A MESSAGE FROM FR. ANDREW

UN MENSAJE DEL PADRE ANDREW

"This is how it is with the kingdom of God; it is as if a man were to scatter seed on the land and would sleep and rise night and day and through it all the seed would sprout and grow, he knows not how." How appropriate this Sunday's Gospel is for a priest's farewell from a parish community that he loves! I am simply a laborer in Christ's mission field, scattering seeds where I can, offering the presence of Jesus Christ through the exercise of His priesthood. Little Flower is my second priestly assignment and the point from which I begin a new journey as a parish administrator. This parish and this area have always been home for me, close to my family and many friends. So, this move is bittersweet.

But, we laborers always follow the Lord's call, wherever it takes us. That is an important lesson for all of us as we journey through life. I want to thank all of you for making me one of your own, for always having a kind word, and most of all, for your prayers. A priest lives on the prayers of his people. I want to thank Fr. Manny for his fatherhood, his mentorship, and his friendship to me these two years. He sets the tone for a wonderful rectory that is full of lively priestly fraternity. I thank my brother priests, Frs. Stephen, Uko, Escamez, and Francis for being such good brothers as I continue to grow in my early years of priestly ministry. I thank the Carmelite sisters for their steadfast prayer and dedication to their ministry and to priests. Serving at St. Theresa School was a constant source of joy in my daily life.

I could not have asked for a better two years of ministry. There is absolutely nothing I would change. 84 weddings, 82 funerals, and 39 baptisms later, like the laborer in the field, I pray that the seeds I have sown in my time at Little Flower bear abundant fruit for the Lord. I will not see most of them, but that is precisely how it should be. The labor of sowing seeds continues in a new field, a new corner of the Lord's Kingdom at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton parish in Coral Springs. Brothers and sisters, until next time, may God abundantly bless all of you!

Fr. Andrew Tomonto

"El Reino de Dios se parece a lo que sucede cuando un hombre siembra la semilla en la tierra: que pasan las noches y los días, y sin que él sepa cómo, la semilla germina y crece." Qué apropiado es el Evangelio de este domingo para la despedida de un sacerdote de una comunidad parroquial que ama! Soy simplemente un trabajador en el campo misionero de Cristo, esparciendo semillas donde puedo, ofreciendo la presencia de Jesucristo mediante el ejercicio de Su sacerdocio. Little Flower es mi segundo encargo sacerdotal y el punto desde el cual comienzo un nuevo camino como administrador parroquial. Esta parroquia y esta zona siempre han sido mi hogar, cerca de mi familia y de muchos amigos. Así que esta medida es agridulce.

Pero nosotros, los trabajadores, siempre seguimos el llamado del Señor, dondequiera que nos lleve. Ésa es una lección importante para todos nosotros en nuestro viaje por la vida. Quiero agradecerles a todos por hacerme uno de los suyos, por tener siempre una palabra amable y, sobre todo, por sus oraciones. Un sacerdote vive de las oraciones de su pueblo. Quiero agradecer al P. Manny por su paternidad, su tutoría y su amistad conmigo estos dos años. Él marca el tono de una maravillosa rectoría llena de animada fraternidad sacerdotal. Agradezco a mis hermanos sacerdotes, los PP. Stephen, Uko, Escamez y Francis por ser tan buenos hermanos a medida que sigo creciendo en mis primeros años de ministerio sacerdotal. Agradezco a las hermanas Carmelitas por su constante oración y dedicación a su ministerio y a los sacerdotes. Servir en la escuela St. Theresa fue una fuente constante de alegría en mi vida diaria.

No podría haber pedido dos años mejores de ministerio. No hay absolutamente nada que cambiaría. 84 bodas, 82 funerales y 39 bautismos después, como el trabajador del campo, oro para que las semillas que he sembrado en mi tiempo en Little Flower den frutos abundantes para el Señor. No veré la mayoría de ellos, pero así es precisamente como debería ser. La labor de sembrar semillas continúa en un nuevo campo, un nuevo rincón del Reino del Señor en la parroquia St. Elizabeth Ann Seton en Coral Springs. Hermanos, hasta la próxima, ¡que Dios los bendiga abundantemente a todos!

Padre Andrew Tomonoto

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PARROCO

My Dear Friends,

Since Father Andrew has written the regular bulletin column, I just wanted to write down a few words of thanks for his service to our parish during the last two years. He has been a good and faithful servant and a wonderful spiritual father to all of you. His well-prepared and inspiring homilies have been a source of inspiration and comfort for our community. To the priests of the house, he has been a loyal brother and confidante. His tireless work ethic is going to serve him well as he gets a parish of his own at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton. We will miss him, but the Lord is calling him now to minister to the good people of Coral Springs. I can think of no better day to celebrate his last Mass with us as our vicar than Father's Day because he has been a good father to us all.

