FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Friends,

As we continue our Lenten journey, like Jesus in the desert, we are often led to where we do not want to go. This is part of the great adventure of being a Christian: that as you follow Christ, he leads us down paths that we would not normally follow. Lent is also a time to correct those habits that become obstacles in the spiritual life. For me, it's not looking at my watch during times of prayer and shutting out the entire world to focus solely on the Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. Christ deserves nothing but our full attention, and Lent is the time to perfect our relationship with our Lord especially when it comes to worship.

As the spiritual father of this parish community, there are a few things that I would like to bring to your attention when it comes to our celebration of the Sunday Mass. As I have often said, Sunday Mass is the most important thing we do as a parish. It is more important than any of our ministries, more important than any class taught in our school, and more important than any retreat. As such, we must bring everything we are and commit our entire hearts to this celebration since that is precisely what Christ does for us when He becomes present in the Eucharist. So, I want to offer three small things that we can perfect as a community this Lent.

Last week we printed in the bulletin an update on the balcony being inaccessible because of the move of the choir upstairs and our need to perfect what I call "the art of scooting." Four of our five Sunday Masses are thankfully at capacity, and with the balcony no longer being a seating option, we've created standing room only which most times is not necessary because there are plenty of space available in the pews...if we make room for our fellow parishioners. Thus, "the art of scooting." If you like to sit on the aisle, and trust me, I get you because I don't board a plane unless my ticket is for an aisle seat, we invite you to sit along the center aisle because late comers don't come in through the center aisle since the middle gate is closed once the presider walks in. For those on you who enter the pews on the side aisles, we invite you to "scoot" or sit towards the middle to make it easier for our ushers to find available seating for other parishioners and visitors. Another tip: sit towards the front. So many times we have a packed church and people standing along the walls and in the vestibule with plenty of available seating up near he front. Sitting closer to the altar also helps us eliminate distractions.

The second suggestion is just a gentle reminder that is given to us at the beginning of every Mass: please put your cell phones on silent. Lately, our priests have noticed an uptick in cell phones going off during Mass. Let's leave the outside world behind and shut out exterior noise.

The last bit of pastoral advice is a little tricky but very necessary: please stay until the liturgy has concluded. We are so grateful that you are here, and we know that many of you put great effort into coming to Mass, but it saddens your priests when you receive Communion and dash out the door and are not present for the final blessing or give us an opportunity to greet you once Mass has ended. This doesn't happen in all Masses. I'll be bold and call out the Masses where this happens all too frequently: the 7:30 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. Masses. When it comes to the 7:30 a.m. Mass, there is no music, and the Mass rarely makes it to 45 minutes. What's the hurry? At 5:30 p.m., there are times the presider is walking out of the church and the back half of the church is already gone. It's not only that your priests want to joyfully greet you after Mass, it's what message are we sending our children, our fellow parishioners, and more importantly, Our Lord when we do not stay until the end of the most important thing we will do all week. Do we leave before a movie is finished? (And this is a poor analogy to compare a movie to the Mass but worth reflecting on.) Yes, I know there are parishioners who have sick relatives and families with young children at home who make great efforts to come to Mass, but this does not apply to everyone. Let us give our Sunday best to our Lord who gives us His very self in the Eucharist. Our Lord asked his disciples in the Garden of Gethsemane: "So you could not keep watch with me for one hour?" (Matthew 26:40) That's all our Lord asks from us when it comes to observing the Sabbath.

May we grow as a parish community during this Lenten season in perfecting our celebration of the Holy Eucharist. Everything we are and everything we do as a parish flows from what we do and what we bring to this altar. Let's bring our total self freed from all distractions and committed to spend a heavenly hour with our Savior.

God bless you all,

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PARROCO

Mis Queridos Amigos,

A medida que continuamos nuestro camino de Cuaresma, como Jesús en el desierto, a menudo somos guiados a donde no queremos ir. Esto es parte de la gran aventura de ser cristiano: que, al seguir a Cristo, Él nos lleva por caminos que normalmente no seguiríamos. La Cuaresma es también un tiempo para corregir aquellos hábitos que se convierten en obstáculos en la vida espiritual. Para mí, no es mirar mi reloj durante los momentos de oración y cerrar el mundo entero para concentrarme únicamente en el Señor en el Santísimo Sacramento. Cristo no merece nada más que toda nuestra atención, y la Cuaresma es el tiempo para perfeccionar nuestra relación con nuestro Señor, especialmente cuando se trata de adoración.

Como padre espiritual de esta comunidad parroquial, hay algunas cosas que me gustaría llamar su atención cuando se trata de nuestra celebración de la Misa dominical. Como he dicho a menudo, la misa dominical es lo más importante que hacemos como parroquia. Es más importante que cualquiera de nuestros ministerios, más importante que cualquier clase que se enseñe en nuestra escuela, y más importante que cualquier retiro. Como tal, debemos traer todo lo que somos y comprometer todo nuestro corazón a esta celebración, ya que eso es precisamente lo que Cristo hace por nosotros cuando se hace presente en la Eucaristía. Por lo tanto, quiero ofrecer tres pequeñas cosas que podemos perfeccionar como comunidad en esta Cuaresma.

