FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Friends:

Today we celebrate World Mission Sunday which falls on October 22 which would normally be the feast day of our beloved Pope St. John Paul II. On this Mission Sunday back in 1997, he proclaimed our patroness, St. Therese of Lisieux, a doctor of the church. I thought it was only appropriate to share excerpts from the saintly pope's homily on that momentous day:

Thérèse Martin, a discalced Carmelite of Lisieux, ardently desired to be a missionary. She was one, to the point that she could be proclaimed patroness of the missions. Jesus himself showed her how she could live this vocation: by fully practicing the commandment of love, she would be immersed in the very heart of the Church's mission, supporting those who proclaim the Gospel with the mysterious power of prayer and communion. Thus she achieved what the Second Vatican Council emphasized in teaching that the Church is missionary by nature (cf. Ad gentes, n. 2). Not only those who choose the missionary life but all the baptized are in some way sent ad gentes.

This is why I chose this missionary Sunday to proclaim St Thérèse of the Child Jesus and the Holy Face a doctor of the universal Church: a woman, a young person, a contemplative. Everyone thus realizes that today something surprising is happening. St Thérèse of Lisieux was unable to attend a university or engage in systematic study. She died young: nevertheless, from this day forward she will be honoured as a doctor of the Church, an outstanding recognition which raises her in the esteem of the entire Christian community far beyond any academic title.

Thérèse of Lisieux did not only grasp and describe the profound truth of Love as the centre and heart of the Church, but in her short life she lived it intensely. It is precisely this convergence of doctrine and concrete experience, of truth and life, of teaching and practice, which shines with particular brightness in this saint, and which makes her an attractive model especially for young people and for those who are seeking true meaning for their life.

Before the emptiness of so many words, Thérèse offers another solution, the one Word of salvation which, understood and lived in silence, becomes a source of renewed life. She counters a rational culture, so often overcome by practical materialism, with the disarming simplicity of the "little way" which, by returning to the essentials, leads to the secret of all life: the divine Love that surrounds and penetrates every human venture. In a time like ours, so frequently marked by an ephemeral and hedonistic culture, this new doctor of the Church proves to be remarkably effective in enlightening the mind and heart of those who hunger and thirst for truth and love.

St Thérèse is presented as a doctor of the Church on the day we are celebrating World Mission Sunday. She had the ardent desire to dedicate herself to proclaiming the Gospel, and she would have liked to have crowned her witness with the supreme sacrifice of martyrdom (cf. Ms B, 3r^o). Moreover, her intense personal commitment supporting the apostolic work of Fr Maurice Bellière and Fr Adolphe Rulland, missionaries respectively in Africa and China, is well-known. In her zealous love for evangelization, Thérèse had one ideal, as she herself says: "What we ask of him is to work for his glory, to love him and to make him loved" (Letter 220).

The way she took to reach this ideal of life is not that of the great undertakings reserved for the few, but on the contrary, a way within everyone's reach, the "little way", a path of trust and total self-abandonment to the Lord's grace. It is not a prosaic way, as if it were less demanding. It is in fact a demanding reality, as the Gospel always is. But it is a way in which one is imbued with a sense of trusting abandonment to divine mercy, which makes even the most rigorous spiritual commitment light.

Because of this way in which she receives everything as "grace", because she puts her relationship with Christ and her choice of love at the centre of everything, because of the place she gives to the ardent impulses of the heart on her spiritual journey, Thérèse of Lisieux is a saint who remains young despite the passing years, and she is held up as an eminent model and guide on the path of Christians...

Yes, O Father, we bless you, together with Jesus (cf. Mt 11: 25), because you have "hidden your secrets from the wise and understanding" and have revealed them to this "little one" whom today you hold up again for our attention and imitation.

Thank you for the wisdom you gave her, making her an exceptional witness and teacher of life for the whole Church!

Thank you for the love you poured out upon her and which continues to illumine and warm hearts, spurring them to holiness.

The desire Thérèse expressed to "spend her heaven doing good on earth" (Opere Complete, p. 1050), continues to be fulfilled in a marvellous way.

Thank you Father, for making her close to us today with a new title, to the praise and glory of your name for ever and ever. Amen!

God bless you all,

Fr. Mary

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PARROCO

Mis Queridos Amigos:

Hoy celebramos la Jornada Mundial de las Misiones que este año cae el 22 de octubre que normalmente es la fiesta de nuestro querido Papa San Juan Pablo II. En el domingo de las misiones del 1997, Juan Pablo declaró a Santa Teresita del Niño Jesús una doctora de la Iglesia. Pienso oportuno en este día compartir partes de la homilía del papa que predico en ese día maravilloso que honro a nuestra patrona:

Teresa Martín, carmelita descalza de Lisieux, deseaba ardientemente ser misionera. Y lo fue, hasta el punto de que pudo ser proclamada patrona de las misiones. Jesús mismo le mostró de qué modo podía vivir esa vocación: practicando en plenitud el mandamiento del amor, se introduciría en el corazón mismo de la misión de la Iglesia, sosteniendo con la fuerza misteriosa de la oración y de la comunión a los heraldos del Evangelio. Así, ella realizó lo que subrayó el concilio Vaticano II, cuando enseñó que la Iglesia, por su naturaleza, es misionera (cf. Ad gentes, 2). No sólo los que escogen la vida misionera, sino también todos los bautizados, de alguna manera, son enviados ad gentes.

