FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Friends:

"A voice cries out: In the desert prepare the way of the LORD! Make straight in the wasteland a highway for our God!" (Isaiah 40:3)

Remember those Christmases when you were a child when you didn't get the gift you wanted? You kept opening present after present looking for that one gift that you wanted above everything else. But alas, it was not under the tree. You smiled half-heartedly playing with the toys that you received but were disappointed because you had just spent all of December expecting something that never came. As adults, we still long for certain things. Sometimes it's events. For example, many young people long for the day they meet Mr. or Mrs. Right or finish college. For parents, they may long for the day their kids finally graduate and leave the house. For local sports fans, we long for our Dolphins to win the Super Bowl (sigh). Most of these things may or may not happen, but yet there is still a hope that drives us.

In today's readings, we see three instances where God's people expected something that never came. (1) The first reading was directed to the Jews who were exiled in Babylon. They longed to return to Jerusalem, and they eagerly anticipated the Messiah to be the one that would lead them back and restore Jerusalem to its glory. They would eventually return to Jerusalem, but alas, the Messiah had not yet arrived and they found a city and a temple left in ruins that had to be rebuilt. (2) In the gospel, we hear the preaching of John the Baptist announcing the imminent arrival of the Messiah. However, many expected a militant Messiah, as the Babylonian Jews did, who would lead them victoriously over the Romans and restore the glory of Israel as it was during the time of King David. The Messiah did come, but it was not the Messiah that people had expected. (3) The first Christian community kept hearing over and over again that Christ's return was imminent, and they lived lives of joyful expectation. However, like a disappointed child on Christmas morning, they didn't get what they longed for. Yet, they were still hopeful which should be the attitude of every Christian not only during Advent but throughout the year.

All of us long for many things. These longings and wishes are particularly present around this time of year. We long for happiness, peace, financial security, love, health, but unfortunately none of these things will magically appear under our tree on Christmas morning. The only thing we can be certain that we will receive this Christmas is the presence of our Lord. How we receive him is entirely up to us. We hear the voice of John the Baptist in today's gospel telling us to prepare the way of the Lord and make straight his paths, but the Lord isn't going to force his way into our hearts on Christmas Day. We have to prepare a place for him. We have to clear a direct path, a highway without obstacles or tolls if you will, so that he can totally take over our hearts. And if we do prepare a place for him, he will be all that we need on that day. A heart overflowing with the love of Christ has no need for anything else because it has all that it needs and desires. This Advent season is a time of preparation, a time of filling in valleys and tearing down mountains to ensure that Lord's path to our hearts is straight and direct. When I was a child, I may not have found the present I wanted underneath the Christmas tree every year, but I did always find a little child lying in a manger. I know now what I didn't know then: Christ is all I need this Christmas.

God bless you all,

Fo Many

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PARROCO

Mis queridos amigos,

¡"Una voz clama: ¡Preparad en el desierto el camino del Señor! ¡Enderezad en el páramo un camino para nuestro Dios!" (Isaías 40:3.)

¿Recuerdas esas Navidades cuando eras niño cuando no recibías el regalo que querías? Seguiste abriendo regalo tras regalo buscando ese regalo que querías por encima de todo lo demás. Pero, por desgracia, no estaba debajo del árbol. Sonreíste a medias jugando con los juguetes que recibiste, pero te decepcionaste porque acababas de pasar todo diciembre esperando algo que nunca llegó. Como adultos, todavía anhelamos ciertas cosas. A veces son los acontecimientos. Por ejemplo, muchos jóvenes anhelan el día en que conozcan a su pareja o terminen la universidad. Para los padres, es posible que anhelen el día en que sus hijos finalmente se gradúen y se vayan de la casa. Para los fanáticos de los deportes locales, anhelamos que nuestros Dolphin ganen el Super Bowl (suspiro). La mayoría de estas cosas pueden suceder o no, pero aún así hay una esperanza que nos impulsa.

En las lecturas de hoy, vemos tres casos en los que el pueblo de Dios esperaba algo que nunca llegó. (1) La primera lectura estaba dirigida a los judíos que estaban exiliados en Babilonia. Anhelaban regresar a Jerusalén, y esperaban ansiosamente que el Mesías sería el que los quiaría de regreso y restauraría a Jerusalén a su gloria. Eventualmente regresarían a Jerusalén, pero por desgracia, el Mesías aún no había llegado y encontraron una ciudad y un templo en ruinas que tuvieron que ser reconstruidos. (2) En el evangelio, escuchamos la predicación de Juan el Bautista anunciando la inminente llegada del Mesías. Sin embargo, muchos esperaban un Mesías militante, como lo hicieron los judíos babilonios, que los guiaría victoriosamente sobre los romanos y restauraría la gloria de Israel tal como era durante el tiempo del rey David. El Mesías vino, pero no era el Mesías que la gente esperaba. (3) La primera comunidad cristiana escuchó una y otra vez que el regreso de Cristo era inminente, y vivieron vidas de gozosa expectación. Sin embargo, como un niño decepcionado en la mañana de Navidad, no obtuvieron lo que anhelaban. Sin embargo, todavía tenían la esperanza de cuál debería ser la actitud de cada cristiano no solo durante el Adviento, sino durante todo el año.

