FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Friends,

Holy Week is here! The most important week of the year. And so I present you with a very simple question: how do you intend to spend this week?

We cannot go about the activities of the next seven days as if it were just another week. The events of Holy Week transformed human history, and it should transform our lives as well. Today we begin with Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord. May I suggest that you take the Passion Narrative that you will hear at Mass today and carry it with you in your heart all week. This is such a rich text filled with so much salvific drama. Depending on where we are in the spiritual life, each verse of today's gospel may speak to us or tug at us in a different way. As I glanced over the gospel earlier this week as I wrote this column, there were two verses that jumped out at me immediately. The first was Peter's stating, "I do not know the man (Matthew 26:72)," as he denied Jesus. The second is "Truly, this was the Son of God (Matthew 27:54)!" The first line was uttered by one of Jesus' closest friends. The second line, a line of faith, was uttered by a stranger and pagan. In our relationship with Jesus, how often do we walk the fine line between friend and stranger?

This coming Wednesday, we offer our annual Lenten Penitential Service with Individual Confessions beginning at 7pm in our church. As of this writing, we have 8 priests confirmed to be present to hear our confessions. We will be there until the last penitent has received absolution. Do not pass up this opportunity the Lord is offering you to cleanse your soul and to enter the Holy Triduum with a pure heart.

Holy Thursday we celebrate the Mass of the Lord's Supper where we will have the traditional Washing of the Feet and Eucharistic Procession to the Altar of Repose. On this day, we commemorate the institution of the priesthood and the Eucharist. Two central realities of our faith that make us uniquely Catholic. The altar of repose will be open until Midnight, and for those who wish to make the pilgrimage of the Seven Monuments that evening which is so common in Latin America, here is a list of six other churches that will make it easy to finish this pilgrimage by Midnight: St. Thomas, St. Augustine, St. Raymond, St. Michael, St. Hugh, and the Shrine of Lady of Charity (La Ermita).

On Good Friday, we observe a day of fasting as we focus on the death of our Lord. The cross is presented to us as a sign of Christ's victory over sin and death. We will be invited during the liturgy to come forward to venerate the cross and stare at Christ's broken body. Broken for our offenses. Broken so that we may live! After the last liturgy of the day, we will have a procession around our neighborhood with the statue of the corpse of Christ. A truly somber and moving experience which we invite everyone to take part in. The procession begins at 9:15pm after the 8pm Liturgy has concluded.

Holy Saturday marks a day of silence as we stare upon the reality of the tomb and anticipate what is to come that evening at the Great Easter Vigil. I say it every year: if you have never been to an Easter Vigil, join us as we celebrate the most beautiful liturgy of the year. We live for this night! We begin in darkness and slowly build towards the celebration of Christ's resurrection! There is nothing like hearing the Gloria sung during the Easter Vigil. We also welcome new members into our parish family who have been preparing for baptism. It is the night of all nights. And if I may tempt you to come in a very practical way: if you wish to avoid the big crowds of Easter Sunday, come to the Easter Vigil.

Yes, this is a week like no other. Let us treat it as such. The detailed schedule for Holy Week is printed later in this bulletin. Join us for the Holy Triduum. May we walk with Jesus on the road to Calvary and wake up on Easter morning renewed by the Risen Christ!

God bless you all,

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PÁRROCO

Mis queridos amigos,

¡La Semana Santa ya está aquí! La semana más importante del año. Y por eso les presento una pregunta muy sencilla: ¿cómo piensan pasar esta semana?

No podemos llevar a cabo las actividades de los próximos siete días como si fuera una semana más. Los acontecimientos de la Semana Santa transformaron la historia humana, y también deberían transformar nuestras vidas. Hoy comenzamos con el Domingo de Ramos de la Pasión del Señor. Permítanme sugerirles que tomen la Narrativa de la Pasión que escucharán en la Misa de hoy y la lleven consigo en su corazón toda la semana. Este es un texto tan rico y lleno de tanto drama salvífico. Dependiendo de dónde estemos en la vida espiritual, cada versículo del evangelio de hoy puede hablarnos o conmovernos de una manera diferente. Al echar un vistazo al Evangelio a principios de esta semana mientras escribía esta columna, hubo dos versículos que me llamaron la atención de inmediato. El primero fue la declaración de Pedro: "No conozco a ese hombre (Mateo 26:72)", mientras negaba a Jesús. El segundo es "¡De veras, este hombre era Hijo de Dios (Mateo 27:54)!" La primera línea fue pronunciada por uno de los amigos más cercanos de Jesús. La segunda línea, una línea de fe, fue pronunciada por un extraño y pagano. En nuestra relación con Jesús, ¿con qué frecuencia caminamos por la línea fina entre amigo y extraño?

