FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Friends:

Happy Feast of the Holy Family! We pray you had a beautiful Christmas last week. Our Masses were overflowing as friends, young and old, came to our beautiful church to pay homage to the Newborn King. I must thank everyone who made Christmas Eve and Christmas Day such a great success, starting with those who decorated our church to make it look so beautiful to our amazing choir(s) and all the liturgical ministers who helped on such a busy weekend. Your priests are naturally tired but overjoyed from seeing so many people. On behalf of all the priests who serve here, we also want to thank all the parishioners who brought us gifts or food to the rectory over the last two weeks. We cannot thank you enough for your generosity. And as your pastor, I want to thank all of you who made such generous Christmas offerings last week and for all those who during the last few weeks made pledges to our Centennial Campaign. We are indeed blessed as a parish!

On this day dedicated to the Holy Family, I wanted to share with you a reflection from Pope St. John Paul II that he offered on the family on this exact date 23 years ago during the Great Jubilee of the Year 2000:

In an atmosphere of Christmas joy, today we are celebrating the Feast of the Holy Family. This year it falls on 31 December, the last day of the year. Is it not providential that the Year 2000, the year that seals a millennium, should end in the sign of the family?

We turn our gaze from the crib to the humble dwelling of Nazareth. Having become our brother, Jesus wanted to experience family life. Thus he became part of the first, fundamental cell of society, in this way giving perennially valid recognition to the most common of human institutions.

For us believers, the family, a reflection of Trinitarian communion, finds its model in the family of Nazareth, where the human history of the Redeemer and his parents unfolded. We think of the difficulties Mary and Joseph had to face at Jesus' birth and then during their exile in Egypt to escape Herod's persecution. Nazareth has also become the symbol of that "normality" of daily life which marks every family's existence.

Looking today at that Holy House, our thoughts turn to the many families of our time who are in difficult situations. Some of them suffer from extreme poverty; others are forced to seek in foreign countries what they unfortunately lack in their homeland; still others find within their own families serious problems caused by the rapid cultural and social changes which at times overwhelm them. And what can be said of the many attacks on the family institution itself? All this shows how urgent it is to rediscover the value of the family and to help it in every way to be, as God wanted it, the vital environment where every child who comes into the world is welcomed with tenderness and gratitude from the moment of his conception; a place marked by a serene atmosphere that encourages the harmonious human and spiritual development of all its members.

May the Holy Family, whom we venerate today, obtain this gift for every family and help them to be a little "domestic church", a school of human and religious virtues...

As this year draws to a close, let us invoke the Lord's forgiveness for the shortcomings that have marked our personal and community life. Only in this way can our thanksgiving for the many benefits we have received be true and sincere.

As we begin a new year, I pray God shower you and all our families with abundant blessings and graces in 2024.

Happy New Year!

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PARROCO

Mis queridos amigos,

¡Feliz día de la Sagrada Familia! Espero que hayan tenido una hermosa Navidad la semana pasada. Nuestras Misas rebosaron cuando amigos, jóvenes y mayores, vinieron a nuestra hermosa iglesia para rendir homenaje al Niño Rey. Debo agradecer a todos los que hicieron que la Noche Buena y el día de Navidad fueran un gran éxito, empezando por aquellos que decoraron nuestra iglesia para que se viera tan hermosa, a nuestros increíbles coros y a todos los ministros litúrgicos que ayudaron en un fin de semana tan ajetreado. Sus sacerdotes están naturalmente cansados pero encantados de ver a tanta gente. En nombre de todos los sacerdotes que sirven aquí, también queremos agradecer a todos los feligreses que nos trajeron regalos o alimentos a la rectoría durante las últimas dos semanas. No podemos agradecerle lo suficiente su generosidad. Y como su párroco, quiero agradecerles a todos ustedes que hicieron ofrendas navideñas tan generosas la semana pasada y también a los que contribuyeron a la campaña del centenario.

