FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Friends,

Happy Easter! We welcome everyone to the Church of the Little Flower for our celebration of the Resurrection of our Lord, and we give a special welcome to all our brothers and sisters who are visiting us from out of town and have come to worship with our faith community.

The joy of the Resurrection indeed fills the whole world and fills this holy temple today as we shake with joy that our Savior has conquered sin and death. The joy of Easter must always be in the heart of every Christian. It is the central mystery of our faith, for as St. Paul writes: "if Christ has not been raised, then our proclamation has been in vain and your faith has been in vain (1 Cor 15:14)." But Christ indeed is risen! As the Easter Sequence we will hear this day proclaims: "Speak, Mary, declaring what you saw, wayfaring. The tomb of Christ, who is living, the glory of Jesus' resurrection; bright angels attesting, the shroud and napkin resting. Yes, Christ my hope is arisen; to Galilee he goes before you."

Now is the time to take this good news with us. Our world needs to hear the salvific message of the Risen Christ. Like Mary Magdalene, who was the first witness of the Resurrection, we must go like her and tell others what we have seen, what we have heard, what we have experienced on this day.

Our dear Pope Benedict XVI, who recently departed to the house of the Father, once preached on Easter Sunday:

Every Christian relives the experience of Mary Magdalene. It involves an encounter which changes our lives: the encounter with a unique Man who lets us experience all God's goodness and truth, who frees us from evil not in a superficial and fleeting way, but sets us free radically, heals us completely and restores our dignity. This is why Mary Magdalene calls Jesus "my hope": he was the one who allowed her to be reborn, who gave her a new future, a life of goodness and freedom from evil. "Christ my hope" means that all my yearnings for goodness find in him a real possibility of fulfilment: with him I can hope for a life that is good, full and eternal, for God himself has drawn near to us, even sharing our humanity. (Urbi et Orbi, April 12, 2012)

Christ is indeed our hope! Like the dawn of spring, the dawn of this Easter morning brings with it a new hope, a new life, a new beginning, that we as sinners are constantly thirsting for. Three years ago, during one of our darkest hours, Pope Francis spoke of this hope:

At dawn the women went to the tomb. There the angel says to them: "Do not be afraid. He is not here; for he has risen" (vv. 5-6). They hear the words of life even as they stand before a tomb... And then they meet Jesus, the giver of all hope, who confirms the message and says: "Do not be afraid" (v. 10). Do not be afraid, do not yield to fear: This is the message of hope. It is addressed to us, today. These are the words that God repeats to us this very [day].

[Today] we acquire a fundamental right that can never be taken away from us: the right to hope. It is a new and living hope that comes from God. It is not mere optimism; it is not a pat on the back or an empty word of encouragement, uttered with an empty smile. No! It is a gift from heaven, which we could not have earned on our own. Over these weeks, we have kept repeating, "All will be well", clinging to the beauty of our humanity and allowing words of encouragement to rise up from our hearts. But as the days go by and fears grow, even the boldest hope can dissipate. Jesus' hope is different. He plants in our hearts the conviction that God is able to make everything work unto good, because even from the grave he brings life. (Easter Vigil Homily 2020)

Like Jesus, we too rise this day, but from the death of sin and our reborn by the life-giving waters of baptism as we renew our baptismal promises as we do every Easter Sunday. They serve as a reminder that we are called to share the hope of the Risen Christ with the world.

Thank you for celebrating with us during this Holy Week and Easter Sunday. Now let us bring the message of Christ, our hope, to an increasingly secular world, a world that has forgotten how to hope, a world that needs bold witnesses of the Resurrection: witnesses of hope like you!

Happy Easter!

God bless you all,

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PÁRROCO

Mis queridos amigos,

¡Felices Pascuas! Le damos la bienvenida a todos a la Iglesia de Santa Teresita para nuestra celebración de la Resurrección de nuestro Señor, y damos una bienvenida en especial a todos nuestros hermanos y hermanas que nos visitan desde fuera de la ciudad y han venido a adorar con nuestra comunidad de fe.

