FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Friends,

Today we begin a pivotal week in the life of our Church. On Wednesday, May 7, the College of Cardinals enters into the Conclave to elect our next Pope. This should be a time of intense prayer for all of us as we pray to the Holy Spirit to enlighten the minds of the princes of the Church to elect a holy pastor to be the next Successor of Peter.

So how must we, as a believing people, approach this week filled with so much speculation and media frenzy? I already mentioned it above: prayer. The cardinals are counting on our prayers and in fact, a week before they entered the Conclave, they released this statement urging us to pray:

The College of Cardinals gathered in Rome, engaged in the General Congregations in preparation for the Conclave, wishes to invite the People of God to live this ecclesial moment as an event of grace and spiritual discernment, listening to the will of God.

For this reason, the Cardinals, conscious of the responsibility to which they are called, feel the need to be supported by the prayers of all the faithful. This is the true force that in the Church promotes the unity of all the members of the one Body of Christ (cf. 1 Cor 12:12).

Faced with the enormity of the task ahead and the urgency of the present time, it is first of all necessary to make ourselves humble instruments of the infinite wisdom and providence of our Heavenly Father, in docility to the action of the Holy Spirit. Indeed, he is the protagonist of the life of the People of God, the One to whom we must listen, accepting what he is saying to the Church (cf. Rev 3:6).

May the Blessed Virgin Mary accompany these prayers with her maternal intercession.

This statement is a humbly plea for these shepherds tasked with a solemn responsibility to appeal to the Holy Spirit on their behalf. Pray to the Holy Spirit this week. Pray that the mighty wind that came upon the apostles at Pentecost may come upon the cardinals of our Church.

And if I may finish by adding a few pastoral suggestions: the deliberations that have been taking place over the last week and through Wednesday have been secretive, and so will the details of the papal election once they enter into conclave. Any speculation from the media, be it secular or Catholic media, is merely that, speculation. Absolutely, read about the lives of these men, pray for them, and its only human nature to have a "favorite" if you will. But feeding into rumors and speculation are not healthy spiritual attributes to adopt this week. At the end of the day, as I did last week on Divine Mercy Sunday, I looked at the words inscribed at the foot of that image and said simply, "Jesus, I trust in you."

We enter this week with complete trust in our Divine Shepherd that he will send us a good and holy shepherd to lead the Universal Church. How beautiful that this process will play out during the month of Mary who is the Mother of the Church. May she protect this good men and intercede for them. Immerse yourself in prayer. May the Holy Spirit guide our cardinals as they enter into conclave, and may the Holy Spirit guide us in our prayers for our next pope.

Come, Holy Spirit, come!

God bless you all,

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PARROCO

Mis Queridos Amigos,

Hoy comenzamos una semana crucial en la vida de nuestra Iglesia. El miércoles 7 de mayo, el Colegio Cardenalicio entra en Cónclave para elegir a nuestro próximo Papa. Este debería ser un momento de intensa oración para todos nosotros, implorando al Espíritu Santo que ilumine la mente de los príncipes de la Iglesia para elegir a un santo pastor que sea el próximo Sucesor de San Pedro.

Entonces, ¿cómo debemos, como pueblo creyente, afrontar esta semana llena de tanta especulación y frenesí de la prensa y medios sociales? Ya lo mencioné: con oración. Los cardenales cuentan con nuestras oraciones y, de hecho, una semana antes de entrar en Cónclave, publicaron esta declaración instándonos a orar:

El Colegio de los cardenales reunidos en Roma, que están participando en las congregaciones generales para la preparación del cónclave, desea invitar al Pueblo de Dios a vivir este acontecimiento eclesial como un momento de gracia y de discernimiento espiritual, a la escucha de la voluntad de Dios.

Por esta razón los cardenales, conscientes de la responsabilidad a la que están llamados, perciben la necesidad de ser sostenidos por la oración de todos los fieles. Esta es la verdadera fuerza que en la Iglesia favorece la unidad de todos los miembros en el único Cuerpo de Cristo (cf. 1 Co 12,12).

Ante la grandeza de la tarea inminente y a las urgencias de los tiempos presentes, es necesario en primer lugar hacerse instrumentos humildes de la infinita sabiduría y providencia del Padre celestial, en la docilidad a la acción del Espíritu Santo. Él es, en efecto, el protagonista de la vida del Pueblo de Dios, es a Él a quien debemos escuchar, acogiendo lo que dice a la Iglesia (cf. Ap 3,6).

