FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Friends,

If you have a sharp ear when you go to confession this Lent, you will notice a minor change to the Prayer of Absolution that the priest says at the end of confession. Don't worry. This does not affect you and it only applies to the English prayer. Last year, the Conference of Bishops approved a new translation to the Order of Penance so that the English can better mirror the original Latin prayer. This change went into effect on Ash Wednesday so that priests can get used to the new prayer and goes into full effect on Divine Mercy Sunday. There are literally three words that are changed in the prayer, and the most important words, the words that we so long to hear, are left unchanged: "I absolve you from your sins in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." Once again, I say "don't worry" if after Divine Mercy Sunday those of you with those sharp ears hear the old translation, the confession and the absolution are still valid. Please be merciful to us as confessors for we have memorized the old Prayer of Absolution and have said it thousands of times since we were ordained. We do have the new prayer printed and staring right at us in the confessional.

The new Order of Penance also includes 10 options for the Act of Contrition. Sometimes people tell me before a confession that they have forgotten the Act of Contrition, so I tell them to recite the "simple one" that is easy to remember: "Lord, Jesus, Son of God, have mercy on me, a sinner." This prayer is a variation on how the tax collector approached God as opposed to the Pharisee in the Gospel of Luke (Lk 18:13). There's also a variation on the supplication of the prodigal son when he returns to his father: "Father, I have sinned against you and I am not worthy to be called your son. Be merciful to me a sinner (Luke 15:18)." For the old timers out there, the Act of Contrition that you learned when you were a child in Catholic school or CCD is now formally in the new Order of Penance. Next time you walk into one of our confessionals, all 10 options will be there for you to choose from. There is no prayer that is more valid or more important than the other. In fact, when the time comes for the Act of Contrition, the Order of Penance says, "The Priest then invites the penitent to express his (her) contrition, which the penitent may do in these or similar words (Order of Penance 45)." [Editor's note: "Priest" is always capitalized in the book of the Order of Penance.]

Let me repeat this for the third time, "don't worry." This new Order of Penance does not change the Sacrament of Confession. But this Lent is definitely a good time to examine how we go to confession. Do we make a good examination of conscience? Do we let scrupulosity get the best of us and over worry because we may not know how many times we lied or missed Mass or (insert sin here)? Beware scrupulosity! That is the Evil One trying to undermine God's mercy. I still remember approaching my spiritual director when I was in my second year of seminary as an anxious 19 year old and telling him that I was concerned that I was not confessing correctly. He smiled and said to me, "Manny, confession is the simplest of all the sacraments. All you have to do is tell the confessor your sins, and God will take care of the rest." That spiritual director is now a bishop, and he is right, confession is so very simple. The problem is, depending on when and where you were born, as a parish community, we may have been taught how to go to confession in many different ways.

Confession is a simple 5 step process in the Order of Penance and this order is the same from the previous Rite of Penance from 1975:

1. Reception of the Penitent. The priest welcomes the penitent with kindness, and the penitent and priest begin: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen. The priest invites the penitent to trust in God.
2. The Reading of the Word of God. "The Priest may read a text of Sacred Scripture that announces God's mercy and calls people to conversion." (This usually is omitted when there are long confession lines.)
3. The Confession of Sins and the Acceptance of Contrition. "The penitent tells the Priest when he (she) last celebrated the Sacrament and then confesses his (her) sins.
4. The Prayer of the Penitent and the Absolution. The Priest invites the penitent to express contrition and then the Priest extends his hand(s) to say the Prayer of Absolution to which the penitent replies: Amen.
5. The Proclamation of Praise of God and the Dismissal of the Penitent. After the absolution the priest continues in these or similar words: "Give thanks to the Lord for he is good." The penitent responds: "For his mercy endures forever." Then the priest dismisses the penitent who has been reconciled, saying: "The Lord has forgiven your sins. Go in peace."

That's it. The simplest of sacraments! Notice that there is no "Bless me Father, for I have sinned" or for our Spanish language speakers, there's no "Ave Maria, Purísima..." That doesn't mean that you have to stop doing that if that's the way you have been going to confession. The priest will not rebuke you, but as I said earlier, this is a good time to examine how you go to confession. Three reminders: It's simple. Beware scrupulosity. Trust in God's mercy.

Have a blessed Lenten season,

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PÁRROCO

Mis queridos amigos,

Si tienen un oído agudo cuando se confiesan esta Cuaresma, notarán un cambio menor en la Oración de Absolución que el sacerdote dice al final de la confesión. No se preocupen. Esto no los afecta y solo se aplica a la oración en inglés. El año pasado, la Conferencia de Obispos aprobó una nueva traducción a la Orden de la Penitencia para que el inglés pueda reflejar mejor la oración latina original. Este cambio entró en vigor el Miércoles de Ceniza para que los sacerdotes puedan acostumbrarse a la nueva oración y entra en pleno efecto el Domingo de la Divina Misericordia. Hay literalmente tres palabras que se cambian en la oración, y las palabras más importantes, las palabras que tanto anhelamos escuchar, se dejan sin cambios: "Yo te absuelvo de tus pecados en el Nombre del Padre, y del Hijo, y del Espíritu Santo". Una vez más, digo "no se preocupen" si después del Domingo de la Divina Misericordia aquellos de ustedes con esos oídos agudos escuchan la antigua traducción, la confesión y la absolución siguen siendo válidas. Por favor, sean misericordiosos con nosotros como confesores porque hemos memorizado la antigua Oración de Absolución y la hemos dicho miles de veces desde que fuimos ordenados. Tenemos la nueva oración impresa y mirándonos directamente en el confesionario.

