FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Friends:

June is the month of the Sacred Heart, and this coming Friday, June 12, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus. It is even more significant this year because the Bishops of the United States will consecrate our nation to the Sacred Heart in anticipation of our country's semi quincentennial next month. Allow me to share some words from Archbishop Wenski as we approach this consecration:

On June 11, during their Spring meeting in Orlando, Bishops of the United States will gather at the Basilica Shrine of Mary, Queen of the Universe, to consecrate the United States to the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus. The consecration will celebrate America's semi quincentennial, that is, the two hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

In linking the 250th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence with the devotion to the Sacred Heart, the Bishops invite us to reflect with gratitude on the blessings God has bestowed on our nation but, at the same time, devotion to the Sacred Heart demands that we consider how we might foster truth, justice, and charity in American life. Thus, our celebrations around the Fourth of July will foster a constructive and forward-looking patriotism as opposed to a divisive, exclusionary, blind nationalism...

On the eve of our nation's 250 birthday, we recognize that our American experiment in democracy is still a work in progress. As American Catholics we recognize how far short our nation falls in many areas in forming a more perfect union. But while we recognize flaws and work to correct them, we also acknowledge the blessings of liberty we enjoy in this great country. In spite of extreme polarization, bitter partisanship, and entrenched divisions, we Catholics do not despair of America.

We love America – but let's love her as Jesus loves, not just with a sentimental, saccharine love but with love in truth – a love that is stronger than sin. A love that names the sin not to damn the sinner but to call the sinner to conversion of heart and mind.

For the love that opened its arms on a cross of wood and opened its side to a soldier's lance piercing his heart is love that believes that the sinner can be redeemed.

While predating our nation's independence, devotion to the Sacred Heart has developed over the centuries following the experiences of St. Margaret Mary Alacoque (1643-1690) and the apparitions she witnessed in the seventeenth century. Since then, popes have lauded the practice of consecration of the self, home, and even whole nations to the Sacred Heart. In his encyclical instituting the Solemnity of Christ the King, Pope Pius XI, drawing on the teaching of Pope Leo XIII, commended the "pious custom" of consecrating the nation to the Sacred Heart of Jesus as a way to recognize the kingship of Christ.

Devotion to the Sacred Heart, like the more recent devotion to the Divine Mercy, echoes the invitation that Jesus makes in the gospels to those who are "weary and heavily burdened" because of sin and hurt to turn to him for mercy, healing and restoration. Indeed, devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus and devotion to the Divine Mercy have one and the same message: namely, that humanity is good and is greatly loved by God, and God generously offers mercy to all.

St. John Paul II once said: "It is this love which must inspire humanity today, if it is to face the crisis of the meaning of life, the challenges of the most diverse needs and, especially, the duty to defend the dignity of every human person. (Column of Archbishop Thomas G. Wenski, 6/1/26)

Drawing inspiration from the words of our archbishop, I invite all of you to join in me in a Solemn Mass to the Sacred Heart this Friday, June 12 at 7:00 p.m. where we will also recite the prayer of consecration of our nation. The celebration of America's 250th birthday is a call to renew our steadfast commitment to the great ideals our nation was founded upon and to pray fervently for a prosperous and compassionate nation that we now entrust to the Sacred Heart of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on us!

DEL ESCRITORIO DEL PARROCO

Mis Queridos Amigos:

Junio es el mes del Sagrado Corazón, y este próximo viernes, 12 de junio, celebramos la Solemnidad del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús. Este año es aún más significativo porque los obispos de los Estados Unidos consagrarán a nuestra nación al Sagrado Corazón en previsión del semiquincuenniario de nuestro país el próximo mes. Permítanme compartir algunas palabras del arzobispo Wenski mientras nos acercamos a esta consagración:

El 11 de junio, durante su reunión de primavera en Orlando, los obispos de los Estados Unidos se reunirán en el Santuario Basílica de María, Reina del Universo, para consagrar a Estados Unidos al Sagrado Corazón de Jesús. La consagración celebrará el semi quince centenario de Estados Unidos, es decir, el doscientos cincuenta aniversario de la firma de la Declaración de Independencia.