Este próximo miércoles, ofrecemos nuestra noche anual de Confesiones de Cuaresma con confesiones individuales a las 7 pm en nuestra iglesia. Al momento de escribir este artículo, tenemos 8 sacerdotes confirmados para estar presentes para escuchar nuestras confesiones. Estaremos allí hasta que el último penitente haya recibido la absolución. No dejen pasar esta oportunidad que el Señor les está ofreciendo para limpiar su alma y comenzar el Santo Triduo con un corazón puro.

El Jueves Santo celebramos la Misa de la Cena del Señor donde tendremos el tradicional Lavatorio de los Pies y Procesión Eucarística hasta el Altar de Reposo. En este día, conmemoramos la institución del sacerdocio y de la Eucaristía. Dos realidades centrales de nuestra fe que nos hacen singularmente católicos. El altar de reposo estará abierto hasta la medianoche, y para aquellos que deseen hacer la peregrinación de los Siete Monumentos esa noche que es tan común en América Latina, aquí hay una lista de otras seis iglesias que harán que sea fácil terminar antes de la medianoche: St. Thomas, St. Augustine, St. Raymond, St. Michael, St. Hugh y el Santuario de la Señora de la Caridad (La Ermita).

El Viernes Santo, observamos un día de ayuno mientras nos enfocamos en la muerte de nuestro Señor. La cruz se nos presenta como un signo de la victoria de Cristo sobre el pecado y la muerte. Seremos invitados durante la liturgia a acercarnos para venerar la cruz y mirar fijamente el cuerpo quebrantado de Cristo. Roto por nuestras ofensas. ¡Roto para que podamos vivir! Después de la última liturgia del día, tendremos una procesión por nuestro vecindario con la estatua del cadáver de Cristo. Una experiencia verdaderamente sombría y conmovedora a la cual los invitamos a todos a participar. La procesión comienza a las 9:15 pm después de que la liturgia de las 8:00 pm haya concluido.

El Sábado Santo marca un día de silencio mientras miramos la realidad de la tumba y anticipamos lo que vendrá esa noche en la Gran Vigilia Pascual. Lo digo todos los años: si nunca han estado en una Vigilia Pascual, únanse a nosotros mientras celebramos la liturgia más hermosa del año. ¡Vivimos para esta noche! ¡Comenzamos en la oscuridad y progresamos lentamente hacia la celebración de la resurrección de Cristo! No hay nada como escuchar el Gloria cantada durante la Vigilia Pascual. También damos la bienvenida a nuevos miembros a nuestra familia parroquial que se han estado preparando para el bautismo. Es la noche de todas las noches. Y si se me permite tentarles a venir de una manera muy práctica: si desea evitar las multitudes grandes del Domingo de Pascua, vengan a la Vigilia Pascual.

Sí, esta es una semana como ninguna otra. Vamos a tratarla como tal. El calendario detallado de la Semana Santa se encuentra impreso más adelante en este boletín. Únanse a nosotros para el Santo Triduo. ¡Que caminemos con Jesús en el camino al Calvario y despertemos en la mañana de Pascua renovados por el Cristo resucitado!

Que Dios los bendiga a todos,

SERAPHIC FIRE PRESENTS: FIRST | LAST FRIDAY, APRIL 28TH — 8:00PM

To honor the conclusion of our 20th Anniversary season, Seraphic Fire celebrates with a program containing both the oldest and newest pieces in our repertoire. William Billings' Invocation was the first work performed by Seraphic Fire, and the first line of this American hymn—"Majestic God, our Muse inspire, and fill us with Seraphic fire"—is the source for the ensemble's name. Shawn Crouch's The Road From Hiroshima was the first piece of music commissioned and premiered by Seraphic Fire. Representing Seraphic Fire's newest projects are three world premiere performances of works by Alvaro Bermudez, Sydney Guillaume, and Tawnie Olson. The ensemble's first performance of Thomas Tallis' massive 40-voice motet Spem in alium is the icing on the birthday cake in this celebration of 20 years of glorious music.

The priest is going to read a Gospel story at the beginning of Mass today. In the story, Jesus is going into Jerusalem. He is riding on a colt as people wave palm branches and shout, "Hosanna!" Hosanna means, "Hooray!"