Por eso, he querido escoger este domingo misionero para proclamar Doctora de la Iglesia universal a santa Teresa del Niño Jesús y de la Santa Faz: una mujer, una joven y una contemplativa. Todos percibimos, por consiguiente, que hoy se está realizando algo sorprendente. Santa Teresa de Lisieux no pudo acudir a universidades ni realizar estudios sistemáticos. Murió muy joven y, a pesar de ello, desde hoy tendrá el honor de ser Doctora de la Iglesia, un notable reconocimiento que la exalta en la estima de toda la comunidad cristiana más de lo que pudiera hacer un "título académico".

Teresa de Lisieux no sólo captó y describió la profunda verdad del amor como centro y corazón de la Iglesia, sino que la vivió intensamente en su breve existencia. Precisamente esta convergencia entre la doctrina y la experiencia concreta, entre la verdad y la vida, entre la enseñanza y la práctica, resplandece con particular claridad en esta santa, convirtiéndola en un modelo atractivo especialmente para los jóvenes y para los que buscan el sentido auténtico de su vida.

Frente al vacío espiritual de tantas palabras, Teresa presenta otra solución: la única Palabra de salvación que, comprendida y vivida en el silencio, se transforma en manantial de vida renovada. A una cultura racionalista y muy a menudo impregnada de materialismo práctico, ella contrapone con sencillez desarmante el "caminito" que, remitiendo a lo esencial, lleva al secreto de toda existencia: el amor divino que envuelve y penetra toda la historia humana. En una época, como la nuestra, marcada con gran frecuencia por la cultura de lo efímero y del hedonismo, esta nueva Doctora de la Iglesia se presenta dotada de singular eficacia para iluminar el espíritu y el corazón de quienes tienen sed de verdad y de amor.

Santa Teresa es proclamada Doctora de la Iglesia el día en que celebramos la Jornada mundial de las misiones. Ella abrigó un deseo ardiente de consagrarse al anuncio del Evangelio y hubiera querido coronar su testimonio con el sacrificio supremo del martirio (cf. Ms B, 3 r). Además, es conocido con cuánto empeño sostuvo el trabajo apostólico de los padres Maurice Bellière y Adolphe Roulland, misioneros respectivamente en África y China. En su impulso de amor por la evangelización, Teresa tenía un solo ideal, como ella misma afirma: "Lo que le pedimos es trabajar por su gloria, amarlo y hacerlo amar" (Carta 220).

La senda que recorrió para llegar a este ideal de vida no fue la de las grandes empresas, reservadas a unos pocos, sino una senda que está al alcance de todos, el "caminito", un camino de confianza y de abandono total a la gracia del Señor. No se ha de subestimar este camino, como si fuese menos exigente. En realidad es exigente, como lo es siempre el Evangelio. Pero es un camino impregnado del sentido de confiado abandono a la misericordia divina, que hace ligero incluso el compromiso espiritual más riguroso.

Por este camino, en el que lo recibe todo como "gracia"; por el hecho de que pone en el centro de todo su relación con Cristo y la elección de amor; y por el espacio que da también a los afectos y sentimientos en su itinerario espiritual, Teresa de Lisieux es una santa que permanece joven, a pesar del paso de los años, y se presenta como modelo eminente y guía en el itinerario de los cristianos para nuestro tiempo...

Sí, Padre, te bendecimos, junto con Jesús (cf. Mt 11, 25), porque has ocultado tus secretos "a los sabios y a los inteligentes", y los has revelado a esta "pequeña", que hoy nuevamente propones a nuestra atención y a nuestra imitación.

¡Gracias por la sabiduría que le concediste, convirtiéndola en testigo singular y maestra de vida para toda la Iglesia!

¡Gracias por el amor que derramaste en ella, y que sigue iluminando y calentando los corazones, impulsándolos hacia la santidad!

El deseo que Teresa expresó de "pasar su cielo haciendo el bien en la tierra" sigue cumpliéndose de modo admirable.

¡Gracias, Padre, porque hoy nos la haces cercana de una manera nueva, para alabanza y gloria de tu nombre por los siglos! Amén.

Que Dios los bendiga a todos,

Fr. Manny

Building On Our Legacy

Centennial Prayer

O Lord God Almighty, by sending Your only Son to establish the One True Church through the power of the Holy Spirit, you gave humanity a sanctuary from the world.

Have you met Coogie the Dumpster Cat

As a kitten in 2017, he was abandoned in a Miami dumpster and brought to me by a friend who knew I rescued strays. Now, he is the STAR of his own children's book series that I am writing and donating my profits to charity.

As fate would have it, Coogie was most likely born on July 7th, the day my late husband went to Heaven. I truly believe he was sent to help me through that incredible loss.

Now, together, we are "paying it forward" to help others.
