FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Friends:

This coming week we celebrate the feast of our patroness, St. Thérèse of Lisieux, the Little Flower. There is so much wisdom that I keep discovering every time I open up her "Story of a Soul," so much spiritual brilliance in such a young woman, and so much insight into how to become a saint.

A few days ago, I was speaking with a parishioner and I was telling him that my only concern in this life, my only concern as pastor of this great parish is the salvation of each and every one of your souls. In other words, my only concern is that through my priesthood, I help each of you become saints. Ambitious? Yes! Impossible? Absolutely not! St. Thérèse our patroness shows us the way.

As I was preparing to write these words, I opened up her autobiography and this is the first page I saw:

"Our Lord made me understand that the only true glory is that which lasts forever; and that to attain it there is no necessity to do brilliant deeds, but rather to hide from the eyes of others, and even from oneself, so that "the left hand knows not what the right hand does"... Then, as I reflected that I was born for great things, and sought the means to attain them, it was made known to me interiorly that my personal glory would never reveal itself before the eyes of men, but that it would consist in becoming a Saint."

This aspiration may very well appear rash, seeing how imperfect I was, and am, even now, after so many years of religious life; yet I still feel the same daring confidence that one day I shall become a great Saint. I am not trusting in my own merits, for I have none; but I trust in Him Who is Virtue and Holiness itself. It is He alone Who, pleased with my feeble efforts, will raise me to Himself, and, by clothing me with His merits, make me a Saint."

Lord Jesus, make us saints. Make us a parish longing for sainthood.

This simple prayer mirrors the simplicity of Thérèse. We don't need long prayers or grandiose gestures to be saints. We DO need the grace of God above all things. Yes, some more than others starting with your pastor. And some may think sainthood is boring and bland but all you need to do is see the joy and simplicity of our Carmelite Sisters, a community to which St. Thérèse belonged. Their joy is contagious. Their joy is divine. They have a great love for priests. Every Holy Thursday, our Carmelite Sisters come over to the rectory to serenade our priests and thank us for our priesthood. On this day as we prepare for the feast of our patroness, I thank our Carmelites for their love for their priests and for all the hours they spend in prayer for us. They have our back as we long to save souls.

Thérèse also worried about saving lost souls. She longed to go on missions but was confined to her monastery, so she teaches us that we must long for sainthood to conquer souls for Christ by our example. Now more than ever, we need a Church filled with saints. "I am not trusting in my own merits, for I have none; but I trust in Him Who is Virtue and Holiness itself." We can't do this on our own. God alone can accomplish in us what we consider impossible. And Thérèse will spend her eternity showering roses upon this parish that honors her and praying we achieve this lofty but attainable goal. Let us be meek and childlike as our patroness was, and may our prayer this day simply be:

Lord Jesus, make us saints. Make us a parish longing for sainthood.

God bless you all,

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PÁRROCO

Mis queridos amigos,

Esta próxima semana celebramos la fiesta de nuestra patrona, Santa Teresita del Niño Jesús, la Pequeña Flor. Sigo descubriendo tanta sabiduría cada vez que abro su "Historia de un alma", tanta brillantez espiritual en una mujer tan joven, y con tanta visión de cómo convertirse en una santa.

Hace unos días, estaba hablando con un feligrés y le decía que mi única preocupación en esta vida, mi única preocupación como párroco de esta gran parroquia es la salvación de todas y cada una de sus almas. En otras palabras, mi única preocupación es que, por medio de mi sacerdocio, yo ayudo a cada uno de ustedes a convertirse en santos. ¿Ambicioso? ¡Sí! ¿Imposible? ¡Absolutamente no! Santa Teresa nuestra patrona nos muestra el camino.

Mientras me preparaba para escribir estas palabras, abrí su autobiografía y esta es la primera página que vi:

"Dios me daba a entender que la verdadera gloria es la que ha de durar para siempre y que para alcanzarla no es necesario hacer obras deslumbrantes, sino esconderse y practicar la virtud de manera que "la mano izquierda no sepa lo que hace la derecha"... Pensé que había nacido para la gloria, y, buscando la forma de alcanzarla, Dios me inspiró comprender que mi gloria no brillaría ante los ojos de los mortales, sino que consistiría en ¡llegar a ser una gran santa!

Este deseo podría parecer temerario, si se tiene en cuenta lo débil e imperfecta que yo era, y que aún soy después de siete años vividos en religión. No obstante, sigo teniendo la misma confianza audaz de llegar a ser una gran santa, pues no me apoyo en mis méritos —que no tengo ninguno—, sino en Aquel que es la Virtud y la Santidad mismas. Sólo él, contentándose con mis débiles esfuerzos, me elevará hasta él y, cubriéndome con sus méritos infinitos, me hará santa.

Señor Jesús, haznos santos. Haznos ser una parroquia anhelando la santidad.

Esta oración sencilla refleja la simplicidad de Teresa. No necesitamos oraciones largas ni gestos grandiosos para ser santos. Lo que necesitamos es la gracia de Dios por encima de todas las cosas. Sí, algunos más que otros empezando con su párroco. Y algunos pueden pensar que la santidad es aburrida y sosa, pero todo lo que tienen que hacer es ver la alegría y la sencillez de nuestras monjitas Carmelitas, una comunidad a la que pertenecía Santa Teresa. Su alegría es contagiosa. Su alegría es divina. Tienen un amor tan grande para el sacerdocio. Todos los Jueves Santo, nuestras Hermanas Carmelitas acudieron a la rectoría para darle una serenata a nuestros sacerdotes y agradecer nuestro sacerdocio. En día, agradezco a nuestras Carmelitas por el amor por sus sacerdotes y por todas las horas que pasan en oración por nosotros. Nos brindan su apoyo mientras anhelamos salvar almas.

Santa Teresita también se preocupó por salvar almas perdidas. Ella anhelaba ir en misiones, pero estaba confinada a su monasterio, por lo que nos enseña que debemos anhelar la santidad para conquistar las almas para Cristo con nuestro ejemplo. Ahora más que nunca, necesitamos una Iglesia llena de santos. "No estoy confiando en mis propios méritos, porque no tengo ninguno; pero confío en Aquel que es virtud y santidad en sí mismo". No podemos hacer esto por nuestra cuenta. Sólo Dios puede lograr en nosotros lo que consideramos imposible. Y Teresa pasará su eternidad derramando rosas sobre esta parroquia que la honra y rezando que logremos esta meta alta pero alcanzable. Seamos mansos y sencillos como lo fue nuestra patrona, y que nuestra oración de este día sea simplemente:

Señor Jesús, haznos santos. Haznos ser una parroquia anhelando la santidad.

Que Dios los bendiga a todos,

CELEBRATE life

EJERCICIOS ESPIRITUALES DE SAN IGNACIO

Los Ejercicios Espirituales de San Ignacio de Loyola son una secuencia ordenada de meditaciones y contemplaciones -ejercicios- que surgen de la profunda experiencia espiritual que el santo vive a partir de su conversión; su objetivo es ayudar al que se ejercita en ellos a descubrir cuál es la voluntad de Dios para su vida. Los Ejercicios se remontan al Cuaderno de notas en el que Ignacio describe sus experiencias espirituales durante su visita a la ciudad de Manresa, donde —como lo escribe en su Autobiografía - “le trataba Dios de la misma manera que trata un maestro de escuela a un niño, enseñándole.”

Los Ejercicios Espirituales de San Ignacio se ofrecerán aquí en la parroquia comenzando el lunes, 23 de septiembre a las 7:30pm en la oficina parroquial, y continuando cada lunes hasta el Abril del 2025 (30 sesiones).