En este día dedicado a la Sagrada Familia, quisiera compartir una reflexión del Papa San Juan Pablo II que ofreció sobre la familia en este mismo día hace 23 años durante el Gran Jubileo del Año 2000:

En el clima de alegría, propio de la Navidad, celebramos hoy la fiesta de la Sagrada Familia. Este año cae el 31 de diciembre, último día del año. ¿No es providencial que el año 2000, el que cierra un milenio, concluya bajo el signo de la familia?

Desde el belén nuestra mirada se dirige idealmente a la humilde morada de Nazaret. Jesús, que se hizo nuestro hermano, quiso vivir la experiencia de la familia. Así se insertó en la primera y fundamental célula de la sociedad, dando de este modo un reconocimiento de validez perenne a la más común entre las instituciones humanas.

Para nosotros, creyentes, la familia, reflejo de la comunión trinitaria, tiene como modelo a la de Nazaret, en cuyo seno se desarrolló la historia humana del Redentor y de sus padres. Pensemos en las dificultades que María y José debieron afrontar con ocasión del nacimiento de Jesús; y, luego, durante su exilio en Egipto, para huir de la persecución de Herodes. Nazaret ha llegado a ser también el símbolo de la "normalidad" de la vida diaria, característica de la existencia de toda familia.

Al contemplar hoy esa casa santa, el pensamiento va a las numerosas familias que, en nuestro tiempo, se hallan en situaciones difíciles. Algunas están marcadas por una pobreza extrema; otras se ven obligadas a buscar en países extranjeros lo que, por desgracia, les falta en su patria; y otras, incluso, encuentran en su seno serios problemas a causa de la rápida transformación cultural y social que a veces las trastorna. Y ¿qué decir de los numerosos atentados contra la institución misma de la familia? Todo esto muestra cuán urgente es redescubrir el valor de la familia y ayudarle, con todos los medios posibles, a ser, como Dios la quiso, ambiente vital donde cada niño que viene al mundo sea acogido desde su concepción con ternura y gratitud; lugar donde se respire un clima sereno que favorezca en todos sus miembros un armonioso desarrollo humano y espiritual.

La Sagrada Familia, que hoy veneramos, obtenga este don a cada hogar y le ayude a ser una pequeña "iglesia doméstica", escuela de virtudes humanas y religiosas...

Mientras se cierra este año, invoquemos el perdón del Señor por las faltas que han marcado nuestra existencia personal y comunitaria. Sólo de este modo la acción de gracias por los múltiples beneficios recibidos podrá ser auténtica y sincera.

Les deseo a todos muchas bendiciones particularmente a las familias al comenzar un año nuevo.

¡Feliz Año Nuevo!

Building on Our Legacy

www.cotlf.org/centennial

Thank you, Donors!

We thank all our generous Centennial Campaign donors who have helped push us past the $7 Million mark in just 3 quick months! As we continue our steady climb to our $13 Million goal, we encourage all our families, friends, parishioners and alumni to consider making a sacrificial pledge/gift so that we can continue building on our legacy as a parish and school.

With the calendar now turning to 2024, we hope to be able to sign contracts soon and begin accelerating the work that is needed to have many of our projects completed in time for our Centennial celebrations in 2025–2026. That will only be possible through your generous support! Whether you are a longtime parishioner, a first time visitor to the parish, or have come home to church for Christmas, please consider building on our legacy with a gift to the Centennial Campaign.

