no importa cuán grande o pequeño sea, hace una diferencia en la vida de muchos. Una vez más, en nombre del arzobispo Wenski, gracias por su apoyo al ABCD.

Hoy la Iglesia en los Estados Unidos comienza su celebración de la Semana de las Escuelas Católicas. Santa Teresa tiene muchas actividades divertidas y llenas de fe planeadas para nuestros estudiantes esta semana, pero quería destacar en el boletín de hoy a los héroes anónimos de nuestras escuelas católicas (y de cualquier escuela para el caso): ¡nuestros maestros!

Nuestros maestros en Santa Teresa abrazaron la vocación de ser educadores católicos. Eso no solo significa que sacrificaron carreras más lucrativas financieramente para transmitir el don del conocimiento a nuestros hijos, sino que, como educadores católicos, significó que cada día llegan a ser testigos vivos de Jesucristo. El difunto Papa Benedicto XVI en su discurso a los educadores católicos de nuestro país dijo: "Los maestros y administradores, ya sea en universidades o escuelas, tienen el deber y el privilegio de garantizar que los estudiantes reciban instrucción en la doctrina y la práctica católica. Esto requiere que el testimonio público del camino de Cristo, tal como se encuentra en el Evangelio y sostenido por el Magisterio de la Iglesia, da forma a todos los aspectos de la vida de una institución, tanto dentro como fuera del aula. La divergencia de esta visión debilita la identidad católica y, lejos de promover la libertad, conduce inevitablemente a la confusión, ya sea moral, intelectual o espiritual (Discurso a los educadores católicos en la Universidad Católica de América, 04/17/08)."

La identidad católica es algo que se discute constantemente en Santa Teresa, tanto a nivel administrativo como en el de la facultad. No debe haber confusión de que cuando alguien entra a nuestro campus histórico, Jesucristo es la razón de esta escuela. Eso es fomentado, ejemplificado y fortalecido por nuestros maestros. A veces son los primeros evangelistas de nuestros hijos, ya que modelan nuestra fe tanto en palabras como en hechos. El trabajo de un maestro continúa mucho después de que suene la campana de salida. Hay papeles que calificar, correos electrónicos que responder, llamadas telefónicas que hacer y oraciones que decir por sus estudiantes.

También ayuda que Santa Teresa sea administrada por nuestras queridas Hermanas Carmelitas. Si quieren una identidad católica, no puede ser más católica que 6 Hermanas Carmelitas que dan sus vidas a esta escuela y cuya mera presencia en nuestros pasillos simplemente refuerza a nuestros estudiantes que una vida de servicio y entrega a Dios es una vida alegre que vale la pena seguir.

El Papa Benedicto enfatiza el papel importante de nuestros maestros siendo claros en su transmisión de la fe. Cada uno de nuestros maestros es un catequista certificado, ya sea que enseñen Ciencias, Historia o Educación Física. Ellos guían a nuestros hijos en oración todas las mañanas, adoran con ellos en nuestras Misas Escolares de los viernes, les enseñan a ser discípulos y están llamados a ser como Jesús en sus aulas.

Agradecemos a Dios por el regalo de las Escuelas Católicas esta semana, damos gracias por Santa Teresa y casi 98 años de excelencia académica y llena de fe, y damos gracias por nuestros maestros que traen el don de la fe a nuestros estudiantes todos los días.

Que Dios los bendiga a todos,

Fr. Manny

LITTLE FLOWER CONCERT SERIES

SERAPHIC FIRE PRESENTS: BEGINNING/END
FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 24TH — 8:00PM

Joyous arrivals and awe-inspiring departures feature in the closing concert of Seraphic Fire's third annual Enlightenment Festival. Selections from Johann Sebastian Bach's Christmas Oratorio portray an expectant mother preparing for a child's arrival and the Magi searching for that child. The Ascension Oratorio is particularly thrilling with spectacular opening and closing trumpets, its coloratura passages, and equally challenging chorale. Chamber orchestra and students from the UCLA Ensemble Artist Program join Seraphic Fire singers to perform two of Bach's great works in a burst of sonic glory in this arresting program.

ST. BLAISE AND THE BLESSING OF THROATS

February 3rd is the Memorial of St. Blaise, a 4th Century Bishop who was martyred for his faith in Jesus Christ. According to tradition, St. Blaise is most well known for the miraculous healing of a boy who was choking to death from a fish bone that had become lodged in his throat. St. Blaise prayed over the boy and he was healed.