La nueva Orden de Penitencia también incluye 10 opciones para el Acto de Contrición. A veces las personas me dicen antes de una confesión que han olvidado el Acto de Contrición, así que les digo que reciten la "simple" que es fácil de recordar: "Señor, Jesús, Hijo de Dios, ten piedad de mí, pecador". Esta oración es una variación de cómo el recaudador de impuestos se acercó a Dios en oposición al fariseo en el Evangelio de Lucas (Lc 18:13). También hay una variación en la súplica del hijo pródigo cuando regresa a su padre: "Padre, he pecado contra ti y no soy digno de ser llamado tu hijo. Sé misericordioso conmigo, pecador (Lc 15:18)". Para los veteranos, el Acto de Contrición que aprendieron cuando eran niños en la escuela católica o en el CCD ahora está formalmente en la nueva Orden de la Penitencia. La próxima vez que entren en uno de nuestros confesionarios, las 10 opciones estarán ahí para que elijan. No hay oración que sea más válida o importante que la otra. De hecho, cuando llega el momento del Acto de Contrición, la Orden de la Penitencia dice: "El sacerdote invita al penitente a expresar su contrición, lo que el penitente puede hacer con estas o similares palabras (Orden de la Penitencia 45)". [Nota del editor: "Sacerdote" siempre está en mayúscula en el libro de la Orden de la Penitencia.]

Permítanme repetir esto por tercera vez, "no se preocupen". Esta nueva Orden de Penitencia no cambia el Sacramento de la Confesión. Pero esta Cuaresma es definitivamente un buen momento para examinar cómo vamos a la confesión. ¿Hacemos un buen examen de conciencia? ¿Dejamos que la escrupulosidad se apodere de nosotros y nos preocupemos porque es posible que no sepamos cuántas veces mentimos o faltamos a misa o (inserte el pecado aquí)? ¡Cuidado con la escrupulosidad! Ese es el Maligno tratando de socavar la misericordia de Dios. Todavía recuerdo acercarme a mi director espiritual cuando estaba en mi segundo año de seminario cuando tenía 19 años y decirle que me preocupaba no estar confesando correctamente. Él sonrió y me dijo: "Manny, la confesión es el más simple de todos los sacramentos. Todo lo que tienes que hacer es decirle al confesor tus pecados, y Dios se encargará del resto". Ese director espiritual es ahora un obispo, y tiene razón, la confesión es muy simple. El problema es que, dependiendo de cuándo y dónde nacimos, como comunidad parroquial, es posible que nos hayan enseñado cómo confesarnos de muchas maneras diferentes.

La confesión es un proceso simple de 5 pasos en la Orden de la Penitencia y esta orden es la misma del Rito de Penitencia anterior del 1975:

1. Recepción del Penitente. El sacerdote acoge al penitente con bondad, y el penitente y el sacerdote comienzan: En el nombre del Padre, y del Hijo, y del Espíritu Santo. Amén. El sacerdote invita al penitente a confiar en Dios.
2. La lectura de la Palabra de Dios. "El sacerdote puede leer un texto de la Sagrada Escritura que anuncia la misericordia de Dios y llama a la conversión". (Esto generalmente se omite cuando hay líneas largas para la confesión).
3. La confesión de los pecados y la aceptación de la contrición. "El penitente le dice al sacerdote cuándo fue la última vez que recibió el sacramento y luego confiesa sus pecados.
4. La oración del penitente y la absolución. El sacerdote invita al penitente a expresar contrición y luego el sacerdote extiende su(s) mano(s) para decir la oración de absolución a la que el penitente responde: Amén.
5. El anuncio de alabanza a Dios y el despido del penitente. Después de la absolución, el sacerdote continúa con estas o palabras similares: "Dad gracias al Señor porque es bueno". El penitente responde: "Porque su misericordia permanece para siempre". Entonces el sacerdote despide al penitente que se ha reconciliado, diciendo: "El Señor ha perdonado tus pecados. Vete en paz".

Eso es todo. ¡El más simple de los sacramentos! Nótese que no hay "Bendíceme Padre, porque he pecado" o para nuestros hispanohablantes, no hay "Ave María, Purísima..." Eso no significa que tengan que dejar de hacer eso si esa es la forma en que han estado confesándose. El sacerdote no los reprenderá, pero como dije antes, este es un buen momento para examinar cómo se confiesan. Tres recordatorios: Es simple. Cuidado con la escrupulosidad. Confíen en la misericordia de Dios.

Que tengan un tiempo de Cuaresma bendecido,

LITTLE FLOWER CONCERT SERIES

SERAPHIC FIRE PRESENTS: FIRST | LAST FRIDAY, APRIL 28TH — 8:00PM

To honor the conclusion of our 20th Anniversary season, Seraphic Fire celebrates with a program containing both the oldest and newest pieces in our repertoire. William Billings' Invocation was the first work performed by Seraphic Fire, and the first line of this American hymn—"Majestic God, our Muse inspire, and fill us with Seraphic fire"—is the source for the ensemble's name. Shawn Crouch's The Road From Hiroshima was the first piece of music commissioned and premiered by Seraphic Fire. Representing Seraphic Fire's newest projects are three world premiere performances of works by Alvaro Bermudez, Sydney Guillaume, and Tawnie Olson. The ensemble's first performance of Thomas Tallis' massive 40-voice motet Spem in alium is the icing on the birthday cake in this celebration of 20 years of glorious music.

Do you remember that the priest wore purple during Advent? That was when we were waiting for Jesus to be born at Christmas. The priest is wearing purple again while we wait for Jesus to come at Easter.

Gospel

Jesus lived in the desert for 40 days! The devil tried to tempt him to turn the rocks into bread when he was hungry. Jesus got help from the angels and knew that He could wait. He didn't listen to the devil.
