FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Friends:

Being a missionary is an essential part of being a Christian. In the Great Commissioning at the end of gospel of Matthew, Jesus tells his disciples and tells us: "Go therefore, and make disciples of all nations... (MT 28:19)." Each of us are called to be missionaries, to bring Christ into the lives of others, and to spread the love of Christ in word and, more importantly, in deed. Too often we think of missionaries as the bold Catholics who take the gospel to far off lands, but make no mistake, we must be missionaries here in our parish, our school, our homes, and our work.

But today we do bring in the missionaries from foreign lands here to the parish to remind us that the church extends far beyond our parish boundaries. Last week at the conclusion of World Youth Day, Pope Francis pointed out the beautiful symmetry of having the next World Youth Day in Seoul, South Korea in the Far East after celebrating it in Lisbon in the western tip of Europe. He said it speaks to the universality of the Church. We must always be aware of our brothers and sisters in Christ who practice their faith in every corner of the world. Many do so facing great hardships like persecution, war, or great poverty. Yet the faith of the poor and the persecuted moves mountains because they cling to the one thing, the one person who can never be taken away from them: Jesus Christ!

This Sunday, we welcome the missionaries from Amor en Acción (Love in Action). Many of them are parishioners here at Little Flower, and while they usually go to other parishes in the country to make their missionary appeal, the Archdiocesan Mission Office assigned them to come this weekend to our parish to tell us about the work they do in Haiti and the Dominican Republic. Here's a little more information about them from their website:

Amor en Acción is a missionary community of the Archdiocese of Miami, formed in 1976 by a group of young immigrants. They were inspired by the principle of "faith without actions is dead" (James 2:14), seeking ways to share that love they experienced in Christ with those living in poverty and suffering oppression.

The group was officially established as a lay missionary community, working early in the Dominican Republic with the blessing and sponsorship of then Archbishop Edward A. McCarthy. In 1979 his direction and guidance led Amor en Acción to begin collaborating in Haiti, as the missionary arm of the Archdiocese of Miami in its Sister Diocese relationship with the Diocese of Port-au-Prince in Haiti.

Today with the blessing and guidance of Archbishop Thomas Wenski, that relationship of solidarity with our Sister Diocese continues, and also in other areas in Haiti and in Dominican Republic.

It is the personal encounter in Christ experienced by members in short term mission trips and ongoing reflection, which fuels the missionary zeal and also the long-term commitment to projects of evangelization, education, nutrition, and development. Amor en Acción continues to be primarily a volunteer missionary effort, enriched by its roots in a migrant story, and called to live mission in ordinary life, in extraordinary ways.

These missionaries are extraordinary as they take care of our brothers and sisters on the island of Hispaniola. I ask you to listen to their remarkable witness because much like their name, this is the Church at work bringing the love of Christ to very impoverished places.

Now usually, a second collection would be taken up to help the missionaries of our parish, but since we had a second collection last week for our seminarians, and since these poor brothers and sisters are in dire need of our help, the parish is going to donate $10,000 from our COTLF Charities. You have been amazingly generous when it comes to contributing to the poor box over the last few months, which allows us to give those monies directly to the poorest of the poor. If you would personally like to give an extra donation to Amor en Acción, you can do so online by scanning the QR code below.

I would also like to invite you to seriously consider joining Amor en Acción on one of their mission trips, or any of the other wonderful missionary groups we have in the Archdiocese. I know that just this summer, we have had many young people from our parish, many of them alumni from our school, participate in the Blue Missions and the Belen Youth Missions. We are so proud of these young people for following Jesus' mandate to bring his love to the entire world especially to the poorest among us.

God bless you all,

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PARROCO

Mis Queridos Amigos:

Ser misionero es una parte esencial de ser cristiano. En la Gran Comisión al final del evangelio de Mateo, Jesús les dice a sus discípulos y nos dice: "Id, pues, y haced discípulos a todas las naciones... (Mateo 28:19)." Cada uno de nosotros está llamado a ser misioneros, a llevar a Cristo a la vida de los demás y a difundir el amor de Cristo en palabras y, lo que es más importante, en hechos. Con demasiada frecuencia pensamos en los misioneros como los católicos audaces que llevan el evangelio a tierras lejanas, pero no se equivoquen, debemos ser misioneros aquí en nuestra parroquia, nuestra escuela, nuestros hogares y nuestro trabajo.