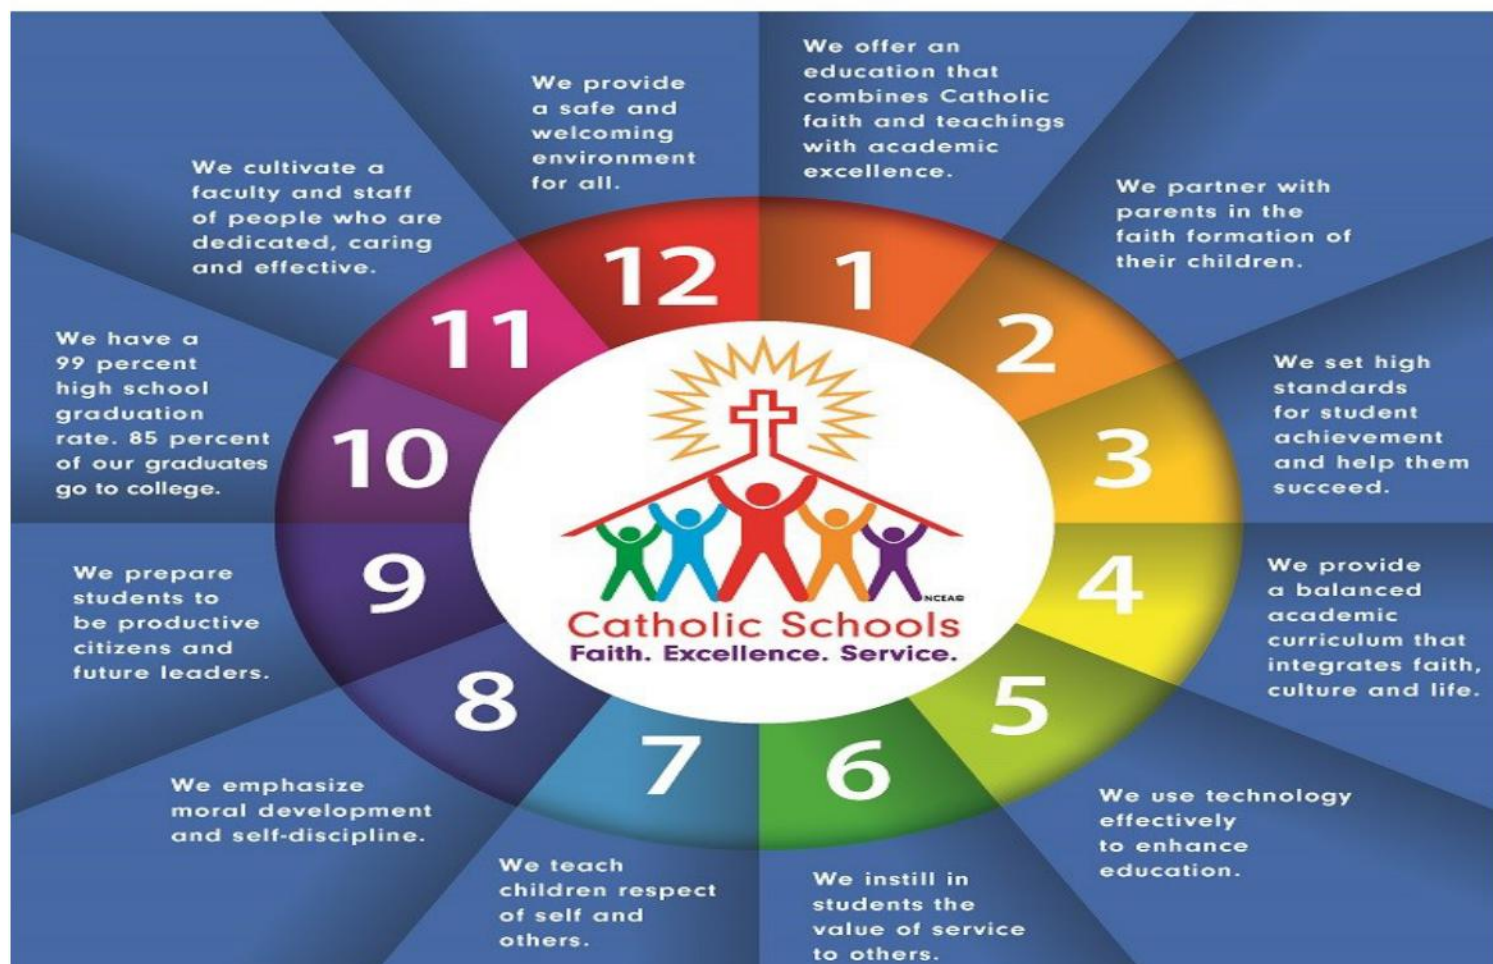

Over the centuries, a tradition developed within the church for the faithful to have their throats blessed on this day in which we celebrate St. Blaise. The priest, holding two blessed candles in the form of an X, usually tied with a red ribbon to represent the blood of the martyrs, touches the candles to each side of the person's neck and prays:

"Through the intercession of Saint Blaise, bishop and martyr, may God deliver you from ailments of the throat and from every other evil. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen."

The annual blessing of throats will take place following each of our Daily Parish Masses this Friday, February 3rd.