La semana pasada publicamos en el boletín una actualización sobre el hecho de que el balcón es inaccesible debido a la mudanza del coro al piso de arriba y nuestra necesidad de perfeccionar lo que yo llamo "el arte de hacer espacio". Afortunadamente, cuatro de nuestras cinco misas dominicales están al límite de su capacidad, y dado que el balcón ya no es una opción para sentarse, hemos creado solo espacio para estar de pie, lo que la mayoría de las veces no es necesario porque hay mucho espacio disponible en los bancos... si hacemos espacio para nuestros feligreses. Por lo tanto, "el arte de hacer espacio". Si te gusta sentarte en el pasillo, y créeme, te entiendo porque no abordo un avión a menos que mi boleto sea para un asiento en el pasillo, te invitamos a sentarte a lo largo del pasillo central porque los que llegan tarde no entran por el pasillo central ya que la puerta del medio se cierra una vez que entra el sacerdote. Para aquellos que ingresan a las bancas en los pasillos laterales, los invitamos a sentarse hacia el medio para que sea más fácil para nuestros ujieres encontrar asientos disponibles para otros feligreses y visitantes. Otro consejo: siéntate hacia el frente. Muchas veces tenemos una iglesia llena y gente de pie a lo largo de las paredes y en el vestíbulo con muchos asientos disponibles cerca del frente. Sentarnos más cerca del altar también nos ayuda a eliminar las distracciones.

La segunda sugerencia es solo un amable recordatorio que se nos da al comienzo de cada Misa: por favor, pongan sus teléfonos celulares en silencio. Últimamente, nuestros sacerdotes han notado un aumento en los teléfonos celulares que suenan durante la misa. Dejemos atrás el mundo exterior y cerremos el ruido exterior.

El último consejo pastoral es un poco complicado pero muy necesario: por favor, quédense hasta que la liturgia haya concluido. Estamos muy agradecidos de que estén aquí, y sabemos que muchos de ustedes hacen un gran esfuerzo para venir a Misa, pero entristece a sus sacerdotes cuando reciben la Comunión y salen corriendo por la puerta y no están presentes para la bendición final o nos dan la oportunidad de saludarlos una vez que la Misa ha terminado. Esto no sucede en todas las misas. Seré audaz y llamaré a las misas donde esto sucede con demasiada frecuencia: las misas de las 7:30 a.m. y las 5:30 p.m. Cuando se trata de la misa de las 7:30 a.m., no hay música, y la misa rara vez llega a los 45 minutos. ¿Cuál es la prisa? A las 5:30 p.m., hay momentos en que el sacerdote está saliendo de la iglesia y la mitad trasera de la iglesia ya se ha ido. No es solo que sus sacerdotes quieran saludarlo con alegría después de la misa, pero qué mensaje estamos enviando a nuestros hijos, a nuestros feligreses y, lo que es más importante, a Nuestro Señor cuando no nos quedamos hasta el final de lo más importante que haremos en toda la semana. ¿Nos vamos antes de que termine una película? (Y esta es una mala analogía para comparar una película con la misa, pero vale la pena reflexionar sobre ella). Sí, sé que hay feligreses que tienen parientes enfermos y familias con niños pequeños en casa que hacen grandes esfuerzos para venir a misa, pero esto no se aplica a todos. Demos lo mejor de nuestro domingo a nuestro Señor, que nos da a sí mismo en la Eucaristía. Nuestro Señor preguntó a sus discípulos en el Jardín de Getsemani: "¿Así que no pudisteis velar conmigo ni una hora?" (Mateo 26:40.) Eso es todo lo que nuestro Señor nos pide cuando se trata de observar el sábado.

Que crezcamos como comunidad parroquial durante este tiempo de Cuaresma en el perfeccionamiento de nuestra celebración de la Sagrada Eucaristía. Todo lo que somos y todo lo que hacemos como parroquia fluye de lo que hacemos y de lo que traemos al altar. Liberémonos de todas las distracciones y comprometámonos a pasar una hora celestial con nuestro Salvador.

Que Dios los bendiga a todos,

Fr. Manning

HOMELESS MINISTRY MISSION HOPE PROJECT

Help People with a Fresh Start in Life

During the month of February, the Homeless Ministry at the Church of the Little Flower will be participating in a "Mission Hope" hygiene kit campaign benefiting the Caring Place (Miami Rescue Mission). As part of this campaign, we have secured over 100 empty purple plastic bags that need to be filled with personal hygiene items for homeless men and women in need. Instead of collecting food items this month, we will be collecting the following personal hygiene items for both men and women: Soap Bars, Shampoo, Deodorant, Toothpaste, Toothbrushes, Shaving Cream, Disposable Razors, Baby Wipes, Combs, and Brushes.
(Note: Please make sure these are not travel sized items).

Personal hygiene items can be dropped off during the following weekend masses at the designated COTLF Homeless Ministry Donation Collection Area inside the church:

- Saturday, February 17, 2024 (Evening Mass)\
- Sunday, February 18, 2024
- Saturday, February 24, 2024 (Evening Mass)
- Sunday, February 25, 2024

Gospel

Today's Gospel story is called the Transfiguration. Jesus went to the top of a mountain with some of His disciples and He suddenly looked different. His clothes were bright white! Elijah and Moses appeared on the mountain with Jesus.
