FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Friends,

"Put out into deep water and lower your nets for a catch." (Luke 5:4)

This is a story that I love to tell in relationship with this gospel:

Ever since I can remember, my father has been taking me fishing. Now that I'm a priest, we usually do it in the summer when I'm on vacation. We've fished from piers, bridges, beaches, skiffs, big party boats and our own personal boat. We always go to the Florida Keys and never stray too far from shore choosing to fish the back country which is always fun. One summer years ago, we were blessed with a week of unprecedented great weather. Great weather for fishing means having no wind. We've never spent a week with no wind in the Keys, but that is what the Good Lord gave us. The first morning we were there my father kicked me out of bed and simply said, "Let's go fishing." Again, not a drop of wind and my father plots a course on the GPS out to the Atlantic Ocean. Now I'm not necessarily afraid of the sea, I just have a profound respect for it. My father wanted to go fishing for big yellow-tail snappers, so we were going into very deep waters that were unknown to me that were normally very rough and choppy. But not on this day. The sea was calm. As soon as we dropped the first line, we got a bite and then another and then...well it was as close to the miraculous catch in the Gospel as we were going to get. We spent five and half hours out there with no wind, in the scorching sun, reeling in fish after fish. Unfortunately, because of Florida Wildlife Laws, we couldn't haul in enough fish to cause the boat to sink, but we did do enough damage out there that we were thoroughly satisfied with the catch. All because we put out into deep water. Even though it is unknown, there is always something joyful and satisfying to be found there.

The Lord is inviting us to go to the deep water this Sunday. We cannot accomplish much staying close to shore where we are comfortable and feel safe. We need to be challenged and that is what Jesus is doing today. We have to deepen our faith, abandon the status quo, throw our nets down to see what blessings we will catch.

To use another timely analogy on this Super Bowl Sunday, Jesus wants us to "go deep." In football, the safe play is to run the ball, play it close to the vest, throw short passes. But every now and then if you want to be really successful, you have to throw the ball deep to stretch the defense and look for the quick score and allow you to run other plays more effectively. Of course, going deep has risks, but the rewards are great. Those teams that play it safe and can't go deep don't make it very far.

God has a plan for each and every one of us. To deviate from it is to go against his will. He wants us to go out into the deep, uncharted, and unknown waters. There we will find great blessings and the ability to deepen our relationship with him. Will it be challenging? Will we experience some fear as the disciples do? Yes. But if Jesus is calling us into the deep, how can we possibly be afraid of where is inviting us to go? It was only out in the deep that Simon fell to his knees and realized the possibilities, unworthy as he was, of a relationship with this Jesus. Imagine what God has in store for you if you get out of your comfort zone and allow him to lead you out into those rich, bountiful, and teeming deep waters.

God bless you all,

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PARROCO

Mis Queridos Amigos,

"Lleva la barca mar adentro y echen las redes para pesca". (Lucas 5:4.)

Esta es una historia que me encanta contar en relación con este evangelio:

Desde que tengo uso de razón, mi padre me ha llevado a pescar. Ahora que soy sacerdote, usualmente lo hacemos en verano cuando estoy de vacaciones. Hemos pescado desde muelles, puentes, playas, esquifes, grandes barcos de fiesta y nuestro propio barco personal. Siempre vamos a los Cayos de Florida y nunca nos alejamos demasiado de la costa, eligiendo pescar en el campo, lo cual siempre es divertido. Un verano hace años, fuimos bendecidos con una semana de buen tiempo sin precedentes. Un buen clima para la pesca significa que no hay viento. Nunca hemos pasado una semana sin viento en los Cayos, pero eso es lo que el Buen Dios nos dio. La primera mañana que estuvimos allí, mi padre me echó de la cama y simplemente dijo: "Vamos a pescar". De nuevo, ni una gota de viento y mi padre traza un rumbo en el GPS hacia el Océano Atlántico. Ahora bien, no necesariamente le tengo miedo al mar, simplemente tengo un profundo respeto por él. Mi padre quería ir a pescar pargos grandes de cola amarilla, así que nos adentrábamos en aguas muy profundas que eran desconocidas para mí, que normalmente son muy revueltas. Pero no en este día. El mar estaba en calma. Tan pronto como bajamos la primera línea, nos dieron un bocado y luego otro y luego... bueno, era lo más cercano a la pesca milagrosa en el Evangelio que íbamos a conseguir. Pasamos cinco horas y media sin viento, bajo un sol abrasador, pescando pez tras pez. Desafortunadamente, debido a las Leyes de Vida Silvestre de Florida, no pudimos pescar suficientes peces para que el barco se hundiera, pero hicimos suficiente daño como para quedar completamente satisfechos con la captura. Todo porque nos adentramos en aguas profundas. Aunque sea desconocido, siempre hay algo alegre y satisfactorio que se puede encontrar allí.