Que la Virgen María acompañe nuestra invocación unánime con su materna intercesión.

Esta declaración es una humilde súplica para estos pastores, encargados de la solemne responsabilidad de invocar al Espíritu Santo en su nombre. Oren al Espíritu Santo esta semana. Oremos para que el viento impetuoso que sopló sobre los apóstoles en Pentecostés también sople sobre los cardenales de nuestra Iglesia.

Y si me permiten terminar añadiendo algunas sugerencias pastorales: las deliberaciones que se han llevado a cabo durante la última semana y hasta el miércoles han sido secretas, al igual que los detalles de la elección papal una vez que se inicie el cónclave. Cualquier especulación de los medios de comunicación, ya sean seculares o católicos, es solo eso, especulación. Por supuesto, lean sobre la vida de estos hombres, oren por ellos, y es propio de la naturaleza humana tener un "favorito", por así decirlo. Pero alimentar rumores y especulaciones no es una actitud espiritual saludable esta semana. Al final, como hice la semana pasada en el Domingo de la Divina Misericordia, miré las palabras inscritas al pie de esa imagen y dije simplemente: "Jesús, en vos confío."

Entramos en esta semana con plena confianza en nuestro Divino Pastor, que nos envíe un pastor bueno y santo para guiar a la Iglesia Universal. Es providencial que este proceso se lleve a cabo durante este mes de María que es la Madre de la Iglesia. Que ella proteja e interceda por estos hombres buenos. Sumérjanse en la oración. Que el Espíritu Santo guíe a nuestros cardenales al entrar en cónclave, y que el Espíritu Santo nos guíe en nuestras oraciones por nuestro próximo papa.

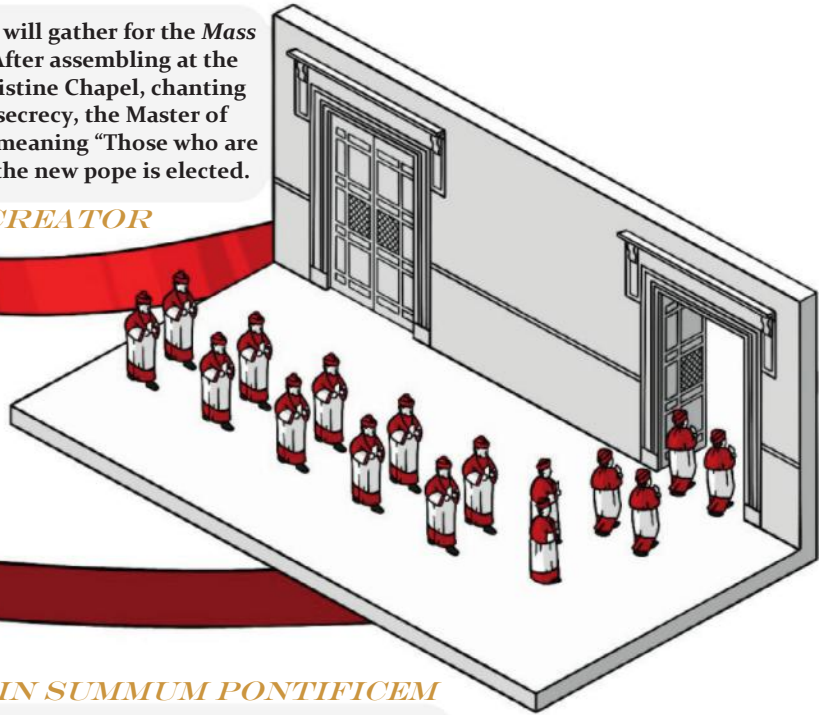

¡Ven, Espíritu Santo, ven!

Dios los bendiga a todos,

THE PAPAL CONCLAVE

On the morning of the first day of the Conclave, the cardinals will gather for the Mass for the Election of the Roman Pontiff in St. Peter's Basilica. After assembling at the Pauline Chapel in choir dress, they will then process to the Sistine Chapel, chanting the "Veni Creator Spiritus." After all have taken an oath of secrecy, the Master of Papal Liturgical Celebrations gives the order, "Extra omnes" (meaning "Those who are extra, leave"). This is the last time we see the cardinals until the new pope is elected.