El gozo de la resurrección ciertamente llena al mundo entero y llena este santo lugar hoy en día mientras temblamos de gozo porque nuestro Salvador ha vencido el pecado y la muerte. La alegría de la Pascua debe estar siempre en el corazón de cada cristiano. Es el misterio central de nuestra fe, porque como escribe San Pablo: "y si Cristo no resucitó, el mensaje que predicamos no vale para nada, ni tampoco vale para nada la fe que ustedes tienen. (1 Co 15,14)". ¡Pero Cristo ciertamente ha resucitado! Como la secuencia de Pascua que escucharemos este día proclama: "¿Qué has visto de camino, María, en la mañana? A mi Señor glorioso, la tumba abandonada, los ángeles testigos, sudarios y mortaja. ¡Resucitó de veras mi amor y mi esperanza!"

Ahora es el momento de llevar estas buenas nuevas con nosotros. Nuestro mundo necesita escuchar el mensaje salvífico de Cristo resucitado. Como María Magdalena, que fue el primer testigo de la Resurrección, debemos ir como ella y contar a los demás lo que hemos visto, lo que hemos oído, lo que hemos experimentado en este día.

Nuestro querido Papa Benedicto XVI, que recientemente partió a la casa del Padre, una vez predicó el Domingo de Pascua:

Todo cristiano revive la experiencia de María Magdalena. Es un encuentro que cambia la vida: el encuentro con un hombre único, que nos hace sentir toda la bondad y la verdad de Dios, que nos libra del mal, no de un modo superficial, momentáneo, sino que nos libra de él radicalmente, nos cura completamente y nos devuelve nuestra dignidad. He aquí por qué la Magdalena llama a Jesús «mi esperanza»: porque ha sido Él quien la ha hecho renacer, le ha dado un futuro nuevo, una existencia buena, libre del mal. «Cristo, mi esperanza», significa que cada deseo mío de bien encuentra en Él una posibilidad real: con Él puedo esperar que mi vida sea buena y sea plena, eterna, porque es Dios mismo que se ha hecho cercano hasta entrar en nuestra humanidad. (Papa Benedicto XVI, Urbi et Orbi, 4/12/12)

¡Cristo es ciertamente nuestra esperanza! Como el amanecer de la primavera, el amanecer de esta mañana de Pascua trae consigo una esperanza nueva, una vida nueva, un comienzo nuevo, que nosotros, como pecadores, estamos constantemente sedientos por tener. Hace tres años, durante una de nuestras horas más oscuras, el Papa Francisco habló de esta esperanza:

Al amanecer, las mujeres fueron al sepulcro. Allí, el ángel les dijo: «Vosotras, no temáis [...]. No está aquí: ¡ha resucitado!» (vv. 5-6). Ante una tumba escucharon palabras de vida... Y después encontraron a Jesús, el autor de la esperanza, que confirmó el anuncio y les dijo: «No temáis» (v. 10). No temáis, no tengáis miedo: He aquí el anuncio de la esperanza. Que es también para nosotros, hoy. Son las palabras que Dios nos repite en la noche que estamos atravesando.

En esta [día] conquistamos un derecho fundamental, que no nos será arrebatado: el derecho a la esperanza; es una esperanza nueva, viva, que viene de Dios. No es un mero optimismo, no es una palmadita en la espalda o unas palabras de ánimo de circunstancia, con una sonrisa pasajera. No. Es un don del Cielo, que no podíamos alcanzar por nosotros mismos: Todo irá bien, decimos constantemente estas semanas, aferrándonos a la belleza de nuestra humanidad y haciendo salir del corazón palabras de ánimo. Pero, con el pasar de los días y el crecer de los temores, hasta la esperanza más intrépida puede evaporarse. La esperanza de Jesús es distinta, infunde en el corazón la certeza de que Dios conduce todo hacia el bien, porque incluso hace salir de la tumba la vida. (Papa Francisco, Homilía de la Vigilia Pascual, 2020)

Al igual que Jesús, nosotros también resucitamos en este día, pero de la muerte del pecado y renacemos por las aguas vivificantes del bautismo mientras renovamos nuestras promesas bautismales como lo hacemos cada Domingo de Pascua. Sirven como un recordatorio de que estamos llamados a compartir la esperanza de Cristo resucitado con el mundo.