Al vincular el 250º aniversario de la Declaración de Independencia con la devoción al Sagrado Corazón, los obispos nos invitan a reflexionar con gratitud sobre las bendiciones que Dios ha otorgado a nuestra nación, pero, al mismo tiempo, la devoción al Sagrado Corazón exige que consideremos cómo podríamos fomentar la verdad, la justicia y la caridad en la vida estadounidense. Así, nuestras celebraciones alrededor del 4 de julio fomentarán un patriotismo constructivo y visionario frente a un nacionalismo divisivo, excluyente y ciego...

En vísperas del 250 aniversario de nuestra nación, reconocemos que nuestro experimento estadounidense en democracia sigue siendo un trabajo en progreso. Como católicos estadounidenses, reconocemos lo lejos que está nuestra nación en muchos ámbitos en la formación de una unión más perfecta. Pero aunque reconocemos los defectos y trabajamos para corregirlos, también reconocemos las bendiciones de la libertad que disfrutamos en este gran país. A pesar de la extrema polarización, el amargo partidismo y las divisiones arraigadas, nosotros los católicos no desesperamos de América.

Amamos a América – pero amémosla como ama Jesús, no solo con un amor sentimental y empalagoso, sino con amor en verdad – un amor que es más fuerte que el pecado. Un amor que nombra el pecado no para condenar al pecador, sino para llamar al pecador a la conversión de corazón y mente.

Porque el amor que abrió los brazos sobre una cruz de madera y abrió su costado a la lanza de un soldado que atravesó su corazón es amor que cree que el pecador puede ser redimido.

Aunque precedió la independencia de nuestra nación, la devoción al Sagrado Corazón se ha desarrollado a lo largo de los siglos tras las experiencias de Santa Margarita María Alacoque (1643-1690) y las apariciones que presenció en el siglo XVII. Desde entonces, los papas han alabado la práctica de la consagración del yo, del hogar e incluso de naciones enteras al Sagrado Corazón. En su encíclica instituyendo la Solemnidad de Cristo Rey, el Papa Pío XI, basándose en la enseñanza del Papa León XIII, recomendó la "costumbre piadosa" de consagrar la nación al Sagrado Corazón de Jesús como forma de reconocer la realeza de Cristo.

La devoción al Sagrado Corazón, como la devoción más reciente a la Divina Misericordia, refleja la invitación que Jesús hace en los evangelios a quienes están "cansados y cargados de peso" por el pecado y el dolor a que se vuelvan hacia él en busca de misericordia, sanación y restauración. De hecho, la devoción al Sagrado Corazón de Jesús y la devoción a la Divina Misericordia tienen un mismo mensaje: es decir, que la humanidad es buena y es muy amada por Dios, y Dios ofrece generosamente misericordia a todos.

San Juan Pablo II dijo una vez: "Es este amor el que debe inspirar a la humanidad hoy, si se trata de afrontar la crisis del sentido de la vida, los desafíos de las necesidades más diversas y, especialmente, el deber de defender la dignidad de cada persona humana. (Columna del arzobispo Thomas G. Wenski, 1/6/26)

Inspirándoos en las palabras de nuestro arzobispo, os invito a todos a uniros a mí en una Misa Solemne al Sagrado Corazón este viernes 12 de junio a las 19:00 horas, donde también recitaremos la oración de consagración de nuestra nación. La celebración del 250º aniversario de Estados Unidos es un llamado a renovar nuestro firme compromiso con los grandes ideales sobre los que se fundó nuestra nación y a orar fervientemente por una nación próspera y compasiva que ahora confiamos al Sagrado Corazón de nuestro Señor Jesucristo.

*¡Sagrado Corazón de Jesús,
ten piedad de nosotros!*

Fr. Manny