VENI, CREATOR

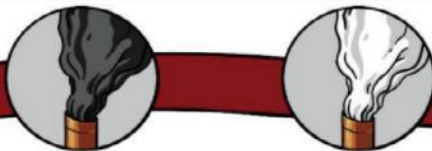

ELIGO IN SUMMUM PONTIFICEM

The following days of the Conclave will include daily Mass, various spiritual talks and conferences, time for prayer, and, of course, the secret voting. There is one vote on the evening of the first day, followed by up to two morning votes and two afternoon votes each day after, until a Cardinal has two-thirds of the total vote.

SMOKE SIGNALS

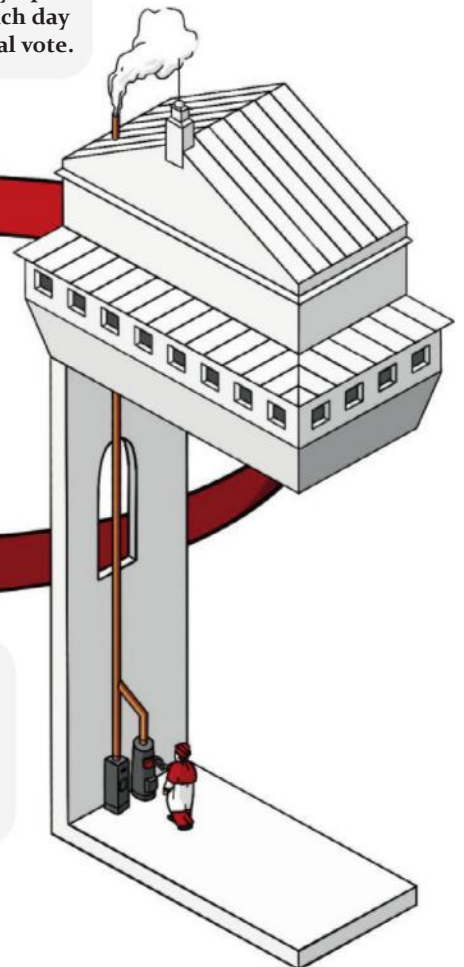

For those outside the Conclave, the only indication of how voting is going comes from the chimney of the Sistine Chapel. All ballots and any notes taken by the Cardinals are burned with special coloring chemicals.

Black smoke means no one has received the two-thirds vote in that session.
White smoke means a new Pope has been elected!

After accepting the election and selecting a name, the newly-elected Pope will go to the "Room of Tears" where he will vest in the Papal robes for the first time. From the balcony of St. Peter's Basilica, the Cardinal Protodeacon will proclaim: "Annuntio vobis gaudium magnum: Habemus Papam!" (I announce to you a great joy: we have a Pope!) The new Pope will then step out onto the balcony to deliver his first apostolic "Urbi et Orbi" blessing.

HABEMUS PAPAM

WEEKLY CONFESSIONS MOVED TO WEDNESDAYS

Over the next two weeks, Confessions and Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament in the church will be moved to Wednesday evening (May 7 and May 14) from 6:00-7:30pm as we will be celebrating the Archdiocesan Priestly Ordinations at the Cathedral of St. Mary and the First Communion Masses of our parish Religious Ed students on Saturday mornings. Confessions will also be available by appointment throughout the week.

MOTHER'S DAY NOVENA BEGINNING MAY 11TH

As is our annual tradition here at COTLF, beginning on Mother's Day, Sunday, May 11th and continuing for the 8 days following, we will be celebrating a special Novena of Masses in honor and remembrance of all mothers.

Parishioners who receive physical envelopes should have received a special Mother's Day Novena Envelope where they can add the names of all mothers they wish to pray for during the Novena.

A special fund has also been created on our Online Giving platform where you can add a novena donation and a note with the names you wish to add to the list. All envelopes and notes received will be placed near the tabernacle in the church for the duration of the Novena, ending Monday, May 19th.

A statue of the Virgin Mary, likely the Our Lady of Luján, is shown standing in a field of purple flowers. She is wearing a white robe and a blue cloak, holding a rosary, and is crowned with a golden crown. The background is a clear blue sky with some clouds.

Join us on Tuesday, May 13th for a special celebration of Our Lady of Fatima. We will begin with the regular 5:30pm Spanish Daily Mass and Consecration to Our Lady, a 6:15pm processional around the church and across the street to the Priest Rectory Lawn, culminating at 7:00pm with the Bi-Annual Outdoor Rosary.