Pero hoy traemos a los misioneros de tierras extranjeras aquí a la parroquia para recordarnos que la iglesia se extiende mucho más allá de los límites de nuestra parroquia. La semana pasada, al concluir la Jornada Mundial de la Juventud, el Papa Francisco señaló la hermosa simetría de tener la próxima Jornada Mundial de la Juventud en Seúl, Corea del Sur, en el Lejano Oriente, después de celebrarla en Lisboa, en el extremo occidental de Europa. Dijo que habla de la universalidad de la Iglesia. Debemos estar siempre conscientes de nuestros hermanos y hermanas en Cristo que practican su fe en todos los rincones del mundo. Muchos lo hacen enfrentando grandes dificultades como persecución, guerra o gran pobreza. Sin embargo, la fe de los pobres y los perseguidos mueve montañas porque se aferran a una sola cosa, a la única persona que nunca puede ser quitada de ellos: ¡Jesucristo!

Este domingo, damos la bienvenida a los misioneros de Amor en Acción. Muchos de ellos son feligreses aquí en Little Flower, y aunque generalmente van a otras parroquias en el país para hacer su llamamiento misionero, la Oficina de Misión Arquidiocesana los asignó para venir este fin de semana a nuestra parroquia para contarnos sobre el trabajo que hacen en Haití y la República Dominicana. Aquí hay un poco más de información sobre ellos desde su sitio web:

Amor en Acción es una comunidad misionera de la Arquidiócesis de Miami, formada en 1976 por un grupo de jóvenes inmigrantes. Fueron inspirados por el principio de "la fe sin acciones está muerta" (Santiago 2:14), buscando maneras de compartir ese amor que experimentaron en Cristo con aquellos que viven en la pobreza y sufren opresión.

El grupo se estableció oficialmente como una comunidad misionera laica, trabajando temprano en la República Dominicana con la bendición y el patrocinio del entonces arzobispo Edward A. McCarthy. En 1979, su dirección y guía llevaron a Amor en Acción a comenzar a colaborar en Haití, como el brazo misionero de la Arquidiócesis de Miami en su relación de Diócesis Hermana con la Diócesis de Port-au-Prince en Haití. Hoy, con la bendición y la guía del arzobispo Thomas Wenski, esa relación de solidaridad con nuestra diócesis hermana continúa, y también en otras áreas de Haití y República Dominicana.

Es el encuentro personal en Cristo experimentado por los miembros en viajes misioneros a corto plazo y la reflexión permanente, lo que alimenta el sello misionero y también el compromiso a largo plazo con proyectos de evangelización, educación, nutrición y desarrollo. Amor en Acción sigue siendo principalmente un esfuerzo misionero voluntario, enriquecido por sus raíces en una historia migrante, y llamado a vivir la misión en la vida ordinaria, de maneras extraordinarias.

Estos misioneros son extraordinarios al cuidar de nuestros hermanos y hermanas en la isla de La Española. Les pido que escuchen su notable testimonio porque, al igual que su nombre, esta es la Iglesia trabajando, llevando el amor de Cristo a lugares muy empobrecidos.

Ahora, por lo general, se tomaría una segunda colecta para ayudar a los misioneros de nuestra parroquia, pero como tuvimos una segunda colecta la semana pasada para nuestros seminaristas, y dado que estos pobres hermanos y hermanas necesitan urgentemente nuestra ayuda, la parroquia va a donar $10,000 de nuestras organizaciones benéficas COTLF. Uste ha sido increíblemente generoso cuando se trata de contribuir a la caja de pobres en los últimos meses, lo que nos permite dar ese dinero directamente a los más pobres de los pobres. Si personalmente desea hacer una donación adicional a Amor en Acción, puede hacerlo en línea escaneando el código QR a continuación. También me gustaría invitarlos a considerar seriamente unirse a Amor en Acción en uno de sus viajes misioneros, o cualquiera de los otros maravillosos grupos misioneros que tenemos en la Arquidiócesis. Sé que justo este verano, hemos tenido muchos jóvenes de nuestra parroquia, muchos de ellos ex alumnos de nuestra escuela, participando en las Misiones Azules y las Misiones Juveniles de Belén. Estamos muy orgullosos de estos jóvenes por seguir el mandato de Jesús de llevar su amor al mundo entero, especialmente a los más pobres entre nosotros.

Que Dios los bendiga a todos,

Peter and the disciples were in a boat in the middle of the sea. They were amazed to see Jesus walking toward them on the water! Peter needed faith to step out of the boat and walk with Jesus.

Have you met Coogie the Dumpster Cat

A s a kitten in 2017, he was abandoned in a Miami dumpster and brought to me by a friend who knew I rescued strays. Now, he is the STAR of his own children's book series that I am writing and donating my profits to charity.

A s fate would have it, Coogie was most likely born on July 7th, the day my late husband went to Heaven. I truly believe he was sent to help me through that incredible loss.

Now, together, we are "paying it forward" to help others.