On a personal note, I will miss the comradery we shared watching sporting events, collaborating on parish projects, and trying to solve the world's problems over meals. He is a true friend and brother. A priest is always called to go where the Holy Spirit takes him. Yes, it is always hard on the people the priest leaves behind, but I always say that it is harder on the priest since we all stay behind together, and he goes off on his own. The Spirit of the Lord goes with him, and he will do great things in that corner of God's vineyard. Please keep Father Andrew in your prayers as he begins this new assignment. May Christ the Good Shepherd be his model as he becomes a pastor, and may his priestly heart always beat in sync with the Sacred Heart of Our Lord Jesus Christ.

God bless you all,

Mis Queridos Amigos,

Ya que el Padre Andrew ha escrito la columna regular del boletín, solo quería expresar unas palabras de agradecimiento por su servicio a nuestra parroquia durante los últimos dos años. Ha sido un buen y fiel servidor y un maravilloso padre espiritual para todos ustedes. Sus homilias bien preparadas e inspiradoras han sido una fuente de inspiración y consuelo para nuestra comunidad. Para los sacerdotes de la casa, ha sido un hermano leal y confidente. Su incansable ética de trabajo le servirá bien ahora que tendrá su propia parroquia en St. Elizabeth Ann Seton. Lo extrañaremos, pero el Señor lo llama ahora para ministrar a las buenas personas de Coral Springs. No puedo pensar en un mejor día para celebrar su última misa con nosotros como nuestro vicario que el Día del Padre, porque ha sido un buen padre para todos nosotros.

En una nota personal, extrañaré la camaradería que compartimos viendo eventos deportivos, colaborando en proyectos parroquiales y tratando de resolver los problemas del mundo durante las comidas. Él es un verdadero amigo y hermano. Un sacerdote siempre está llamado a ir donde el Espíritu Santo lo lleve. Sí, siempre es difícil para las personas a las que el sacerdote deja atrás, pero siempre digo que es más difícil para el sacerdote, ya que todos nos quedamos juntos y él se va solo. El Espíritu del Señor lo acompaña, y hará grandes cosas en ese rincón de la viña de Dios. Por favor, mantengan al Padre Andrew en sus oraciones mientras comienza esta nueva asignación. Que Cristo el Buen Pastor sea su modelo mientras se convierte en pastor, y que su corazón sacerdotal siempre lata al unísono con el Sagrado Corazón de Nuestro Señor Jesucristo.

Que Dios los bendiga a todos,

EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

PAPAL QUOTES ON ADORATION

Pope John Paul II

"Through adoration, the Christian mysteriously contributes to the radical transformation of the world and to the sowing of the Gospel. Anyone who prays to the Savior draws the whole world with him and raises it to God. Those who stand before the Lord are therefore fulfilling an eminent service. They are presenting to Christ all those who do not know him or are far from him; they keep watch in his presence on their behalf."
(Letter, June 26, 1996)

"Our witness, however, would be hopelessly inadequate if we ourselves had not first contemplated his face."
(Novo Millennio Ineunte, #16)

Pope Benedict XVI

"Adoration is a prayer that prolongs Eucharistic celebration and communion, during which the soul continues to nourish itself: it feeds on love, on truth, on peace. It feeds on hope, because he before whom we bow does not judge us, does not crush us, but who liberates and transforms us."
(Homily for Corpus Christi, May 22, 2008)

"In the Eucharist, the Son of God comes to meet us and desires to become one with us; Eucharistic adoration is simply the natural consequence of the Eucharistic celebration, which is itself the Church's supreme act of adoration. Receiving the Eucharist means adoring him whom we receive. Only in this way do we become one with him, and are given, as it were, a foretaste of the beauty of the heavenly liturgy. The act of adoration outside Mass prolongs and intensifies all that takes place during the liturgical celebration itself...."
(Sacramentum Caritatis, #66)

SAINT QUOTES

"When you look at the crucifix, you understand how much Jesus loved you then. When you look at the Sacred Host, you understand how much Jesus loves you now." — Mother Teresa

"We must always have courage, and if some spiritual languor comes upon us, let us run to the feet of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, and let us place ourselves in the midst of the heavenly perfumes, and we will undoubtedly regain our strength." — St. Padre Pio

"Heaven for me is hidden in a little Host Where Jesus, my Spouse, is veiled for love. I go to that Divine Furnace to draw out life, and there my Sweet Saviour listens to me night and day." — St. Therese of Lisieux

Gospel

Jesus compared the kingdom of God to a mustard seed. The seed is tiny when it is planted, but it becomes a GIANT tree. The tree that comes from the tiny seed grows so big that birds can live in the branches! The kingdom of God grows and grows like a mustard seed.