Gracias por celebrar con nosotros durante esta Semana Santa y Domingo de Pascua. Llevemos ahora el mensaje de Cristo, nuestra esperanza, a un mundo cada vez más secular, a un mundo que ha olvidado cómo tener esperanza, a un mundo que necesita testigos audaces de la resurrección: ¡testigos de esperanza como ustedes!

¡Felices Pascuas!

Que Dios los bendiga a todos,

CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION MONTH

This is a five-part series for April, Child Abuse Prevention Month. It is the perfect time to reflect, review, and remind everyone of the Archdiocese of Miami's commitment to the Protection of Children and Young People as per the Bishops' Charter through its own Safe Environment Policy. It began with the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops' meeting in Dallas of 2002 and continues to this day. The ADOM, with 102 churches, 5 missions, 1 shrine, 56 brick and mortar schools and 1 virtual school, as well as Catholic Charities and Catholic Health Services has worked diligently from the very beginning to provide awareness of the nature of abuse and the tools for prevention of abuse by creating policies and changing processes for the sole purpose of protecting the most vulnerable among us. The ADOM also includes vulnerable adults in their policies for protection. The goal is to change the hearts, minds, and behaviors, regarding this crime.

Part 2—The monumental task of protecting the most vulnerable among us can only be done with an army of angels. We call them Local Coordinators. They stand as the first line of protection and perhaps more than anyone else are a catalyst for changing hearts, minds and behaviors regarding the crime of child abuse. They are the people carefully selected at our parishes, schools, and entities to oversee compliance and record keeping of the Safe Environment Policy for their site. Get to know the Local Coordinator at your site and you will see they are dedicated, credible, and trustworthy stewards for this mission. For more on the ADOM Office of Safe Environment's efforts please visit our website at www.miamiarch.org under the Protecting God's Children Ministry.

Divine Mercy Sunday Holy Hour

In a series of revelations to St. Maria Faustina Kowalska in the 1930s, our Lord called for a special feast day to be celebrated on the Sunday after Easter. Today, we know that feast as Divine Mercy Sunday, named by Pope St. John Paul II at the canonization of St. Faustina on April 30, 2000.

Join us next Sunday, April 16th at 3:00pm for a special Divine Mercy Holy Hour inside the church.

"On that day are opened all the divine floodgates through which graces flow. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet."

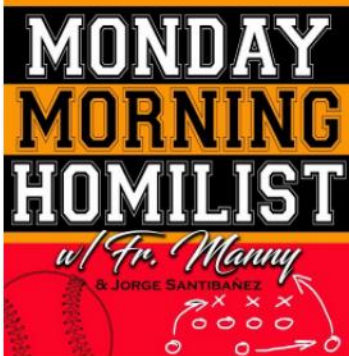

LITTLE FLOWER CONCERT SERIES

SERAPHIC FIRE PRESENTS: FIRST | LAST FRIDAY, APRIL 28TH — 8:00PM

To honor the conclusion of our 20th Anniversary season, Seraphic Fire celebrates with a program containing both the oldest and newest pieces in our repertoire. William Billings' Invocation was the first work performed by Seraphic Fire, and the first line of this American hymn—"Majestic God, our Muse inspire, and fill us with Seraphic fire"—is the source for the ensemble's name. Shawn Crouch's The Road From Hiroshima was the first piece of music commissioned and premiered by Seraphic Fire. Representing Seraphic Fire's newest projects are three world premiere performances of works by Alvaro Bermudez, Sydney Guillaume, and Tawnie Olson. The ensemble's first performance of Thomas Tallis' massive 40-voice motet Spem in alium is the icing on the birthday cake in this celebration of 20 years of glorious music.