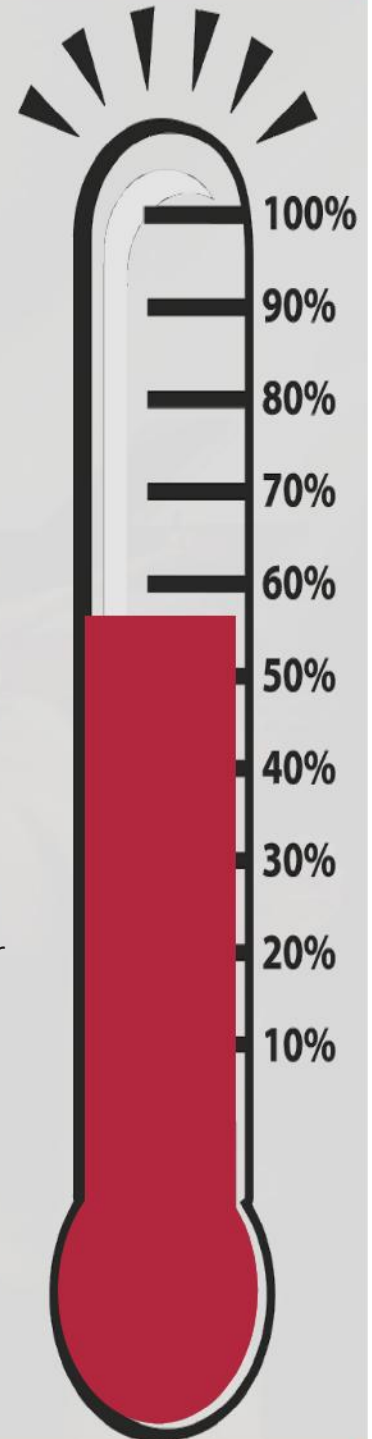

End-of-Year Giving Benefits

This is the final weekend to take advantage of an additional year of charitable giving tax deductions! Any gifts made to the Centennial Campaign this weekend will be reflected on your 2023 Giving Statement. Pledge balance payments may be paid out through all of 2024, 2025, and up to October 2026!

Campaign Progress

CAMPAIGN GOAL: $13,000,000
TOTAL PLEDGED: $7,403,471.75 (57%)

DONATE GIFTS TO THE COTLF GIVING TREE

We thank all our generous COTLF parishioners and friends who donated gifts to the Christmas Giving Tree this year. Over 300 gifts were collected and delivered to the Daughters of Charity of Saint Vincent de Paul, who distribute them to children and families in need from throughout our local community.

An additional batch of donated gifts were also taken down to Peru where they will be distributing to the neediest of families as part of the service project of one of our STS alums.

Thank you all for your generosity!

2024 Catholic Art Calendars

The 2024 Catholic Art Calendars were distributed at all Masses the weekend of December 16th and 17th. A limited supply remains available for pickup in the parish office during our regular hours, Mon-Fri, 8:00am to 4:00pm

We thank our longtime calendar sponsors, Pilar Hopkins & Associates Realty Inc., The Law Office of Patricia Bango Diaz, and SeaChange Solutions, Inc. for their continued support and we hope you enjoy the beautiful 2024 Calendars!

SOLEMNITY OF MARY, THE HOLY MOTHER OF GOD

Because January 1st falls on a Monday this year, the Solemnity of Mary, the Holy Mother of God is not a Holy Day of Obligation.

We will still celebrate a special Mass schedule for the day and invite all parishioners to begin the new year gathered together around the Altar, turning in prayer to our Blessed Mother and asking for her intercession throughout the new year ahead.

*Mass will be celebrated on Monday, January 1st at 9:00am, 10:30am, and 5:30pm in English
12:30pm in Spanish/Español*

"THAT MAN IS YOU!"

TMIY is an interactive men's program combining the best research from science with the teachings of the Catholic faith and the wisdom of the saints to develop the vision of man fully alive. By honestly addressing the pressures and temptations that men face in our modern culture, That Man is You! seeks to form men who will be capable of transforming homes and society.

Discover:

- † The Scriptural vision of man and the overwhelming scientific evidence that supports this vision.
- † The four leadership roles that have been entrusted to men and the five personal traits necessary for fulfilling these leadership roles.
- † How and why Satan always attacks the union of man and woman.
- † The three main obstacles to living as authentic men and the means for overcoming them.
- † The wonderful renewal God is offering to men and their families through the Church.

COTLF's TMIY! Group meets on Tuesday mornings, at 7:45am in Comber Hall.