El Señor nos invita a ir a las aguas profundas este domingo. No podemos lograr mucho quedándonos cerca de la costa, donde estamos cómodos y nos sentimos seguros. Necesitamos ser desafiados y eso es lo que Jesús está haciendo hoy. Tenemos que profundizar nuestra fe, abandonar el statu quo, tirar nuestras redes para ver qué bendiciones recibiremos.

Para usar otra analogía oportuna en este domingo del Super Bowl, Jesús quiere que "profundicemos". En el fútbol, la jugada segura es correr el balón, jugarlo cerca del chaleco, lanzar pases cortos. Pero de vez en cuando, si quieres tener mucho éxito, tienes que lanzar la pelota profunda para estirar la defensa y buscar la anotación rápida y permitirte ejecutar otras jugadas de manera más efectiva. Por supuesto, profundizar tiene riesgos, pero las recompensas son grandes. Esos equipos que juegan a lo seguro no llegan muy lejos.

Dios tiene un plan para todos y cada uno de nosotros. Desviarse de ella es ir en contra de su voluntad. Él quiere que salgamos a aguas profundas y desconocidas. Allí encontraremos grandes bendiciones y la capacidad de profundizar nuestra relación con él. ¿Será un reto? ¿Experimentaremos algo de miedo como lo hacen los discípulos? Sí. Pero si Jesús nos está llamando al abismo, ¿cómo es posible que tengamos miedo a dónde nos invita a ir? Fue solo en el abismo que Simón cayó de rodillas y se dio cuenta de las posibilidades, indigno como era, de una relación con este Jesús. Imagina lo que Dios tiene reservado para ti si sales de tu zona de confort y le permites que te guíe a esas aguas ricas, abundantes y profundas.

Dios los bendiga a todos,

January Update

2025 marks a huge milestone in our history as we begin our two-year centennial celebration with St. Theresa School turning 100 this Fall!

Though we're excited to soon start the celebrations, plenty of work still remains ahead. Here are some of the latest updates on our Centennial projects:

- Our Pipe Organ is now being constructed at the Fisk Workshop in Gloucester, MA.
- Work on the interior of the church will commence in June. During the summer months, the balcony will be reinforced to support the weight of the new organ and the entire church will be repainted. The Reredos and side altars will be restored to their original beauty by dedicated artisans who will clean and touch up the many intricate details. The new pews will also be installed during this closure
- We'll soon be celebrating Mass in our original church, like our founding parishioners did, as we move to Comber Hall for all Masses during the summer construction.
- The STS Multipurpose Center has now received the approval from the city's Board of Architects, Historical Board, and Planning & Zoning. Plans now head to the City Commission for approval, which we hope to secure soon.
- Our fundraising continues to steadily progress in both pledges and gifts received. Thank you to all who have already donated! With all our project plans approaching final approval and the start of work on the horizon, the time to give is now, ensuring that we stay on track with our timeline and, ideally, break ground at the school as it opens its doors for the 100th time in August.

The Archbishops's Charities & Development Drive supports the many ministries of the Catholic Church in the three counties of our Archdiocese. These ministries represent concrete ways in which we perform what are called the spiritual and corporal works of mercy. Through your support of the ABCD you help our Catholic Church here in South Florida reach out to those brothers and sisters Jesus speaks about in the Gospel.

- ABCD is our Catholic Charities, our religious education programs, our Catholic schools.
- ABCD is the support of our seminarians and priests.
- ABCD is in our marriage preparation programs, and our lay ministries that form people to minister to the bereaved, the homebound.
- ABCD exists because of the generosity of people like yourselves, people who in good times and in bad times keep their support of the Church on their list of major priorities.

Every gift makes a difference. Thank you and God bless you. Please scan the QR code to make a pledge or gift today.