Todos anhelamos muchas cosas. Estos anhelos y deseos están particularmente presentes en esta época del año. Anhelamos la felicidad, la paz, la seguridad financiera, el amor, la salud, pero desafortunadamente ninguna de estas cosas aparecerá mágicamente debajo de nuestro árbol en la mañana de Navidad. Lo único de lo que podemos estar seguros de que recibiremos esta Navidad es la presencia de nuestro Señor. La forma en que lo recibamos depende enteramente de nosotros. Escuchamos la voz de Juan el Bautista en el evangelio de hoy diciéndonos que preparemos el camino del Señor y enderecemos sus sendas, pero el Señor no va a forzar su camino en nuestros corazones el día de Navidad. Tenemos que prepararle un lugar. Tenemos que despejar un camino directo, una autopista sin obstáculos ni peajes, por así decirlo, para que él pueda apoderarse totalmente de nuestros corazones. Y si preparamos un lugar para él, él será todo lo que necesitamos en ese día. Un corazón rebosante del amor de Cristo no tiene necesidad de nada más porque tiene todo lo que necesita y desea. Este tiempo de Adviento es un tiempo de preparación, un tiempo de llenar valles y derribar montañas para asegurar que el camino del Señor a nuestros corazones sea recto y directo. Cuando era niño, es posible que no encontrara el regalo que guería debajo del árbol de Navidad todos los años, pero siempre encontraba a un niño pequeño acostado en un pesebre. Ahora sé lo que no sabía entonces: Cristo es todo lo que necesito esta Navidad.

Que Dios los bendiga a todos,

Fe Many

CAURCH OF THE LITTLE FLOWER & ST. THERESA CATHOLIC SCHOOL

The 2023 COTLF-STS Parish Fair, presented by Casa Smiles, was, by all measures, another overwhelming success!

We would like to thank the Parish Fair Committee and all our dedicated COTLF/STS parents and staff who came out to volunteer throughout the weekend.

From the setup on Thursday and Friday through clean-up on Sunday night, and everything in between, this past weekend was a showcase of our parish community at its finest. We hope you were all able to come out and enjoy the festivities, eat some delicious food, hop onto the exhilarating rides, and simply enjoy being together as a community. And if you didn't get a chance to enjoy it this year, we hope you'll do do so next year! With the Centennial projects on the horizon, we still don't know exactly what the Parish Fair might look like next year, but it is our full intention to bring it back in some capacity next December.

Visit www.parishfair.org to see photos from the weekend and to check out the raffle results. Winners were notified individually, but all winning ticket numbers are now posted online.

Thank you all for another amazing Parish Fair experience!!

WELCOME, MARCH FOR LIFE PILGRIMS

This weekend, we welcome to the 10:30am Mass the Archdiocese of Miami Office of Family Life and all ADOM pilgrims who will be traveling to Washington, DC in January for the National March for Life. Among our Archdiocesan delegation of pilgrims are 19 COTLF parishioners.

The March for Life is an inspiring, peaceful, vibrant, and joy-filled rally of women, men, young people, and children from all across the country. Every year, tens of thousands of pro-lifers converge on the National Mall and march on Capitol Hill on the anniversary of the Supreme Court's 1973 Roe v. Wade ruling which legalized abortion in all 50 states. It's the largest annual human rights demonstration in the world. But this is not just a protest... TOGETHER, WE GATHER TO CELEBRATE LIFE. We celebrate each and every life, from the moment of conception. We envision a world where every life is celebrated, valued, and protected.

The National March for Life will be held on Friday, January 19, 2024. #WhyWeMarch

DONATE GIFTS TO THE COTLF GIVING TREE

Th COTLF Christmas Giving Tree is now up in the vestibule of the church. All gifts donated to the Giving Tree are passed along to the Daughters of Charity of Saint Vincent de Paul, who distribute them to children and families in need from throughout our local community. All donated gifts should be wrapped and clearly marked "Boy" or "Girl" with an appropriate age range.

The last day to donate gifts will be Wednesday, December 20th.

Thank you for your generosity!

DIACONATE ORDINATION OF SKINATH PERERA

On Saturday, December 16th, the Archdiocese of Miami will be celebrating the Ordination of Deacons at the Cathedral of Saint Mary. Among this year's men who have been called to orders is Srinath Perera, a longtime and dedicated parishioner of Church of the Little Flower. Please join us in praying for Srinath, and all those called to orders, as they prepare for ordination this coming weekend.

ADVENT CONFESSIONS

This Saturday, December 16th, only two (2) priests will be available for regular Saturday Confessions, from 8:30am to 10:00am in the church.

Next Wednesday, December 20th, all our house priests will be available to hear confessions, beginning at 7:00pm, until all penitents have had the opportunity to go to confession.
